TELEGRAPHIC.

WIMAN IN PRISON.

A Conspicuous Commercial Magnate in the Murderers' Row.

ARRESTED FOR FORGERY.

The Total Amount Involved in the Irregularities Placed at $129,000.

—A Great Sensation

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—The city was all agog this morning when it was learned for the first time from the startling headlines of the newspapers of the arrest and incarceration of Erastus Wiman, the man who had been such a conspicuous figure in the commercial life of the metropolis.

Contrary to custom in case of distinguished prisoners, no favors were given Wiman when he was locked up in the Tombs last night. In fact, he was given quarters in the murderers' row, in answer to a note sent in this morning by a newspaper acquaintance, asking if a statement, he sent out the night before was true.

"I will be very glad to do so, but after the advice of General Tracy, I think I will make no statement at this time." Wiman has also received the moving papers against him in a dignified and dignity way. He is very delightful and trying not to let newspapers, it will then be time for newspaper."

THE CHARGES.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Erastus Wiman, the well known capitalist and political magnate, was arrested on a bench warrant this afternoon on the charge of forgery. He was brought before the judge's chambers in the General Sessions consisting at 3 o'clock, and in default of $25,000 bail was committed to the Tombs by Judge Martine.

The indictments were found against Wiman by the grand jury today. They are for forgery and uttering fraudulent instruments. Indictments charging the same. The total amount involved in Wiman's alleged transgressions is $129,000. The commissioner against Wiman is H. G. Dun, president of the Mercantile Agency association.

Since receiving the connection with the R. G. Dun agency, Wiman has acquired a prominently furnished office in the Park building, No. 1 Broadway. He was engaged at his desk this afternoon when Detective Sergeants Phil Bailey and Vic Gleason walked in. They had a bench warrant for his arrest, already prepared, when the grand jury, an hour earlier, had found indictments against the sticking of names found for forgery.

Detective Bailey approached Wiman and said: "You are under arrest."

Wiman scarcely even glanced up. Blanched very pale and muttered the exclamation to alarm the clerks. This was about 2 o'clock. Wiman was allowed to accompany the detectives to the district attorney's office. He put on his coat and without a word and well with them.

One of the charges against Wiman is a forgery of the endorsement of R. W. Ballinger to a check for $2,000, made to Ballinger's order by R. G. Dun & Co. For other charges in forgery, the endorsement of Ogden Rogers to a check, also drawn by R. G. Dun & Co., for $1,500. The checks were dated January 26th and February 6, 1893.

The petition of District Attorney Nicoll, in bringing the matter before the grand jury, was prompted by a letter addressed to Colonel Fellows who supposed to have been written by ex-District Attorney DeLancey Nicoll. The letter states that Wiman was connected with R. G. Dun & Co.

During the period covering the acts complained of and for many years prior to he had business relations with Dun, but was not a partner in the business.

The letter says: "And yet, by various acts of misrepresentation, misrepresentations, concealments, frauds or agreement, misuse of powers confided to him and gross neglecting of duties with which he was entrusted, he succeeded, from 1885 up to January, 1893, in stealing from Dun the enormous sum of $129,014.90."

The letter then details the cases selected for prosecution. In February, 1885, R. G. Dun & Co. owed upwards of $50,000 to E. R. Ballinger for merchandise purchased. On the 5th of February, 1885, Wiman, being in charge of Dun's money, directed Dun's cashier to make out a check to Ballinger's order, and instead of transmitting it to him to subscribe to the account, she fraudulently forged Ballinger's name on the back of the check and deposited it to Wiman's credit.

"I need hardly say that the sale of Wiman were wholly without the knowledge of Dun or his associates, and more than they have paid to Ballinger the sum which Wiman, by forgery of forgery, appropriated to his own use."

The second case cited occurred January 26, 1893, when Dun owed the Campbell Printing Press & Manufacturing Company $5000 for printing presses. Wiman procured from Dun's cashier a check for the amount, payable to Brewer, treasurer of the Campbell Company, on the ground that he desired to pay the account. He indorsed upon it the Campbell company, and, being then out Dun & Co. were short of funds, which they would take notice for the amount instead of cash. On Brewer's indorsement Wiman made two notes for $2,500 each covering the amount, and delivered them to Brewer. He then forged the name of Ogden Rogers on the back of the check as a supposed indorsement and immediately cashed the check. Wiman's account the authorities merely sympathy for the Campbell Company by the release of the money which Wiman had appropriated to his use.

