OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN.

Sunday Burglars Caught—City Council—Consul Business—News in Brief.

Special Correspondence.

Ogden, June 25.—Saturday night the police arrested a boy who was accused of having stolen clothing from a store. At Early Saturday morning they were asked to look for a man to await the arrival of an officer in charge of the new suits with which they were labeled. Marshal Roberts arrived here yesterday afternoon and identified the new and the boys clothing, and thinking that was had by the police junior he took it on to Salt Lake.

OGDEN CITY COUNCIL.

The Council met but adjourned at 8:30 o'clock with all the members present.

Jog Tax Collector Hunter reported he turned into the treasury for street tax dogs and one female dog. He was allowed his fee of $1 for each.

Chief of Police Davenport produced John A. Hutchins as special police at Five Points Park, who was asked to be promptly confirmed. He will serve one month for $25.

D. H. Knapp and Fortunato Allen asked that the council open and grade Thirty-third street from Washington to Adams. Referred to the street committee.

W. S. Wilkinson, president, and Jesse Fuller, secretary of the Ogden Ministerial association, requested the council to be fair, and especially the officers to continue to enforce the force of the ordinance against Sunday baseball games. Filed.

A. M. Parker and Harry Iverson asked for the electric lights on west Twenty-fourth street, west of Wilson avenue. Referred to the street committee.

The trustees of the Water Co. combined the council not to permit any influence with the city officers in the fact for his purpose. On motion of Councilman Wolcott, the recorder was instructed to write to the city engineer in Paving District No. 2 to settling the account and for the fire street and avenue crossings, to aid in surfacing the curves cars.

Councilman Collins introduced the baseball ordinance, which passed the first and second reading, and was, under suspension of the rules, taken up on third reading and adopted. Those voting for the ordinance which permitted ball were: Messrs. Collins, Jones, Shaw, Wilkinson, Wolcott, Mayor Glasmann, Pingree, Wesley, Warren. The ordinance forbidding ball games is still in force. Those voting for the "Wagner and Wolcott made good speeches against ball playing.

The city engineer reported that all water and sewer connections had been made in District No. 3 save two. He asked for a special meeting of the council to consult the attorney and propose to put in the connections and submit an order to the contractors and submit an order to the contractors and submit an order to the council authorized for our work.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The board met in regular session yesterday at which time a bill for $1,000 was allowed, and transacted the following business:

John Wunderlich appeared before the board and made a statement relative to the bridge over the Hooper canal in the Ogden River road. Mr. Wunderlich's statement was accepted by the board.

Commissioner Smith reported that he had investigated the matter of opening a certain road in Liberty, but found that it had to be petitioned and had instructed the road supervisor to commence the necessary work upon the same.

William G. Wilson applied for and was granted a license to sell liquors, in his retail, at the Ogden Hotel, in the county. The application was accompanied by a bond in the sum of $1,000, with Fannie E. Barker and Chris Pingree as sureties. The cute was taken up for some time, payable quarterly, invariably advance.

In accordance with law, the services of J. J. Hudson and Joseph Porter from two inspectors were ordered discussed with at June 30th.

The report of Deputy County Surveyor A. F. Parker relative to the preliminary survey of the proposed road in Riverdale was approved and ordered filed for future reference.

The board ordered an appropriation of $1 to be paid to Sheriff Fisher for expenses of Edwin Bain, who recently died, having a dependent widow and child.

Outlines of the county attorney relative to the bond and gate-warden matter, the Ogden Tunnel Company, property which caused assessment to 10% and the liability of the residents of the Ogden Tunnel Company, cost of drainage to the county, road from broken pipes, were ordered filed.

On motion of Commissioner Smith the statement of County Recorder Hindmarsh showing the fees received as recorder of deeds, which was ordered sent to a resolution of the board of county commissioners, was referred back to the affixing of the proper officers thereto.

The following claims were allowed, and ordered paid: W. G. Wilson, fees to superintendent, salary for June, 1899, and expenses, $45; H. C. Wardleigh, one of jury for one day, $2; witness fees, $1; Eli Bakley, $1; E. Th. Jolly, for services allowed and ordered paid out of the county treasury.

KINDERGARTEN ASSOCIATION.

