what they receive, and we are opposed to the free coinage of silver except under international agreement.

Coming events even in elections may cast their shadows before but silver men will not readily see where the white metal can any figure in Vermont. Rather will they incline to the opinion that it was the St. Louis platform that was voted down last week. Concerning the superstition, "As goes Vermont, so goes the nation," it need only be said that New England States are not infallible political precursors. In 1860 the rest of the country shattered the hopes of bright prospects Maine held aloft for the fortunes of Hannibal and English and twelve years later the same state failed Blaine unanimously in setting the pace of the presidential campaign which resulted in Cleveland's election by a overwhelming majority.

Political Pointers.

Judge Powers will decide his time to a matter case at Ogden this week.

Judge W. H. King or Hon. David Evans for Congress on the Democratic ticket—which of the two will it be?

Hon. H. C. Chambers has returned from California. He says Bryan will carry the Golden Gate state.

Salt Lake county Democratic headquarters have been opened on State street, midway between Second and Third South.

Nephi Times: This city did not get the Republican State convention. It was a case of your come to just not wanted and nothing for you now.

George L. Nye is almost certain of the nomination on the Republican ticket. On the Democratic side Judge W. Burton seems to be on the inside.

Logan Republican: If the Bryan Republicans have a just grievance it ought to be adjusted, if their scheme is to obliterate the Republican party, it will fail.

Spencer Clawson is spoken of as a Republican nominee for sheriffs to run with a Democrat such as Francis Armstrong or a Populist like Henry W. Lawrence.

Nephi Republic: It is a bad position for the Republican party to be in Utah today. Two conventions, two tickets, and the devil knows what, how and when it will end.

"Utah county will go Democratic this fall," said Editor Cluff of the Provo Enquirer yesterday, "but McKinley and the Republican ticket will get a big vote just the same."

Judge Burton is temporarily in charge of Democratic state headquarters. He will hold the honor down until the end of the week on the return of Judge Powers from the Junction city.

Logan Journal: Breckinridge of Kentucky agrees with the Provo Enquirer that Bryan should be defeated. The gold bugs gave Brock a great ovation in their rump convention Wednesday.

Geography plays many important parts in politics. "This year," said a prominent silverite last evening, "it will prevent C. C. Richards from going to the United States Senate. Ogden cannot be honored with both of these offices."

Eureka Democrat: The Democrats of Eureka will shortly open the campaign with a hummer of a ratification meeting of Bryan, Sewell and silver. If Judge Powers can spare the time, he will be invited to open the ball in Tooele county for Democracy and silver.

Provo Enquirer: Utah county Democrats might well have the congressman this year, but they is entitled to a person to represent the people of Utah. Not having such a man, the support of the county ought to be given Judge W. H. King for the position. He is a clean, moral young man, well educated, and would do credit to the State as its representative in Congress.

The State Democratic committee has appointed by Chairman Powers is as follows: Richard Mackintosh, J. W. Burton, F. H. Fernstrom, O. W. Moyle, Francis Armstrong, Benjamin A. Harrison, Thomas D. Dee, C. C. Richards, John Tyler, A. D. Gash, Sam A. King, Solon Spiro, Mrs. Eurotha L. Hartley, Mrs. Margaret Caine, Mrs. Mattie Hughes Cannon.

Utah State Journal: The Standard, now a Democratic paper, is evidently chagrined because the Republicans are determined to make the fight in Utah this year on they have on the platform, for the same party principle which they have always advocated and to which they have won their victories—free silver, protection and reciprocity—instead of supporting the Democracy in local and state politics.

Ogden Standard: Congressman Allen's argument, refuting the statement of Manager Schwartz, of the Steady Smelting plant that tariff can, under the present monetary stringency, be effectual in regulating the prices of American manufactured articles, will make the basis of a good Democratic campaign document. Want no pointed out that the price of Mexican lead in the London market was 2½ cents a pound and the Wilson-Gorman tariff imposed a duty of 1 cent a pound, and yet American lead was selling for less than three cents a pound, so there protection, like physics, is the dope. He might have gone further and called attention to the steel rails we are shipping to Japan in competition with the world, the locomotives we are making for Russia, the wire nails we send to Germany, in wholesale and toy tank in retail, of the fall in price in wool under the McKinley bill, when at one time it sold for less price than the tariff amounted to, and so on through a long list of manufactured goods, which have gone down in price, tariff or no tariff.

