SUNDAY IN SAVANNAH.

President McKinley Spends a Pleasant Sabbath in the Southern City.

HE TALKS TO THE COLORED CITIZENS.

Takes a Short Excursion to the Camp of the Seventh Army Corps, Accompanied by Sons.

Savannah, Ga., Dec. 18.—Notwithstanding this was supposed to be a day of rest with the President, it proved to be a matter of fact, full of work in house and society. The day was as ideal one. Though they had not been to the banquet, yet sleep in what ever for the President, who did not rise until 9 o'clock when Gen. Wooster delivered the delightful breakfast to "Uncle" Ben Pender and accompanying members of his cabinet came to breakfast, at which the usual hour, 10 o'clock, they repaired to attend divine services.

President McKinley attended church at the Wesley Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. McKinley did not accompany him. She is suffering from a slight cold and remained at the Mansion. Her indisposition, however, does not amount to real illness, and she afternoon she was able to take a carriage ride to beat the city.

The President was seated at the door of the church by leading members of the congregation, who escorted him to the pew reserved for him. As he entered, the congregation rose and the organ sounded. He had but taken his seat. The sermon was by Rev. John A. Thompson, D. D. Thompson is a young man, one of the distinguished preachers during the service, legend an innovation by the preacher for a discussion of the President during the crisis which now confronted the country.

Secretary Alger and Gen. Shafter attended the First Presbyterian church, and after an awaiting hold an informal levee in the obliganoing possessed by the crowd, some in white hands and led them welcome.

Gen. Joseph Wheeler and family were occupied at the First Baptist church. After the service they shook hands with several hundred persons. The President and Mrs. McKinley St. John's Episcopal church, and Secretary Smith the Independent Presbyterian. The ladies were greeted by many members of the congregations.

After dinner the President visited the Georgia Agricultural and Mechanical college and spoke where he delivered an address. The route to the college took the President through the camp of seventeen army corps, and, going accordingly, he stopped at the camp for a brief inspection and made words of appreciation and encouragement to the men.

Secretary Alger met Gen. Shafter after visited the camps. Secretary Alger paid more attention to the camp than any other member of the party. He went through several of the regimental villages, from headquarters to kitchens and made a critical examination. He also visited the hospital of the First division, where he spoke kindly to the sick men and made inquiries into their wants and how they were supplied. After the trip he expressed himself as very much gratified with the camp and the work of the hospital corps.

Postmaster-General Smith, Gen. Shafter and the Secretary of Navigation were with the Presidential party every the guests of the officers of the Third brigade, Third Georgia regiment, at the camp this afternoon, and in evening dinner was served. Postmaster-General Smith made a speech at dinner, during the course of which he let it a high tribute to the press for its dignity.

Gen. Shafter made an impromptu conversational talk to the men assembled, which was full of suggestiveness and at once placed the general in touch with all of his hearers. After dinner the party made an inspection of the camps. Without exception the visitors pronounced the arrangements excellent.

The members of the visiting party spent the evening in the parlors of the Hotel Savannah. The time was taken up in report for Mason, for which place their trees left at midnight. On the way to the depot the President and Secretary with hearty cheers, as called, he bowed and smiled off at the crowd. Not been every time to his name within sight during his stay here.

CRUISER INJURED.

Cincinnati Strikes Upon a Reef, as She is Leaving Santiago.

Santiago de Cuba, Dec. 18.—While the United States cruiser Cincinnati was leaving port about sunset yesterday she struck a fair upon a rock clearly defined in the harbor, but not buoyed. Last September the Lessons West, considering that the absence of a buoy there might lead to a disaster, anchored a small one, the first one ever placed there, but the buoy, on entering the harbor one night, was tied it away, and since then there has been no buoy to mark the location of the rock.

The Cincinnati probably is not seriously damaged, as she is not making water. For the last twenty-four hours the government sailor Southey and the Mayflower have been engaged in an effort to pull her off, but they have been unsuccessful, but it is hoped that they will have better luck tonight at high tide. The crew of the cruiser is the tearing of a hole in the cruiser's bottom while pulling her off.

Capt. C. H. Stockton, the cruiser's commander, claims that the landmarks are in the wrong places and have not been altered to suit the new owners of the American occupation. Pilots are not compulsory upon the entrance of warships, but in the case of the Cincinnati and a warship would invariably take one. Hereafter a large buoy will mark the rock upon which the Cincinnati struck.

It now turns out that the man who was shot Sunday Friday morning by a Cuban after landing from a schooner hailing from Havana was not, as at first reported, Colonel Scrobrod, the guerrilla, but a merchant from Havana, who had come here to purchase supplies. The assumption that the crime was committed for the sake of robbery.

Fort Ximena, a town which is virtually the property of the Juragua Iron company, comes the report that the Alsada has been attacked and seized with a machete, and that there has been another stabbing affray at Duquiri. Although these affairs are not ably similar camp news, the authorities feel compelled to publish them lacks, which heretofore has been unnecessary, owing to the fact that a majority of the soldiers are Spanish soldiers and under military discipline.

The arrival of the news that the United States troops have confirmed the assumption of Gen. Wood as a most general was the occasion for universal rejoicing here. Gen. Wood was at El Moro examining the improvements and at his first intimation which the Punta Gorda Cuban forces in Santiago, Gen. Wood's arrival in Santiago, Gen. Wood's arrival in several's cabin. The bells in the cities first and churches were rung, and all bands played for several hours. In the crowded cities and cafes there were toasts and cheers in honor of the military governor. A reception and dinner have been arranged and a public banquet planned.

Reform Occulated.

Chicago, Dec. 18.—Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson was heavily bombarded by a large fleet of Kissing cups at the Auditorium tonight, but no one was engaged. It is well known that he was seriously injured. Lieut. Hobson

Good-Bye, Rheumatism.

The Right Remedy Will Banish it Forever.

If you would forever be rid of the aches and pains, and sometimes the tortures produced by rheumatism, you must take the right remedy. Those who done time to suffer are relying upon remedies which do not reach their trouble. The doctor's treatment always consists of potash and mercury, which only intensify the disease, causing the joints to stiffen and the bones to ache, besides seriously impairing the digestive organs.

Rheumatism is a disordered state of the blood, and the only cure for it is a real blood remedy. Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) goes down to the very bottom of all diseases of the blood, and, promptly cures cases that other remedies can not reach.

Mr. E. K. S. Clinkenbeard, a prominent attorney of Mt. Sterling, Ky., writes:

"Two years ago I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism. I had tried every remedy I could hear of except S. S. S. I had been to Hot Springs, Ark., where I remained for twelve weeks under treatment, but I experienced no permanent relief, and returned home believing that I would be a sufferer as long as I lived. At a time when my pains were almost unbearable, I chanced to read your advertisement and was impressed with it so much that I decided to try S. S. S. I took eleven bottles and was entirely relieved of all pain and cured permanently. When I began to take S. S. S. I was unable to sit or stand with easy ease, and could not sleep. Since taking the last dose I have had no return of the Rheumatism, and I take great pleasure in recommending S. S. S. to any one who has the misfortune to suffer with this disabling disease."

S.S.S. is the only cure for Rheumatism, which is the most stubborn of blood diseases. It is not intended to give relief only, but by completely neutralizing the acid condition of the blood it forces out every trace of the disease and rids the system of it forever. It is and one thousand dollars reward is offered to any chemist who can prove that it contains a particle of mercury, potash, or any other mineral ingredient. S. S. S. is the only blood remedy guaranteed to be absolutely free from mineral mixtures.
