THE MINING MARKET.

The Bulls and Bears Score a Bad Day on 'Change.

HALF A THOUSAND SHARES SOLD.

The Stocks Dealt in are Mercur and Northern Light—The New Syndicate—Tips and Spurs.

To say that this was a poor day on 'change would be putting it mildly. In fact, as stated by one of the brokers, it was a "green" Saturday, so far as trading was concerned. That long array of valuable dividend-paying listed stocks was called over, and brought out but one sale—that of 100 shares of Mercur at [illegible] per share. The scarcity of sales was not due to any lack of attention on the part of the brokers, because they displayed equally as much interest in the call as they ever did, but it seemed to be an "off" day and failures to bring the quotations together, closed today's proceedings as among the dullest yet recorded in the history of the present mining exchange.

Northern Light and that stone, furnished the life of the unlisted call, and 400 shares changed hands at rather [illegible] figures, the stock going at [illegible] and [illegible] cents. Numerous other properties were called out and received quotations, among them being the Cyanide Gold Mining company and the Pan American, both of which made their initial appearance today. The former was offered at [illegible] cents with no bids while offerings of the latter were made at [illegible] cents.

The closing figures were as follows:

THE NEW SYNDICATE.

The Iron County Record Tells of the Organization of the Above Named Company.

Last Monday evening, May 18, a new improvement company, to be known as the Iron County Mining, Milling and Real Estate company, was organized with the following officers: President, Andrew Corry; vice president, S. A. Higbee; secretary and treasurer, J. S. Woodbury, and directors, George W. Middleton, T. D. Burns, R. H. Palmer and G. P. W. Bergstrom.

The company will not file articles of incorporation at present, and the above organization is only considered as temporary; but if the promoters of the move succeed in carrying their scheme from their projected plans, they will incorporate and organize for permanent work.

The first move of the new association was to employ two prospectors and miners to represent them in the new Lime Mining district, where they already have two locations. The two representatives left here Tuesday, and will devote themselves to developing the claims of the company, one of which is in close proximity to the Bonanza, in which they have great faith, and in prospecting for other claims. The two workmen, who are members of the organization, are to receive $1.50 per day, which will be subscribed by the various members—all new locations and improvements to become the property of the company. The future of the syndicate will depend largely on the success of these prospectors. If they develop something rich the company will file articles of incorporation, and if at the expiration of a month or two they fail to meet with the hoped-for success, the company will only be out the wages of the two workmen.

The Lime Mining district is coming to the front, and its prospects for becoming a big camp continue to brighten. With Col. Corry at the head, and such an able goahead force of officers to assist him, the organization should become a power in mining circles, and we hope it will.

Tips and Spurs.

Reports from the State Line district are to the effect that rich discoveries of ore are being made daily and that as a result the district is literally swarmed with miners and prospectors.

The new ten-stamp mill at the April Fool property in De Lamar, Idaho, has commenced operations, and [illegible]

State Senator Allen, whose home is in the Junction City, was seen in the pit of the Stock Exchange today.

Messrs. E. G. Woolley, Stephen Lynch and perhaps others form a party who will visit Mercur tomorrow.

Iron County Record: The Clark Bros. made a shipment of ten tons of ore from their mines in the Lime district Thursday.

It is expected that the experimental mill now being erected by the Mercur Mining company on Gibbon [illegible] will be in operation in the course of about two weeks.

Each of the brokers on 'Change today subscribed half a dollar for the purpose of hiring the organization's messenger boy with an official uniform.

Another new market maker has appeared in the pit—the exchange today. It's now indicated that he was quite efficient in the art of shaking down stock quotations.

Broker James A. Pollock, whose health has been impaired for some time past, has had a relapse in New York, which has forced his return to the hospital there.

Tooele Transcript: J. B. Greene and M. [illegible] Stevens are in from the Golden Gate property at Mercur and report everything looking very promising after having gone in about fifty feet.

A strike of ore, which is said to go 60 percent lead and 100 ounces silver to the ton, is reported as having been discovered in the Hidden Queen mine located in Dry Canyon, Ophir district, last Saturday.

It is reported that the management of the Horn Silver has posted official notice at the company's properties that upon the going into effect of the eight-hour law, the employees will be paid 27½ cents an hour, which will make their wages $2.20 per day.

Mrs. James H. Maddell, says the Rock Springs Miner, is preparing to move to Bingham, Utah, between the 1st and 10th of June. Mr. Maddell is engaged in mining in that camp. Mr. Maddell's brother, who accompanied him to Utah, has returned to his home in Lamoni, Iowa.

