Pardee Clark, while riding a bicycle near Spring Point South last evening, was run down by a phaeton driven by Mr. Wm. Jones, of Bingham. The three were on the street in the vicinity of the Jewish Synagogue when the wheel of the carriage, which passed over Mr. Clark, broke and let the wheel move past. Mr. Clark did not die but was badly bruised, having a piece of water tube as a pillow and also being without locking back to see what danger was behind him, thinking evidently he had horses.

THE PULLMAN ABSORBS WAGNER

The Deal Cost the Chicago Firm Over Forty Million Dollars.

THE PALACE CAR TRUST.

Pullman Company Already Takes in Four Others and Controls Nearly All Sleeping Cars in North America.

One of the most important railroad deals in many years was consummated yesterday in Chicago when the Wagner Palace Car company lost its identity by being absorbed by the Pullman Palace Car company. The two companies combined in less time's "time." The Pullman company has in the past taken in the following companies: The Woodruff Sleeping and Parlor Coach company, Mason's Blunder company and the Union Palace Car company. The Chicago company will now have control of nearly all sleeping cars in use in North American lands. The following are the lines operating their own sleeping cars: C. M. & St. Paul; Pitts & Pere Marquette; Georgia Central; Pacific; Northern Pacific; Intercoastal; Lake E. & West; Minn. St. P. & Sault Ste. M.; N. Y. N. H. & Hart; Peoria; Ill. Central; Mo. Pac.; A. T. & S. F.; Seattle & International; St. Paul & Duluth; Iowa City & Nor.

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—The following statement was issued today at the conclusion of the meeting of the board of directors of the Pullman Palace Car company:

"It is announced negotiations have been concluded between the boards of directors of the Pullman and Wagner companies as to the ratification of the respective stockholders by which the former company will purchase all the assets and property of the Wagner company, including its contracts with railroad companies, in exchange for 40,000 shares of Pullman stock, the capital stock of the Pullman company to be increased accordingly to that purpose.

"It is understood the board of directors of the Pullman company will be increased and the Messrs. William K. Vanderbilt, J. Pierpont Morgan, Chauncey M. Depew and George J. Gould will be added to the board. Award With will become member of the Pullman board. Steps are to be taken immediately by the directors of the two companies for action and approval and for that purpose a special meeting of the stockholders of the Pullman company has been called for Dec. 5 next.

"At an adjourned meeting of the board of directors of the Pullman company held today, a quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent was declared, payable Nov. 1, to stockholders on record Nov. 1.

"At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pullman Palace Car company the old directors were re-elected.

"At a subsequent meeting of the directors the following officers were elected: George M. Pullman, president; Thomas P. Wickes, vice-president; A. S. Wardwell, secretary.

"The executive committee of three with the president as ex-officio member, was elected, consisting of Messrs. Wickes, Wardwell, Henry C. Hulbert and Norman B. Ream.

PASSENGER AGENTS COMPLAINING.

C. M. Officials Did Not Notify Them by Telegraph of Counterfeit Tickets.

The Chicago Record tells says: Passenger agents of a number of Chicago lines are complaining because the officials of the Chicago Milwaukee railroad did not notify them by telegraph of the issue of a large number of forged tickets reading over their lines had been discovered.

"We learned of four of these worthless tickets yesterday," said a manager of a ticket of an eastern line. "The tickets were presented at our office and we failed to remember that adopted by all railroads that it is necessary to see an agent before a ticket is accepted. The Chicago Belt it has issued some of them and in a number of cases the tickets were taken up by our agents. We have also seen them in a number of cases the tickets were presented to the agents of certain ticket scalpers. It is probable that crowds of the scalpers will soon be here.

DECLARES DIVIDENDS.

Directors of the Pacific Coast Company Re-Elected all Old Officers.

A New York dispatch to the Pacific Coast company, which owns coal lands in Utah, Washington and the Pacific coast, with headquarters at Seattle, re-elected all the old officers. The directors also declared a dividend of 1 per cent on the common stock of the company was declared, and the dividend period was changed to quarterly. On the preferred stock ends on June 30, it was decided to make a distribution of surplus profit, which was declared to be 1 per cent, and a dividend of 1½ of one per cent was declared for the month of June, 1899, and 1½ per cent on the first payment made for the quarter ending September 30, 1899.