KILLED AT BINGHAM

Salt Lake Man Thrown From His Wagon With Fatal Results.

THE VICTIM IS JOSEPH CROSBY.

Fractured Beneath the Wheels Which He is Pushed for Fifty Feet and Has His Head Crushed.

Special to the News.

BINGHAM, Sept. 7.—Joseph Crosby of Salt Lake was killed here this evening by being thrown from his wagon and run over. He was engaged in hauling ore from the New Discovery mine to the sampling works when his wagon jolted into a shock hole with a good deal of force. Crosby went out over the front end gate, down into the double trees and under the feet of one of the horses which immediately commenced to kick. The wagon was soon drawn against his body and he vainly endeavored to extricate himself from his perilous position. Gradually the wheels crowded harder and harder, upon him and finally he was absolutely pinioned beneath them with the result that his head was crushed and he was killed almost instantly. His body was pushed along the ground for a distance of fifty feet by the wagon. The wagon had about two tons of ore on at the time.

Crosby was thirty-six years of age, the father of five children, the keeper of a curio store on West Temple street in Salt Lake and a brother-in-law of C. E. Johnson of the Johnson-Pratt Drug company. The latter has been notified of the sad affair and will make arrangements for taking the body home.

The deceased was the son of the late Jesse W. Crosby, and his respected mother lives at St. George for advanced in years. He has other relatives in southern Utah, among them being Jesse W. Crosby Jr., who resides at Panguitch. The dead man's remains were brought home during the night arriving here about 2 o'clock. They were taken direct to Joseph William Taylor's undertaking establishment on West Temple street from where the funeral will be held.

YESTERDAY'S CEREMONIES.

Friends Pay Their Last Respects to the Late F. H. Auerbach.

Private Ceremonies at the Residence of Mrs. Meyer—Public Services at the Jewish Synagogue.

The last sad offices of man to a departed brother were performed by friends and relatives yesterday over the remains of the late Frederick H. Auerbach. One of the largest funerals seen in this city for a long time marked the last hours to one whose private and business life is pointed to for emulation by those of his fellows remaining behind.

Private services were held at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Rosa G. Meyer, the house being filled with relatives and near friends.

At 10:30 o'clock, according to previous arrangement, the pallbearers met at the Jewish synagogue and it was but a few minutes after the doors were thrown open when the house was completely filled. Among the audience were members of the City Council, Chamber of Commerce, Johners' association, leading mercantile houses of the city, and a representative body of the city. There was also a body of members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, a number of whom occupied seats on the stand. The casket was carried into the auditorium and placed in front of the stand by Thomas H. Aitken, Henry Wallace, Alexander Brown, L. R. Moore, H. Fetcher, Albert Grange, C. L. Derry and Harry Symons. The relatives occupied seats in front of the casket.

Grand Master Hockle of the I. O. O. F. opened the services according to the ritual of the order, and Grand Chaplain R. F. Clay offered a scripture reading and prayer. At the conclusion of the chaplain's prayer, Hon. Thomas Marshal made the following address:

My Friends: I cannot refrain from paying a last sad tribute to Frederick H. Auerbach. I am not here to weep with those who weep, for that is unnecessary, but to briefly express and give voice to the public thought and sentiment of one who for over thirty years was with him in the midst, and who in his prime and unassuming life has left a model after which all men might shape their lives and actions.

With a charity as broad as the universe, a kindness of heart and mind which knew no sect or creed, his sympathies and aid were at all times at the service of the poor and deserving, and none sued ever applied in vain for assistance to his liberal and generous purse.

In his death our young State and our beautiful city have lost their most exemplary citizen, one whose so light, clear and unerring judgment guided them in the last consultation of their minds, and whose willing energies were devoted to the advancement of all enterprises which tended to lead to immense communities great, prosperous and happy.

For thirty years I have known Mr. Auerbach intimately, not only as his fellow citizen, but as his personal friend, and during these years I have never heard a word from a person of any sentiment or thought unworthy of the grandest, noblest humanity.

His thoughtfulness and considerations of others, his brotherly love for those of a kindred that needed his help, his sinny for their comfort and welfare was marked and stamped his life with the full true breadth of a perfect manhood; and most leave with his brothers and sisters some solace in the memory of that noble mind.

For myself I cannot find language in which to express my feelings over my dead friend. For thirty years the most sacred relation of life I have known him more intimately than I have known any other man in this city; his thoughts, plans, hopes and fears have been laid bare to me, and throughout all these years I have found nothing about the man but what was worthy of imitation and admiration.

