CITY OF MEXICO (via Galveston), June 18.—El Partido Liberal, says the financial condition of Guatemala is terrible; that the interior loan of that republic was emitted by order of President Barillas, but that his proceeding was illegal, as the congress should have ordered it and not the President.

El Partido, a weekly journal published in Guatemala, bitterly attacks what it terms the "ridiculous" financial policy of the Guatemalan government.

A private telegram from the city of Guatemala says there has been a general shaking up in the cabinet of President Barillas. The trouble in the old cabinet was occasioned by the fact that Barillas wanted to take the responsibility of running every department without consulting his secretaries. This resulted in a revolt, and the secretaries were fired. The new cabinet is now as follows: Minister of foreign relations and public works, De Leon; treasury, Aguilar; minister of war, President Barillas; minister of the interior and justice, Livella. And therefore those very points which we considered most favorable to our acquittal, proved so most strongly. What makes this trial so remarkable is that everything which the Socialdemokraten has published concerning the facts in the case has been entirely corroborated by the witnesses—and still the editor of the paper is sentenced to imprisonment for a time of three months!

Obsequies.

The funeral services over the remains of Father Richard Bowker, who died at the residence of his son-in-law Elder Lorenzo Pratt on June 7th, 1891, were held in the Eleventh Ward Chapel, June 11th. Consoling remarks were made by Bishop R. P. Barton, Elders Benjamin R. Haley, W. W. Riter, Joseph R. Pratt and President Joseph F. Taylor. Deceased was born January 5th, 1808, at Long Island, Queens County, New York. He was baptized in 1843, and came to Salt Lake City in 1851, and resided here until his death. He was attended in his last illness by his daughter Emma, who has cared for him for several years. The deceased has another daughter in Long Island. His wife died fifteen years ago in this city. At Hammond Hall.

The commencement exercises of the Salt Lake Academy took place last evening at Hammond Hall. There was a crowded and fashionable audience. The decorations were carried out on a lavish scale, and were greatly admired. Among those on the platform were most of the trustees of the institution, Governor Thomas, District Attorney Varian, Principal Benner and the graduating class. The overtures by Pratt, Radcliffe and Catelese, and the singing of the vocal class were greatly enjoyed. Joseph S. Brandon, in his oration on "A Free Government vs. Natural Resources," did full justice to the subject. Miss Nettie Norton spoke on "Ireland and Gladstone," Miss Reilly on the "Significance of Migration" and Theodore A. Penny of Weiser, Idaho, delivered the valedictory. His subject was "The Rise and Fall of the Elizabethan Literature, and the Cause."

Professor Benner presented the graduates with diplomas, stating that the past was already secure, so it was necessary to look out for the future. He advised the young people to give up part of every day to reading some useful work, and to avoid as much as possible reading romances. Governor Thomas followed with an appropriate address, and gave some good advice to the graduates. He dwelt upon the importance of home training.

The proceedings were of a very enjoyable character.
