Men Gathering to Attend the Funeral of the Victims.—Militia Arriving.

THE TROUBLE BETWEEN VENEZUELA AND ENGLAND.

The Latest Message from Rudini Gratifying to the Cabinet at Washington.

By Telegraph to the News.

THE STRIKERS.

Ten Thousand Men Expected to Be Present at the Funeral.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., April 3.—The strikers are rendering in Scottdale to attend the funeral of seven of the his victims who are to be buried in the Catholic cemetery here. A long trench is already prepared to receive them. The strikers are gathering here asfrely in such numbers that by tomorrow fully 10,000 men will be present at the funeral.

A number of deputies on charges of the labor officials for felonious shooting continues. It is reported here tonight that a striker died at Tarrs today, supposed to have been the victim of the Morewood fot. Col. Hawkins, in command of the Tenth regiment says, so far as the investigation go, Captain Lear was perfectly justified in firing on the strikers at Morewood, and that he should strongly advise that militia be kept in the region until the strikes were over.

The Right Rev. Father Lansding of Scottdale Catholic church, who has a strong influence over the strikers, issued an appeal to the region. He says: "It is time for all parties to reflect. Men cannot be replaced, or displaced, and a vast majority must remain in the region." He advises a peaceful, amicable settlement before the trouble goes further, and, perhaps, bloody parties are worse.

A special train just brought in 700 armed militia from Mount Pleasant, and other companies will be here in the morning, as trouble is feared from the great body of strikers when they see their fellow strikers buried, who, they say, were simply murdered. Mayor Tolle of Scottdale has ordered all saloons closed tomorrow. It is reported from Mount Pleasant that this afternoon a number of outlaws entered a saloon belonging to a cripple named Daniel Somers and made demands which he refused, whereupon they broke the windows and spilled the liquor, cut the fragments with bayonets. One of the guards became so hilarious that a striker named Kelly stepped out and split the head with a pick-handle, inflicting an ugly gash. The different companies have been apprised of their actions, and they promise to take steps to discipline the unruly members.

THE ITALIAN EMBROGLIO.

President Harrison Pleased Over Rudini's Note.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—It is said tonight that the President and his advisers are much gratified over the receipt of the latest message from Premier di Rudini, which was the subject of consideration at the Cabinet meeting today. They are inclined to think it indicates an early settlement of the diplomatic war. The milder tone assumed by di Rudini in his message to Marquis Imperiali, it is considered here, due to the clear statement of our Government's position by Secretary Blaine, supplemented by an able representation of the case of Henry Porter, United States minister. It is reported that at the Cabinet meeting a letter was read from either Baron Fava or Marquis Imperiali, intimating that the recall of the minister was really but a leave of absence. Baron Fava is still at his residence, however.

The Post says: "It is probable that the necessity of a law making it a specific misdemeanor to violate the provisions of a treaty with another nation, thereby giving the United States power in such cases, will be urged in next message of the President to Congress."

Attorney General Miller received a telegram from the United States District Attorney at New Orleans, saying that he was engaged in an investigation of the recent killing of Italians, in accordance with instructions from Washington, and will forward his report as promptly as possible.

ENGLAND AND VENEZUELA.

The Boundary Question has Resulted in Bloodshed.

PANAMA (via New York), April 3.—The old boundary question between Venezuela and England, and the ill-feeling resulting therefrom, resulted in murder last month. William Campbell, a British grant holder on the Berima, went to visit a friend on the Venezuelan side of the Amacuro river. The Venezuelan policemen went to arrest him, and, notwithstanding he made no resistance, one of them shot him in the right hand, shattering it badly. He was soon released, no charge of any kind being preferred against him. He died in a couple of weeks from blood poisoning, induced by neglect of the wound while he was in charge of the Venezuelan police.

This affair has aroused a bitter feeling against the Venezuelans among the British, and the Demerara Argosy prints a long article demanding that the governor insist on the trial of the murderers, and intimates to the Admiral on the station that the services of a gunboat may be necessary. The article says: "We are not confounding the Venezuelan government with the rough men who represent them at Amacuro, but if that government should to unwise enough to stand between murderers and the fate they have earned, our country should not hesitate in resorting to action worthy of its name."

A Model Building Ordinance.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Representatives of the American Institute of Architects, the National Association of Builders, National Association of Building Inspectors, National Board of Underwriters and National Association of Fire Engineers, convened in this city today, in jointly frame a model building ordinance. The sub-committee appointed deemed it impracticable at present to draw up a detailed building law. Some of the recommendations were: That the legislature of the various states should establish state building laws, governing the construction of buildings. In all incorporated cities there should be a separate department for inspection of buildings, whose officers should be appointed for long terms by the local executive; that aside from special local rules, a general law of application of the whole should contain a rule that all buildings over seventy feet high must be built of incombustible material. Further recommendations are made for the safety of human life in buildings.

