PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH. - APRIL 28, 1894.

Fire at the Woolen Mills.

The nightwatchman at the Provo woolen mills at 10 o'clock on Saturday night discovered the wool room, which occupies the fourth story of the stone building, to be full of smoke. In searching for the fire, but was unable to locate it. A further search is to be made with the machinery stopped running. Fulleman Beasley was notified upon. He started upon the roof of the ceiling room office on the third floor and some papers and pieces of burlap were found in a red smoulder in a mass emitting a great deal of smoke, which ascended through the elevator shaft to the fourth story. The fire was extinguished without any excitement being caused. No damage of any consequence was done. Investigations are being made by the officials and the manager and superintendent of the mills as to the origin of the blaze.

Notes.

Robert Stalker has received word from the Salt Lake Cycle club that another relay race between Salt Lake and Provo is to be run.

The bellas bank case is ended. W. H. Smith, the plaintiff, was awarded $2,347 as against defendant, Elmer H. Jones. No cause of action against the National Bank of Commerce.

Dr. Hamberg was found guilty of selling liquor without a city license. Justice Wedgwood fined him $50, and he will take an appeal.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH. - - APRIL 30, 1894.

Accidents.

An elderly lady named Evans, who lives in the second ward, was sealing a horse to water, when the animal reared, throwing her to the ground and breaking her left arm.

William Jardine, son of Bishop Jardine, of Clarkston, was thrown from a wagon and had his leg broken.

Mrs. John Hansen was sealing her cow, on Friday, when the animal tried to gore her. Her face was pierced nearly through by the cow's horn.

Tree Inspectors.

Prof. E. S. Richman, fruit tree inspector for Cache county, has appointed organizers as follows: Robert Paxton, Paradise; F. O. Ralph, Hyrum; Chas. Napier, Providence; George C. Allen, Logan; Emil Stumpf, Mendon; Hide, Nelson, Smithfield; Justin Stimmore, Richmond.

Notes and Personals.

The tabernacle was crowded yesterday, on the occasion of the quarterly Stake conference. Elder Franklin D. Richards was among the visiting brethren. The conference will continue during today, and this evening the choir will give a concert of Bible numbers, including three grand oratorios.

The fourth annual report of the Agricultural College experiment station contains a vast amount of information useful to farmers, who can obtain a copy by sending to their names. The board of trustees met on Friday to attend to regular routine business, continuing their session on Saturday. Numerous improvements are being made on the grounds, among them being a system of drainage.

Mrs. Tarbet, who was badly hurt in a runaway a week ago so that a fatal result was feared, is somewhat better, and it is thought will recover. Her daughter, injured at the same time, is rapidly convalescing.

At a sheriff's sale on Friday, two horses, two cows and a buggy brought only $217, barely enough to pay the costs of sale.

Thomas Priday Jr., of Providence, who left home on a business to the Southern states on Thursday, was serenaded by the Providence band on Wednesday night.

A bicycle club has been organized and will meet tomorrow evening to adopt rules and by-laws. The officers are Guy Tretchel, president; H. W. Snow, vice president, and J. M. Snowden, secretary and treasurer.

Numbers of hogs are being purchased in Logan and surrounding towns for shipment. A carload came in on Friday.

A rifle club is to be organized in Logan at an early date.

H. M. Jarvis, of the Bothwell Canal company, is purchasing a number of fine draft horses for work on the canal.

Hon. W. H. Bergmann, one of the university land commissioners, was in Logan during the latter part of the week.

A fire occurred yesterday morning. A barn belonging to Duncan Chandler, in the western part of town, was destroyed.

RACING MEN

Think twice before deciding to ride another wheel than the "Yellow Fellow." A new race where to be college made in Ohio, who is now in the bicycle business, selling a wheel only known here but not the "Stearns," so for what wheel he should get for his last season. He found upon inquiring "that the "Stearns," is is unquestionably the speediest and easiest bicycle made today, and if there is a "Stearns" on the track and you are not on it you won't be in it." No man can ride on "ice wagon" in the front, and what will it matter to you, my boy, whether you have the good will or not if will a the interested Bicycle agent? What relief will you feel in the spacious grounds of a race with a wheel to sell; the premium of the man who get for "Speed and honor" by cracking on the wheel, when you tug the other fellow as, perchance though it is, on the wheel that "Yellow Fellow" is coming, in the races next day! Think over it and you will ride the wheel to win, or at least you will have a fair chance to, that holds today contents (24) Worlds records—the Stearns "Yellow Fellow."

"GENDRON"

Cycles, suitable for medium weight and heavy riders, the best wheel that can be made in one of the very finest manufactories in the mechanical world, added to one of the most perfectly equipped plants for the making of Cycles in the world. Only one more to sell at $75.00. Then the price will be $100.00 for the "GENDRON;" then $125.00 for the "GENDRON," that price for the year.