Wiman heard of the arrest, Mrs. Wiman, who lives at the Park, heard the news of her husband's misfortune. She expected this, and was in no hurry to visit her husband in the Tombs. Her confidence in her husband's innocence in his ability to prove his innocence.

An investigation in financial circles leads to the discovery of what may be a clue to the present prosecution. For the questions ought to be asked that thought was why a whole year should have been allowed to elapse before the crime was discovered. Dun explained this afternoon for the arrest was as follows:

About a month ago suspicions were aroused by a man whom we have known as a well respected gentleman, occupying prominent position in the city. In February we felt it made it impossible to allow a transaction of these amounts. In June, the matter revealed every business dealings and about this he refused to meet a merchants and the revelation business. It was a revelation to us of the most pleasing character to business and we lost a great deal of talk and bitter feeling.

Wiman was personally held responsible for the authenticity. It was agreed that very few men were so thoroughly acquainted with the details of the business of the agency business and who have the late made points in the circular as well as Wiman. As a matter of fact, Wiman's friends say he only did so and with the exception that was made by the last one is well published. Although totally innocent of the matter, yet, the conduct it has ever then he did not know the complaints and it is supposed that H. G. Dun & Co. can even where he stands in relation to his account.

Daughters of the D. A. R. in Session.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The annual Congress of the American Revolution began this afternoon in progress to day, in accordance with the plan laid over by Mrs. Adlai Stevenson, president general.

The building of the public Office, Harrison to be formally the Congress of the Revolution to be extensive memorial, took place for gift, in the presence of a little audience in the Church of Our Father.

The Tariff Problem.

WASHINGTON, 22.—A call is being circulated for a Democratic caucus on the tariff for Monday evening, at which Democratic members of the House are urged to be present and consider the tariff bill. They will be told nothing bound to have a majority of the Democrats in the caucus, in the presence of a little audience in the Church of Our Father.

The Tariff Problem.

WASHINGTON, 22.—A call is being circulated for a Democratic caucus on the tariff for Monday evening, at which Democratic members of the House are urged to be present and consider the tariff bill. They will be told nothing bound to have a majority of the Democrats in the caucus, in the presence of a little audience in the Church of Our Father.

THE TARIFF BILL.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Erastus Wiman, the well known capitalist and political magnate, was arrested on a bench warrant this afternoon on the charge of forgery. He was brought before the judge's chambers in the General Sessions consisting at 3 o'clock, and in default of $25,000 bail was committed to the Tombs by Judge Martine.

The indictments were found against Wiman by the grand jury today. They are for forgery and uttering fraudulent instruments. Indictments charging the same. The total amount involved in Wiman's alleged transgressions is $129,000. The commissioner against Wiman is H. G. Dun, president of the Mercantile Agency association.

Since receiving the connection with the R. G. Dun agency, Wiman has acquired a prominently furnished office in the Park building, No. 1 Broadway. He was engaged at his desk this afternoon when Detective sergeants Phil Bailey and Vic Gleason walked in. They had a bench warrant for his arrest, already prepared, when the grand jury, an hour earlier, had found indictments against the sticking of names found for forgery.

Detective Bailey approached Wiman and said: "You are under arrest."

Wiman scarcely even glanced up. Blanched very pale and muttered the exclamation to alarm the clerks. This was about 2 o'clock. Wiman was allowed to accompany the detectives to the district attorney's office. He put on his coat and without a word and well with them.

One of the charges against Wiman is a forgery of the endorsement of R. W. Ballinger to a check for $2,000, made to Ballinger's order by R. G. Dun & Co. For other charges in forgery, the endorsement of Ogden Rogers to a check, also drawn by R. G. Dun & Co., for $1,500. The checks were dated January 26th and February 6, 1893.

The petition of District Attorney Nicoll, in bringing the matter before the grand jury, was prompted by a letter addressed to Colonel Fellows who supposed to have been written by ex-District Attorney DeLancey Nicoll. The letter states that Wiman was connected with R. G. Dun & Co.

During the period covering the acts complained of and for many years prior to he had business relations with Dun, but was not a partner in the business.

The letter says: "And yet, by various acts of misrepresentation, misrepresentations, concealments, frauds or agreement, misuse of powers confided to him and gross neglecting of duties with which he was entrusted, he succeeded, from 1885 up to January, 1893, in stealing from Dun the enormous sum of $129,014.90."

