The volume of dust on the east, south and west streets is something awful and it is conservative fact of these streets that thoroughfares have no longer any attraction to those wishing a pleasant drive.

Alleged Embezzlement.

George Boston has been arrested for the third time at Ogden on a charge of embezzlement, by Deputy Sheriff Belknap and arraigned before Judge Bishop. He was released on his own recognizance pending the hearing tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

This time Boston is accused of appropriating to his own use $5, his property of Charles Dutchesses. Painter & Murphy will appear for the defense.

Fire At Basalt.

"Lendemer" writes to the NEWS from Basalt, Idaho, giving the particulars of a destructive fire which occurred on the 17th inst. It happened at the residence of B. M. Hess, and destroyed the dwelling-house, stable, chicken coop, etc. A valuable horse and eleven pigs were burned to death, a large number of farming implements were rendered worthless, and other property of considerable value was also lost. The damage is estimated at some hundreds of dollars. The household furniture was, fortunately, saved, also the clothing and other articles. The fire was due to the carelessness of two intoxicated travelers, who went to the place to purchase a small quantity of hay, and who dropped the ashes from their pipes upon some very dry hay in the stable.

Night Have Been Worse.

A gentleman passing the residence of Mr. Joseph Bull, Jr., this afternoon at one o'clock, noticed a volume of smoke forcing its way through one of the windows. The family, at the time, were at dinner, unconscious of any danger. Their attention being called to the unusual circumstance, an investigation was made, which disclosed the fact that fire had broken out in a closet under the stairway. Said closet is a receptacle for various discarded articles, cotton batting, etc., and it is supposed that the fire was the result of spontaneous combustion. The united efforts of the occupants of the house sufficed in extinguishing the flames before much damage was done, and without the aid of our vigilant and efficient fire brigade.

A CHANGE ASKED.

The U. P. Railroad Wants the Hearing of Its Case Transferred from Here to Washington, D. C.

Mr. S. W. Sears, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, was not in the most pleasant mood today. The following telegram was received by him this forenoon:

WASHINGTON, D. C.

To Chamber of Commerce, Salt Lake City:

Co-op. Wagon & Machine Company and thirty-one other concerns, to have the principal business houses of Salt Lake City, telegraph, at the request of the Union Pacific, to have the hearing of their case in Washington, D. C., granted. It will in no way prejudice the public interests. Will lose this unless telegram reaches me. T. MORRAY,
Secretary Interstate Commerce Commission.

According to Mr. Sears, this shows that the railroad company do not want to come to trial. He says the object is evidently to obtain another postponement. He thinks that the merchants and others of this city, because they receive a little statement by way of rebates, want to favor the railroads, though by doing this they know that the Territory at large suffers a loss of $1,000,000 yearly.

Mr. Sears had everything prepared for the trial, which was set for hearing in this city for September 5th. Should the hearing be transferred to Washington, another postponement would be asked for and probably granted. This means wearing out the agents of the Chamber of Commerce, so that the matter might finally be dropped.

Secretary Sears sent the following dispatch in reply to the one given above.

Inter-state Commerce Commission Washington, D. C.:

Replying to telegram of this date, it seems that the Union Pacific can get the merchants here whom it subsidizes to oppose nothing it wants. The great trading of our business men are anxious for relief and look upon the trial of the cases here, on the date already set, as a business are here and the changes would prejudice the cases materially. The railroads knowing the weakness of their position are determined that the cases shall never come to trial if they can prevent it. The proposed change in Washington is for the purpose of putting us to unnecessary expense and inconvenience. Please furnish names of signers.

JOHN W. DONNELLAN,
President Chamber of Commerce.

A NEW LABOR ORDINANCE

Introduced in the City Council at This Afternoon Session.

GARBAGE BILL AMENDMENTS.

Consolidation Full Question Discussed at Length.—Street Opening Proposition.

