A MASONIC EVENT.

The Burial of the Heart of One of the Early Governors of Mexico.

WITH THE RITES OF THE ORDER.

A Curious Request of the "Martyr" Before His Death Now Complied With.

OAKLAND, Cal., June 23.—A strange incident in the history of Free Masonry, and one that is without its equal in the country, will take place at Mountain View cemetery today. It is the burial, with Masonic rites, of the the heart of Ygnacio Herrera Y. Cairo, one of the early governors of Mexico and a Mason, whom the members of the order call a martyr to their cause.

The heart of Ygnacio Herrera Y. Cairo is now deposited in a casket in the Masonic temple of Oakland, where it has been since April 24, of last year. At that time it was brought from Mexico to Gethsemane Chapter No. 5 of the Rose Croix. When it was joined with the chapter of the Rose Croix of Oakland the casket in which it was deposited was buried in the walls of the Masonic temple in a place made known only to Masons. There it has been kept until the present time, and now it will be buried in Mountain View cemetery with a monument to mark the spot. The foundation stone of the monument will be laid by the grand lodge of Masons of the state.

The heart, inclosed in the casket, will be wrapped in two silken flags, one American and the other Mexican, and deposited under the foundation stone of the monument. There will be lodges from various cities around the bay and the Masons from all over the coast in attendance. Several Mexican societies will also be present.

It was ex-Governor Cairo's father who founded the first Masonic lodge in the Masonic republic soon after its independence of Spain was declared. Ygnacio was yet quite a lad when his father was a leader among Masons in Mexico. Young Cairo soon became a man of affairs.

For some years he took an active part in politics and filled several public positions. Finally there was a popular movement in his favor and he was made governor of the state of Jalisco. While in this position he was informed of a plot against the government by the Carmelites. He ordered the plotters thrown into prison and they were punished. For this action on his part it is said that he became a marked man, and that his life would be demanded some day to pay the penalty. He was known as a Free Mason, and with his enemies this only increased their hatred. In the course of time Cairo was retired from the governorship. He went to live on a farm where he desired to pass a quiet and undisturbed life.

He was taken from the farm by Manuel Pielago, and was shot to death under cover of the law. Cairo said he knew that his Masonic faith had hastened him to his doom. Before he died he asked four of his brother Masons to take his heart after his death and give it to some chapter of the Rose Croix for burial. It was his desire that his heart should be buried with all the solemn rites of Free Masonry. The heart has been since very carefully guarded.

An Absconding Agent Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—A. L. Davis, jan absconding agent of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company, who is wanted at Altoona, Pennsylvania, was arrested this morning. He had been agent at Altoona for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company, and about two months ago absconded with $3,000 of the company's funds.

AT WAR AGAIN.

The Members of the Western Passenger Association.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 23.—St. Louis lines, members of the Western Passenger association, are at war again. This time it is the Missouri Pacific, the Wabash and the Burlington against the Chicago & Alton. The charge is made that the Alton has offered St. Louis turners a rate of $22.50 between St. Louis and Denver, which they have advertised for their annual meeting at Denver, July 7-9.

The Northern Pacific Repaired in the Flooded District.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 22.—Miss Helen Bertram, when shown dispatches announcing that her husband had commenced divorce proceedings against her, denied the allegations of improper intimacy with Ted Henley. Miss Bertram said that her suit for divorce filed several weeks ago in Indianapolis was brought for non-support and abandonment. She declined to have anything to say about yesterday's proceedings.

DOES NOT TROUBLE HIM.

Huntington's Theory of the Origin of the Railroad Suits.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The World tomorrow will contain an interview with C. P. Huntington in regards to the suits brought against the receivers by Attorney-General Olney. He says they will not trouble him, and adds:

"For some time back half a dozen men have been writing to me and telling me that unless I sent for them and saw them they would tell the people a number of things they ought to know. There is one man in St. Louis who has been particularly active in this way. I told him that if there were things the American people ought to know by all means go ahead and tell them. These men have gone to Mr. Olney, I suppose, and that I take to be the origin of the suits. From what I heard I am sure he would not have commenced the suits unless he was convinced it was his duty to do so. I believe him to be a man of ability and a just man."

ATCHISON AFFAIRS.

