BREVITIES.

A puff and a blow—the cigar makers' strike.

The Appropriation Claws—A pick-pocket's fingers.

A "bride's cake," six feet high, graced the table at a late Western wedding.

When you settle up you pay down you open on a new one.

A couple were lately married in Ash-tabula county, Ohio, whose united ages amounted to less than 30 years.

It took two freight cars packed full, to carry to Washington the records of the mustering office at Columbus, Ohio.

A younger sister of Miss Bateman is playing "Madeline" with her in London, under the stage name of Virginia Francis.

The Jews in Warsaw have a theatre in which all the plays are founded on Old Testament stories, and all the parts are taken by males.

A blind girl on being asked the definition of forgiveness, replied, "It is the fragrance which flowers yield when trampled upon."

A boarding house keeper advertises to furnish gentlemen with pleasant and comfortable rooms, also one or two gentlemen with wives.

Bismark, when young, wished to marry a Swiss inn-keeper's daughter, but would not change his religion to oblige her father, and the match was broken off.

There are 78,800 trumblers in Pennsylvania, and 16,879 school teachers. Cost of supporting schools, $5,863,750; value of liquor consumed $331,487,000.

One of the poor women who go about the streets raking ash barrels, &c., raked out a new wallet containing $200,000 in counterfeit currency, in Philadelphia, the other day.

The fall of a shelf in the Frankfort library brought to light certain MSS., yellow and dirty, which turned out to be a series of letters exchanged between Voltaire and Byron.

There is an old lady in Columbus, Ind. whose hair is silvered with the frosts of eighty winters, who is now undergoing the change of cutting her third set of teeth.

In Jefferson's administration, sixty-six years ago, there were only 2,622 persons in the service of the United States, and their salaries were not above $1,073,000 a year.

A young lady went to one of our photographic galleries a day or two since and wanted him to take her with an expression as if composing a poem. The picture was taken.

The Rev. H. Fowler, of Irasburg, Vt., is in a peck of troubles. Parishioners caught him in a bad scrape: 7th commandment. They believe him to be Fowler than they ever supposed.

A young girl, possessing a beautiful head of hair, cut it off and sent it to Cardinal Antonelli, the proceeds to be devoted to buying a Pontifical Zouave. I. e., inducing a man to enlist in the Pope's army.

A new sand-grinding machine has been introduced in Massachusetts, by which sand is ground as fine as flour. It is put up in barrels, and sells for $25 per barrel, and used extensively in the manufacture of porcelain-lined kettles. It resembles flour in its pulverized state.

It has been definitely decided to land the American end of the new French Atlantic cable on a high knoll on the Duxbury shore, in Plymouth county, Mass. The town has given a lot of land for the terminus, which is now held by Profs. Pierce and Whiting, of the coast survey, as trustees. From Duxbury the cable will communicate with New York by means of land wires.

At the New York Working Women's Protective Association, recently, a cloak was exhibited that took thirty days to finish the embroidery that was on it, and in which 180 skeins of thread were used. For that amount of skillful labor and time $12 were paid by a prominent Broadway house.

At the last masked ball of the Grand Opera, Paris, a domino said to a gentleman: "Do try to squeeze into my box." "I would like to squeeze into your heart, madame." "My dear boy, 'tis impossible, for 'tis as full as an omnibus on a rainy day." "Make somebody get out." "I can't; they've all paid their fare."

There is said to be a family in Vermont made up of eighteen personages and only six persons. The Armenia Times "sees this and goes one better," by asserting that there is in that town a family made up as follows: 2 wives, 3 mothers, 2 grandmothers, 1 great grandmother, 1 mother-in-law, 4 daughters, 2 grand-daughters, 1 great grand-daughter, 1 niece, 2 husbands, 2 fathers, 2 grandfathers, 1 great grandfather, 1 father-in-law, 2 sons, 2 grandsons, 1 great grandson, 1 son-in-law, 1 brother, 1 nephew, and only eight persons in the house.

A little girl of six years heard her father read an account of a mechanic whose arm was torn by machinery. No one supposed she took any notice of it; but when she went up stairs she began to sob violently. When asked what was the matter, she exclaimed, "Oh, dear! What shall I do if they marry me to a machine man?" Her mother scarcely able to repress laughter, said, "Don't cry about that my child; perhaps you will not be married." "Oh yes, I shall," she responded, trying to swallow her sobs; "they will marry me to somebody, and likely as not he will be a machine man; and if he breaks his arm all to pieces, I shan't know what to do."
