

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, February 7, 1894.

FRAGMENTS.

There will be a special meeting of the members of the Press club at their rooms at eight o'clock this evening.

There was a well attended meeting of the Central Democratic club in the Washburn building last night. The meeting was held for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year.

There was a well attended meeting of the Utah University delivered an interesting and very interesting lecture on the history of the University of Utah.

The School Trustees' association of Salt Lake county will meet at the University building on Thursday, February 7th, at one o'clock p. m.

Wonderland.

As announced, an entire change in program occurs at this resort tomorrow. "Maxey," the man who has created a sensation by his performance of selling needles and producing them, will remain another week.

A clever and interesting performance will be given on the stage and in the auditorium. The Irish comedy drama, "Randy Andy."

Very Small Fry.

The county court did not have anything to say about the Lippman records at its session yesterday afternoon, and the only business done was the making of a request upon Oliver Reed, to send in an estimate as to the cost of a new survey "cage" for the county jail.

MURRAY THEATRICAL NOTES.

The Salt Lake Stock company present the Black Flag in the New Opera House.

The Salt Lake Stock company presented the Black Flag at the Murray Opera house last night to a large audience and the frequent applause testified to the satisfaction they gave.

The stock company have started out to make a record of a number of new on the floor of the railroad, as for north as Logan and to Panguitch, and give the people at the same time an entertainment as nearly equal to those given in the Salt Lake Theatre as the convenience of the audience will allow. As one of the members of the company said last evening, they are not traveling for the benefit of their health, but for the benefit of the people of the territory, who have been improved in several particulars since the performance given on the opening night, the first seats having been taken and some new money added.

Last evening's evening the Murray House Dramatic club gave the first performance in the hall, presenting the comedy of An American Cousin in a very creditable manner to a good house.

Through the courtesy of Messrs. Cannon & Haynes, the members of Murray will be given an entertainment in the new opera house on Thursday.

In the Land Office.

A contest has been fought in the land office by Lars Nielsen against the Central Pacific Railroad company. Nielsen alleges that he was in possession of the land October 20, 1893, when the Union Pacific was definitely established. He says that this is the land he owns, and that the case is set for hearing March 20, 1894.

Marie Larsen of Spring City filed suit for a permanent injunction to restrain the Central Pacific Railroad from taking any more land in section 18, township 18 north of range 11 west.

On C. Olson of Mayfield, Blaine county, filed suit for a permanent injunction to restrain the Central Pacific Railroad from taking any more land in section 18, township 18 north of range 11 west.

Henry H. Reid of Orangeville, Blaine county, filed an application for a decree of divorce in section 14, township 14 north of range 7 east.

In the European Mission.

Arrival—Elder August Jorgensen, of Helsinki, Utah, arrived per Oceanic steamer Ulster, Monday, January 7, 1894. He was appointed to labor in the Scandinavian mission.

Departure and Appointment—Elder P. H. Haugh is released from his labor in the Scandinavian mission, and is appointed to labor in the Birmingham conference.

Elder C. E. Carroll has been honorably released owing to ill health, and returned home December 10, 1893.

Convincing.

We learn from a letter received by Mr. A. F. Fisher, that Mr. John N. Neale, of New York, has been quite seriously ill with a complication of intestinal troubles. Mr. Neale, by reason of his frequent visits to this territory during the past quarter of a century, as the representative of Mr. John N. Neale & Co., has many warm personal and close business friends here, and they will all be pleased to learn that the crisis in his illness has been passed and that his physicians pronounce him out of danger.
