RICH DEXTER SHIPMENT

Sends in a Car of Ore Having a Value of $11,000.

HIGH GRADE AND AVERAGES $500 A TON

Big Advance in Dexter on the Stock Exchange—Paradox Copper Mines—No Good Gold Brick.

Few mines in this section of country, perhaps, are able to ship a car of ore valued at $11,000 yet that is what the Dexter has just done, there being received in this city today a consignment of 21 tons said to average $500 to the ton. This ore is from the Dexter's high-grade workings and demonstrates one thing at least—the possibilities of Tintonia. Nev., as a producer of rich ore bodies. Reports from the Dexter indicate a gratifying condition of affairs, the mine and mill being equally responsive in their contribution of that which makes the mare go. Only a few days ago the company was in receipt of a call for raised at nearly $5,000, and now this has been added to by the shipment here referred to. If the Dexter continues its achievements of the past two months, the company will soon find its cash chest and be able to put up regular dividends.

DEXTER STILL IN IT.

The Stock Makes Another Advance and Sells Above $1.40—Good Trading.

Seldom, if ever, in the history of the Salt Lake Stock and Mining Exchange has there been such a continuous demand for gold securities as has characterized the local market for several weeks past. Even the brokers themselves have been astonished at the manner in which certain stocks have been sought after, and many have spoken to remark that truly a boom has set in and the public generally has at last arrived at the conclusion that Utah mining stocks are at least worth handling.

On the call today Four Aces sold in spots for the trading in a car of 1,000 shares at 1¾ cents. This was followed by Ontario-Mahoa, which exhibited a gratifying firmness and sold at 46 cents with the stock freely asked for at the figure. Globe, too, was a participant in the trading, and made a transfer at 21 cents, while Mammoth was the next winning place, at which point the shares dropped off, the stock selling at $1.60, and $1.55. Mercur stood as the leader with a lot of 11 and offerings of the stock at $1.75, and carries remained about stationary, but Deep King gave evidence of a spirited reaction and had a costly bid of $11. Ophelia did business at 8 cents, and Fish sold at a transfer at 41 cents.

Calling stocks unfolded. South Swansea came forward with surprising firmness and made a sale at $1.27½. Golden Eagle responded with 4,000 shares, at 3½ cents, while Dexter was still a favorite and did business away above yesterday's figures, there being transfers at from $1.37½ to $1.42 a share. At the close the stock had a quote bid of $1.40, but there were no offerings under $1.42. Richmond Anaconda experienced a slight advance, and was quoted among the sellers at 6 and the buyers at a share. Overland had a bid of $1.38.

The closing figures were as follows:

PARADOX COPPER MINES.

Activity in and Interest Those Properties Claim Buyers Have Shown in Them.

Geo. H. Westfield, a prospector from Colorado, who has been working among the gulches on the northeast side of the La Sals for several weeks, came in last week and shows a handful of gold nuggets ranging in size from grains of wheat to large peas. The discovery caused no hubbub in the Klondike.

The second payment was made the first of the week by Hosie, Lewis, Taylor and Young on the Big Indian copper group. The Tonopah dollars was paid to Chps. T. May and Rudolph N. N. King. Dan Hosie of Provo came in Monday evening and delivered the checks. Mr. Hosie remained but a few hours, being driven back the same evening to take the train at Thompson.

T. W. Branson was in from his ranch near La Sal on the 1st. He reports that the Paradox copper mine are rapidly getting things in order. They have the dam and flume so far the power for the summer and the upper rooms, sook houses, etc., are completed. The machinery, boilers, etc., are on the ground or on the road in. Fifty or more men are at work in the mines and many more in other lines of occupation.

Captain J. W. Angell came in yesterday from Paradox. Mr. Angell has sold his interest in the Paradox copper for a song. He knows him on Sky Island for the last of his life, but he intends to keep sort. He has some very fine ore with him from the property he owns at Disappointment. He is holding his interests at Big Indian and Sunset Springs. Mr. Angell has a large another project under way but has not definitely decided on the location.