The Free Kindergarten association held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Chas. Pingree, Jefferson avenue and elected officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. William Driver was re-elected president, Mrs. Pingree, vice president, Mrs. Kate Hilliard, second vice president, Mrs. Marie Richards, recording secretary, Mrs. Wm. Dickson, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mary Heller, treasurer. On the executive board, Mrs. Jessie E. Nelson.

There was a good attendance of the members and the meeting was unanimous. The action demanded work for the coming of our free kindergarten school in the fall.

"Jubilee." J. Weber was a northbound passenger on the Rio Grande Western yesterday morning destined for "Little Chicago," as it is thus called Midvale. It is not true that he has gone after chemicals or anything else to make a sample of the rich gold station in which he is interested.

It is stated that two games of base ball will be played in the Ogden Twenty-Four promoter July 4th, both of which will be umpired by James J. Pechin, of Salt Lake.

The sausage in Ogden were being broken up last Saturday night and wended their way in and out of the back door.

The sheriff's office was notified from Salt Lake yesterday to lookout for two horses which had been stolen from Grantsville, one a sorrel with a white 50 and branded O-7, combined on the rump, and one a bay, branded Lazy-Y-Y on the left thigh and left ear clip off in the line.

Secretary James A. Wright of the State board of horticulture was in the southbound passenger yesterday morning. In company with the other members of the board he had been called to Ogden to attend for the location of the experimental horticultural farm.

Prisoners working a chain gang on the road near Ogden escaped from the sheriff's office in Salt Lake yesterday afternoon. Two of the men were brought here to fulfill a Church mission in New Zealand.

Yesterday afternoon a number of logs were unloaded from the Bear River and carried into the Southern Pacific.

The Cache valley train, which was put on yesterday morning, left Ogden at 8:15 a.m. for the north, and returns the arrival at 5:35 p. m., and leaves Ogden for Salt Lake at 5:40 p. m. arriving there at 7:30 p. m.

A thousand of soldiers for the Philippines came in from the north last night, as we write, over the Southern Pacific. On account of a train being forced to lay on the Northern Pacific, the soldiers were sent this way to San Francisco.

The Park City and Ogden baseball club left Ogden yesterday morning for Salt Lake to play the game at the Division Park club Saturday.

The Second ward fire, which given place yesterday, being very extensive and powerful, will run this evening to the Boys Club in Washington avenue.

The 10 B. I. A. will give a strawberry festival and dance at the Third ward educational institute Thursday evening.

Judge Bolger and Stenographer Hayes went to Farmington yesterday to hold court.

The main roller was at work on Twenty-fourth street yesterday morning. Work has progressed and parties a foundation for the new curb.

Two foot feet and rolling work on Wilson avenue, between Twenty-fourth street, possibly more than a mile, have been passed. Twenty-fifth street, from Washington avenue to Adams, Referred to the street committee.

W. S. Wilkinson, president, and Jesse Fuller, secretary of the Ogden Ministerial association, requested the council to be fairly, and especially the officers to continue to enforce the force of the ordinance against Sunday baseball games. Filed.

A. M. Parker and Harry Iverson asked for the electric lights on west Twenty-fourth street, west of Wilson avenue. Referred to the street committee.

The trustees of the Water Co. combined the council not to permit any influence with the city officers in the fact for his purpose. On motion of Commissioner Wolcott, the recorder was instructed to write to the city engineer in Paving District No. 2 to settling the account and for the fire street and avenue crossings, to aid in surfacing the curves cars.

Councilman Collins introduced the baseball ordinance, which passed the first and second reading, and was, under suspension of the rules, taken up on third reading and adopted. Those voting for the ordinance which permitted ball were: Messrs. Collins, Jones, Shaw, Wilkinson, Wolcott, Mayor Glasmann, Pingree, Wesley, Warren. The ordinance forbidding ball games is still in force. Those voting for the "Wagner and Wolcott made good speeches against ball playing.

The city engineer reported that all water and sewer connections had been made in District No. 3 save two. He asked for a special meeting of the council to consult the attorney and propose to put in the connections and submit an order to the contractors and submit an order authorized for our work.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The board met in regular session yesterday at which time a bill for $1,000 was allowed, and transacted the following business:

John Wunderlich appeared before the board and made a statement relative to the bridge over the Hooper canal in the Ogden River road. Mr. Wunderlich's statement was accepted by the board.