Sumner Haynes Speaks of the Reorganization Plan.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Sumner Haynes, chairman of the reorganization committee of the Atchison road, is in Chicago today. In speaking of the plan of reorganization he said that it was a mistake to suppose the stockholders would be deprived of their right to vote on any or all questions submitted.

"The depositing of their stock with a trust company," said Mr. Haynes, "is a mere matter of convenience to provide a way by which the income bondholders may also have a vote during the period they derive no income from the surplus. The laws of this country provide that only stockholders shall have the right. By this agreement, we have arranged to allow the income bondholders the same privilege. When any question is to be voted on there will be a preliminary meeting of both stockholders and bondholders, something like a primary meeting at elections. At this meeting stockholders will cast an informal vote, the result of which will be placed in the hands of the trustee of the stock, and he will cast the formal vote in conformity therewith."

Mr. Haynes appeared to have little doubt that the plan of reorganization would be a success.

THE ARMOR FRAUDS.

Hill's Testimony Corroborated by Charles Craig.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—Charles S. Craig of Edgewood Park, Pennsylvania, was today before the Congressional committee investigating armor plate frauds. He was associated with C. E. Hill in giving the main information of irregularities at the Carnegie works. Craig's evidence was much like that recently given by Hill and corroborative of it.

An Ex-Congressman Dead.

NORFOLK, Va., June 22.—Hon J. S. Dosendorf, ex-member of Congress from Norfolk, died at his home in this city tonight, aged 60 years.

Kelly Acquitted.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 22.—Kelly and Baker, leaders of the industrialists, were acquitted in the court today. Kelly spoke to 4,000 people, comprised principally of workingmen. At a low estimate he realized $60 from them.

Leo's Encyclical.

ROME, June 22.—The pope's encyclical letter, a forecast of which has already been cabled to the Associated Press, was issued today. It is much remarked that the letter is addressed to all princes and peoples, instead of as usual to the archbishops and bishops.

Emigration to Africa.

LONDON, June 22.—The Post, commenting upon the decrease of emigration to the United States, thinks the decrease is less due to the exclusion laws than to the fact that the west has had its day, and that the tide of emigration is turning toward Africa. The omnipotence of capital in the United States has grown into almost intolerable tyranny, and has driven the farmer and workmen to the wall.

Cholera in Belgium.

LONDON, June 22.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegram company from Paris, says there have been sixty cases of cholera and fifteen deaths at Jemappes, a village of Belgium.

The Gold Reserve.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—The gold taken from the sub-treasury at New York today for export amounted to $2,280,000. After deducting the $100,000 in gold received yesterday, and $100,000 recovered today, the true amount of the gold reserve is $61,902,-776.

ARMY OF CATERPILLARS.

An Innumerable Host of Destroyers in the Cripple Creek District.

CRIPPLE CREEK, June 22.—Cripple Creek district is suffering from a caterpillar plague. In the vicinity of Four Mile they have eaten all the leaves off the aspen trees. The cuts in the wagon roads are filled up level with the worms, which are of the common gray variety. At the bottom of shoveled prospect holes they lie two feet deep. Spring creek has in places been turned out of its course by the caterpillars, at points where they are crossing on logs. The army is slowly making its way east.

The Largest Organ in the World.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—The largest and most costly organ in the United States, if not in the world, the gift of Edward F. Searles to Grace Episcopal church, was dedicated tonight. Mrs. Mark Hopkins, who married Searles, was a member of Grace church, and the organ was given in memory of her.

A SENSATIONAL ARREST.

One of Kaiser William's Masters of Ceremony Locked Up.

An Extraordinary Charge Preferred Against Him—The Man Thought to Be Insane.

BERLIN, June 22.—The Cologne Gazette has caused a sensation in court and other circles by announcing that Count Von Kotz, one of the masters of ceremonies of the imperial court, was arrested Sunday last on a most extraordinary charge. The arrest of Count Von Kotz is the result of four years' patient police investigation. During all that period members of the highest aristocracy of Germany have been in receipt of anonymous letters and postal cards. These missives, in most instances, were used by the anonymous writer to make the most indecent personal accusations, either against the persons to whom they were addressed, or against their intimate friends or relatives.

