

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, March 10, 1887.

FRAGMENTS.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" is to be played in Ogden next week.

PROF. JAMES E. TALMAGE was up from Provo to-day.

HON. JAMES SHARP returned from the Longmont mines last evening.

At the match of the Salt Lake Shooting Club yesterday, Mr. C. F. Callison won the gold medal.

RECORDED H. M. WELLS and H. G. Whitney, Esq., leave to-morrow on a short trip to the East. They will return before the end of the month.

A silk article of dress was recently picked up near the Historian's office. The owner can get it on calling at this office.

PARTIES holding General Tithing Office orders or due bills are requested to present them for payment, as the accounts are being closed up.

The hearing of the motion for a new trial in the case of the United States vs. Henry Grow has been again postponed. It is now set for Saturday next.

All the primary children who are able to sing are requested to meet in the Social Hall on Saturday next, the 12th inst., at 4 p.m., and bring their Union Music Books with them.

The taking of testimony in the suit of H. Carrigan vs. R. G. McNeice et al., for $2,000 damages, was concluded in the Third District Court to-day, and after the arguments of opposing counsel the case was submitted to the jury.

OUR Provo correspondent says a fight occurred yesterday afternoon between some gypsies and Ed. Peck, Jr., and the parties were marched off to the court house by the sheriff and deputies.

Mr. Peck was badly scratched and bleeding on his face, and had swollen eyes.

An individual named Parker was arrested by the police this morning, and the charges of drunkenness and trespass booked against him. He was found in a state of beastly intoxication in a barn on Commercial Street; his body was also in a most filthy condition, and when he sobers up will be subject to a cleansing process that will enable him to recognize himself when he looks into a mirror.

NATHAN FRED. NEWELL was arraigned in the Third District Court yesterday afternoon on the charge of house-breaking, and pleaded not guilty. The offense is alleged to have been committed in the month of October, 1886, at the saloon of L. Ordner and Thomas Douris having been broken into and a sum of money stolen. The defendant was accused of the crime, ex-Marshal Ireland and Captain Weiler being his sureties in the sum of $1,000.

When Newell was arraigned, his attorney asked that the bail be reduced to $500, which was done.

Changed.—In the notice of the death of Andrew Joseph Truelson, published in yesterday's News, it was stated that the funeral would take place at 10 a. m. But owing to the decision of the master mechanic at the D. & R. G. shops, in order to give an opportunity for his fellow workmen to attend the funeral, the time has been changed to 2 p. m. on Friday, when the shops will be closed for that purpose.

Fatal Accident.—On Monday last, as A. R. Hurlalt was riding on a self-dumping coal car between Almy and Evanston, the car, while passing under the bridge, was thrown off the track and he was killed.

He was promptly removed to the hospital in this city but died a short time after his arrival. His remains were prepared for burial by Undertaker Freshaw, and will be shipped to his home in Pennsylvania.

Deceased was a member of Tetou Lodge, No. 6 of O. U. W. and was also a member of the Brotherhood of Brakemen. His remains will be sent east on Friday.

"Health, Wealth and Wisdom."—Judge C. W. Stayer delivered his interesting and instructive lecture on "Health, Wealth and Wisdom" at the Twenty-first Ward meeting house last night, under the auspices of the Mutual Improvement Association, to a large and appreciative audience, who manifested their approval and satisfaction by tendering the lecturer a hearty vote of thanks.

All those who have had the pleasure of hearing the lecture, express themselves as being highly pleased and satisfied with it.

Clark, Eldredge & Co.—The incorporation under this title has filed its articles of agreement with County clerk Cutler, and a certificate of incorporation has been issued thereon from the office of Secretary Thomas. The organization will conduct a general mercantile business in Salt Lake City, and at such other places as branch offices be established. The capital stock is placed at $100,000, divided into shares of $100 each, and of this $20,000 is held by H. S. Eldredge, John Clark, Nelson A. Empey, B. R. Eldredge, George W. Romney, Henry Dinwoody, James H. Sharp, L. S. Hills and Francis Armstrong. The remaining $80,000 is held for the company's use. The directors for the first term were H. S. Eldredge, B. R. Eldredge, Nelson A. Empey, L. S. Hills and James Sharp. Mr. Eldredge being president and Mr. Clark vice-president and secretary.

The new company succeed the firm of Clark, Eldredge & Co., whose business last and they have placed in the front rank of the solid and reliable merchants of Salt Lake City.