Farewell, Fred Auerbach! A long and last farewell! May your immortal destiny in that other life be surrounded with the joys of a heavenly existence, and furnish in eternity a just and adequate reward for your acts and benevolence on earth, and may every heart of Israel there over the dead and all the Western sands a gentle requiem over your grave.

The grave chaplain offered a benediction at the close of the eloquent remarks of Mr. Marshal and then the remains were viewed by the family and friends for the last time.

Immediately the pallbearers to the cemetery was formed and consisted of the local lodges of Odd Fellows, business men and employees of the deceased, the latter wearing each an emblem of mourning. At the grave in the Jewish cemetery the services were conducted under the ritual of the order to which he belonged and emphasized by a prayer from Rabbi Kaiser. The floral offerings piled upon the casket during the ceremonies were many and very beautiful and witnessed the grief of those left to mourn the departure of a relative and friend.

At a meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union held this afternoon the following was unanimously adopted:

God in His providence has removed by death Mr. Frederick H. Auerbach, a worthy and prominent citizen, a generous friend and helper of our Union, therefore be it resolved:

That, while we bow in humble submission to the will of Almighty God, we extend the sincere condolence of our hearts to the sudden termination of a life so full of good deeds.

That we lose in him a personal friend has been taken from our midst.

That we remember with gratitude the kindness of him whose heart was always open to our appeals and whose hand was ever ready with generous help.

That we extend to the relatives and friends our deepest sympathy in this time of great affliction, praying for God's comforting presence with them.

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the relatives of the deceased, and to the daily papers and the Church Review for publication.

Harriet S. Kimball Dead.

LAKEWOOD, Rich county, Utah, Sept. 5.—Mrs. Harriet S. Kimball, widow of the late President Heber C. Kimball, died at 7 a. m. today at her home in Meadowville, Rich county, Utah. JOSEPH IRWIN.

Grapes Without Irrigation.

Some samples of fine grapes grown on a vineyard owned by President Angus M. Cannon near the Point of the Mountain, in the southern part of the county, were shown at the NEWS office today. The vineyard is on the Cannon ranch considerably above any irrigation ditch and the plants show what can be done in grape growing without the application of water to the soil by artificial means. What has been accomplished by Mr. Cannon can certainly be done by others under the same persistent effort.

From the Sandwich Islands.

Elder Thomas Brimley of the Fifth Ward, this city, gave the NEWS a pleasant call this afternoon on his return from a mission to the Sandwich Islands. Elder Brimley left his home for the mission field August 12, 1896, and while absent has labored on all of the islands of the Hawaiian group. The missionaries while laboring among the Kanakas, receive very hospitable treatment and one with much success in disseminating the principles of the Gospel. There are now on the islands fifteen Elders and four sisters from Utah, all of whom are laboring unceasingly for the promulgation of the principles of life and salvation. The Mormons have no opposition to contend with in this land and many of the native have allied themselves with the Church of Christ. Elder Brimley returns home in good health and spirits, and while he has highly enjoyed his labors while away, he is pleased to feel himself once more in the peaceful valleys of the Rocky mountains.

Miss Snyder's Recital.

Preparations are going on apace for Miss Lily Snyder's farewell recital, which will be given in the Grand Opera House on Monday evening, the 14th inst., instead of on Tuesday, the 15th. Indications point to an enthusiastic reception for the young artist.

Can't Eat

This is the complaint of thousands. They have no appetite; food does not relish. They need the tonic to rouse the stomach and digestive organs, which is a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla will give them. It also purifies and enriches the blood, cures that distress after eating and internal misery, cuts a drowsy condition, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling and builds up and sustains the whole physical system. It so promptly and efficiently relieves dyspeptic symptoms and cures nervous headaches, that it seems to have almost "a magic touch."

The wife and children of Deputy Sheriff Gibbs have gone on a visit to the lady's sister in Great Falls, Montana.

Many applications for clemency are in the hands of the board of pardons, which will meet a week from next Saturday.

August Jensen, aged 31, and Maria C. Mikkelsen, 28, and both residing in Farmington, were today given a license to wed.

Charles Pate of Mill Creek was before Justice Harvey today on a charge of assault. The complainant was his wife, Mary. She says that her husband, some time in July last, beat her to such an extent as to dislocate her left shoulder. The defendant is an old man and performs blacksmith work. He was discharged yesterday and was released on his own recognizance.

