THE EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, - Sept. 10, 1873

PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected daily by Deseret National Bank.
SALT LAKE CITY, September 10, 1873.
Buying at $1-10; selling at $1.12

BUSINESS NOTICES.

READ the advertisement of Wood & Peterson, butchers, removal of place of business.

—According to the Leader, a Des Moines liquor dealer received a telegram the other day from a prominent citizen of Indianola, to the effect: "Send me down ten gallons of soup at once."

WET NURSE wanted. See advertisement.

THIRD School District tax-payers see notice of meeting Sept. 17.

—A colporteur in Kansas was told that "this 'ere region hain't much on Bibles, but if you want to make money bring us out a load of shotguns."

READ Estray notice, Payson.

FOR SALE.—A House and Lot on reasonable terms—apply at this office.

—"Why don't you wash the bottom of your feet, Joe?" asked a grandmother of a boy when he was performing the operation of washing his feet before retiring for the night; to which he gravely replied: "Why, granny, you don't think I'm going to stand up in bed, do you?"

TAYLOR & CUTLER call attention, by advt. in another column, to their hotel, with first-class restaurant in connection by M. S. Powers. New entrance from the front.

—Lucinda Holmes, of Peoria, told Jas. Bascom the other night that she couldn't marry him, whereupon he drank from a vial. She sent for a doctor and a preacher, and after he had been saved and they were united, it was found that he had drunk nothing but sweetened water.

SIX-ROOMED house for sale. See advt.

—According to the Seneca Falls Revelle, this is the way young ladies talk in that rural spot: One meeting another exclaims, "Ain't it hot, Daisy?" and the answer comes, "You bet. It's a regular old roaster."

ATTENTION is requested to the advt. of the stoves of Rathbone, Sard & Co., Chicago. Their stoves are on sale by Z. C. M. I. and its various branch stores, also by Teasdel & Co. Examine them before buying.

—An Englishman who was visiting in Danbury says he has left a poor idea of the freedom of a country that has to get its weather from the government.

AMES, SHERMAN, & Co., of Chicago, call attention elsewhere to their hats, caps, robes, buck goods, and umbrellas, which are for sale at the Z. C. M. I. and other stores in this Territory.

—The Lexington (Tenn.) Reporter is responsible for this statement: "There is a saw-mill in this county, and near its pond, water is hauled and the pond is filled; then the mill runs until the pond is exhausted, when the filling process is again repeated."

HONEY! HONEY! HONEY!—S. McKay is prepared to extract honey and attend to bees on the shortest notice. Enquire of B. Judson, at this office. d 66"a" —Brooklyn appears to be suffering more from the "ring"-worm than New York, or even Washington.—N. Y. Graphic.

Z. C. M. I., Clothing Department, have received, specially sent by express, the first of a consignment of silk stovepipe hats, latest fall styles, shining quality, prices various.

Soiled silk hats renovated at reasonable rates. d240tf

—It is singular what a little thing will put a man out. A Jersey City lawyer was making a high-flown speech the other day, telling about angels' tears, weeping willows, and silent tombstones, when His Honor said: "Confine your remarks to the dog-fight case." The lawyer sat down.

WE are now receiving our Fall Stock of Clothing, which we manufacture ourselves, and will sell about fifteen to twenty-five per cent. less than any other House in the Territory.

G. GOLDBERG & Co.,
North of Walker House.
Branch of 84 Leonard Street, N. Y. d 228 eod 2 w

—"Came to his death while being bit on the head by a spider in the hands of his wife," was the verdict in a recent case in Illinois.

Z. C. M. I., Clothing Department, are selling off their remaining stock of summer goods at reduced prices, to make room for their new supply of fall goods in great variety and of quality to give satisfaction to purchasers. d240tf

FIRE INSURANCE AGENCY in Exchange Building, cor. Main and 1st South Street. E. E. POTTER.

—A Boston gentleman who dislikes formality offered a lady $5,000 if she would marry him without the usual preliminaries of courtship.

FOR a good sweet-toned reliable Organ, buy the Estey.
C. W. STAYNER, is Agent.
d204

—A Peoria woman threw a brick at a dog recently, striking herself on the back of the head with such force that it knocked her down.

DURING DULL TIMES we will sell our celebrated Organs and Pianos on 12 monthly installments, without interest being added.
CALDER & CARELESS.

—Miss Miranda Thompson, of Illinois, shears sheep, mows grass, and finds wheat, and goes to church on Sundays with the worst bustle in the town.

BOOK-BINDING at the NEWS Office.

—Men who always see through a glass darkly—Topers.

WRAPPING PAPER, of various various sizes, some of the best ever manufactured here, for sale at the NEWS Office.

—A Cleveland youth had his hand taken off in a planing mill lately. He was to have given a play in Washington that day anyhow.

ADDRESS OF CHURCH EMIGRATION AGENT, Mr. William G. Staines, Box 3937, P. O., New York City.

—This is a Chicago man's experience at Long Branch. He says he was bathing between two Eastern D. D.'s, and he came out so dry that he did not need a towel.

MASON & HAMLIN ORGANS again decided at the VIENNA EXPOSITION, this time the highest award, the Grand Prize Medal. Other American organs were not found worthy of even an inferior medal. Read advertisement.

—A New Yorker paper thinks all drinking fountains ought to have basins attached to them which men of sedentary habits may use for washing their faces, unbeknown to Barney, the man with the hose.

MANSFIELD & ADELMAN, Importers and Wholesale Dealers in LIQUOR MERCHANTS,
WASATCH HOUSE.
Keep constantly on hand a full assortment of Liquors, Cigars, Ale, Porter, Cordials, Brandies, Wines, Whiskies, Gin, Rum, Cordials, Port, Sherry, Claret, Champagne, Cognac, Madeira, Malaga