Commissioner Smith reported that he had investigated the matter of opening a certain road in Liberty, but found that it had to be petitioned and had instructed the road supervisor to commence the necessary work upon the same.

William G. Wilson applied for and was granted a license to sell liquors, in his retail, at the Ogden Hotel, in the county. The application was accompanied by a bond in the sum of $1,000, with Fannie E. Barker and Chris Pingree as sureties. The cute was taken up for some time, payable quarterly, invariably advance.

In accordance with law, the services of J. J. Hudson and Joseph Porter from two inspectors were ordered discussed with at June 30th.

The report of Deputy County Surveyor A. F. Parker relative to the preliminary survey of the proposed road in Riverdale was approved and ordered filed for future reference.

The board ordered an appropriation of $1 to be paid to Sheriff Fisher for expenses of Edwin Bain, who recently died, having a dependent widow and child.

Outlines of the county attorney relative to the bond and gate-warden matter, the Ogden Tunnel Company, property which caused assessment to 10% and the liability of the residents of the Ogden Tunnel Company, cost of drainage to the county, road from broken pipes, were ordered filed.

On motion of Commissioner Smith the statement of County Recorder Hindmarsh showing the fees received as recorder of deeds, which was ordered sent to a resolution of the board of county commissioners, was referred back to the affixing of the proper officers thereto.

The following claims were allowed, and ordered paid: W. G. Wilson, fees to superintendent, salary for June, 1899, and expenses, $45; H. C. Wardleigh, one of jury for one day, $2; witness fees, $1; Eli Bakley, $1; E. Th. Jolly, for services allowed and ordered paid out of the county treasury.

KINDERGARTEN ASSOCIATION.

The Free Kindergarten association held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Chas. Pingree, Jefferson avenue and elected officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. William Driver was re-elected president, Mrs. Pingree, vice president, Mrs. Kate Hilliard, second vice president, Mrs. Marie Richards, recording secretary, Mrs. Wm. Dickson, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mary Heller, treasurer. On the executive board, Mrs. Jessie E. Nelson.

There was a good attendance of the members and the meeting was unanimous. The action demanded work for the coming of our free kindergarten school in the fall.

"Jubilee." J. Weber was a northbound passenger on the Rio Grande Western yesterday morning destined for "Little Chicago," as it is thus called Midvale. It is not true that he has gone after chemicals or anything else to make a sample of the rich gold station in which he is interested.

It is stated that two games of base ball will be played in the Ogden Twenty-Four promoter July 4th, both of which will be umpired by James J. Pechin, of Salt Lake.

The sausage in Ogden were being broken up last Saturday night and wended their way in and out of the back door.

The sheriff's office was notified from Salt Lake yesterday to lookout for two horses which had been stolen from Grantsville, one a sorrel with a white 50 and branded O-7, combined on the rump, and one a bay, branded Lazy-Y-Y on the left thigh and left ear clip off in the line.

Secretary James A. Wright of the State board of horticulture was in the southbound passenger yesterday morning. In company with the other members of the board he had been called to Ogden to attend for the location of the experimental horticultural farm.

Prisoners working a chain gang on the road near Ogden escaped from the sheriff's office in Salt Lake yesterday afternoon. Two of the men were brought here to fulfill a Church mission in New Zealand.

Yesterday afternoon a number of logs were unloaded from the Bear River and carried into the Southern Pacific.

The Cache valley train, which was put on yesterday morning, left Ogden at 8:15 a.m. for the north, and returns the arrival at 5:35 p. m., and leaves Ogden for Salt Lake at 5:40 p. m. arriving there at 7:30 p. m.

A thousand of soldiers for the Philippines came in from the north last night, as we write, over the Southern Pacific. On account of a train being forced to lay on the Northern Pacific, the soldiers were sent this way to San Francisco.

The Park City and Ogden baseball club left Ogden yesterday morning for Salt Lake to play the game at the Division Park club Saturday.

The Second ward fire, which given place yesterday