DESERET EVENING NEWS. GEORGE O. CANNON, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER. - - • October 30, 186 Friday.

> For the Deservet Evening News. Telegraph. Bu

GENERAL

Springfield, Mass., 29.-The Ameri-can Missionary Association commenced its annual meeting here to-day. The present indebtedness of the society is $80,726. The society owns property to the amount of $200,000 in excess of all debts.

The Baptist state convention also met to-day. The vote on the close communion question resulted in its favor.

Boston.-An inflammatory meeting was held at the Missionary Rooms on Sunday, on the occasion of the departure of six missionaries to a foreign field. Chicago.—A Tribune's special says the

umph of New York state, and was willing to let the rest of the country take care of itself. The Central committee has proved a fraud a deception and an ignis fatuus, its leading consideration tionary committee. It breathes the most intense revolutionary; spirit, and being only to defeat on some special days.

James. T. Brady, a noted lawyer of New York will vote the Grant and Rethe stump for Grant had his friends thought it advisable.

master of San Francisco, died on his passage to Panama.

The initiatory legal proceedings were taken to-day, by J. W. Simonton, viva in against the New York Tribune Printing Public. Association, for publishing a libelous article this morning, of a personal na-ture, over the signature of one Geo. H. Butler.

San Francisco, 29.-Political excitement in this city is great, and partizan feeling bitter. There are indications of serious riots previous to, and on the election day; several inconsiderable collis-ions have aiready occurred. During the marching of the Republican procession pistol shots and one man seriously stabbed. Mayor McCoppen appeared on the scene of disturbance and succeeded army, and not swell it above the numin dispersing the crowd. Lynn, Mass., 29.-Wormald and O' Baldwin commenced their prize fight in the vicinity of this city to-day; they fought one round when the Lynn po-lice made a decout when the Lynn police made a descent and captured both ries were sustained by the shipping at pugulists and dispersed the crowd. Both the principals are held in $5,000 bail for their appearance to-day; they have not secured bail.

Aronacara is overrun by bandits; the government is powerless. Communi-cation between Talcahuno and Conception is now suspended at high water, owing to the extraordinary tides which have done much damage. The water at Tacahuno has been so hot as to throw up all the fish in a cooked state; great subterranean rumblings were frequent. London.-The leaders of the Liberal of six missionaries to a foreign field. Chicago.—A Tribunc's special says the Washington Intelligencer continues its attack on the Tammany ring, but does not come out for Grant. It says the Tammany clique which assumed to manage the campaign up to this time have managed it only in the interest of the Republicans. Never before was a party cursed with such management. Tammany is content with the local tri-umph of New York state, and was will party, after a careful survey of the field, Roundell Palmer; Secretary of War, Marquis of Hartington.

A Havana paper brings a copy of the proclamation issued by the revoluconcludes with a strong appeal to the Cubans to pronounce for a Federal republic. It demands popular suffrage, the publican ticket, and would have taken dissolution of the permanent army, the establishment of a national militia, justice for all classes, liberty of the New York, 29.-R. F. Perkins, post-press, liberty of discussion, freedom of commerce, freedom of industry, freedom

Berlin.-The session of the North German Diet will be formally opened by the King in persen, November 4th. It is semi-officially asserted that the speech from the throne will be of a re- hands. a-suring and pacific character.

Paris .- The Moniteur, to-day, says

by the Emperor. Vienna.-An announcement is made

His kingdom, and regardless of every to an extract taken from one of our pa-thing save our own general interests. per: The consequence is that there is grow-ing up in our midst a power that mena-ces us with utter destruction and over-to secure them, stick out in every word of pletely obliterated. When we are told pletely obliterated. When we are told thus plainly and undisguisedly, would it not be folly, nay insanity, for us to sit still, fold our arms supinely and await the still, fold our arms supinely and await still, fold our arms supinely and await the crash without making a single ef-fort to ward it off? A people who would be thus besotted would be unworthy the blessings which God has bestowed upon us.