A dividend of 1½ of one per cent for the month of June, 1899, was declared on the common stock, and a dividend of 1 per cent for the quarter ending Sept. 30, 1899, then the usual dividend of 1½ per cent was declared upon the common stock, all dividends being payable on Nov. 1.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The ball given by the Women's Relief corps on Friday night was a very pleasant affair and all who attended seemed to enjoy themselves. Nearly 200 people were present, and the music, refreshments and dancing were all to the taste of the affair were of a delightful nature. The hall was prettily dressed with flags and bunting, and the decorations were all flowering plants, the pots being especially beautiful. Refreshments were served in the dining room and in such manner as to add to the pleasure of auditors entertainment. Short talks and dainty refreshments were delightfully the prevailing order. Lieutenant of the regular society was to be present to meet the ladies of present. The last repast with a good speech by Governor Wells and Mrs. William H. Jackson, president of the Women's Republican club, and a second dance was the order the close of the festivities. Those who attended said Miss Agnes Pope, the president, and her corps of officers and committees were the hostesses. Governor Wells opened the ball, various toasts of existence and memory were given by the gentlemen present. The food consisted of Mesdames Lodinglow, Lodinglow, Christensen, and refreshments were served by Mesdames J. Wells, Pope, Hurd, J. J. Jones, Stanford, Gibbs, Hill, Sandstrom, Anthony, Misses Wells, Pope, Gross, Bourke of Chicago, Heard, Abbey, Moore and others.

A meeting was held by the local branch of the W. C. T. U. yesterday afternoon, at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. The program was to have had for its chief feature an address by Mrs. D. S. Spencer, of Ogden, but she was unable to be there to give it, so that the meeting will make part of the program of the next meeting. During the session it was decided to notify Mrs. S. M. I. Henry to decline an temperance work for the ensuing year, at the meeting of December. Mrs. Henry is the mother of Rev. A. H. Henry, and recently delivered a series of addresses on the Rev. Richard Wake, was appointed to act as press agent of the local branch of the W. C. T. U.

An invitation has been extended the principal and teachers of the schools to attend the monthly meetings of the boards and educational section of the Woman's club, which will be held tomorrow. The purpose of the invitation, extended this invitation through superintendent Lyman, is that teachers may become better acquainted with the clubs, and will make an effort to provide services. There has been a marked improvement in the attendance of the teachers at the meetings, Mrs. Nurse giving an account of home life on the border before the war.

The working crew for Library No. 11 will not be Sunday until October, when the Library No. 11 will open for the receiving of the books properly, to which time on their travels. The library is now in the hands of the individual clubs and will be a treat to them for when it is opened.

The amusement committee of the Sunbeams's guild will begin their series of entertainments next Friday evening, Oct. 27th, with a social dance.

An excellent entertainment was given at the Westminster church last night by the Sunbeams' guild, the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the church. The program consisted of a good deal of instrumental and vocal selections and recitations, and was of unusual merit. Miss Olive Gray rendered a violin solo in a manner which elicited enthusiastic applause, as did also Mrs. Carlson and Miss Williamson. Mrs. Mary Morgan, Mrs. Gregory, Mrs. Wallace and Mr. Wallace and Mr. Wilcox and Messrs. McPherson and Hooper gave the best of entertainment. Miss Ethel Johnson captured her audience with a recitation. A selection from "Daniel Webster and Jenny Lind" rendered by Miss Bessie Burgess, after the program refreshments were served. The entertainment was given by all who appear and added a comfortable sum for the Northwest Mission Sunday school for whose benefit it was given.

POSTMASTERS TO MEET.

Second Annual Convention to Assemble in Washington Next Month.

The second annual convention of the National Association of Postmasters will be held at Washington, D. C., November 14th, to 17th next. Postmasters throughout the country are expected to be present, and will be a large attendance. There are many fine features on the program, including an address by President Wm. McKinley, Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith, a report by the convention on the President of the Postmaster's Association, addresses by Third Assistant Postmaster General Perry S. Heath on "Rural Delivery," by Mr. Chas. Emory Smith on "Postal Economy and Allowance Division" by Hon. W. S. Hallenbeger, second assistant postmaster general, on "Postal Service," by Hon. Jas. L. Bell, third assistant postmaster general, by Hon. A. W. Machen, superintendent of the Free Delivery Division, on "Free Delivery." The program clearly indicates that the convention will meet for business and not for pleasure, and the attendance of postmasters of first class offices only.