An adjourned session of the City Council was to have been commenced at 4 o'clock this afternoon, but at that hour there was no quorum present, the following councilmen only being in attendance: Eddy, Harry, Lawson, Evans, Clossett, Scardsley, Hoge. Fellows came in twenty minutes later and on motion of Hoge, Clossett was chosen chairman.

The minutes of the previous regular session were read, after which Rice noticed that Councilor Evans had left the council chamber and raised the point that there was not a quorum present, and consequently whatever business thus transacted would be illegal. The clerk declared that the point was well taken and Chief Constabeager was sent in search of Councilman Evans, with whom he soon returned, and after a brief informal session business was resumed. A committee of the present three Councilmen Westland entered with a bundle of papers and took his seat in a business like manner.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

On motion of Rich the unfinished business was taken up.

UNCONTESTED RESOLUTION.

Evans' resolution requiring heads of departments to furnish requisitions for supplies came up.

Harry moved its adoption.

Evans asked that it be laid over for one week, as he wished to offer some very material amendments.

Rich said the resolution should be amended, but he was in favor of doing the necessary remodeling without further delay.

Lawson took the same view of the matter and moved that the amendments be made immediately.

On motion of Westland the matter went over until the next meeting, Lawson and Rich only voting in the negative.

GARBAGE ORDINANCE AMENDMENTS.

The following amendments were suggested by the committee having under consideration the garbage ordinance recently returned to the City Council unapproved by the Mayor:

Section 1 should be amended by adding the following, to wit: That the removal of ashes, garbage, manure, night soil and other refuse matter within the city limits, and records of the business districts mentioned, shall be at the expense of the owner, agent or occupant.

The garbage ordinance should be further amended by adding the following as an additional section:

That all outhouse closets and cesspools within the business districts, where sewer pipes are laid, shall be removed, filled up and connection made with sewer system within thirty (30) days after the date of the approval of this ordinance.

TO OPEN AND IMPROVE STREETS.

The following from the city attorney was read by the recorder:

To the Honorable City Council of Salt Lake City:

Gentlemen.—As you are aware, South Temple street has been closed to travel from Eighth West street to the Jordan river. Had some months ago been the honorable body granted to the Salt Lake Railroad Company a franchise or right of way over said street from Eighth West to the western limits of the city, which said company accepted and laid a track on said street as far west as the Jordan river.

I have arranged with the property owners of blocks 50, 51 and 66 and 67, facing the property on both sides of said South Temple street, between Eighth and Tenth West, to open said street, and have the improvements said street so as to put it in reasonable condition for the use of the public.

I therefore recommend that the work be done at once by the street superintendent, under the direction of the city engineer.

A NEW LABOR ORDINANCE.

The following bill drawn up at a recent special meeting of the Federated Trades council was read and referred to the committee on municipal laws and city attorney associated:

"Section 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City, Utah Territory, that eight hours labor constitutes a legal day's work in all cases where the same is performed under the direction, control or by the authority of the city, or under direction, control or by authority of any officer of the city acting in his official capacity and a violation of this edict must be made a part of all contracts to which the city or any officer acting in his official capacity may be a party.

Sec. 2. Any officer violating any provision shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500 or imprisoned not less than six months or by both fine and imprisonment, and be deprived of his office.

Sec. 3. This ordinance shall take effect upon and after its passage and approval.

CONTEMPLATED FULL QUESTION.

The question of compelling the street car, electric light and electric power companies to lay down their trading poles was discussed at length, after which it was laid over for one week.

WARDS BEAT TO MORGAN.

Westland, Rich and Folland sent in a report recommending the construction of a wagon road to Morgan county via City Creek and Hardscrabble canyons.

Moses announced his intention to fight the proposition from first to last.

It was under consideration when our report closed.

Deputy Sheriff Cummock this afternoon served a copy of the summons on the defendants in the libel suit brought by United States Marshal Parsons against the Salt Lake Tribune Publishing Company.

A Sacred Animal.