Rock [illegible] Lake papers are quoted as saying that the carload of ore shipped there from the Chesbro mine at Willow Creek was the best ever received there. The assay is not given out by the [illegible]... A telephone message received today (Friday) from the DeLamar states that some one of the English syndicate would arrive there in a few days, and the trouble regarding the strike would be settled before June 1st.

News from Deseret in the Tooele Transcript says: We learn that Mr. Haven, of the Consolidated Gold Mining company, is at Gold Hill with an English mining expert, and that they started up the mills to make a short run to show how the ore turned out. There will probably be a sale of that property before long.... T. C. Rockledge's team loaded down with tools and men passed through Deseret today en route to the Queen of Sheba mine, situated in Fifteen Mile canyon, where they will prepare the ground for a saw mill. They intend putting in a Craw mill quartz mill soon.

A prospectus of typographical beauty, as well as one which contains a volume of information with regard to the concern it represents, is that recently issued by the Wonder Gold Mining company, owning properties in Mercur, immediately adjoining Captain De Lamar's now famous Golden Gate mine. The little work contains on the inside of its front cover a map of the company's possessions which also shows the location of the principal developed properties of the Mercur district. The body of the prospectus is devoted to a concise statement of the Wonder company's development work, the standing of its officers in this community and a report of the present and prospective value of the company's properties, as furnished by mining expert G. H. Robinson.

Mayor Glendinning to Veto the Electric Light Contract,

By Which Business of a Number of Street Lamps Will Be Prolonged.

There have been rumors for the past two weeks that Mayor Glendinning would veto the contract with the Big Cottonwood Power company to furnish street lights. These were current when first the company offered to make the low rate which gave it the contract.

Today it was announced at the city and county building that the Mayor was busy in his office, and that his time and effort were being expended on his message to be sent to the City Council next Monday night. It was also announced that the message would be an emphatic veto of the contract. The grounds for the veto were not officially stated.

City Teachers Meet.

The last general meeting of the city teachers occurred at the high school room, this morning. A fine address was delivered by Prof. Matthews of the University, to which close and unabated attention was given throughout. At the close of the meeting, Clerk Morgan distributed the monthly checks, $13,261.64, and an adjournment was taken for the present school year.

PAYING THE BILLS.

It Will be Done Promptly when Proper Approval is Given—Extensive Advertising.

Plans for the disbursement of the funds of the Midsummer Carnival have been devised and are now in operation on a business basis. Every order for supplies must be countersigned by two members of the executive committee and no bill will be paid, no matter what its nature, if from the requisition relating to it there is an absence of the necessary signatures. It is the same with the issuance of checks. The amount called for must be certified to as correct by two members of the committee. Merchants who expect to do business with the carnival committee should bear this fact in mind. No bill will be paid unless a requisition properly issued and countersigned accompanies it.

The plans for advertising the Carnival are on a mammoth scale. Posters, hangers, illuminated lithographic cards, weekly letters to over 300 newspapers in the country, editorial and advertising contests and coupon schemes, are among the plans now being successfully advanced. Another prominent advertising factor will be the cheap excursion rates made by the railroads. Excursion announcements will be made in every paper published in the West, and [illegible] railroad literature bearing on the subject will be liberally distributed in the metropolitan cities of the country.

The executive committee now meets every morning at 9 o'clock, the finance committee at 11 o'clock, and the committee on publicity and promotion at 2 p.m. each day, except Sunday. The press bureau is always in session.

The voting contest is mostly [illegible]. The last count gave the following result:

"Broken Promises."

On next Thursday and Friday evenings the West Side Dramatic and Comedy company will appear in the Fifth ward meeting house, at which time they will present the beautiful five-act temperance drama, Broken Promises. The company has given many entertainments of this nature before and in such a style as to warrant good audiences, and the presentation of this drama will doubtless bring out the usual patronage. It is given for a ward benefit.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - - MAY 23, 1896.

Took Carbolic Acid.

Leonard, the two-year-old son of Philip Dickson residing on Seventeenth street, was seriously poisoned with carbolic acid yesterday. His mother, when troubled with toothache, is in the habit of using carbolic acid to deaden the pain. She has been using some when she laid the bottle on the bureau and left the room a short time, when she heard screams coming therefrom. Rushing in she found Leonard, her youngest son, laying on the floor writhing in agony having drank a quantity of the carbolic acid. When the doctor arrived the boy was in convulsions but the use of the stomach pump soon had him out of immediate danger. He is badly burned.

for fifty cents worth of tea, and your money back if you want it—isn't that fair?

Do you sell potatoes, and cattle, and beet-sugar, and grain, on as fair a basis as that?

It isn't fair: it is foolish—unless what we sell for fifty cents is so good that you want more tea rather than your money.

Your grocer has the tea—Schilling's Best—and the money.