No one seemed safe from the venomous attacks of the anonymous letter writer, and the result was that very bitter feelings were caused in many worthy families. Husbands were led to suspect their wives, fathers learned to doubt their sons, daughters began to look with suspicion upon their mothers, life-long friends were separated, and, in brief, irreparable wrong was done in a great number of noble families. In a number of cases, it would seem, the people who received the anonymous communications, instead of tearing them up with contempt, brooded over them and did exactly what the anonymous enemy wished to see them do. In most instances, however, the persons who received the scandalous communications, placed them in the hands of the police. After long and patient work they discovered the source of these despicable missives.

On Sunday last Count Von Kotz, upon returning from a visit to Schreibershau, Prussia, was arrested in this city by General Von Hahnke, chief of the emperor's military cabinet, and aide-de-camp to his majesty, charged with being the author of these long series of anonymous slanders.

Shortly after the arrest, upon the suggestion of General Von Hahnke, who personally examined the prisoner, physicians were sent for in order that Von Kotz's mental condition might be determined. It was shown that the prisoner's father died in an insane asylum, and the examining physicians' opinion was that the son was the victim of mania. The inquiry is proceeding.

The general opinion seems to be that as a convenient way out of a most disgraceful affair, Von Kotz will be confined in an asylum.

CIONIANS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

The Excursionists Arrive in the City of the Midwinter Fair.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Something like 400 ladies and gentlemen, nearly all residents of Utah Territory, descended on the city in a body this morning, arriving on the overland Central Pacific train from Ogden. It was a school teachers' excursion, gotten up by the members of the profession in the principal cities of Utah not including among those who availed themselves of its opportunities a good many who follow other pursuits and quite a number who reside in states adjoining Utah.

Of the entire party something like 100 are from Salt Lake City and its vicinity and about the same number each from Ogden and Provo. Most of the remainder are from Park City and other Utah towns.

Important Insurance Decision.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 22.—An important ruling was made by Judge Riner in the United States court here today in an insurance case. A company refused to pay the claim of Mrs. George B. Henderson, whose husband was murdered in 1891, near Lander, on the grounds that the policy excepted death from intentional cause.

It was shown that Henderson, who was manager of a cattle outfit, expected to be killed, and took the insurance especially to provide for his family in case of meeting death by violence. He did not read his policy, but relied upon the verbal statement of the insurance agent that the policy was all right, and the insurance would be paid should he be murdered. Judge Riner rules that the agent's statement constituted the contract, and that the policy shall be refunded accordingly. The amount involved is $15,000.

During the past few months many misfit doctors and specialists have tried to prejudice the public against the new and wonderful treatment used by Drs. Shores & Shores, saying it was an experiment, that the cure would not last and so on. The following case of Mr. G. W. Sharp will convince the most skeptical:

MR. G. W. SHARP, 340 SOUTH ST.

For ten years Mr. Sharp had suffered from catarrh of the head, throat and stomach, he was in that ten years treated by perhaps a hundred so-called specialists, no one seeming to understand his case, treating him for every disease but the right one. When he came to Drs. Shores & Shores, he described his case as follows:

"For ten years I was one of the most wretched sufferers any person could imagine. I had been troubled with catarrh so long I had been given up by physicians as being incurable.

Large polyps (or tumors) had formed in my nose, making it impossible for me to breathe through my nose and for four years I had to breathe through my mouth, making my sleep disturbed and restless.

"Can you imagine, dear reader, the inconvenience and suffering of being unable to breathe through the nose on account of an impediment in the nostrils; can you imagine how it feels to awaken in the morning tired and worn out and have to do a day's work. Do you realize the suffering of having dyspepsia, being unable to eat when you are hungry, because you are far worse after eating than before.

"Can you realize your feelings when every doctor has said your case was incurable after they had tried to kill you in an effort to effect a cure on a case they knew nothing about.

"Then after you have suffered ten years, without any hope of ever being cured can you imagine the happiness you will experience by being cured, being able to breathe through your nostrils after four years.

"Drs. Shores & Shores, in the Harmon block, have cured me, taking at least a dozen polyps out of my nose, after the misfit specialists had tried for three months to find out what was the matter with me.

"Now under the new treatment used by Drs. Shores & Shores I can say I am cured. I can now breathe through my nose, sleep well, eat well and feel like a new man. In fact, I am willing to go before any physician in Salt Lake and show them this remarkable cure."

This demonstrates the difference between real and the imitation, when fakirs and misfit fail go to the reliable specialists in the Harmon block, Drs. Shores & Shores.