Bull Fodder animals that have been turned loose upon the public thoroughfare to a living of their own, are apt to take French leave in spite of kind treatment, although in moments of danger such renegades will sometimes remember an old proverb and endeavor to remember their habit of tenancy. The post trader of the Fortine de San Pablo, near Macatlan, raised a young calve, which soon placed the house, or rather the stock, for a month or more, but as had ceased to be a novelty to him he had ceased to notice the presence of the animal. Juanita would almost breakfast for week together and visit the post only as a guest, or a privileged member of an inquiring comb. "for she remember the days when she was not dishpicon without asking anybody's leave and regards every attempt at familiarity on the part of her former owner. But one evening one night she entered the room where a troop of horsemen alighted to the gate and a whole hour later a government coat with a big well dog popped up to the corner, while his companions deposited their saddlebags near the open door.

Juanita cast an uneasy glance at the blockaded door and in the next instant caught sight of the dog and he of her, when the attitude of both parties became so unmistakably suggestive of an impending war that the second reached for a stick to chase the dog out. But Juanita either misconstrued his motive or had already made up her mind to secure a vantage ground, for just about he gained the door she bounced upon the counter and with the neat jump upon the shoulder of her old master, and there proceeded to "get her back up" growling vicious and growling up to twice her natural size, like a cat.—San Francisco Chronicle.

About a National Bower.

There is very little use in talking about an American national flower. We are not a nation, so neither how many lay. We may put in the word, to the same effect, that Englishmen and Frenchmen constitute a nation. What is typical in one section of our continental republic is not typical in another, and an emblem which might mean a great deal to New England or New York would have but an artificial significance in Louisiana or California. Our flag, which is no mere form, and to some extent needs no flower there. California has formally adopted the Rocky Mountain, or California poppy, as its emblem. Maine has never a pine branch, when they want to indicate what state they have come from.

Our Massachusetts flower is naturally the trailing arbutus, and that ought to be formally adopted as our emblem. At the Grand Army encampment lately every state delegation wore a sprig which was characteristic of the state. We comprehend ourselves better if we divide ourselves up by fair flower, and there are enough pinks and roses to go around.—Boston Transcript.

Illustrated Signs.

The pictorial rival is not little seen in this country. Among the few that we find are the following: Tailors display pretty pictures, showing dandies representations of first opening immaculate boys, and the latest explosions and by nearly all restaurants, some fine Dresden plates are used as the flower tables. One clothing establishment had the rather original idea of placing portraits of all the members of the firm between the elevators of the building, and a photographer in Boston follows in an old-world fashion, and displays an "old-world belle" outside Broadway.

The best view of a gentleman with a very rich collar is a familiar sign in one of the city hostelries, and Boston gives us a representation of a pretty lady displayed in color. At Delmonico's and The Hoffman House, Venus and Cupid are represented by nearly life size pictures, and the latter seldom fails to attract a crowd. Cupid is represented as a boy with a bow and arrow, and Venus is represented as a young lady with a bow and arrow, and Venus is represented as a young lady with a bow and arrow.

THE SITUATION.

Freight Trains Again Moving.—Passenger Shifters Discussed.

BUFFALO, Aug. 22.—It is believed here that the friends of the locomotive engineers have passed the point where the enthusiasm of their sympathy might take them out of bounds. It is thought now that they will go back to dependence of the order at large. During every hour since Friday night's meeting, Sawyer who seems to be in position to know exactly what the conspirators are doing in the freight traffic, have observed a steady increase in the movement of freight.

It is said that Sargent will today inform Sawyer that, while he assumes the employees's cause to be just and while they have, generally, he will not call an actual strike of Brotherhood men in this locality, but if the time comes when labor must be defended and other allied unions will come out, he will be willing to place the men in the same minute. Briefly, then, the strike, if it comes, must be one involving the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railway Telegraphers.

Vice President Wenk of the Central said this morning that he had not yet made an answer to the proposition of Sheriff Beck to swear in as deputy sheriffs all the non-union switchmen employed on the Central.

