THE STAR COURSE

of Sunday Evening Lectures is Announced.

Editor Deseret News:

The lectures are to be given in the Salt Lake Theater on Sunday evenings, beginning November 20th with a lecture on "Patrick Henry," by Hon. W. H. Wyatt. Then follow, in the order named, Dr. J. E. Talmage, with "Benjamin Franklin;" Charles Ellis, with "Samuel Adams;" John Henry Smith, with "Alexander Hamilton;" Moses Thatcher, with "George Washington;" B. H. Roberts, with "Thomas Jefferson;" Judge Judd, with "Andrew Jackson;" A. T. Schroeder, with "Thomas Paine;" Samuel R. Thurman, with "John C. Calhoun;" John M. Zane, with "Daniel Webster;" Charles Ellis, with "Wendell Phillips;" Frank J. Cannon, with "General U. S. Grant," and ex-Governor West, with "General R. E. Lee."

The promoter of this series of lectures believes that Utah needs nothing so much as forgetfulness of the past, forgetfulness of the old dissensions and animosities of parties and hands for the prosperity of the Territory. Whether the territorial condition is changed to that of statehood in one year or ten, it says it is needed. Why the people should not join for the development of our Territory now. He thinks that he can do no work that will do more to bury the past in forgetfulness than to enlist the thoughts of the people of the metropolis of Utah in a study of the great men of all America.

Text is the object of these lectures. They are to be in no sense political party expositions, but a history of the origin and development of the nation. To render not to conflict with church services the lectures are to begin at half past eight o'clock. At the close of each lecture the Union Glee club will render a vocal selection appropriate to the day and the occasion.

The expenses will be considably more than they were last year and to meet them without making excessive exhaust upon those who volunteered so generously at the previous course, an admission fee of 25 cents for the lower floor and 10 cents for the circle above will be charged. If in this way the expenses can be met the manager will be satisfied. If anything more is obtained he will not object to receiving it. The clergymen who were in the city last summer were all consulted in regard to the proposed lectures and all agreed that it would be a useful work. It is possible that before the course closes some of them may take part in it. Other men of eminence in the city besides those named above may also appear, and altogether it will be a popular presentation of history such as has not been offered to the public of this city. Respectfully yours,

CHARLES ELLIS, Manager.

MURDERER SENTENCED.

Criminal Trials Ended in Provo.—A Batch of Other Cases.

Special correspondence of the News.

PROVO, Nov. 4.—The First District court room was crowded yesterday with spectators who desired to witness the sentencing of the two murderers, Enoch Davis, for killing his wife, and August Neilson, for murdering Benjamin Buchanan. At 10 o'clock Davis was brought into the court room. His face showed traces of the mental agony he has passed through during the past week, but he had evidently steeled his nerves for the occasion. He was called forward to receive his sentence, when Mr. Warner, his attorney interposed a motion for a new trial on the ground that the court had erred in instructing the jury, and in excluding certain testimony from the case. The motion was overruled. Then he made a motion for a stay of judgment on the grounds of his error in the indictment. This motion was also overruled. Davis again came forward for sentence. When asked as to his preference between hanging and shooting he said, "I'll take shooting." He was accordingly sentenced to be shot until dead on December 30th, at the jailyard. Before his honor could conclude the sentence, "and may God have mercy on your soul," Davis interjected, "a man don't have any copper on that, does he?" He took a drink of water and was escorted back to jail. His attorneys will attempt to secure an appeal.

August Neilson was next brought in. In his coat was pinned a white flower. His carriage was erect, and his step was elastic; the remorse of conscience had not dimmed his eyes. He stepped forward promptly to receive his sentence, and when the court asked him if he had anything to say, he responded by giving a short sketch of his life and a brief review of his case. He stated that he was born at Copenhagen in 1863, and had early emigrated to Sweden with his mother. In 1883 he came to America to better his condition, but he had met with numerous reverses, and through fear of cold and hunger had become a forger. He stoutly denied his guilt as to the murder of Buchanan. When he spoke of his aged mother his eyes filled with tears. The court took into consideration the recommendation of the jury and sentenced him to imprisonment for life. He made inquiries of his attorneys, and left the court room with the sheriff. To William H. Kelly was sentenced to six months's imprisonment for assaulting Gilbert Johnson.

The case against Thomas Mack, who is charged with robbing a sheepman in the south, was dismissed, the prosecuting witness being son ed.

James F. Cropsey was tried on the charge of malicious mischief, in firing a small bay of twelve years to burn an ice house at Helper station, on the Rio Grande Western, on the night of August 12, 1892. The case was submitted to the jury late in the afternoon, and they were instructed to return a sealed verdict.

Colonel Montgomery appeared in court in behalf of Cass Hite and asked for a stay of execution until November 15th, to give him an opportunity to have transcript of the record prepared and submitted to the Supreme court. A motion for further stay of execution and for bail, pending the decision on appeal, will be made in the Supreme court.

The case of the People vs. C. A. Caswell, grand larceny, was continued for the term. Caswell is the Salt Lake hotel runner who is charged with receiving E. J. Ward of this city of his watch while he slept.

A jury was empanelled in the case of the People vs. G. W. Davis, forgery. Davis is charged with forging the name of T. A. Walley to an order of $15 on Southworth Brothers.

Thomas H. Willman, aged 28, and Annie Smith, aged 27, both of Pleasant Grove, were yesterday entangled in the meshes of matrimony by Commissioner Hills.

Mrs. J. D. Jones, while out driving yesterday, in making a quick turn to avoid a telegraph pole, overturned the buggy. The horse is a gentle one, and came to a standstill, or the lady might have sustained serious injuries. As it is, a little nerve restorative for the lady and a few squares of the carpenter for the buggy will set things all right again.

