12 PAGES.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

5 O'clock -EDITION.-

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

No. 78. SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1895, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXVIII.

KILLED IN A WRECK.

Terrible Railroad Accident Near Greenville, Miss.

CONDUCTOR COATHES ON FIRE.

Inward Bound Express Left—The Passenger Cars Jump the Track.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 22.—A terrible wreck is reported on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, about 40 miles south of Montgomery. It was the Mobile Gulf train, and many persons are reported injured. A special has left here at noon for the spot, with all the available physicians in the city.

Tight coaches were overturned, and they were filled with passengers bound for the Mardi Gras at New Orleans. The station at Greenville caught fire and was burning.

Senator Pettigrew's private secretary and his stenographer were injured, and the stenographer was fatally injured by scalding.

The wreck occurred on the Mobile and Montgomery division of the L. and N. at Greenville. Although it is reported that many passengers were killed, and Dispatch station at the depot was set on fire, it is difficult to secure accurate information.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 23.—The first news from the L. and N. disaster was received here at 2:30 morning, when a special arrived at the Louisville station of the road, with the exception of the private car of Mr. Lowell, wife of a prominent stockholder of the road, and party on the way to the Mardi Gras in New Orleans, is far as learned, the only one who was killed and one white man seriously injured. A number of other were hurt. Information of the wreck received at the general office of the road was very meagre, as the wire was down. The train consisted of the mail, one baggage car and two coaches, besides the private car Mr. Lowell. The wreck occurred two miles south of Greenville, Ala., where the train was due at 10 the morning, but the train was not in the station.

The New York Strike.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Work was resumed in the new buildings this morning by the striking delegates, in all in the value of the electrical work. There are 1,200 men now employed on buildings the total number will be increased in the course of a few days to 4,000. The Master Builders' executive committee the action of the central committee and decided to reply to-morrow to Monday.

The Bonded Silver Subscribed.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Morgan and Belmont announce the total subscription to the 5 per cent loan in the United State syndicate to about $15,000,000.

Both Hanged.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 23.—Rebel Logan Top will, his followers, had a dispute with the government officials at Fort Reno, I. T., on Sat. Top, at San Tree, he fired upon the officers, killing one and wounding two of them fatally, as may wounded. A number were killed. Then men were killed and remembered the government with. Upon the arrival of the troops at the scene of the fight, a sergeant in charge of Magistrate, was present the prisoners Top.

Jury Discharged.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The Hoggatt jury could not agree in Judge Bradley's court and was discharged. The jury stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal. The judge intimated to counsel for both the accused and will probably not the case for jury until at least on Monday.

No Fight for Senator Hoigh.

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 23.—The course of Senator Hoigh's supporters did not force a vote into the morning. Senator was present.

Senator Hoigh said none he had to see the course Republican the Senate was not subject of his Hoigh was not in favor with them. Senator Hoigh said they would pass the Indian Appropriation bill. The Senate adjourned until noon, when the Senate will be in a position to take up the Indian appropriation bill. When the Senate adjourned it will be the Senate.

Chairman Reilly Will Be Heard.

Chairman Reilly will be heard made a formal report of the committee on rules for a day next week, but he hated last week to do so, as there is a feeling in the house of the House upon the subject this proposed bill be passed.

C. P. Huntington, the Pacific railroad magnate, was has been for several days in the city, is quoted as having expressed his confidence to a member of Congress.

"I am not here to propose any particular bill. I have become so sick of the worry and bother of trying to show Congress the best way out of the railroad difficulty that I have now confined to let Congress settle the bill for itself. I am only here to urge you to do something. This thing has been neglected now for too long."

DISGRACEFUL COLLEGE SCENE.

Hale Students Fight and Young Women Have Hysterics.

BRYNMOR HALL, Mawr, Feb. 23.—A fight among the students of the College and Bryn Mawr Schools occurred in Brynmor Hall yesterday. An American flag was raised by the senior in honor of Washington's birthday and in addition the senior class colors were hoisted to the mast. This caused a fight between the seniors and the juniors and freshmen, in which the flag was torn, and the girls showed the combatants with the colours class pennants and some of the senior girls and some of the senior girls and some of the senior girls