Mr. Charles Butters, M. E., the celebrated mining engineer of South Africa, is expected here during the present month for the purpose of examining the copper deposits of Big Indian and Lisbon valley districts. Mr. Butters stands at the head of his profession, having been president of the South Africa section of the Institution of Mining Engineers of England, and for a long time was one of the largest gravel reduction works in the Rand district. His report upon the copper deposits of this section will be looked for with interest.—Grand Valley Times.

No Good Gold Brick.

Tom Turner, who came down from Coalmonte, says the Union, Ore, Eliminator, Monarch, with him a gold brick valued at $100, the product of some ore taken from his property in the Coalmonte district known as the No Good claim. Mr. Turner had 28 tons of his ore reduced by the U. C. company, which produced $28 in the bar and this gold brick was the result of part of this run. The No Good claim has certainly been misnamed, as this bullion is evidenced that it is one of the best in Uinta county's wonderfully rich gold fields.

DIPS AND SPURS.

Silver, 69¾; lead, $2.75.

Things are said to be booming at Fish Springs.

The Dexter company has placed an order for a compressed air plant.

Members of the stock exchange will vote for a new governing board directly after tomorrow's call.

L. G. Hardy, who is superintending the Alice mine at Ophir, reports its lessee, for that property, the seventy.

Ore sold to run from $5 to $50 ounces silver and 30 per cent lead has been found in the Little Carbon mine at Tintic.

A movement is now on foot to give Ophir Park an adequate water supply, the project being in the hands of L. E. Hills and William Hatfield. The water will be taken from Rush lake and other springs, a few miles west of Silver City.

The La Reine Mining company has filed articles of incorporation. It has a capital stock of $150,000 divided into shares at $1 each, and owns claims in close proximity to the Hawkeye mine in the Tintic district. Paul Dalton is president, F. H. Schmidt, vice president and manager, and A. S. Day, secretary and treasurer.

Lehi Banner: Harry Jacobs, of the Galena mine at Park Springs, was in Lehi Saturday and from a boss tells us he has been approached by parties at Salt Lake to buy all the Galena stock they could at 20 cents. He wanted to know if others in the company intends to sacrificing the lots. He says the Early Harvest, which adjoins the Galena, is a good property and while he of course backs on the Galena, he thinks the Early Harvest people have a bonanza.

A SUPPOSED FRIEND.

It Gave Him a Case of Rheumatism.

I had been in the habit for many years of drinking strong coffee twice a day without sugar or milk, hoping by that means to moderate the effects upon my nervous system.

I never suspected the coffee habit had anything to do with my rheumatism, which was so bad that I was unable to get about without crutches, at times.

T. V. NICHOLS,
Lowell, Mass.

About a year and a half ago I stopped drinking coffee and took Postum Food Coffee, and after a few days trouble, I noticed a great improvement. Gradually had it made entirely according to directions (which is easy) and found it of such charming flavor that I have kept up its use ever since.

Strange as it may appear, the rheumatism disappeared entirely, and I have not had a single attack since. Moreover my family have all taken to using good uncolored Java, so that we find Postum is not only a delicious drink in itself, but that we are doing ourselves a big beneficial proposition.

The preparation of any sort of food or drink is an important, essential part, I feel that many people who have tried Postum, do not give the preparation to a certain rule, that is to say, they put it on the stove and let it stand, as they express, and think it should be done. We put Postum on in cold water, and when it comes to a rolling boil, we let it boil, then we allow it to simmer not 15 minutes which is the time for most of the delicious flavor and good food value.

Mr. and Mrs. Nichols of this city, are using Postum with good success. Mrs. Nichols has been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, had to give up coffee entirely on that account, and is now enjoying good health now, since using Postum Food Coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey of Auburn, were troubled in the same way, and have been cured by Postum. They say they never were so well.

CITY COUNCIL.

The Health Department Comes in for a Good Share of Attention.

At last night's meeting of the City Council the health department and the sanitary inspector came in for a great deal of attention and were the subjects of a resolution by Councilman Dinwoodey calling Inspector Ure to report at the next meeting of the Council the number of garbage wagons employed in the department, the names of the drivers and their respective districts. The resolution was adopted, Councilmen Backes and Freudrich voting negatively.

