THE MORMONS.

EDITOR MISSOURI REPUBLICAN:—I confess, as an individual, as an attentive reader and admirer of the Republican for thirty years past, to no ordinary surprise at the sentiments of an editorial in your issue of the 29th ult., referring to a sermon telegraphically announced to have been delivered by Orson Pratt, in Salt Lake City, last Sunday week. Such epithets as "stubborn fool," "blatant apostle," "madness," "monstrosity," &c., in my judgment, are not only ill-timed and out of place, but also beneath the tone and dignity with which the staid Republican is wont to treat even its opponents.

* * *

That the excitement throughout the country on the subject of polygamy is already high, cannot be denied. Allow me to ask you, Mr. Editor, what caused the "excitement" in 1833-4, when the handful of Mormons there settled were driven from Jackson county, Missouri? It could not have been polygamy? for polygamy was then unknown in Mormondom. Again, permit me to ask, what caused the "excitement" at Nauvoo, resulting in the massacre of the Smith brothers. Polygamy was not charged against them. The cruel repetition of these outrages by mobs has become history, and the dark record reveals the fact, startling as it may now sound in our ears, that in every instance the leaders of the mobs offered the alternative of security to all who would renounce their religion! Mr. Buchanan's crusade of 1857-8 had no polygamy in its catalogue of offences. Now, to brand polygamy as the real cause of the present "excitement" we must utterly ignore the record of the past.

Plainly, then, the inference is, the Mormons having recuperated to a degree at all enviable or indicative of success, there would have been great "excitement," with its direful accompaniments, had polygamy formed no integral part of their religion. The irresistible conclusion, from the facts before us, is that the "excitement" is not against the people of Utah as men and women, or their practices, but against their religion.

Now, Mr. Editor, is it not clear that compromise would in nowise mend the situation, were the Mormon people even disposed and competent to make the compromise or "half-way point" you considerately propose? You cannot, therefore, in justice charge Orson Pratt, while declaring that the Mormons will not abandon polygamy, with "being anxious to achieve the honors of martyrdom, or the pleasures of persecution."

You would have the Mormons "call a convention and frame a constitution which shall contain a clause forbidding the further extension of polygamy after a certain date, and then ask admission into the Union." Would you by this imply that congress would rather admit a body of perjured hypocrites than Utah as she is to-day, in point of social, moral and political purity, without reproach? If it is not, it should be well known to the whole world that when the Mormons compromise away polygamy they compromise Mormonism. As well might you ask of the devoutest Christian in the land to surrender his trust in a crucified and risen Jesus.

But, sir, the Mormons have walked the plank of compromise from Fayette, N. Y., to Hiram; thence to Kirtland, Ohio; to Jackson, thence to Clay, Caldwell, Carroll, Daviess and Ray, Mo; thence entirely out of the State, across the Mississippi to Nauvoo, Ill., thence through Iowa beyond the Missouri to Winter Quarters and to the desert of America, uniformly reaping the reward of robbery, plunder, confiscation and death. Their forty years journeyings in the wilderness of the American frontiers have furnished irrefragable proofs that their bright "Canaan" does not lie in the direction of compromise, even with the alternative of "unqualified submission or wholesale expatriation." * * *

But "the government has committed itself to a line of policy from which it cannot retreat altogether without sacrificing the national honor." I solemnly protest that, if to vindicate the national honor it be required to enter the sacred precincts of conscience, to combat the marriage of the holy patriarchs and prophets, through whom came the word of God; to institute the alternative of rejecting God's command or disobeying the authority of the government, to recede to the proscription of the priest-ridden monarchies of the old world, from the tortures of which our Puritan sires sought an asylum on American soil; and to indorse, confirm and intensify the mobbings, drivings, robberies and murders of the past by a combined, formidable crusade against us in the name and by authority of the government, then, as a free-born American citizen, I say the national honor is not worth vindicating. The very means will defeat the end and anarchy will follow proscription; the constitution trampled in the dust, popular government will appear a huge failure. * * *

The immediate result of the harsh measures proposed may, for the time, discommode the Mormons; but they are not in any degree despondent as to the outcome. If to gory graves the conflict beckons them, they will be welcomed as the portals to a rapturous paradise and reunion with the blood-washed martyrs of Jesus who have preceded them, and the fires on the altar of liberty, rekindled by the shock, will again begin to burn as in the days of purer patriotism!