Captain Oscar Wilkins, Jr., and his Hophilians flambeau club, in their bright new Knave uniforms, were out last night.

The Utah Stake monthly Priesthood meeting will be held at the meeting house in this city tomorrow.

Milton Nobles presented "A Son of Tiberius" to a good house last night.

A SHOCKING AFFAIR.

David Harry Accidentally Shot and Killed at Ogden.

David Harry, one of Utah's oldest residents, ninety-three years of age, while removing cartridges from a twenty-two-calibre revolver, last night about 9 o'clock, at Ogden, accidentally discharged the weapon, killing himself almost instantly.

The dead man was a native of Chester county, Pennsylvania, but lived for about thirty years in Marietta, Lancaster county. Four years ago he, accompanied by his aged wife, came west to Ogden, where he has resided ever since, making his home with his son-in-law, W. W. Wiggins, residing at 248 Thirtieth street. The old gentleman has been in the habit of putting a revolver under his pillow at night, and last night before retiring made an examination of the gun and not satisfied with its working proceeded to draw the cartridges. Previous to this one of his little 10-year-old grandchildren had been playing on the bed and was cautioned by Mr. Harry to be careful and not get near the gun. Mrs. Harry was in the next room putting the children to bed and both Mr. Wiggins and his wife were down stairs. Suddenly they were startled by hearing the report of a pistol from the room above and rushing upstairs he found his father-in-law kneeling by the bed with his head resting on the edge and the blood streaming from a bullet wound in his chest about one inch from the center and a few inches above the pit of the stomach. One minute after being discovered the old man was dead. He had removed his shoes and placed them under the bed and partially undressed before the accident happened. The members of the family are nearly heartbroken over the terrible tragedy.—Standard.

Over Ogden Opera House.

Today Joseph Clark, David Eccles, M. S. Browning and John M. Browning, owners of the Grand Opera House block at Ogden, by their attorneys, Evans & Rogers, will bring suit against Bowes & Phillips, managers of the opera house, for $2925, back rent, and $500 damages for unlawful detainer.

For some time there has been trouble between the owners and management of the house, and the former claim that while the theater has been paying expenses, Manager Bowes has refused to pay rent and has personally used all the money derived from the profit on shows. A short time ago notice was served on him that unless the rent, then long past due, was paid on or before November 1, legal proceedings would be instituted. Instead of complying with the demand the manager placed a special officer in charge of the building and prepared to make a resistance. The owners also claim that the lessees have materially damaged the house.

On the other hand Manager Bowes claims that the building never was completed and furnished according to contract and that he had been placed to great inconvenience and expense during his control to make the house present at least a respectable appearance.

The contract entered into between the owners and lessees does not expire by limitation for four years. The yearly rental of the house is $9,000.—Standard.

IN LEGAL CIRCLES.

There Has Been Nothing of Striking Importance Today.

After the disposal of one or two minor matters in Judge Zane's court this morning, the jury sworn yesterday to try the case of Joseph M. Thompson vs. the Salt Lake Rapid Transit company settled down to listen to the further testimony adduced by counsel.

Richards and Moyle represent the plaintiff, who, as stated in yesterday's News, claims from the defendant company $20,000 for the death of his 14-year-old son, and P. L. Williams is the defendant's attorney.

The trial was still going on when the court adjourned for the noon recess.

ADMITTED TO CITIZENSHIP.

Henry James, a native of the Emerald Isle, and now a resident of Salt Lake, was admitted to citizenship by Judge Zane.

SHORT ORDERS.

The case of John Baker vs. Henry Dechaine et al. was referred to H. J. Dunway to take testimony in aid of execution.

The Sierra Nevada Lumber Co. vs. John Shettle. In this case the demurrer was withdrawn and fifteen days allowed to answer.

Joseph Krenz vs. the Rio Grande Western Railway Co. Demurrer to complaint argued and submitted.

The case of Joseph Dazmarskie vs. Arthur Meadowcroft demurrer on motion of R. H. Rees to attorney for plaintiff; as also was that of Anson Gotberg vs. P. Simmons et al., on motion of the same counsel.

SUITS FILED TODAY.

On the ground of desertion, Rosalind Freeman this morning brought a suit for divorce against Charles Freeman, Caplon Forman, in the Third district court. The parties intermarried in this city on May 17th, 1889, and on the 3rd of May in the present year the defendant deserted his wife and child, the latter, Mabel Clair, being now nearly two years old. Plaintiff says she is now solely dependent on her own earnings and the charity of friends for support. She describes the defendant as of a quarrelsome disposition, says he used to frequently abuse her, and on one occasion struck her. She sues for the custody of the child.

Thomas Bolton today sued Samuel H. Paul, also in the same court, to recover the possession of certain goods alleged to be unlawfully withheld by the defendant, the same having been taken by him on October 15th, 1892. Failing the restoration of the property plaintiff demands the value thereof, which is placed at $[illegible].

Lydia Emma Trumbo has brought suit against George W. Wallace and Thomas Venard to have the title quieted in a certain area in conflict between the "Walk Off" and "Venard" mining claims.

The same plaintiff has entered a complaint against the Old Jordan and Galena Mining company in regard to a certain area in conflict between the "Walk Off" and "Frederick" mining claims.

Death of an Indian Chief.

A correspondent in a communication dated Kosebaum, October 31st, states that the Indian Warrior, White Horse, a chief or sub-chief who took a prominent part in the Black Hawk war, died on October 27th. He used to be considered as a bad Indian while he was with Black Hawk, but the bad fifteen years he has been peaceable and generally attended religious meetings when at his home in Greenwich, Grass Valley ward. A few days before he died, the Indians took him to their camp at Greenwich, for he expressed a desire to become his last there, surrounded by his own people.