Returned Home.—Last evening, Elder Williams F. Camp, of Samaria, Onondaga County, Idaho, reached this city on his way home from the States, where he has been laboring in the missionary field. He left for the Southern States October 28, 1884, and was assigned to labor in the State of Virginia, where he remained six months. He was then transferred to West Virginia, laboring in that State until his release. He preached the Gospel wherever opportunities could be found, and met with great success. The people generally treated him with kindness, though in some districts he met with vigorous opposition in his efforts to promulgate the principles of the everlasting Gospel. Altogether he realizes that his experience in the missionary field will be of incalculable benefit to him.

Elder Camp traveled part of the way with the company of 14 Elders and 100 Saints which came from the Southern States, and a portion of whom reached Salt Lake on Monday last. In addition to those named in our report at that time, Elders M. L. Nelson, Heber Wright, Malo A. Hendricks and Alvin F. Heaton were among the returning Elders. Elder Nelson, whose home is at Provo, stopped off in Colorado, to attend to some business in that section, and will continue his journey in a few days. Elder Camp also remained two days visiting relatives in Emery County, and will start to-morrow for his home in Utah.

SLEATER SURRENDERS.

HE COULD FACE DEATH, BUT NOT THE UTAH PENITENTIARY.

Robert G. Sleater was called in the Third District Court this afternoon to plead to an indictment charging him with unlawful cohabitation with Mary S. Sleater and Eliza Hancock Sleater as his wives, from March 5, 1884, to January 3, 1887. To this he entered a plea of guilty.

The Court asked—Do you want sentence now?

Mr. Sleater—Yes, sir; I have a statement to make.

He then handed to the judge a document, of which the following is a copy:

"Your honor: In answering for the first time in my life, to a violation of the laws of my country, I wish to state that I have lived within the law from the time that I was satisfied of its definition, now over two years ago. Whatever my opinions may be as to the justice of the law regarding unlawful cohabitation, I realize that it is my duty as a citizen to obey it, and to abide by its provisions. I solemnly established nearly twenty years ago.

"The ties of affection that bound me to my wives and children were as dear as life itself; but those which bind me to my country are dearer yet. At Shiloh, at Vicksburg, at Missionary Ridge, and many other battle fields, I did not hesitate to offer my life for the Union, and for the same sense makes me now yield to its statutes, however great my affliction may be in doing so. Since realizing what the law really meant, I have obeyed it, and intend in the future, by the same means, to maintain my integrity as a citizen.

ROBT. G. SLEATER."

Court—How many wives have you?

Mr. Sleater—Two.

Court—When were you married to the second?

Mr. Sleater—In 1869.

Court—You say you intend to obey this law in future?

Mr. Sleater—Yes, sir.

Court—You intend to live with your lawful wife and her only?

Mr. Sleater—Yes, sir.

Court—Have you any means to pay a fine?

Mr. Sleater—No, sir.

Court—Well, in view of the circumstances of the case I am disposed to extend to you the same leniency that has been shown to others; that is, if you make this promise in good faith, as I believe you do. Sentence will be suspended for the present.

Mr. Sleater then turned and walked slowly out of the court room.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.

Provo, March 9.

More jurors were called this morning in the Thirtieth lynch case for examination.

W. H. Booth, Sr., said he could take the oath.

Mr. Hiles, the prosecutor, then asked: "Do you believe in polygamy?"

The defense objected to the prosecutor asking such questions in the examination for statutory cause. The prosecutor claimed to have the right. The defense then demanded that the prosecution ask all the questions at that time, as to whether the juror was an adulterer, etc.

Hiles claimed to have the right to formulate his own questions.

Under the advice of the Court, however, he consented to withdraw his question and renew it again after the defense examined the juror.

Samuel Brockbank refused to take the oath and was excused.

Jessie G. Stratford said he could not take the oath conscientiously and was excused.

Thomas G. Thomas would not take the oath and was excused.

R. W. Breerton took the oath and was accepted.

Five jurors were passed and the court adjourned at 3 p. m. till 7, and will hold an evening session to examine more jurors, as it is expected there will be more in on the evening train.

"Mormons" Arraigned.—There were five arraignments in the Third District Court this afternoon of "Mormons" accused of violating the Edmundo law by living with more than one wife. The defendants were James C. Watson, Edwin Rushton, Charles Burgess, Hyrum H. Evans and Alexander Edwards.

The first called was Hyrum H. Evans, who was charged by the indictment with unlawfully cohabiting with Henrietta Rushton Evans and Ida Rushton Evans as his wives. He took till Saturday morning to plead.

