WITH THE MEXICAN COLONIES.

Interesting Information Concerning the Same Presented in Concise Form.

Items of Value to Intending Settlers, and to Others Interested in the Mormon Settlements in Mexico.

For the benefit of people who may contemplate colonizing in Mexico, we you great give some to the following:

Many letters are received by the officers of the Mormon Colonization and Agricultural company, asking inquiry in relation to facilities for obtaining homes in Mexico, and the opportunity offered to those who desire to come, as colonists, to this country.

People frequently ask from Utah and other points intending to come to Mexico, as colonists, without having first consulted with the representatives of the colonization work, and the result is, when they reach the frontier towns they are subjected to annoying and expensive delays, all of which may be avoided, if proper arrangements are made in advance.

Many colonies have been established by the Latter-day Saints in Mexico, at Dublan, Colonia Juarez, Colonia Diaz, Colonia Morelos, Colonia Pacheco, Colonia Chuichupa, Colonia Garcia, Colonia Pacheco
