LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 86° in the shade at two o'clock to-day, though five degrees higher half an hour previously.

THEATRE.—The play of "Macbeth" last night was a very satisfactory performance. Mr. Chaplin's "Macbeth" was a very creditable assumption, Miss Walters' "Lady Macbeth" was really superior, Mr. Thorne's "Macduff" surpassed the anticipations of his friends, the solos and especially the chorus were admirable, and, above all, Professor Thomas actually treated the audience to some new music. Altogether the performance was very effectively rendered and the audience appeared to be well pleased.

This evening, by request, Mr. Chaplin and Miss Walters will appear in the beautiful dramatization of "Lady Thornhurst's daughter.

To-morrow Mr. E. T. Stetson will appear in one of his noted characters.

THE EMIGRANTS. — We learned, by Deseret Telegraph, to-day, that the emigrants were expected to arrive at Ogden at four o'clock this afternoon and to start from that point for this city at half past five o'clock, so they will probably arrive here about half past seven this evening.

BROUGHT HIM BACK.—Deputy Territorial Marshal Byron Groo arrived by last evening's train, bringing with him the notorious Jack Beegan, who, it will be remembered, was under confinement some time ago, at Camp Douglas, for the killing of Ned Doyle, but made his escape. A short time since official information reached this city that Beegan was at Denver, for which place Mr. Groo, after having obtained a requisition from Governor Woods, started early in last week, for the purpose of capturing and bringing along the escaped prisoner, in which, as before stated, he was successful, and Beegan is now in the City jail. Mr. Groo was most courteously treated by the officers at Denver.

POLYGAMY, as practiced in Utah, has developed a new and interesting feature, which is likely to result in a large accession to the Mormon Church of such as desire to profess a paying religion, and would fain blend the law of Brigham with the profits of the Gentiles. The homestead act is responsible for its development. It entitles any "head of a family" to select and enter into possession of a homestead, and, as is frequently the case in all families, a discussion has arisen as to the identity of this head. While the Mormons recognize the male Mormon as the head of one family composed of a company of wives and a brigade of children, the Federal law declares the family of which he is the head to be composed of none but his senior wife and her offspring. This would leave about fifteen women and fifty children per "head"—the word is used advisedly—composing fifteen aggregations or communities, which were families de facto, if not de jure. The Land Commissioner, by a recent decision, has vested the headship of these families in the mothers, and so qualified them to enter homesteads. The result, practically, has been to make each Mormon a repeater of real estate, holding as many homesteads as he has wives, and rivalling in the extent of his possessions the Utes of Colorado, who require four thousand acres apiece whereon to follow the angleworm to his native hole and chase the bounding grasshopper. A profitable field is here offered to those desirous of the comforts of several homes. It is not improbable that ere many years Mormonism will have become aggressive as to territory, and that the Utah market will demand all the surplus virgins of Massachusetts wherewith to pre-empt and people all the unentered acres west of the Mississippi.—Mo. Dem.

THE CIRCUS.—The San Francisco Circus drew a large audience last night. The company performs at Ogden to-night, Brigham City, August 21st; Logan Thursday, Friday and Saturday, 22, 23, and 24; Richmond 26 and 27; Wellsville 28; Corinne 29th; Evanston 31st; Echo September 2nd, Weber City 3rd. On Wednesday Sept. 4th, all the baggage, horses, vans, coaches, mules, harness and wagons will be sold, at public auction, reserving only the ring stock, canvass, and the band, advertising and ticket wagons, as the company will take rail for the State Fair in California, after performing here on the 6th and 7th.

THE EUROPEAN MISSION.—The following abstract of correspondence appears in the Millennial Star of July 30th:

Switzerland.—President John Huber, in writing from Berne on the 18th inst., says: "I have just returned from Interlaken, where I baptized several persons, and the prospect is that we shall soon have a 'respectable' branch there. I commenced where I left off ten years ago, and found many who believed the truth. You see I am making for the mountains, where I can find a few honest souls yet. Brother Keller has baptized several in East Swiss. Brother Reiser is in a less promising field of labor, as he is where he has the French element to contend with, consisting of the combined influence of drinking, prostitution and bigotry. For my choice I take the mountains, where are many good people yet; though they are rough as the rocks, they are as solid also.

"Elders Keller, Reiser, Leuba and myself are well. The Saints are at peace. A general inquiry after the truth makes itself manifest among the better classes. Our pamphlets are in nearly every town and village of the Protestant part of this country. I find printer's ink to be a good antidote to the prejudice which has been planted among the people by the priests, or the devil and the priests.