James C. Watson came next, being accused of living with his wives, Mary Watson and Ellen R. Watson. He also took the statutory time—until Saturday—to plead.

The indictment charging Alexander Edwards with unlawful cohabitation with Mary A. Edwards and Rebecca Smith Edwards as his wives. He pleaded not guilty.

Edwin Rushton was next called. The indictment against him for the same offense named Mary A. Rushton and Sarah Rushton as his wives. He was also allowed the statutory time.

Charles Burgess was accused of unlawful cohabitation with his wives Elizabeth and Maria Burgess. His plea was not guilty.

Logan Notes.—The Utah Journal of March 9th says:

Two ladies were driving down Second Street yesterday afternoon in a buggy, when they were run into by a wild colt attached to a load of gravel. The buggy was tipped over, and the ladies were thrown out, but were not hurt.

Yesterday morning Sheriff Crookston went to Wellsville and captured John Payne and W. H. Williams, who were charged with horse stealing. They will be delivered to the officers of the north to-day. One is a fugitive.

A charge of burglary was committed in the Fifth Ward. The culprit, a young man named Henry, was caught last night. On the next night the fellow was trying to get away in a buggy, when he was run into by a wild colt attached to a load of gravel. The buggy was tipped over, and the fellow was thrown out, but was not hurt.

Deputy Marshal Whetstone yesterday arrested P. A. Nielsen, of this city, on a charge of unlawful cohabitation. He was bound over to the sum of $1,000, and Annie Nielsen was put under arrest. John Archibald and Peter Conquist signed the bonds. Since their arrest, Nielsen has been in the State of Virginia, where he remained six months. He was then transferred to West Virginia, laboring in that State until his release. He preached the Gospel wherever opportunities could be found, and met with great success. The people generally treated him with kindness, though in some districts he met with vigorous opposition in his efforts to promulgate the principles of the everlasting Gospel. Altogether he realizes that his experience in the missionary field will be of incalculable benefit to him.

Elder Camp traveled part of the way with the company of 14 Elders and 100 Saints which came from the Southern States, and a portion of whom reached Salt Lake on Monday last. In addition to those named in our report at that time, Elders M. L. Nelson, Heber Wright, Malo A. Hendricks and Alvin F. Heaton were among the returning Elders. Elder Nelson, whose home is at Provo, stopped off in Colorado, to attend to some business in that section, and will continue his journey in a few days. Elder Camp also remained two days visiting relatives in Emery County, and will start to-morrow for his home in Utah.

The City of Chicago was fifty years old on the 4th inst., having been incorporated on the 4th of March 1837. At the date of incorporation its inhabitants numbered 4,000. It now represents a population of over 700,000.

SUDDEN DEATH.

A MAN FALLS AND IMMEDIATELY EXPIRES.

At noon to-day (March 10th), while William Counselor, aged about 33 years, was working in the garden of Mr. John Cottam, in the Sixteenth Ward, he suddenly fell to the ground, gave a single gasp and expired. He was carried to the residence of Mr. John O. Burns, adjacent, where an inquest was held by Coroner George J. Taylor and a jury. Mr. Burns was the principal witness. A verdict of death from natural causes was returned.

Deceased came to Utah several years ago from Australia, where he was a native of England. He was of sturdy build, but of naturally strong constitution, his demise having probably been hastened by the alcoholic habit, to which he had been addicted for a number of years.

Another Fine Specimen.—One of Mr. J. W. Clawson's latest artistic productions is a pastel portrait of Mrs. Sharp, wife of Hon. James Sharp. It is exceedingly like-like, and embodies all the delicate of finish which is one of the chief charms of the artist. His portraits are a continuous array of successes, among which we have considered takes a conspicuous place. Both Mr. Clawson and the subject of the picture are to be congratulated upon the production of so excellent a specimen of art, and so faithful a likeness.

CORRESPONDENCE.

MISSIONARY EXPERIENCE IN NORWAY.

NORWAY, LAURVIG, February 20th, 1887.

Editor Deseret News:

Among the many interesting accounts of missionary experience chronicled in your valuable paper, seldom, if ever, is seen a piece from Norway (one of the oldest and most civilized of the world's nations).

Many of the missionaries who first visited these rugged coasts, will doubtless be reminded of many little events of interest which occurred in their efforts to obtain a foothold among the heathen.