The letter then details the cases selected for prosecution. In February, 1885, R. G. Dun & Co. owed upwards of $50,000 to E. R. Ballinger for merchandise purchased. On the 5th of February, 1885, Wiman, being in charge of Dun's money, directed Dun's cashier to make out a check to Ballinger's order, and instead of transmitting it to him to subscribe to the account, she fraudulently forged Ballinger's name on the back of the check and deposited it to Wiman's credit.

"I need hardly say that the sale of Wiman were wholly without the knowledge of Dun or his associates, and more than they have paid to Ballinger the sum which Wiman, by forgery of forgery, appropriated to his own use."

The second case cited occurred January 26, 1893, when Dun owed the Campbell Printing Press & Manufacturing Company $5000 for printing presses. Wiman procured from Dun's cashier a check for the amount, payable to Brewer, treasurer of the Campbell Company, on the ground that he desired to pay the account. He indorsed upon it the Campbell company, and, being then out Dun & Co. were short of funds, which they would take notice for the amount instead of cash. On Brewer's indorsement Wiman made two notes for $2,500 each covering the amount, and delivered them to Brewer. He then forged the name of Ogden Rogers on the back of the check as a supposed indorsement and immediately cashed the check. Wiman's account the authorities merely sympathy for the Campbell company by the release of the money which Wiman had appropriated to his use.

Wiman heard of the arrest, Mrs. Wiman, who lives at the Park, heard the news of her husband's misfortune. She expected this, and was in no hurry to visit her husband in the Tombs. Her confidence in her husband's innocence in his ability to prove his innocence.

An investigation in financial circles leads to the discovery of what may be a clue to the present prosecution. For the questions ought to be asked that thought was why a whole year should have been allowed to elapse before the crime was discovered. Dun explained this afternoon for the arrest was as follows:

About a month ago suspicions were aroused by a man whom we have known as a well respected gentleman, occupying prominent position in the city. In February we felt it made it impossible to allow a transaction of these amounts. In June, the matter revealed every business dealings and about this he refused to meet a merchants and the revelation business. It was a revelation to us of the most pleasing character to business and we lost a great deal of talk and bitter feeling.

Wiman was personally held responsible for the authenticity. It was agreed that very few men were so thoroughly acquainted with the details of the business of the agency business and who have the late made points in the circular as well as Wiman. As a matter of fact, Wiman's friends say he only did so and with the exception that was made by the last one is well published. Although totally innocent of the matter, yet, the conduct it has ever then he did not know the complaints and it is supposed that H. G. Dun & Co. can even where he stands in relation to his account.

Daughters of the D. A. R. in Session.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The annual Congress of the American Revolution began this afternoon in progress to day, in accordance with the plan laid over by Mrs. Adlai Stevenson, president general.

The building of the public Office, Harrison to be formally the Congress of the Revolution to be extensive memorial, took place for gift, in the presence of a little audience in the Church of Our Father.

The Tariff Problem.

WASHINGTON, 22.—A call is being circulated for a Democratic caucus on the tariff for Monday evening, at which Democratic members of the House are urged to be present and consider the tariff bill. They will be told nothing bound to have a majority of the Democrats in the caucus, in the presence of a little audience in the Church of Our Father.

THE TARIFF BILL.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Erastus Wiman, the well known capitalist and political magnate, was arrested on a bench warrant this afternoon on the charge of forgery. He was brought before the judge's chambers in the General Sessions consisting at 3 o'clock, and in default of $25,000 bail was committed to the Tombs by Judge Martine.

The indictments were found against Wiman by the grand jury today. They are for forgery and uttering fraudulent instruments. Indictments charging the same. The total amount involved in Wiman's alleged transgressions is $129,000. The commissioner against Wiman is H. G. Dun, president of the Mercantile Agency association.

Since receiving the connection with the R. G. Dun agency, Wiman has acquired a prominently furnished office in the Park building, No. 1 Broadway. He was engaged at his desk this afternoon when Detective sergeants Phil Bailey and Vic Gleason walked in. They had a bench warrant for his arrest, already prepared, when the grand jury, an hour earlier, had found indictments against the sticking of names found for forgery.

Detective Bailey approached Wiman and said: "You are under arrest."

Wiman scarcely even glanced up. Blanched very pale and muttered the exclamation to alarm the clerks. This was about 2 o'clock. Wiman was allowed to accompany the detectives to the district attorney's office. He put on his coat and without a word and well with them.