By a vote of 4 to 6 an appropriation of $75 was made to defray the expenses of Fire Chief Dwyer attending an annual convention of fire chiefs at St. Louis.

The House committee submitted for passage the draft of an ordinance which will permit drug stores to sell liquors upon prescription for medical purposes upon the payment only of the ordinary merchants' license. The bill was read and filed for second reading.

An ordinance requiring the inspection of steam boilers, prohibiting the running of steam by any but experienced persons and providing an examining board for such work was read the second time and passed to the third.

The North Point Consolidated Irrigation company sent in a communication demanding that the Council comply with the injunction of the Third district court, which prohibits the city from building the canal of the irrigation company with drain water.

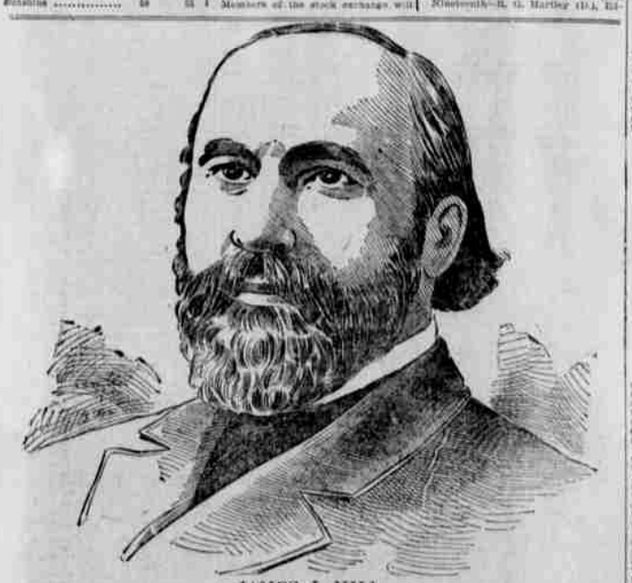
A request of the Union Light & Power company to make excavations on the paved streets for the purpose of repairing gas mains was granted.

The bid of the Coop Wagon & Machine company's electric cabs for the police and fire departments at $1 per hundred was accepted.

H. L. Patterson and C. S. Patterson asked permission to occupy a portion of the street on Second East, near the intersection of First South, to complete the gutter, as the place for extending a good sanitarium during the fall and winter. A notice to the effect of the petition was ordered to be published in the Tribune, but later the privilege was granted, provided the petitioners use the street facing the southeast corner of Pioneer square.

The request of Mrs. Dr. Plummer, secretary of the Women's Health Home association, for an increased monthly allowance from the city to assist in the maintenance of the home during the winter, was referred to the committee on fire and police.

The department of Utah, G. A. R., by C. O. Farnsworth, assistant adjutant general, expressed appreciation of the Council's favor in granting the Grand Army's petition for the use of canons in the park city and county building for department headquarters. Where to office and provide may be safely kept.



JAMES J. HILL.

The president of the Northwestern railway, James J. Hill, has been well known throughout the Northwest for years, but his name plunge into the Eastern field, through the purchase of the Baltimore and Ohio, has brought him more prominently before the people of the country in general than ever. He has been alluded to by his friends as "the Jehoshaphat of the Northwest." He was born in the Canadian backwoods September 16, 1838. His father was a native of the north of Ireland and his mother was Scotch. He had a common school education and was very fond of books. When he was 18 he started out to make his fortune. He borrowed money enough to take him to St. Paul, where he became clerk in a "bank stack" on the levee. His work was well done, and he lived in the cabin of a wharfboat, set up late nights studying his favorite authors and building a fund of valuable scientific information. He was very fond of the question of transportation and devoted much thought to the subject. In 1872 he acquired the dilapidated hulk of the St. Paul and Pacific railway. He later acquired the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba railway, which he built at an expense of $5,000,000 to become its president. He then turned his attention to the building of the great Canadian Pacific. He is now acquainted with its ends and knows almost every foot of them and every man on them. He is a man of culture and refinement, but hard worker, a deep thinker and has been called a "dreamer in action." He gives freely to charity and all who meet him speak well of him. His recent acquisitions will make him the head of the largest railway organization in the world.