Bedfordshire Conference. — President George W. Wilkins, writing under date of 21st instant, says:—"We have good meetings in some places—in others we can hardly find enough to form a meeting, and this too in places where formerly large branches flourished, but the Saints have gathered home in obedience to the command of the Lord. The majority of the Saints in this conference are alive to their duties; most of them are poor, and though they toil early and late, yet they will walk miles to get to the meetings. There are quite a number of men and women in this conference sixty years old and upward, poor but honest souls, that must be assisted before they can gather. I often wish I had the power to lift the Saints out of their poverty and place them in the goodly land of Zion, the heritage of the faithful."

Bristol Conference: — President David Cazier under date of 22nd instant writes—"On last Sunday the 21st, we held two district meetings in Gloucester for that part of the conference formerly called the Cheltenham Conference. Five branches were represented, which are reported to be in a fair way of advancement considering the scattered condition of the members. The meetings were addressed by Elders Jesse Gardener, Joseph Wadley and myself; a good spirit prevailed, and much valuable instruction was given."

Birmingham Conference.—Elder Erastus W. Snow under date of 23rd instant writes—"During the last two weeks I have been actively engaged in traveling among the scattered Saints in this conference. While at Coventry on the 15th, I had the pleasure of baptizing three persons. My general health is very good and I rejoice in the spirit of my mission."

ARRESTED.—On Thursday last a report reached Logan City, that John Nelson Jr., a resident of that place, somewhat notorious for his dishonest practices, had been at his old games, and had stolen a set of harness from a resident of Box Elder. On Friday morning Sheriff Alvin Crockett, and his deputy, Philander Cranny, went to the residence of Nelson and found him snug in bed. They made known the cause of their visit, and not only arrested their man but recovered the stolen property. Nelson, in the custody of the sheriff, was taken on Friday to Brigham City, and placed in safe keeping until an investigation could be had, and it is very likely he will be committed for trial. This individual is said to be an incorrigible thief. He was formerly convicted and sent to the penitentiary for cattle-stealing, and was, we believe, pardoned by the late Governor Durkee.

THE PAT LANNAN CASE.—The case of this worthy came up in Justice Clinton's Court at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, but nothing of a definite character was done, owing to there being a disagreement among the lawyers as to the position of Judge McKean relative to the bearing on the new city ordinance of the writ of prohibition issued some time ago by Judge Strickland, which took the ground that the old ordinance was null and void. It is believed that Judge McKean, however, will assume the ground that the new ordinance is substantially the same as the old, and that Strickland's writ has equal effect upon the one as the other.

It is held by many gentlemen of sound legal judgment that a District Judge has no right to issue a prohibitory writ of the nature of that granted by Judge Strickland unless there be a statutory provision giving him that authority, and we believe that no such provision exists in any of the statutes of Utah. We understand that such writs can also be issued in the States, where a clause so providing exists in the State constitutions, but of course this has no bearing on Utah, the Territories having no constitutions.

To say that the action of the District Court in this arbitary interference with the municipal government of this city is in direct opposition to the spirit of the late decision of the U. S. Supreme Court, would be but stating that which every intelligent person knows. That decision was to the effect that Territories and municipalities had the positive right to regulate their own internal affairs.

PERIODICALS.—We are indebted to Mr. J. Dwyer, of the Salt Lake News Depot, East Temple St., for the following, now for sale at his store: "Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper," and "Harper's Weekly" for next Saturday; also for "Harper's Monthly Magazine," "The Popular Science Monthly" and "The Overland Monthly," for September. Harper's is, as usual, full of good things; The Popular Science Monthly is excellent, containing articles on a variety of subjects by some of the most eminent scientists in America and Europe. The "Overland Monthly" is a capital number, containing among other good things the beautiful poem, entitled "The Tales of the Amazons," the latest production of the noted Californian author and poet, Joaquin Miller.

d231 3 MARY E. YOUNG.

The Great San Francisco Circus attracted an overflowing audience last night, to witness "Dick Turpin, or, the Death of Black Bess," the wonderful and fearless equestrian Artist, Mr. Omar Kingsley, as Dick Turpin; The skillful business management of the General Agent, Dr. Hasken, and the generous manner of advertising this talented establishment, are creditable alike to the Agent and the Management. The polite and courteous Col. Thompson, one of the proprietors, has won for himself golden opinions in this community for the straightforward business-like style of conducting the financial affairs of the company. Too much connot be said in praise of the most excellent performance of the Matthews Family, the capital Band and Orchestra, and in fact the entire troupe have proved themselves worthy of the extensive patronage the company have received everywhere.

Col. John Wilson is in New York City, and will bring out a large number of the best artists in the sawdust and equine line, and appear with the new organization here, about Sept. 6. d231 1