One of the charges against Wiman is a forgery of the endorsement of R. W. Ballinger to a check for $2,000, made to Ballinger's order by R. G. Dun & Co. For other charges in forgery, the endorsement of Ogden Rogers to a check, also drawn by R. G. Dun & Co., for $1,500. The checks were dated January 26th and February 6, 1893.

The petition of District Attorney Nicoll, in bringing the matter before the grand jury, was prompted by a letter addressed to Colonel Fellows who supposed to have been written by ex-District Attorney DeLancey Nicoll. The letter states that Wiman was connected with R. G. Dun & Co.

During the period covering the acts complained of and for many years prior to he had business relations with Dun, but was not a partner in the business.

The letter says: "And yet, by various acts of misrepresentation, misrepresentations, concealments, frauds or agreement, misuse of powers confided to him and gross neglecting of duties with which he was entrusted, he succeeded, from 1885 up to January, 1893, in stealing from Dun the enormous sum of $129,014.90."

The letter then details the cases selected for prosecution. In February, 1885, R. G. Dun & Co. owed upwards of $50,000 to E. R. Ballinger for merchandise purchased. On the 5th of February, 1885, Wiman, being in charge of Dun's money, directed Dun's cashier to make out a check to Ballinger's order, and instead of transmitting it to him to subscribe to the account, she fraudulently forged Ballinger's name on the back of the check and deposited it to Wiman's credit.

"I need hardly say that the sale of Wiman were wholly without the knowledge of Dun or his associates, and more than they have paid to Ballinger the sum which Wiman, by forgery of forgery, appropriated to his own use."

The second case cited occurred January 26, 1893, when Dun owed the Campbell Printing Press & Manufacturing Company $5000 for printing presses. Wiman procured from Dun's cashier a check for the amount, payable to Brewer, treasurer of the Campbell Company, on the ground that he desired to pay the account. He indorsed upon it the Campbell company, and, being then out Dun & Co. were short of funds, which they would take notice for the amount instead of cash. On Brewer's indorsement Wiman made two notes for $2,500 each covering the amount, and delivered them to Brewer. He then forged the name of Ogden Rogers on the back of the check as a supposed indorsement and immediately cashed the check. Wiman's account the authorities merely sympathy for the Campbell company by the release of the money which Wiman had appropriated to his use.

Wiman heard of the arrest, Mrs. Wiman, who lives at the Park, heard the news of her husband's misfortune. She expected this, and was in no hurry to visit her husband in the Tombs. Her confidence in her husband's innocence in his ability to prove his innocence.

An investigation in financial circles leads to the discovery of what may be a clue to the present prosecution. For the questions ought to be asked that thought was why a whole year should have been allowed to elapse before the crime was discovered. Dun explained this afternoon for the arrest was as follows:

About a month ago suspicions were aroused by a man whom we have known as a well respected gentleman, occupying prominent position in the city. In February we felt it made it impossible to allow a transaction of these amounts. In June, the matter revealed every business dealings and about this he refused to meet a merchants and the revelation business. It was a revelation to us of the most pleasing character to business and we lost a great deal of talk and bitter feeling.

Wiman was personally held responsible for the authenticity. It was agreed that very few men were so thoroughly acquainted with the details of the business of the agency business and who have the late made points in the circular as well as Wiman. As a matter of fact, Wiman's friends say he only did so and with the exception that was made by the last one is well published. Although totally innocent of the matter, yet, the conduct it has ever then he did not know the complaints and it is supposed that H. G. Dun & Co. can even where he stands in relation to his account.

Morgan's Report on Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 22.—Senator Morgan completed the report on his trip very preparing on Hawaii to the full committee on foreign relations today, and it was adopted by a majority vote. Four Republicans concurred in the committee vote for Morgan's report, and four Democrats the minority report signed by Senator Gorman. Gorman will prepare a minority report tomorrow.

The Senate committee of the committee consisting mainly of the report prepared by Morgan. It has not yet the Minister Stevens has been recalled, and the question is not yet decided. Senator Morgan's report is in the form of a resolution of the Hawaiian Republic and the Hawaiian Government, although stated in such language that the Hawaiian people feel that they are entitled to the protection of the United States.

Tariff Talk.

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 21.—J. H. Hogeboom and wife, well known Republican people of this city, formerly of Ohio, were taken by surprise yesterday when they arrived at their home after a visit to Ohio. The following letter was found in the house just before noon today:

"Mr. and Mrs. Hogeboom we love, for we feel it, look for grain expense and shortens more age I took two more. They don't want to have much effect on me. Now, I am going to shut up."