The Mormons, now, are soberly informed that if they do not give up their polygamy, they must either flee or be exterminated. The truth is, the Mormons do not for one moment believe that if by their assent they could annul the practice, it would make the least perceptible improvement toward them in the attitude of their enemies. If, therefore, it be true that our own glorious and magnanimous government has finally determined to assume in Utah the generalship in the persecutions begun by border ruffians in Ohio, Missouri and Illinois, unquestionably the work of subjugation and recantation will be conducted on a scale of far greater magnificence than that of the past; but alas! the deplorable results I have already foreshadowed. The God of battles has decreed that those who fight against Zion shall become as the small dust of the balance! * * *

When the immortal Henry saw the clanking chains of bondage, so long by British minions forging, ready to be bound and riveted upon the colonists, he exclaimed, as I do this day: "Is life so dear, or peace so sweet as to be purchased with chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take, but as for me, give me liberty, or give me death!"

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

Thiers and the Orleans Princes—The Geneva Arbitrators—New York Indictments—U P R R Terminus at Omaha—The Bible in Public Schools—Parade by the N.Y. Internationalists—Congressmen Going Home—San Domingo—Catreasy—S. C. Fraud—Wharton Case—Cochise to go to Washington—Seward Paralyzed—Burglary—Explosion—Mexican News.

NEW YORK, 16.—A special dispatch from Paris says that on Thursday, another interview took place between Thiers and the Orleans Princes, which was of an unfriendly character.

A dispatch from Geneva says that the Alabama arbitrators assembled in that city yesterday; the British American cause was presented with argument, when an adjournment took place until April.

There is great excitement among the local politicians over the action of the grand jury and the arrest of Tweed. It is understood that indictments have been found against twenty or more persons, among whom are said to be men not heretofore publicly known as having been connected with the city frauds and ballot box stuffing.

It has leaked out that James M. Sweeney has been indicted for felony, and that the proofs against him are even stronger than against Tweed. An indictment is said to have been found against one notorious fellow who voted six hundred repeaters at the last election. A well known police judge has also been indicted for his connection with ballot-box stuffing.

The grand jury are expected to close their labors on Tuesday next, when some thirty or forty sealed indictments are expected to make their appearance. The anxiety is very great as to the expected developments, and greater excitement than any heretofore created, is expected when the facts are made known. One of the indictments against Connolly is for auditing the bill of Ingersoll & Co. for $6,131,555, and another for auditing the bill of Andrew J. Garvey for $6,706,889.

At the executive committee meeting of the U. P. R. R. in this city to-day, in consequence of the donation of certain Douglas county bonds and depot grounds at Omaha, on the 1st day of Jan., by that city, it was resolved to make that place the actual terminus of the U. P. Railway.

Connolly is sick and confined to his bed at Ludlow street jail, of long-standing kidney disease.

NEW YORK, 17.—At St. Stephen's Roman Catholic church to-day, the Rev. Dr. McFlynn denounced the reading of the Bible in public schools, and declared it to be contrary to the constitution.

The statement that Tweed is to be arrested on each of the twenty-one indictments found against him, is confirmed.

Gold dull, sterling 9½. Money very tight 7. Gold freely bid, bank statement shows 2½ millions increase in specie. Governments steady, stocks strong, higher, especially Pacific Mail, which opened at 49½ and closed at 51.

LONDON.—Consols 92⅞, money 93½ on account.

The parade of the Internationalists to-day proved a success. A large number of spectators were gathered in the vicinity of the Cooper Institute, where the procession formed, about half past two, Hawins & Canada's band playing a dirge, leading the column, followed by the Skidmore guards, colored; next came Messrs. Banks & Flureaux. A number of women on foot followed, including Tennie Claflin and Mrs. Woodhull the former carrying a red flag, inscribed "I. A. W." "Section one, social and political equality for both sexes." Then came the Cuban league, another crowd of females and some males. A catafalque carrying three coffins, and drawn by six horses, Deveune and Megy, the latter late commander of fort Isey, the French legion, printers' union, bricklayers' union, and cabinet makers' union. Among the notables in the procession were General Ryan, the Cuban patriot, O'Donovan Rossa and Mrs. Frances Rose McKinley. There was a profusion of red flags, banners, rosettes, and scarfs. The banner captured by the police last Sunday was one of the most noticeable. It bore the inscription: "The Commune expands as the axe of the executioner falls on the necks of its martyrs." On another banner was, "The world is our country, to do good our religion;" another, "And they had all things in common." The line of procession was down the Bowery and Great Jones St. to Broadway, across Broadway to Waverly Place and to Fifth Avenue; up Fifth Avenue to 34th Street, to 6th Avenue, down to 14th Street, to the Lincoln Monument in Union Square, around which the procession marched and then dispersed; the best order prevailed throughout.