Poisoning of a Baby.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Edward McMahon created a sensational scene by rushing into a St. Vincent's orphan asylum tonight and demanding his 1 year-old son. The child was born in 1889, and has become the subject of a bitter feud between the father and his relations, who are threatening his life for remarrying a divorced woman. The baby had been suffering of late from systematic arsenical poisoning and the physicians in charge of the other of contemplated murder for the sake of the inheritance. The child has only been in the home a few days, having been placed there on the advice of Probate Judge Kohlsat when the evidence of poisoning was laid before him. The sisters of St. Vincent's called in the police tonight and had McMahon ejected. The McMahon family is wealthy and the case in its various phases has excited great interest.

The Fitzsimmons Bail Matter.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Harry Ballard, city editor of the Inter-ocean, said today, in regard to the Fitzsimmons bail matter, that, when he was Age Clark, on behalf of Fitzsimmons, deposited with him, $2000 to bind a match with Hall, that he had received dispatches from Jim Ryan, whom he did not know, and John Grant, president of the Astoria (Oregon) Club, Grant wanted the $2000 paid in Astoria, but to this Clark demurred. If the Hall party mean business they should send someone here to cover the money now up for Fitzsimmons. With a representative of Hall here, articles of agreement could be drawn, final deposits arranged and a fight stakeholder agreed upon. Mr. Ballard says, in conclusion, that the San Francisco Evening Post of March 30th says that Joe Harris would that day forward $2500 here to cover Fitzsimmons' deposit, but he had heard nothing of its arrival yet.

A dispatch from San Francisco tonight states that Hall and Harris have tomorrow for Chicago, expecting to meet Fitzsimmons there in about ten days, and arrange a match if possible.

A Stormy Debate in the Miners' Congress.

PARIS, April 3.—During today's session of the International Miners' Congress Belgian delegates had a stage fight which was brought up and a stormy debate ensued. The discussion was brought up in a close social-democrat, the socialist and anarchist delegates vociferously executing Delegate Basly, who took an attitude of moderation. It was finally decided to put the question to a vote tomorrow. A howling mob gathered outside the building and threatened vengeance on Delegate Basly, who had to make his escape by the back door.

The Lynchers Will be Brought to Trial.

LONDON, April 3.—The Rome correspondent of the News telegraphs: "Porter, United States minister here, has informed me that the Federal government has promised to do everything possible to bring the New Orleans lynchers to trial, and that both the American and Italian governments are confident that the incident will be promptly and satisfactorily arranged." The correspondent adds: "This opinion is not very general here."

PUBLIC OPINION.

Leading Papers in London Continue to Discuss the Italo-American Question.

SALISBURY WILL POSSIBLY OFFER TO MEDIATE.

France to Support Russia in her Plans Against India in the Latest.

AGAINST RUDINI.

The Opinion of the English Press Seems to Change.

LONDON, April 3.—The current of opinion here is setting more steadily against the action of the Marquis di Rudini in trying to force the hands of Mr. Blaine in the matter of the lynching of the Italians in New Orleans. Tomorrow's sailing high class weeklies devote considerable attention to an analysis of the position, and generally discuss the affair from the standpoint of the United States Constitution.

The Spectator argues that "serious thinking Americans will admit the imperfection of the Constitution, and are bound to remedy the defect all the more because there is a small chance of their being compelled to remedy it."

Touching the talk of war, the Spectator ridicules the idea of Italy declaring war against one of the greatest powers in the world, "a power capable within six months of buying and building a fleet that would block every port of Italy. American ingenuity would be so stimulated to build itself that it would turn every seaboard town into a fortress of the greatest possible conditions. The United States holds the exceptional position that it cannot be conquered by any power or probable combination of powers, even if all Europe were allied and made the attempt."

"Baron Fava's note," said the Gazette Tablet, "begged every question at issue. The real explanation of the precipitated action of the Italian ministers must be found in the fact that they felt public opinion in Italy required some demonstration."

The conservative press apply the difficulty to illustrate the evil that would result from the importation of home rule to Ireland, and the composition was full have unloaded potency in Italian clerical platforms. The report prevailed in political circles tonight that Lord Salisbury, on the invitation of Rudini, would offer to mediate for an adjustment of the difference between Italy and the United States. A high foreign official said the question had not been discussed. He admitted that a communication had been sent by Julian Pauncefote to report on the question, especially as affecting the position of public subjects.

Russia and France.

LONDON, April 3.—The German semi-official papers have been authorized to deny the report of the transfer of Russian troops to the Galyan frontier, and to minimize the importance of the Czar's decorating President Carnot. Nevertheless, the uneasiness in official circles remains the same. The government is reported to be in possession of information placing beyond a doubt the existence of a defensive and offensive alliance between Russia and France, including stipulations that France will support Russia in her plans against India.

THE SLIGO VICTORY.

Parnellites Still Endeavoring to Hold Up Their Heads.