J. H. HOGEBOOM.

American News.

TOLEDO, O., Feb. 21.—The case of A. J. Hammond against Thomas W. Gallagher, instituted at Council No. 2, American Protective association, occupies the last had the contents of Sec. 2 instituted a charge against Hammond warning that the Catholics were preparing for an uprising last Labor day. A committee was appointed to investigate, and $25 of the revolving Winchesters were purchased. The suit arose over a dispute as to the number of shots intended by Hammond.

TOLEDO, O., Feb. 22.—It develops today at the war department that the question of the local American Protective association will turn out to be more serious than a suit in a justice court for the payment of guns. United States District Attorney Brinsmade said today: "I was surprised when I learned of the trial in the justice's court yesterday. The matter had not been brought to my attention, and if the organization is made I shall stay out only. If the men were so foolish as to break the laws of the United States they must suffer the consequences."

Another attorney said: "Something will be done in this matter at once. I have just been examining the statutes and find that men organizing an armed force for the purpose of waging war on citizens of the United States or the government itself come under the head of treason and mutiny."

Catholics and those who oppose the A. P. A. for other reasons have become aroused against the order since the details of the gun purchase have been made public, and an effort will be made to crush the society in this city, where for two years they have had the balance of political power.

A Lion in the Auditorium.

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—Wallace, the Hungarian lion on exhibition in a dime museum on Clark street, escaped from his cage this afternoon and bounded among the crowded audiences. He completely cleared the stage and leaped in the aisle fully twenty feet from the stage.

Wallace has just reached the open exit to the street when Bonzelle ever took him. He gave the trick a clash from the lion with a whip, and finally the trainer succeeded in forcing the lion back beyond the stage. The cage was got in readiness, and after a struggle with the lion, he was at last forced into the cage. Fortunately no only was injured to the end that for Bonzelle, but the museum people to night are a loss of about 300 hats and various other wearing apparel.

A Salvation Colony.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 22.—A syndicate of capitalists, followed by the Salvation Army, have concluded a purchase from the Mexican government of 100,000 acres of land in Lower California, Mexico. Plans will be perfected by which 500 families from England are to the United States will be put on the track.

FROM FOREIGN LANDS.

To Examine the Causes of the Decline in the Price of Silver.

A Sad Case for Lawyers—A Hungry one Sick—Paperwork on Hay

Foreign Gold.

BERLIN, Feb. 22.—The government commission instituted to consider the price of silver had its first sitting today. Count von Posadowsky, secretary of the imperial treasury, presided.

In opening the commission, Posadowsky said the imperial government, unable to arrive at a good standard, but pointed out deterioration in silver and its demand and the silver commission and an inventory of the silver in Germany. He desired to have the question discussed by experts, with the purpose of finding a common basis leading and making a basis for practical discussion.

Cut a Bolt Urgent and Sacrifices.

CITY OF MEXICO, Feb. 22.—General Antonio Rivera, who has covered the Mexican police, for the state of Tepic, and has been distinguished by cautiously to the post, has made the security that the state and will cut the sacrifice. The Director was made accordingly. A preparation had been given to a patient, who supposed to be bad typhus, but it proved to be cholera, however, to begin cutting the days.

General Rivera believes it will run for two days and that it will be over. He is of the opinion that cholera will appear in the next appearance of the epidemic.

A Dangerous Sea.

PARIS, Feb. 22.—A short box, with a half-sealed box addressed, was found floating out to sea the coast of Ire. Paris shortly bought. The box was speculated by the people, who thought it money in coins. Still the guard stopped. The box was found to be the manuscript of a sermon.

Heredia Goals Into.

PARIS, Feb. 22.—Jose Heredia, born on the island of Cuba, has been sent to the academy. There were several bullets in Heredia's right, and the bullets were found in the left side, but in the final trial, when he and Alvarez were the two of the contest, Heredia received bad news.

Two Ex-Governors in Session.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—A special from Wheeling says Governor Fleming is in the Sewanee. According to official notice recently received from a source Tomorrow, one of the former kings of Europe, is leading a party of Sewanee Mexico. He is said to have a large following of natives, who are so attached to a much against the immediate rights to against the republic government, which consists officers on the Bald Heads!

Shocktum Root Hair Grower

THE SHOCKUM ROOT HAIR GROWER CO.
17 Cook 17th Ave., New York, N. Y.