WASHINGTON, 17.—Many Congressmen will leave on Wednesday for home to spend the holidays. All important matters for consideration go over till after recess.

A private letter from San Domingo says the two years' lease of the Bay of Samana having expired the U. S. flag has been hauled down.

A special says official advices are that Gortschakoff ordered Catacazy to leave America after accompanying the Grand Duke as far as St. Louis, the legation to be placed in charge of Baron Danfeens, the secretary, until the arrival of the Charge d' Affairs who leaves at once.

A report was presented to the South Carolina representatives last Thursday, by the committee on investigation, headed by C. C. Bowen, to the effect that the State has been defrauded by the over issue of 6 318,0 0 dollars, and recommends the house to take the necessary steps to hold accountable those persons who violated the law and ruined the credit of the State.

ANNAPOLIS, 16.—In the Wharton trial, to-day, the court decided that the books and papers of General Ketchum, containing the entries of interest received from Mrs. Wharton could not be admitted.

WASHINGTON, 16.—The Secretary of the Interior addresses a communication to the Apache Chief Cochise, saying that the President, as a mark of friendship, invites him with Laso and Visortia, to come to Washington at the Government expense; it is believed Cochise will accept the invitation.

BOSTON, 16.—Colonel Lawrence, who jumped from a window of the American House yesterday, in a fit of insanity, died to-day.

The Auburn papers say that Seward is very low with paralysis.

The residence of John Edsall, at Ridgefield, N.J., was robbed on Thursday night, of bonds, money and notes to the value of a hundred thousand dollars. The burglars chloroformed Edsall, who though 83 years of age is a resolute man, and always slept with a pistol under his pillow.

CHICAGO, 17.—The boiler of Noble's glue factory, Archer avenue, exploded this p.m., killing two men, and shattering four of the buildings. The boiler was new and the cause of the explosion unknown.

Charles Mairle, who was burned out in the great fire, suicided today, by shooting himself in the head with a pistol. His wife, who was sick in the next room, crept from her bed and found him dead, became a raving maniac. Despondency was the cause, as he was unable to get work.

CITY OF MEXICO, via Havana, 17.—The revolution continues to spread. The States of Chiapas Michoacan, Ledu, Sonora, Durango and Zacatecas are in the power of the revolutionists, and pronunciamentos prevail in San Luis, Vera Cruz and Pueblo. President Juarez opened the session of congress, on the first, with a speech on the situation. He said the country appeared to be consuming itself in unfruitful struggles, and that militarism was again opposed to the standard of legality, bringing back the time when revolution signified a change of the individual in power. He counts upon the aid of congress to suppress the seditious movements.

MEMPHIS, 16.—John R. Durff, a clerk in the postoffice here, drew a prize of $35,000 in the Louisville Library Lottery to-day.

RICHMOND, Va., 16.—Gov. Walker has pardoned ex-mayor Cahoon, heretofore twice convicted of complicity in the Hannastein forgeries.

SAVANNAH, Ga., 15.—Collector Robb has been honorably acquitted.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, 17.—The steamship Great Republic arrived this a. m. from China and Japan. On the 16th Nov. the steamer passed in sight of Sunda Island; thirty miles distant, and saw a volcano in full eruption. Yokohama advices state that the American Minister, DeLong, had returned from his trip through Japan.

Nearly the whole town of Kokodate, with property valued at half a million dollars, had been destroyed by fire.

The American embassy leaves Japan by the next steamer, to confer with foreign Goverments on the revision of treaties, to be made in July next, in accordance with the united demand of the foreign embassy. The Mikado is willing to open up intercourse with foreigners throughout the empire, but the request must be joined in by all the foreign powers to have any effect.

ORRANO, Nev., 17.—Thos. Harris was strangled to death to-day by an explosion of giant powder in Smith & Co's. mine.

PETALUMA, 16.—Mr. J. M. Stewart, of this place, met with a shocking accident to-night. Having been in attendance on his sick wife he went to bed late, and while asleep it is supposed got up and walked out of the window, mistaking it for the door, falling fifteen feet to the ground and breaking his back.

The Arizona Miner, of the 9th, confirms the report that the Apache Chief has come in upon the reservation at Canada Alamos; he remains at the extreme western limit, ready for flight at any moment.

The discovery of new silver ledges on the Gila creates great excitement in that vicinity. The Bismark silver mine, one of the new discoveries, has been sold in San Francisco.
