 West Point, N. Y., Oct. 17.-Yale came to West Point this afternoon with a crippled footbal team and left tonight victorious. The score, 6 to 3, tells the story of the cadets' downfall. Except for a few minutes in the first half. Yale's goal was never in danger. In justice it mut be aid, however, that neither was the cadets'-except once. Still that once, which followed an unexpected penalty, brought about their defeat. Coy had punted to Dean near the end, of the second half. Johnston, who had replaced Carberry, was too eager to block the opposing end and the cadets lost the ball and is yards to boot for holding. This gave the pigskin to Yale on the cadets' 25-yard line. West Point, hitherto fighting desperately, lost heart and by successive line plunges Yale carried the ball and trends the goal amid frantic cries of "hold 'em; hold 'em" from the gray-clad cadets. Coy made the touchdown and after the punt out, kicked a goal. The Yale fullback's name is the only one figuring in the score and deservedly so, for it was his consistent punting and plunging that was responsible for the victory of the visitors.
 As her coaches had announced, Yale relied solely on old-fashioned. football. She attempted no on-side kicks, no for-ward passes and but one fake play, a double pass from a bunt formation. This, however, failed to galu. West Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind Sir Wesley, 107; 3. Frank Lubbock, 108; 12. Kogo, 101; 10. Miss May Bowdish, 95. SUDATIEN SUVENIEGNII New York, Oct. 12.—There is rebellion on Plum island and there is a inkein-hood that troops will be called out to quell n-atter they have toom and a stand. The resort of the succulent name is a federal reservation somewhere in Jamaica bay on the south shore of Long island. It was once the abole of squar-ter sovereignty and the cause of the trou-ble for which the erstwhile 'squatters are complaining that they have to pay not only rent, but exorbitant rent at that. After the var department abandoned in express intention to fortify Plum is-hand, it leased the place in May, 199, to Winheld S. Overton, who started a pro-ject to give boxing matches, dog fights and cocking mains there. Overton agreed to pay $200 for the first year and $3,059 for four years and $3,050 for the four years following, but when he took possession of the island he iound himself preceded by a hundred or more squatters. They resented his invasion so vigorously that he called upon the department at Washington and soldiers were sent out from Fort Hamilton to oust the squatters. Bubsequently Overton sub-leased the island to other persons and the squat-ter situation was compromised by al-lowing them to remain upon payment of rent in almost nominal sums. Late the complaint goes, these rents have been steadily advanced and an or-der has gone forth that unless the most recent ligure is met, the tenants will ind themselves evicted Into Jamaica bay.

I do not know whether you canfine the meaning of the word "sport" to a form of enjoyment derived from the destruction of life. If so, I see no reason why the poor man or the rich man should cultivate in himself the joy of killing living things. Without killing anything, the poor man has many healthy amuse-ments, such as quoits, bicycling, cricket, and football. Some day I hope rich and poor alike will recognize that there is nothing brave in killing, defenseless animals, and it is more manly to seek amusement without shedding blood.

SALT LAKE DOGS ARE DEFEATED IN BUTTE

R. H. E.

Butte, Oct. 19.—Although Ring Lady was a strong favorite over The Wolf, owned by Thon.as Knight of Butte, in today's first round of the Waterloo stake cup, the latter dog won.5 to 1 and, although the Lady showed good form. It appeared to be an uneven match. H. R. Elliott of Salt Lake City, owner of the Lady, bet heavily on his dog, and many others followed him. There were several other good courses, and the beating of Wild Bill by Truly Brazen, 6 to 0; the defeat of Oquirrh's Colonel by Charming Girl, and Contend-er's splendid course with Fawn Estelle, beating her by but 1 point, proved the features of the 35-dog stake. While the weather was cold and prob-ably affected the running of some of the outside dogs, the courses as a rule were run to form, although the defeat of Oquirrh's Colonel proved the real sur-prise of the day. The remaining rounds will be finished tomorrow and The Wolf will undoubted-ly be a strong favorite.
