AGITATION IN JAPAN.

The Peace Terms Not Satisfactory to the War Party.

NO YET CAUSE DIFFICULTY.

The Minister Contemplating a Trip to China in the Interest of an Amicable Adjustment.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 18.—It is now in contemplation in China that the minister of the Japanese Chinese situation in Mr. Hay, in order that the peace terms may be ratified by the respective governments. This brings out, in the first place, that the action of the peace envoys was not unauthorized, and that there is still a possibility of a failure to carry the agreement. Advices received in the reports of the light of agitation in Japan against the peace terms and the expression of many newspapers within recall the government. This expression of public sentiment, coming at a time when the Japanese government will be called on to carry or reject the agreement, shows that apparently the government is prepared to carry out the treaty. It has been learned, however, that the impression that the action of the emperor in ratifying the treaty and navy, thus concentrating all military power in one man, is one of looking to with the greatest anxiety.

The final terms are far short of what an entire moment demanded, and the agitation in Japan is due to certain to cause some difficulty in getting the terms ratified.

It is stated by a diplomatic official in China that Minister Hay would be sent by an order of the emperor. This indicates it accepted as certain, as he is expected to arrive in Japan. It is also stated that Minister Denby, of China, is expected to return to China, which the government is prepared to receive the peace terms. The minister of China is now in Washington, and it is stated that he will be sent to China in the interest of an amicable adjustment.

NO CAUSE DIFFICULTY.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—At the Japanese legation it was stated that the reports of difficulty in Japan were not of a character to cause any uneasiness. The Japanese government is in a position to carry out the treaty, and there is no cause for difficulty in the ratification of the treaty.

THOUGHT TO BE A HOAX.

A Note for $100,000 Against the Late James G. Fair.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—The note for $100,000, alleged to have been given by the late James G. Fair to Leland Stanford, which has been received by the First National bank for collection is not regarded seriously here.

The note was forwarded from New York through the ordinary mail, and was in a large envelope containing the following letter:

NEW YORK, April 8, 1895.—First National bank, San Francisco, Cal.: I hand you enclosed note for $100,000 for collection and credit. Yours truly,

WILLIAM S. HOWARD.

The note purports to have been signed in San Francisco, M. 2, 28, 1895, and reads:

"Five years after date I promise to pay to the order of Leland Stanford at San Francisco, Without defalcation, the sum of $100,000."

The note is signed by James G. Fair and is in the usual United States.

President L. S. Murphy said to-day that he had no knowledge of the note, and gave it to New York, saying for the history of the note.

Looking upon it generally view the matter in the light of a hoax. The signature looks as if the person who had may have been forged by having it under tracing. A document somewhat similar in form, with a number of signatures, has been issued in the ordinary mail, and that the sender should not identify himself and explain the nature of the proceeding. Besides that a number business men can Fair would have had some record of such a note in his books.

Will Settle This City.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 18.—At a meeting of the Pacific Coast Fire Underwriters, the following officers were elected: President, Walter Moore, Los Angeles; executive committee, Chas. Lawton, of Oakland; Ashwell, of Tacoma; R. S. Chapman and Charles Dewey, of San Francisco; and Arrowsmith, of Bellingham. The choice of the place for the holding of the November of 1895 was left with the executive committee, with the understanding that it is held in Salt Lake if the National machine meets there, the committee to report not later than January 1st.

Another Parliament.

OTTAWA, April 18.—What promises to be a memorable session of parliament was opened today by the governor general delivering his speech from the throne in the usual form. It appears from the speech of the John Thompson had of correspondence with regard to the French treaty, and advised the minister of marine and fisheries to continue the negotiations of colonial conference in the matter of preferential trade relations with other colonies but have intimated unfavorably by England and congratulated Canada on the significant signs of returning prosperity.

Of Newfoundland and Aberdeen said: "It will be the subject of great congratulation if the negotiations now pending result in the admission of the colonies of that island."

Queen and Nicaragua.

LONDON, April 18.—The Herald has received a private cable dispatch from London giving the following report of the British government to Nicaragua:

LONDON, April 18, 1895.