BONDON, April 3.—The nationalists discounted their victory in Sligo to some extent by exaggerating predictions as to the majority. The speeches made by the Parnellites after the defeat showed unabated pluck. The Parnellites tried to dope the Catholic voters by the display of a bogus telegram from Rome to the effect that the Pope had disapproved the anti-Parnell policy of the Irish bishops.

Failures.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The sheriff has received an execution against the Brewood Loom Company, manufacturers of tail bands in this city, for $25,151, in favor of Alonzo L. Kane, for money advanced. An equal number was purchased for Nelson Morris of Chicago, by Clifford Suggs, the well-known stockman.

THE NEW ORLEANS MURDER.

O'Malley Says he has a Surprising Statement to Make.

NEW ORLEANS, April 3.—O'Malley said that when he got ready to give his statement it would contain many surprising disclosures and cause a number of people now joining in the cry against him to blush. The Italians killed in the parish prison were innocent, and the people made a mistake, for which he hoped they would properly apologize to the widows and orphans hereafter. O'Malley said the talk about suborning witnesses and bribing jurors was all bosh. He never approached any witnesses or jurors, and the truth of his statement would be conclusively proved in time. He said that the citizens' committee of fifty held a conference tonight with reference to O'Malley's return, and decided not to employ him, leaving the law to take its course and the Courts to try him upon the charges preferred.

A SEVERE STORM IN NEW ENGLAND.

The Australian Commonwealth Practically a Republic with a Monarch in Name.

SOMETHING FOR THE CREDITORS.

Indians Are Going to Take an Awful Revenge.

PITTSBURG, April 3.—A special from New Castle, Pa., says: Today Sebastian Gabarto, leader of 300 Italians employed near Wampum, told a startling story. Gabarto, who is a naturalized citizen and property owner in Wampum, seemed to place considerable weight upon the information imparted. He said that a stranger had an asked him if he would go into a plot to avenge the countrymen who were lynched in New Orleans. The stranger said 20,000 Italians would be brought into Pittsburg in five hours' time, and, with the aid of guns and ammunition they obtained, they would be able to take the city without much trouble. He strongly urged Gabarto to get the Italians at Wampum to consent to meet the others in Pittsburg at a given signal. He then told how every Italian settlement in Allegheny and adjacent counties were receiving the same information, and how each settlement expected to send a large delegation. In the afternoon the Pittsburg party left for Carlton to stir up the Italians there, and said a secret meeting was to be held in the near future to talk the matter over among themselves.

A dispatch from Wheeling states that 2500 Italians near Moundsville, have assigned on the railroad and are in Wheeling and Italy, is certain. For the past week an unusual number of Italians have been arriving in the city daily, and today squads of twenty and thirty were unusually numerous, the police department has been quietly at work, and hundreds of several unoccupied Italian boarding houses, and the daily invoices of strangers are under strict supervision.

COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA.

It is Said to Have Copied the Constitution of the United States.

LONDON, April 3.—The creation of the Commonwealth of Australia by the Federation of Convention at Sydney is barely noticed in the morning papers, which fail to recognize its importance. The Star gauges the significance of the convention's action: "The Australian," it says, "have copied the Constitution of the United States, avoiding its defects and its weaknesses. Accordingly be a democratic Section, practically a republic, with a monarchical ruler. The delicate task devolves on the Queen of appointing a Governor-General. Australia will not accept a titled nonentity. A mistake in choice would endanger the connection between the mother country and Australia, where everything is ripe for a declaration of independence and the election of a President."

The convention adopted a clause of the Constitution providing that the chief executive of the Federation shall be appointed by the Queen. The position that the Governor-General be elected by popular vote was rejected, 35 to 5.

A SEVERE STORM.

New England has a Still Southeast Gale with Rain and Snow.

INDIAN RECRUITS.

THE CALIFORNIAN POPULATION BY RACES

Proclamation Passed on the Act to Repeal the Timber Culture Laws.

By Telegraph to the News.

FROM THE NATION'S CAPITAL.

The Enlistment of Indians—Californian Statistics—Other Items.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The news received at the War Department of the results of the efforts being made by western army officers to carry out the instructions of the last appropriation bill authorizing the enlistment of some Indian recruits, is very discouraging. The officers report that the Indians will not enlist in the infantry under any circumstances as they abhor walking. They will not enlist in the cavalry but as scouts, because they do not care to bind themselves to five years service, nor to be subject to removal to distant parts of the country. Then, they say they need their ponies with them, and a great majority of the bucks are physically unfit for military service. It is doubtful whether a single Indian company can be recruited in the West, but the outlook in the South is more hopeful. At Mt. Vernon barracks, Ala., where the Apache Indians who led the Geronimo campaign are placed, it is said that all the Indians, some thirty five or forty, are willing to enlist. These Indians are said to be progressing rapidly in the path of civilization, and the almost inevitable fate of their race has the renowned warrior, Geronimo, who was for years the terror of the West, is now a prominent teacher in the local Sunday school.