Commissioner Geddes yesterday evening sent the old man discharged from the city jail on Saturday, with an injured eye, to St. Mark's hospital. The poor old fellow was in terrible agony from the fearful condition of his eye and said he would seek relief in some way if he could not at St. Mark's. Geddes says the eye was in a terrible state and looked as if the sight would be entirely destroyed. He will receive the attention at the hospital which the last authorities should have accorded before he was discharged.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Romantic Irish play, Mavourneen, with the clevernest and sweetest-voiced Irish comedian on the American stage, Chauncey Olcott, in the star part, will be the attraction at the Salt Lake Theater on Tuesday evening, September 15th. Manager Pixley has surrounded Mr. Olcott with a supporting company of unusual excellence, every part in the piece being in the hands of a capable and experienced player. Two episodes of scenery are required in the presentation of the play and the production calls for a number of magnificent stage pictures unequaled in Irish drama. Harty's Club House, the Irish House of Parliament, Trinity College and many other historic spots are represented with amazing fidelity to the original. Mavourneen is a delightful intellectual treat, as well as a delightful evening's entertainment.

Friday night the Irish Artist will be given, and the engagement will close Saturday night with the presentation of the Minstrel of Innisfail.

Hymeneal.

On Sept. 5, 1896, in Ogden, Bishop E. M. Wade pronounced the words which united in matrimony William N. Gale and Evangeline Rhodes. The groom is the oldest son of Robert and Rachel Gale of Uintah, who came from England in 1863; the bride, who also lived in Uintah, is the widow of N. F. Stoddard. The many friends of the high contracting parties, among whom the NEWS is happy to be numbered, join in hearty good wishes for the welfare and happiness of the wedded pair.

MINOR MENTION.

A farewell missionary entertainment will be given in the Tenth ward meeting house tomorrow evening in honor of Elder Albert E. Bray who will shortly depart for the Southern States.

The first girl in a family of six made her debut at the home of Walter J. Lewis of the Sixteenth ward this morning. The little lady is so bright as the silver dollars the people of the West would like to see coined without limit. She weighs ten pounds and a half and is growing apace, all parties continuing the happiness she has brought to the Lewis household.

NEWS OF THE MINES.

Mr. Lewis M. Cannon, Secretary of the Wonder Gold Mining company, has just returned from Mercur, the American Johannesburg, after a week's stay in that promising and productive mining district. The gentleman's visit to the camp was one of business and was taken principally in the interest of the company with which he is connected.

The properties of the Wonder company adjoin the great Golden Gate mine, one of which so much valuable ore has already been taken with scarcely a commencement of its extraction. The company owns the Golden Gate extension, Wonder No. 1, No. 2, Nantic Side, Old Grover, and a fraction of the Navigator, all of which cover about seventy acres of ground, and are being developed quietly and persistently developed.

The shaft on the Wonder claim has now attained a depth of about 40 feet, and work is being pushed down, with the hope in view that the ore body of the district will be encountered near the 200 mark. If not tapped at this depth, the work will still be carried on until the splendid ore vein which made the Golden Gate famous, will have been uncovered and opened up on the properties of the Wonder company.

THREE DISTINCT GOLD VEINS.

It has been recently demonstrated that there are three distinct gold veins in the Mercur district, viz., the Mercur vein, the Sacramento vein which underlies the Mercur, and a new vein which lies over the silver vein now being worked by the Marion company. This will be the fourth vein in the district—here gold and one silver—the Wonder people, as well as all others owning ground in Mercur, can rest assured of finding something if they will but take the pains to dig and search for it.

THE CANNON GROUP.

The Cannon group of claims, now being worked under a bond and lease, are holding their own in the matter of ore. The miners are into large bodies of ore which, although low-grade at present, gives every promise of taking on a richer assay as the work progresses and hidden recesses are explored.

NO STRIKE AT ALL.

Some time ago a strike of exceeding rare proportions was reported in the News. It now transpires that the report was given out (rather prematurely, as investigation has proved) that no strike had been made at all, but that the which gave such flattering indications was but a scale from the hanging wall, and not the opening up of a new ore body. The Hecla gives every indication, however, of coming to the front very soon, as the development work is now into a strata of grey lime, similar to that which overlying the ore body in the Golden Gate.

POSITION TO BUILD MILLS.