To the Foreign Minister of Nicaragua, Managua:

I have had the honor to receive your ministry's telegram of the 11th inst. My war was declared to Senor Harrison on the 16th of February with the express hope to be forwarded to your excellency by mail. Meanwhile Her Majesty's government cannot be responsible for the delay in your receiving it. Your minister personal has been withdrawn and I regret it cannot be accepted. Her Majesty's government cannot admit that there is any doubt as to the rights of the British subjects, and must adhere to the demands in my previous note.

(Signed) KIMBERLY.

Great Britain's reply to other powers's attitude of the amount of indemnity to British subjects for personal injuries and losses upon the payment of $100,000.

A PILE OF BONES.

Human Skulls and Other Remains Found on a Cave.

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio of Dorothy Mines, April 18.—A sensational sensation Andrew Vincent has discovered a horrible chamber cave of human remains near the village of Quantabacuge. Over a hundred skulls were found piled with their bones into one pile and bones for from a kitchen wagon. The City of Jackson, Ala., Angelus on the Pacific coast. The women story has been corroborated by others which is has been in existence. It is supposed the remains are the ghastly memento of one of Dorothy's attacks made in the Indian and whites exterminated Dorothy's people in past decades. As to the skull which was found crushed which tends to throw light upon the identity of the pile of bones.

EMANUEL CHURCH HORROR.

Efforts to Throw Suspicion on the Pastor Himself.

The Police Seem to Have a Strong Belief That Mrs. Williams Was Not Up to Her Tricks.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Doubt as to the guilt of W. H. T. Durrant, the young medical student who is accused of killing Miss Williams and secreting of carried slave Miss Lamont, is now fully expressed. There has been an undoubtedly of opinion, which was expressed in a statement to the newspapers by the mother of the second girl and which has also been told yesterday in conversations before the coroner's inquest which was held in Oakland. The mother of the girl of the church, Rev. John Dwyer of Oakland, have been so positive that the police might well have their suspicions on him. And there are now seriously inclined to believe that the preacher might be the only man. These reasons are the same that the police have naturally arrived and detailed him, and are result in work with the opinion but until now he was self-assured from "suspicion." Rumors in the churches in which that the reason he had not visited Durrant, Mr. Wm. one of the active members of the church, and the city office was in charge of the different conditions of public opinion as that if he did call the people would be ready to say that he was accomplice, but good there to verify the service of the present man. Mrs. Dunham has explained to the surgeon at the morning, explained and detailed to the coroner in Mrs. Williams's testimony before the Rev. Wm. Williams, of the church, and the Rev. Wm. Williams was not killed until about 10 o'clock, and that the girl was not killed by the time the girl was in a state of consciousness, and that the girl was not killed by the time the girl was in a state of consciousness.

The testimony of Lizzie of the school-house, the house was in a state of disorder, except those that pointed to Durrant's guilt in the house. The police have not been before him, the night as to get a statement of the witnesses and a statement of opinion. Five or seven have had stated of the case. The chief read the report, questioned the men and then asked the detectives if to take investigations suggesting were suggested that the men were men by several men in company.

The detectives questioned in relating the belief that both women were killed by one man, and that the man was W. H. T. Durrant.

The conference ended with a resolve of the police, to the effect to continue the investigation, and only using the man that, which seems to lead to Durrant, but on all evidence there no man toward whom they point.

In speaking of the matter Chief Crowley said:

"I am neither prosecutor nor persecutor. My duty is to submit all the evidence for the prosecution (Illegible) that is possible to obtain, and that has been done. The matter always taken into in one mind—Durrant. I must give evidence to the prosecuting officers. Neither they nor myself are prejudiced in the case."

The police have got looking for ninety persons belonging to Durrant and have adopted a new theory which makes him on his first days visit. The theory is that the girl was the triangles in the reading room, that was cause of which the dark little theory upon and the theory of the dark death. This the morning was found in the chest the girl would be well on Sunday and it would not have been early. I had the idea of having the Sunday sermon with a view to discovering the slayer.

Thirteen men have been in custody of Sunday and have been released. Of Sunday and the last to leave the school, as according to the sermon, in which the Yellow Wolf band has to preach.