The efforts of our first missionaries in these parts were rewarded with rich harvests, as many good and honest souls were only waiting to hear the word and testimony to receive the truth and believe the Gospel message; but the old fields that once yielded so well are now left as barren tracts, and new ones entered. The ingression generally required a struggle in one way or another, before a permanent hold could be obtained. Sometimes we met, as it were, almost impenetrable barriers, bidding defiance to "un-Christian" intruders, as we are termed, i. e., papers, reflecting upon our meetings, doors are closed against us and when that occurs a "Moscow" (Moscow) is held, but at other times we are met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

I entered the missionary field about five months ago, and was appointed to labor in connection with Brother H. C. Peterson, from Logan in Cache County, under the supervision of H. J. Christensen, President of the Norwegian Conference, also from Logan, Cache County. The first three months were devoted to and about the same time we were met in open fields of battle. It is well known that we fight against odds when numbers are concerned, but when the weapons are taken into consideration in the religious conflict, it is, as the poetical lines suggest—beat, stoned and dragged to death. What are they to-day? They are held up to the world as beloved martyrs. The same doctrine they taught is sought to destroy in the face of the same earth, but we see how Jesus' people is flourishing although they themselves were murdered by cold-blooded Jews, hanged from pillar to post, by a cruel merciless mob. How blinded men must be, how foolish, how ignorant, how stupid, where art thou hiding thyself? Consistency pulls the scales from the eyes of those that are blind, and then they can see the truth, and we shall be able to go on hand in hand in truth and light. Keep steadily on and your inconsistency is doomed to utter destruction. History tells your fate, and history tells the fate of the Saints of the Most High God that their destiny is greatness and power.

Truth is eternal, truth is divine. Truth is the armor, truth is the shield. Truth is the weapon, truth is the sword. Truth is the power, truth is the word.

SAMUEL BRADSHAW.

"How time changes the opinions of the average Republican! Twenty years ago who would have thought that in the years 1866 and 1867 a Democratic President would be gently but firmly forced to strip his aristocratic nose at the 'nigger'?"

And who would have dreamed that the party which claims to have abolished slavery, and established equal rights equal at last by the upholder and promoter of disfranchisement and proscription and find its principal opposition from those who were once slave owners!

Angostura Bitters is known as the great regulator of the digestive organs all over the world. Have it in your house. Ask your grocer or druggist for the Bitters, or send for it, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Sargent & Sons.

Active, Frisking and Reliance. Z. C. M. I. can always be relied upon to carry in stock the purest and best goods, and sustain the reputation of being active, pushing and reliable, by recommending articles with well established marks and such are popular. Having the agency for the celebrated Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, and all the ailments of the throat, I will surely cure any and every affection of the throat, lungs or chest, and in order to prove our claim, we ask you to call and get a Trial Bottle Free.

No Enter Remedies can be had for Coughs and Colds, or any trouble of the Throat, than Brown's Bronchial Troches. Price 25 cts. Sold only in boxes.

DEARER IMPROVEMENT. "Yea, utterly 'impossible' when all material poisons are driven out of the system, leaving the Blood New, Rich, and Pure. No place for eruptions, skin, or rheumatism, when all Blood poisons have been eradicated by the use of BROWN'S SASSAPARILLA and PANDOLIN with Iodine of Potassium. Thousands of witnesses, among them the best Druggists and Physicians testify to the wonderful cures wrought by BROWN'S SASSAPARILLA, all diseases of the Blood, Liver, and Kidneys. Use only the BEST Medicine."

AGENTS WANTED For "Marvelous Wonders of the World." Elegantly Illustrated, and sells at sight. Agents are coinage money. Ladies or gentlemen can send for book, sent for circulars and terms, and enclose 2 cents. Address BOWLAND & Co., 100 State Street, Chicago, Ill. (3120)

YOU MAKE MONEY By using "Colorado Star" Soap. This is the cheapest laundry Soap in the market.

DON'T BE IMPOSED UPON By your grocer with Cheap Soaps; insist on having "Colorado Star" or "Denver Star." These are full weight and pure.

COAL COAL! COAL! Weber, Rock Spring, Pleasant Valley and Red Canyon—all the Coals sold in the Salt Lake market. Our Weber is from the celebrated Grass Creek mines and we are mining better coal than ever before. No other coal brought to this market can compare with it. All our coals are already screened and cleaned. Coal Department, Union Pacific Railway Company.

Office, J. GUNNELL, Agent. Office, Wasatch Corner.

For cleaning and healing foul and indolent Ulcers, Sores and Abscesses and removing the bad odors arising therefrom, and for soothing, contused and lacerated wounds, Dabry's Prophylactic Ointment is unequalled.

I have used Dabry's Prophylactic Ointment in hospital and private practice for ten years and know of nothing better for soothing, contused and lacerated