I know there is a feeling of great confidence in the minds of our brethren and sisters. They have, as President Young has often said, a great amount of faith; they have so great trust in God as to go and sell their grain, expecting that God will feed them whether the grain is in the bin or not. Some such confi-dence as this seems to pervade their minds respecting that which is in the future, and they manifest to a certain extent, carelessness and indifference in mill privileges, &c. extent, carelessness and indifference in regard to carrying out the counsels that are given them, thinking that God, who has so signally preserved them in times commerce, freedom of industry, incoroly to emigrate, abolition of the monopoly of slavery, and viva Spanish liberty, of slavery, and viva Spanish liberty, alone. Our faith should be associated alone. Our faith should be associated respond with the former. When our faith and works are united we can call upon God for help to enable us to acupon God for help to enable us to ac-complish that which he requires at our with a besom of destruction if that is inevit-sisters, on past scenes, as I have been the army bill which was passed by the doing while listening to the remarks of Austrian Reichsrath will not be signed the brethren during this Conference; gets, or purposely keeps out of sight, the by the Emperor. gets, or purposely keeps out of sight, the truth that this Mormonism, which is sacions have aiready occurred. During the marching of the Republican procession on Tuesday night the line was attacked a number of times, serious personal in-juries being sustained by parties in the ranks. Last night the Grant Invinci-bles and the Seymour club met on Bush street, when pistols and knives were drawn, two persons being wounded by pistol shots and one man seriously istabled. Maxwar McComen any accurate the the men will stabled. Maxwar McComen any serious personal is a format assurance that the men will stabled. Maxwar McComen any serious personal is a format assurance that the men will stabled. Maxwar McComen any serious personal is a format assurance that the men will stabled. Maxwar McComen any serious personal is a format assurance that the men will stabled. Maxwar McComen any accurates in the privations the people endured inty that the raited of the government is were in when driven from Nausoo, and but on the recent speech of Baron Von Buest is failed a religion, is a heathenish were in when driven from Nausoo, and the government is valuey—the sufferings of the work and the privations the people endured while there; on the hardships the people and the privations the people endured while there; on the hardships the people and the privations the people endured is a format assurance that the men will a deficiency in the standing introl the men and children and the men will and the privations the people endured is a format assurance that the men will a deficiency in the standing introl the men and children and the men and set out a introl the men and children and the men and children and the privations the people endured is a format assurance that the men will and the privations the people of the other there is a format assurance that the men will and the privations the people endured is a format assurance that the men will a deficiency in the standing is a black and one man seriously is tabled. Maxwar McComen any series of the there is a format assurance that the men will a deficiency in the stand rival here, and remember that all this was caused by the red hand of persecu-tion, by mobocracy and the violence of wicked men, who envied us the possession of our Heaven-given rights. When I reflect upon all this, and also spon our circumstances now, I feel thankful for what God has done for us, and my prayer, oft repeated, has been "O God, never let this people again become a prey to mobocrats, never let us fall again into the hands of our enemies, but if we do wrong, do Thou naturalize, have taken out their papers chasten us and save us from the hands from the Probate Courts, in many instances of those who have persecuted us." This paying a larger tee therefor than the clerk has been my feeling. But when I look of the District Court would be entitled to at our circumstances now, I feel as were not averse to having a repetition who are ready and desirous of occupying of those scenes. For years after we came into these States gives them a right to do. Many of valleys we felt as though we never these foreigners, either holding no papers wanted to see the face of an enemy at all or those spurious ones issued by again, and if we could only have bread Probate Courts, have since the passage of again, and if we could only have bread and water and peace we could be content. We felt, as Bro. Pratt expressed himself yesterday, that if we had only and persistently violated its provisions; and have been loud in the expressions of wolf and deer skins to clothe ourselves with we would be satisfied, if we could only have peace. It was peace we came here to enjoy. It was for peace that we fled from our former homes and made the long and wearisome journey to these Why, here in the head city of Zion, in the centre city, where the foundations but they were published at the selves of it. the centre city, where the foundations the centre city, where the foundations of the temple are laid and where the House of the Lord has been reared in which endowments and sacred ordi-nances are given, what do we find? We nances are given, what do we find? We find a power growing up in our midst that threatens us, in the most plain and been so for years; and this power has been fostered by us as a people. It has grown, flourished and fattened upon us and the means we have produced. Is it the Saints and to set before them the principles of salvation in such a manner that they will understand the course they ought to take. <text><text><text><text><text><text><text> here, the labors we have expended in ten had brought to my mind a circum-rearing this city and in extending civil- stance that occurred in Nauvoo. It were any greater evidence needed of our be brought into our midst as the wooden throw. We are told — openly and without disguise, that when the rail-road is completed there will be such a flood of so-called "civilization" brought in here that every vestige of us, our church and institutions shall be com-pletely obliterated. When we are told that no one but those who bow as servilely as himself to Brigham, shall have leave to stay in this Territory, ignores the fact that the Salt Lake basin is a rich oasis in which mill privileges, &c. Hitherto this Territory has only been of interest to the people of the United States because of the infamous establishment sought to be set up in it in the sacred name of religion, and the motor of the warfare against the gross outrage has been alone the moral sense of the country, but now for the reasons just named, a commercial inter-est is added, and the two together will as surely as truth is truth, and right is right, crush out the vile thing and rid the country able," [Mark these words! How much they When I reflect, my brethren and sound like the language of the manifesto of the mob in Jackson County, Missouri!]