The action of the city which Emanuel church is located was especially the Rev. Dr. Dwyer, I asked if the Pastor's actions were in accordance in the day generally indulged in at "Christmas?" Pastor answered on the Sunday, in which the Christmas, I suppose.

The feeling against even in those who are not personally interested in the property, but have an interest in the school of Christ, and of neighborhood. The church has always been a school. A school of Christ blood stains be a lasting stain on pastor who was a school of Christ, and school who was on his own chairs and bones in the school. Nearly that is one of the people. Every child is heard the exclamation, "Take the place down!" The church in Oakland church school never again be opened as a place of worship.

HARRY HOW'S ARRAIGNMENT.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18.—Thursday Lecture was very crowded this morning, but spectators were not so far with a single and interest were. The change in the opinion of the accused this is probably caused by the news that the girl's body was found, every issue of the indictment against him. Evidently, as the case is considered, and he further evidence has was adduced in the hearing. Mr. Hoy his address to consideration of a case of Dorothy when the case is brought to trial.

Attorney Wilson has some forwarding theory to see Durrant and Mrs. Williams, of a young medical lady (by name), at about 11 o'clock the day night. It was the person in question will go to prove that the girl was not murdered early in the evening, as the law suggest.

Chief Crowley is the man at work trying to strengthen his evidence against Durrant. He says that he has have so far evidence as shows a chain which leaf one to future to the murderer and no accomplice. The only two a doubtfulness who the detectives engaged in the case Dorothy, and one of them has been working to prove that Durrant is the guilty man.

Attorney Dunham, Durrant's attorney, called on the prisoner today, and the two held an animated conversation which lasted for some time. At the conclusion of the conference Durrant

Dunham informed several persons that the client was about to make a statement, which was not to be made public at present, and requested the police have that Durrant was not the guilty. Durrant spent the whole afternoon working on the case, and made attempt to all investigation and evidence.

Little hope is expressed that any money coming belonging to the murdered will be discovered. This, the police say, is the weak point in the case against the prisoner. A search in police quarters was set to be large the prisoner, brought about no results, but the testimony of those who witnessed his visit arrange after the discovery of the body. Testimony may which the police have not, seems the strongest one. On the other hand, the circumstantial evidence against Durrant is so strong that notwithstanding the fact that he is the only man, the minds of many people in Oakland are so in the guilty man.

CANON MINE.

Will Probably Be Closed Before Long.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 18.—Mr. Foster, the director of the mint, today called the $10,000 in gold dollars and $10,000 pieces of silver now at the United States mint at Carson, Nev., shipped of now, to the mint of San Francisco. The inference is that the Ophir mine will soon be closed, and the machinery shipped to Utah for the use in the mines that is to be established there.

HIGH AND DRY.

The Forest Belleville Is Stranded Permanently.

NEW YORK, April 18.—William E. Stone free in this city. He said last night: "Long Summer is winding the corpse I hear. Nothing was said about the resting property in the Forest Belleville. That's not your name. But I did say she was politely escorted to the London price cut out of (illegible) about somewhere women wants on the shelf of the Middle and leaving the boats when Mrs. William was murdered, she proven, for he was seen leaving the house at a saloon of the young people at a church member's house. It should be proven that Mrs. Williams was not killed until about 10 o'clock, and that the girl was not killed by the time the girl was in a state of consciousness, and that the girl was not killed by the time the girl was in a state of consciousness.

CAPTURED BY INDIANS

A Sheriff Who Went to Arrest Officers Resisting Justice.

DULUTH, April 18.—A special to the Herald from Duluth, Minn., says: A party of the Indian police with the sheriff of Cass county, Minn., in the Leech Lake Indian reservation, was captured by Indian police with three prisoners. The Federal court ordered all officers of order to arrest the different officers, the Indian police and the Hunting Lake Indian police, and the sheriff's party would be taken April 20th. The Indian police, however, have continued to shield officers from the reservation. It is said the sheriff's party is from Pine city, intending to capture the Indians as they were closing settlers on Leech lake.

The sheriff's party left for the reservation when and at noon news of his arrest was received.

The sheriff's party consisted of 10 men. He was released on bail by a justice of the peace. He at once secured a posse of men and left for the reservation. It is said he will attempt to arrest Chief Little Bear and the Indian police.
