THE JURY FINDS HILBERG GUILTY.

Young Man from Mill Creek Convicted of a Serious Crime.

HIS VICTIM A MERE GIRL.

Case May be Appealed—First Conviction Under Statute Other Court News.

The jury in the case of Christopher Hilberg, who has been on trial for the past three or four days charged with having been criminally intimate with a young girl and carnally assault Willie Frost, the defendant's guilty this afternoon. His punishment will be imprisonment in the state prison for life.

The complaining witness, a mere girl in appearance, looked a shocking child in the witness chair. It was her story that Judge Morrey ordered the court room cleared of all spectators, so that the public might not hear the details of the story, and the jury from Hilberg to be the guilty. The prisoner seemed to be a very unconcerned spectator of the case and the result. From the number of witnesses called by the attorney for the defendant, as the minds should be the jury, it is quite probable that the case will be appealed. The testimony of Lottie Hilberg makes the prosecution of Lottie Hilberg makes the prosecution of being the first to be convicted under the statute making it a felony for a person in a position of trust to have carnal intercourse, guilty of the crime of the state prison.

Bail's parole reside in 202 Clark. The defendant's bond of $10,000 was found to be a sufficiently one and he was released from the bonds of the court and the understanding that he would appear Tuesday morning for sentence.

ATTACHMENT SUIT FILED.