There are now many properties in the Mercur district, that are in a position to warrant the erection of mills. The Gold Dust, the Brisky and the Hillside are among these properties, while Runnelson furnishes the Overland and Red Cloud, both of which would afford to erect mills alone, as the ore bodies in sight would warrant such a movement. The Overland has been wrestling with this proposition for some time and inside of sixty days it need not be a surprise to see such a structure commence on this property.

TRADING ON 'CHANGE.

Northern Light and North Eureka Encounter Sales in the Pit.

The mined stocks fared badly at today's call on 'change, not a transfer being recorded among them. The quotations, however, were fairly strong and gave every indication of the steady improvement of the market. Northern Light and North Eureka caused dealings among the unlisted stocks, the former contributing 1,000 shares to the day's business and the latter 1,000 shares.

Two Destructive Fires.

The fire department was called out shortly after ten this morning to a point on Seventh East between Second and Third South streets, where some miscellaneous bars had set fire to a load of hay belonging to H. J. Anderson and being enroute to Fort Douglas. The hay was wholly destroyed but the wagon upon which it stood was saved through the speedy and effective action of the fire laddies.

About 8 o'clock last evening the large barn belonging to George Crismon situated at the rear of the pentitentiary was totally destroyed by fire. The barn has a 200 horse capacity but fortunately it contained no stock or hay at the time of the conflagration. Owing to the remote location of the building the fire department did not respond to the call. It is not known how the fire originated.

Police Court.

Justice Wenger had a big batch of offenders before him today, most of them, however, charged with petty offenses. Susan Tullidge was fined $25 for disturbing the peace, while simple Ed Metts was fined $10 and costs of using abusive language and fined $20. Maggie Wilson, against whom stands a charge of robbery, will have a hearing on Thursday next at 10 o'clock, and John Hart will attempt to disprove a vagrancy charge on Friday at 10 o'clock.

Two Fallen Girls.

Carrie Taylor and Amanda Peterson, two girls who say their ages are 19 years, but whose appearances indicate that they are much younger, were fined $10 each today before Justice Wenger for prostitution. The girls wept bitterly while having a hearing, they having pleaded not guilty, but the testimony adduced showed that they were not pursuing a very moral life to say the least. They are in subjects for Mrs. Paddock's Home For The Friendless.

A Campaign Document.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Senator Carter, chairman Republican national committee, was among the callers at Republican national headquarters today. He has written a letter, which will be read before the Minnesota Republican convention tomorrow, in which he urges the convention to endorse the St. Louis platform and states that only the Republican party will restore prosperity to the country. The letter is to be used as a campaign document.

STOCKS AND BANKS.

New York Stock Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The resumption of trading in stocks after the holiday was attended by a decidedly weak market, the depression being most apparent in the Trusts. Lead-ing values were commonly the cause for weakness. Many issues lost 1½ to 2 points, and the list lagged in sympathy.

Sugar was exceptional to this, with subsequent recovery to 97½.

London offered moderate amounts of stocks this morning.

Miscellaneous bonds were engrossed, but the general list was dull and heavy, with sellers with clear values remaining numerous throughout.

BATTLE.—On Monday, Sept. 7th, Nephi Lewis, the son of Nephi and Ann Lewis, died of hypertrophy of the heart, after a long and hopeless illness, passed from the effects of a severe cold. He was a bright and promising child, and the parents are very much grieved at his death and feel that the Lord gave, and the Lord has taken.

The interment will take place from the family residence, commencing next at 2 o'clock, at 19 West Jordan. Friends are invited to attend.

NOT A SICK DAY

For Over Thirty Years!

RESULT OF USING

AYER'S PILLS

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills for over thirty years have kept me in good health, never having had a sick day in all that time. Before I was twenty I suffered almost continually—as a result of constipation—from dyspepsia, headaches, neuralgia, or boils and other eruptive diseases. When I became convinced that nine-tenths of my troubles were caused by constipation, I began the use of Ayer's Pills, with the result that my trouble, never having a single attack that did not readily yield to this remedy. My wife, who had been so troubled for years, also began to use Ayer's Pills, and her health was quickly restored. With my children I had so found that nearly all their ailments were preceded by constipation. I felt I had the pleasure of knowing that with children as with parents, Ayer's Pills, if taken in season, avert all danger of sickness."—H. WETTERSTEN, Byron, Ill.

Syrup of Figs

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before the use of the forty-gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