To an Associated Press representative Frank P. Sargent, grand master of the Locomotive Firemen, this morning says in emphatic language: "If I order a strike of firemen it will be in conjunction with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Railway Trainmen, Railway Conductors, and Railway Telegraphers. There will be no strike of firemen alone."

"Mormon" Missionary Work in London.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Considerable anxiety prevails in religious circles because of the work being carried on here by Mormon missionaries. They have been especially active in the north of London, and, it is said, have raised quite a number of converts to their faith. A petition was recently presented to the London council asking it to stop the Mormon propaganda on the ground that the petition and finally refused to stop outdoor meetings. A Baptist minister in the Romney district, is denouncing the perversion of his flock.

Sargent is Willing if Others Are.

BUFFALO, Aug. 22.—Grand Master Sargent said this afternoon: "I left the city. He is willing to call out his men on consideration that all other allied railway organizations do the same.

Knights of Pythias.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 22.—The Knights of Pythias are arriving today in brigades. Every gaily decorated car that runs to the camp leaves crowd of people that fills it completely and many are running on the platforms. The encampment is destined to be a great success.

Cholera Increasing in Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 22.—The official report issued this morning shows an increase for yesterday of 97 new cases and an increase of 126 deaths, as compared with Saturday's figures. The total number of deaths yesterday were 538.

Disastrous Fire.

BERLIN, Aug. 22.—A disastrous fire has destroyed 140 buildings in the town of Stolitz, about 60 miles from Cassel.

India's Treasure.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—The Times correspondent at Calcutta says: "The apparent supineness of the government on the silver question is causing considerable thought that the monthly difference of opinion exists in regard to the adoption of the gold standard, but the conviction is growing that the decision will be reversed in order to take the public into its confidence and prevent a further fall of the rupee by raising the rupee to free silver coinage."

Vessel Wrecked and Crew Drowned.

CAPE TOWN, Aug. 22.—The British steamer "Illinois" from London to Natal has been on the rocks off a lighthouse in the Mozambique channel. It is expected that everything on board was drowned. Four bodies have already been washed ashore.

Germans Urged to Vote for Bismarck.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—The Germania American Central Bund of Union issued an address signed by Carl Schurz, Oswald Ottendorf, Wm. Holloway, Henry Villard, Louis Wahlenkamp, Gustav H. Schwab, which, after praising Grover Cleveland and giving reasons, urges all German Americans to cast their ballots for the Democratic candidate.

Silver Purchases.

Supply of Grain.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—The visible supply of grain, exclusive of flour, Saturday, August 20th, as compiled by the New York Produce Exchange is as follows: Wheat, 31,379,000 bushels, increase, 2,324,000; corn, 7,110,000, increase, 721,000; oats, 2,700,000 bushels, decrease, 69,000; rye, 35,000 bushels, increase, 41,000; barley, 336,000, increase, 10,000.

To Vote for Whitney.

I believe that you refer to the part Whitney plays in the strike. Why, Mr. Whitney is in the last table. Call him William, John or, John Overdyke or Friend Whitney, but never "Mr." Whitney. He belongs to that poor miserable class of Democrats that regards a gentleman who has to "get up" for supper as "Mr." "Mr." is office, "Gov." "Sen." "Rep." but plain John, James, Charles, Dick, Robert, etc. It does not accord with the gentlemanly character of speaking Gladstone, Bismarck, Cleveland, Harrison, Thurman, Blaine, Morton, Hill, Stanford, Carlisle, Reed, Crisp, Tillman, Morrill, Sherman, Ingalls, Vest, Voorhees, Hoar, Edmunds, Morgan, Pugh, Gorman, Brice, Palmer, Cullom, Dolph, Stewart, Cockrell, Harris, Pettigrew, Peffer, Stockbridge, Dubois, Pettigrew, Peffer, Stockbridge, Dubois, Pettigrew, Peffer, Stockbridge, Dubois