"This Editor, in his shallow boasting, for-Acapulco advices state that the port of San Elas was nearly destroyed by a muticane and tidal wave; four lives were lost. Valparaiso dates to October 3d say. There was great damage hereining on the present time, as I for whole in to the counsels that are given to us, God has a scourge in the crops in the southern provinces were scribiling muth suffering on the poople. Senor Flores has arrived from Ecma-dor to complete the joint treaty of peace-with Bpean, Russor and Part. Eccas on w, for a long period, done as we with Bpean, Russor and Part. Eccas of the southern provinces were scribe arbitration used are sources the and that there is required of us to-day. We have gone have or the source arbitration of the sources arbitration plan, while Chill favors the information of the sources recommended by France and Englass. Aromaera is overrup by banding the shadles of weak for the sources recommended by France and Englass.

up the kingdom of God, who are one them up to the necessity of taking the with us. If this fight must come and course we are urging upon them. That we have to cut off all from the church is our duty, and it makes no difference who will not reform in this respect, I what others may think about it. Time would rather have it done now than will prove whether the Priesthood will wait until, environed by enemies, we are thrust out of our possessions at the point of the bayonet and compelled to those who are not of us or not; and flee to the mountains for safety. (Con- whether they will apostatize because ship with those who sustain the ene- if such is the case, which however is not mies of the kingdom of God. I never true. Time is the great rectifier of all did have. From my childhood my these things. We may labor for a time heart has been in this kingdom; every under misconstruction; but we can pulsation of it has been for Zion.

For years we have submitted to this erroneous ideas. treatment at the hands of outsiders in There are a great many points conour midst. The present paper has been, nected with this question which might if anything, better than its predecessor, be dwelt upon. It is an important matfor that had no editor's name to it. Fos-tered on the hill here, its contributors were men who wore the uniform of our The question is, Will we sustain the respected "Uncle." Its printers were Kingdom of God or will we not? Will men who were paid as coldiers. There we sustain the priesthood of God or will was no name published at the head of its we not? This power of which I have not made any quotations from that. It, comes to the test this people will desert too, was sustained and contributed to their leaders and cleave to something by merchants in this City who seek the support of this people. I am informed, however, that the one at present pub-lished here is now issued without an editor's name to it.

