NATIONAL GUARD.

The Old War Horse, Page, Elected Lieut. of the First Regiment.

DENHALTER SECOND LIEUTENANT.

No Major For the First Battalion of the First Regiment and No Cavalry Major Chosen.

This has been an important and interesting day in the history of the National Guard of Utah and it has settled all speculation as to what the canvass of the election returns for the field officers would disclose. [illegible]

For the position of lieutenant colonel of the same regiment Captain J. H. Denhalter of Company M, Provo, was chosen with a handsome vote. [illegible]

At 12:30 the canvass commenced, Adjutant-General Ottinger opening the ballots and announcing the result of each, while his brother members of the board, Secretary C. C. Richards and Lieutenant William Lassiter, kept tab on the count, which in detail was as follows: [illegible]

A majority of all votes cast being necessary to a choice there was no major for the First battalion of the First regiment elected. [illegible]

Every Yellow Package
Is not
GOLD DUST Washing Powder.

The immense popularity of Gold Dust Washing Powder has induced unscrupulous manufacturers to put up inferior washing powder in yellow packages to deceive the purchasers. The careful housekeeper knows from experience how good Gold Dust Washing Powder is, and sees that she gets the genuine. See that the Twins are on each package.