Deseret News Publishing Co.
Pioneer
Bookbindery
of the West.
ESTABLISHED 1850.

BOOKBINDING and PAPER RULING

In all its Branches.

Abstracts, County Work, Blank Books Are Specialties.

County Blanks.

Prices furnished on application. Every The Board and best grade of materials used to make our work durable. All Work guaranteed.

BACK VOLUMES
—OF THE—
DESERET WEEKLY.

The sixth volume of the DESERET WEEKLY in the general form is now bound. A second number of copies of these six volumes can be obtained at the Deseret News Office, Salt Lake City, in bound form at $2.00 per volume. It is the best history of current events to be procured, and by far the cheapest, and the time is not far distant when they will be eagerly sought for by students of history, anxious to be informed of conditions and events which have occurred while the past three years—a most interesting period of the history of the Latter-day Saints. Every person who can afford it should secure these volumes while they are to be had for future reference, and especially should they be secured for every Sunday School, Improvement Association and Ward Study. Apply early to make sure of getting them.

FIVE YEARS AN INVALID

Miss Rose Barnes Suffered That Long With Catarrh of the Head and Stomach.

Her Remarkable Cure Due to the Skill of Drs. Shores & Shores.

GAINED 15 POUNDS WHILE UNDER TREATMENT.

MISS ROSE BARNES, KANSAS CITY.

TREATMENT BY MAIL.

No Necessity of Coming To the City For Treatment.

$5 a month for Catarrh and all Kindred Diseases. MEDICINE FREE.

Zion Medical and Surgical Institute

Located permanently in the Harmon Block, 34 E. Second South st., Salt Lake City, Utah.

G. W. SHORES, M. D.,
A. J. SHORES, M. D.,
Consulting Physicians.

Pure California
WINES
H. A. WOOLLAHAN,
Tel. 1 120 N. Spring Street,
Los Angeles, California.

GO TO HACKMEIER'S HOTEL
120 TO 130 E. DAY STREET,
SAN FRANCISCO,
CALIFORNIA.
RATES—$1, $1.25, $1.50 PER DAY.

E. SELIG & CO.
Manufacturers and Dealers in
LUMBER
AT COST FOR CASH.

RUBBERS.
BOOTS SHOES
To meet these terrible times we are manufacturing FOOTWEAR CHEAPER THAN EVER. Absolutely or split leather we never use.
SOLOMON BROTHERS
All work warranted on every pair. WHOLESALE and RETAIL. Why buy imported goods and starve home industry out.
SLIPPERS.

WHITE & SONS COMPANY,
General Market
No. 23 and 24 W. 1st South, Salt Lake City.
White & Sons Co. take this opportunity to thank their friends and the public generally for their kind patronage during the past eighteen years, and to inform them that they have recently moved into their new and commodious quarters, a few doors east of their old stand. They are now prepared to serve the public with all kinds of
MEATS, POULTRY, FISH, GAME, FRUITS, VEGETABLES AND GROCERIES
Experienced and competent men have charge of all departments, and the advantages derived from trading with us are the you buy from one business house and get all your goods delivered with one delivery. 'Tis a fact that there is nothing needed for the table but what can be furnished from our market. Our aim will be to please our customers. Prompt delivery guaranteed. Our prices are as cheap as the cheapest.
Respectfully, White & Sons Co., Jos. H. White, Mgr.

LUMBER YARDS.
OUR STOCK IS FULL AND COMPLETE IN EVERY LINE.
Taylor, Romney, Armstrong Co.
W. South Temple St.
Steam Planing Mill.
MILL WORK A SPECIALTY.

NEW EDITION
OF THE
LATTER-DAY SAINTS'
HYMN BOOK.
Revised and Corrected Throughout, and with many New and Excellent Hymns added, just published at the DESERET NEWS OFFICE. For sale, retail, at 40c., 75c., $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50, according to quality of binding. Call upon or address THE DESERET NEWS CO., Salt Lake City.

Snow and Cold Weather.
NEW STOCK RUBBERS.
Every Variety at
TEASDEL & SONS.
Storm Rubbers,
Snow Excluders,
Invaders,
Spring Heel Misses' Rubber Boots
Flannel Lined Shoes,
Men's Felt Boots with Rubber Overs,
Arctics,
Alaskas and Rubber Overshoes at Teasdel & Sons'.
ALL AT BOTTOM PRICES.