brought us trade. We have heard it saken former homes for it. The great stated time and time again that until majority of the first settlers came withthe advent of Colonel Johnson and his out shoes to their feet, and passed the army we were destitute of a circulating first two or three winters in mocassins, medium, but that since that period we and ate but a very scanty allowance of have increased in wealth, money is food. What was this for? Because we had more plentiful, and we have grown and obtained a knowledge of the blessings swer these questions. Will we patient-ly submit to these things? Shall we bow ourselves as willing slaves to the yoke they would fasten upon us? (Cries of "No, No.") Well, then, if you will not bow to it, stop your trading with men of this class and sustain your friends; sustain those who want to build they kingdom of God, who are one gregation said "Amen") As an individual, I have no fellow- they can get goods cheaper from an out-sider than they can somewhere else, even afford to wait. We shall outlive all columns, and it was more base even than the present publication, because no one was responsible for its contents. I have themselves with the idea that when it respecting this work; we know that it It may be said, and is said by a great is of more value to us than all the earth many, that this outside element has besides. As I have said, we have forrilegiously called a religion, is a heathenish spread abroad. And they take the of the gospel of Jesus Christ. It is no

New York .- Several persons have been arrested, charged with selling false

Committee estimate the Republican majorities in the State at 80,000 to the Hud- ging and three boats. son River; the Democratic majorities are estimated at 72,000, giving the Republicans a majority in the State of thousand men. 8,000.

New Orleans, 29.-The Central Committee of all the Democratic clubs in the city have issued an address, denying the allegations that they intend to carry election by fraud, violence and intimidation, and stating that they have adopted resolutions guaranteeing to every voter in the parish, without reference to race, color or politics, full protection in the exercise of the suffrage, also guaranteeing them against all intimidation or fraud, and calling upon I look upon them as of momentous imevery voter in the city to exercise the portance, because upon their correct soright of the suffrage. They invite all lution depends, to a very great extent, safety, and protection against danger or has given unto us the labor of upbuildundue influence in the exercise of the ing His Zion on the earth, and it is for suffrage.

lence.

Louisville.- A locomotive attached exploded its boiler near the Memphis

Chicago, 30.—A New Orleans special to the Republican paper says that last night armed bands of Democrats patroled the streets and shot down negroes. The Republican club rooms and some private residences were sacked.

Gen. Steedman is organizing police, ber fixed by law.

The steamship Sierra Nevada, arrived with Mazatlan advices to October 22nd. the different ports; great damage was also done to the town and harbor of La Paz. One large vessel dragged her anchor, and some smaller ones ran ashore. The steamer California, several days overdue at Mazatlan, was not heard from at the sailing of the Sierra Nevada. naturalization papers. Chicago, 29.—The Republican's New York special says the Republican State Sierra Nevada lost her masts and rig-

Vienna.-The war footing of the Austrian army is fixed at eight huhdred

DISCOURSE.

By Elder GEORGE Q. CANNON, delivered in the New Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, Oct 7th, 1868.

REPORTED BY DAVID W. EVANS.

There have been some exceedingly important questions presented before us for our consideration at this Conference. persons of whatever political complex-ion to join in the efforts to secure peace and harmony at the polls, to the end that the most timid member of any par-ty may feel aroused under a sense of the perpetuity of our homes, and of the institutions which God has given us. God has entrusted to this people His gospel. He has placed in His church the oracles of the holy priesthood. He us, if we expect to receive the reward General Rousseau has received fur her that He has promised, to fulfill that trust accessions of troops, and will be able to faithfully, let the consequences be what prevent all but individual acts of viothey may.

