NEWS OF THE WEST.

Attempted Wholesale Murder of Prison Officials by Convicts.

A GAMBLER SHOT AND KILLED.

Three Chinamen Unlawfully in the United States—Shocking Accident to a Railroad Employe.

Mayor Hurt, of Cooper, Wyo., has received a telegram from Chicago stating that the sale of the $40,000 waterworks had been made. It is expected that the city officials will be able to begin work on the plant at an early date.

Blackfoot (Idaho) News: The Fort Hall reservation Winnemucca, in the next reservation thrown open to settlement in Idaho, and we think the day when this will be done is not far in the future, as every effort is being made to that end.

John Nikasl, a German employed on the Santa Fe track-laying gang, was struck with a coupling pin by one of the cars of the local freight on Sunday night near Granada, Colo., and knocked under the cars. Both legs were cut off and the man died in a short time.

The Wallace (Idaho) Miner says the train crew arrived here last night to repair the Mullan branch of the Union Pacific, and that part of the road will shortly be put in complete repair. It is believed that the Burke branch will also be rebuilt shortly. There is sufficient material accumulated at Cœur d'Alene to build twenty miles of road.

At Salmon City, Idaho, there occurred a small fire on the night of September 29, which destroyed a small house of little consequence. H. H. Chase, a well-known contractor of Salt Lake City, with his son and Ed. Harper, all from Salt Lake City, were catching in the house at the time, and the fire was so rapid in its destruction that they lost everything except the clothes they had on. Mr. Crane lost tools and clothing valued at $200. Ed. Harper had his hands badly burned, while young Chase had his hair, eyebrows and face badly scorched.

On September 16th, says the Carson, Nevada, Appeal, the Sparks & Herlad Cattle company of Elko county, Nev., brought suit against James Dawe for going on their lands with a band of sheep, and eating their feed. The suit resulted in Mr. Dawe paying $250 and costs of two to the company's attorney, J. W. Dorsey, of Elko, who brought the suit. Mr. Dawe also left his sheep off the lands of the Sparks company, and in other ways the suit promises to be very important. Stockmen in Nevada have paid very little attention heretofore to land rights of ownership. Their stock has run almost indiscriminately upon all land unfenced, but there is likely to be a great change in this respect in the near future, and it will make land worth more and give home stockmen a great advantage over the wandering bands that have heretofore absorbed more than their share of the feed.

Three Chinamen were arrested a few days ago at Tombstone, Ariz., and taken to Tucson for trial before the district court on a charge of being unlawfully in the United States. Since the time of the enactment of the Geary law many Chinese have come into Arizona from Mexico for the sole purpose of securing free transportation to their native land, and the three now in jail, it seems, are on a serious roll for another reason. The exclusion law provides that in the discretion of the court Chinese found unlawfully in the United States may be sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for not more than one year and then be deported. It is likely that in the future Chinese convicted on this charge in Arizona will be given the full benefit of the law. It is believed that this will have the effect of stopping the further flood of Chinese from our sister territorie.

A gambler named Frank Dorrity was shot and killed on Main street, Helena, Mont., about 8 o'clock on Sunday morning by another gambler and prize-fighter named Tom Cluty. The men had been together most of the night and were apparently on good terms until towards morning. Both had been drinking, though neither was thought to be drunk. During the morning hours they had a scuffle in a gambling house, in which Dorrity got the worst of it, but they afterwards took a drink together and nothing more was thought about the matter. About the hour named they were on the street talking, when Dorrity was seen to start from Cluty in the run, crying: "No, don't, Jerome!" Cluty followed a few steps, stopped, took aim with a large revolver, fired, and Dorrity was seen, shot through the neck. Dorrity was well known among sporting men all over the West. He was the partner of Delmore the gambler killed by Billy Fay in Spokane a year ago. Dorrity was in a regular battle with Mitchell and Bennett, who kept a gambling house in Missoula some years ago, in which twenty shots were fired. Cluty is a San Francisco man, who passed as a prize fighter at different times. He was arrested without resistance.

Attempted wholesale murder and a partly successful jail delivery was the record of events at the U. S. penitentiary on McNeil's island, Wash., a few days ago. Warden Palmer of the prison and four guards ran a remarkable escape from sudden death. The penitentiary prisoners, led by John Wade, a notorious smuggler, who some time before made a successful escape, secured poison and placed it in the food of Warden Palmer and his associate. But for the fact that the desperate prisoners used too much of the deadly stuff not one of the unfortunate victims would have escaped with his life. As it was all of them were made deathly sick. During the excitement which followed, four of the prisoners, with Wade at their head, mobbed their escape from the island, and thus give the most vigorous search the quartet has been at large ever since. The island is separated from all other land by a mile of cold salt water. It is believed that the four men escaped on a rude raft to the mainland and are heading for British Columbia, if they have not already reached there. The poisoned guards were incapacitated for work for several days, but are now assisting in the search for the prisoners with not less than twenty deputies. Wade, the supposed leader, is known as one of the most desperate smugglers in the Puget sound country. It is known that the prisoners intended to kill all the guards and then set all the men in the prison, fifty in number, at liberty.