Already the establishment of this tol a freight train, beyond Nashville, eration. Already a prophet, a patriarch, work has cost the best blood of this genexploded its boiler near the Memphis junction killing the engineer and fire-man and three others. Six freight cars heavily loaded were completely wreck-ed. Chicago, 30.—A New Orleans special vain; whether the sufferings, trials, difficulties and hardships, our exodus from the lands which we formerly occupied and inhabited, our pilgrimage to this country, our sufferings since we came

In another article, which appeared on the 8th of September, we find the following:

"There are numbers of foreigners in this Territory, who have never abjured their allegiance to the foreign ruler from whose the Probate Judges, either wilfully or ig-norantly made, that they had no power to charge. These foreigners all occupy and the act of 1862, prohibiting polygamy in the Territories of the United States, openly disloyalty towards the government of the United States," one indeed who would sell himself to Brig-ham." In another article, which appeared on this withdrawal. But let them test the truth of this themselves practically as we intend to do. It is very plain to be seen, from the extracts which I have read to you, what the intention is, we have seen it carried out before at other places where we dominions they emigrated; and who have have dwelt. As soon as we began to year after year voted for local officers and a increase in wealth, to build comfortable delegate to Congress. There are others houses, and to open farms, the cupidity who, deceived by the representations of of our enemies was excited against us. When we came here we were poor and poverty stricken. We possessed nothing to excite anybody's cupidity. It was breezes of peace and prosperity ever fill their hoped that we would perish in the wil- sails; may their barque be borne slong in gen. to excite anybody's cupidity. It was derness; but when it was found that we had money, there was a class, who, like vultures, scenting the carrion from afar, at our circumstances now, I feel as hold more or less land in this Territory, and vultures, scenting the carrier from afar, though the people had forgotten that expect to avail themselves of the pre-emp-which they have passed through, and tion law to the exclusion of actual citizens would have thought that the "Morwould have thought that the "Mormons" had thousands of friends. |Why, they always sympathised with and they always sympathised with and pitied us! they always felt kindly to-wards us and though, we were a very much abused people! Unfortunately, we never heard that they were thus THEATRE! sympathetic or had any feelings of kindness towards us-we had never seen their publications appealing in our behalf, or heard their voices imploring the authorities or the parent government to yoo and I had heard these extracts read mies. We had never heard anything of should have thought they were from | this kind, and should never have known the Warsaw Signal. But these execra- anything about it had they not come

They are disseminated throughout the in defence of us in times of difficulty or Territory, so far as they can be; they danger; and should there be danger to-are sent to the east and to the west, to day, and we be menaced from without undisguised manner, with utter de-struction. Is this so? It is, and has where as far as the influence of our ene-would find that these fair-weather where as far as the influence of our ene- would find that these fair-weather where as far as the influence of our ene-mies extends. In these infamous sheets the public are informed that the Latter-day Baints are assassins and everything from the east, as I met a whole company that is vile, low and degraded. And no from the east, as I met a whole company not necessary, then, that something should be done? To my mind it is clear that some effort, such as has been pro-posed, should be made to concentrate the Saints and to set before them the ought to be inaugarated against us. who are very fine men. I would as When a paper of this kind is published soon deal with them in the eastern in our midst and goes forth to the world States as with anybody else; but it is unchallenged, it is a difficult thing for because they are in Salt Lake city that While the brethren were talking yes-terday, and while we were South, I of-tory to realise that everything in its exclusive," it may be said. I confees it

AT FRIST MARKERS

Married:

In this city, on Wednesday, 28th inst., by Pre-sident Daniel H. Wells, Charles W. Stayner, youngest son of Captain Thomas C. Stayner, to Miss Elizabeth M. McLelland, oldest daughter of Phomas McLelland, Bishop of the 7th Ward? Mill. Star please copy.

We extend our hearty congratulations to the happy pair, who with a full treight of love and lov start out on the voyage of life. May the tle waves through the ocean of life; may clus-

On the 29th inst., at the residence of Mrs. Belinda Pratt, in this city, by President Geo. A. Smith, Mr. Geo. B. Warren and Miss Mary Anu Newman, both of Parowan.

.

all right I have no	Pantaloon
r oupport mom vino
self and sustain our-	The Farorite I The Arth want a paper, Sun-	Madame Methua SCH Has arrived and will appear n themselves. Then hands of God. But	DOORS OPEN at 7 o'clock, commences punctually at 71%.
am an contailante of	