FAMILY OF DECEASED.

S. S. UNION MEETING.

A Large Attendance of Workers for Practical Instruction.

Notwithstanding the disagreeable condition of the weather, there was a very good attendance of active workers at the meeting of the Sunday School Union of this State, held last evening in the Fourteenth ward meeting house. All the stakes except the Twenty-third were well represented, as also were the leading schools of the county: Brigham Young college, Latter-day Academy, Forest Dale, Hunter, Lowe-dale, Murray, South Cottonwood, Cottonwood, Sugar, Taylorville, Union and Wilford, and twelve Sunday schools in miscellaneous stakes. President T. C. Griggs presided and the meeting prayer was offered by President Joseph F. Taylor, of the fourth ward. The excellent singing and musical exercises were rendered by members of the fourth ward Sunday school. Elder James Pontius, conductor; Miss Hettie Watson, organist.

Supt. Gibson Walker of the parent Sunday school union of the State, assisted by the Sunday school teachers in the convent death of Elder George Q. Cannon, conducted a short superintendent's meeting. President Griggs, President of the Sunday School Union, and Elder Charles M. Cannon, as officiant and faithful assistant, were appointed a committee to prepare resolutions on the death of the board of Sunday school workers in this State.

An urgent call was made for the early return of the Sunday school reports for the year 1898, that the Sunday school map be completed in time for the Paris exposition.

Three of the schools of the State are to be addressed by the visiting experts of "Nickel Day" celebration.

Supt. Griggs announced that owing to numerous other duties that have occasioned his time and energies, Elder Charles H. Hyde has honorably resigned from the office of Supt. of the Union, and he (Supt. Griggs) was therefore necessary, having served long and faithfully.

Upon the presentation of their names, the following Elders were made to the list of Sunday school missionaries: of the Salt Lake stake, Elder Jos. Smith, Jr., and Elder Jos. F. Smith, of the Juarez stake of the morning.

Sylvester D. Young, Jr., Second ward; H. B. Clawson, Fourth ward; Joseph H. Dean, Eighth ward; Moroni Snow, Twelfth ward; Moses Thatcher, Fourteenth ward; Geo. Q. Cannon, Jr., Fifteenth ward; Joseph F. Smith, Eighteenth ward; Anthon H. Lund, Nineteenth ward; Joseph F. Smith, Twenty-first ward; Marion R. Anderson, Hyde Park ward; Rudger Clawson, Ogden stake; Elder Geo. Q. Cannon, Jr., Ogden stake; Elder Joseph F. Smith, Logan stake; Elder Anthon H. Lund, Logan stake; Elder Rudger Clawson, Bear Lake stake.

Elder Geo. Q. Cannon, Jr., in his remarks, paid a tribute to the memory of his father, who was taken from the leadership of the Sunday school department of the Union meeting, where he had labored so earnestly for a good deal of time.

At the close of the morning exercises the meeting adjourned to the various departments for special work therein, and for nearly three-fourths of an hour the Union was addressed by teachers and superintendents.

The Roger ward school will furnish music at the February meeting of the Union.

Gibson Walker and benediction by Elder J. H. Parry, meeting adjourned for one month.

J. H. PARRY, Secretary.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Sun on the projects of theatre goers, caused by Frank Daniels' big engagement, was very evident in last night's audience at both the Lyceum and the Grand. Dustin Farnum in Illinois Clemens had either the Lyceum house, but there was not the large attendance to greet Mr. Clark that he deserved night after night, and this is not. The inner part of the house was well filled, but upstairs the audience was only fair.

The Beasley Motion company is at Manhattan hall only one night more, presenting a variety of special motion. They are Miss Martin herself, and Mr. Wilson Beasley, the latter of Salt Lake and Ogden, but two weeks ago he was a stranger, and the Times was alone in the remainder of the company. Miss Martin is a little woman of large talents, and a clever actress, but she is approaching shortness, which renders her hardly the ideal delineator of the little sweet role, and her limelight work should profit from that setback her appearance. Mr. Wilson is a good actor and an excellent dancer, with a fair baritone voice, but is given to a tremolo which mars its effectiveness. The chorus goes with a swing and dash, but the dance numbers of its work being gone, cause indifferent. The interludes of the "Dream of Fair Women" Beasley's Dream this evening will be more hardly patronized, as the work of the chorus is more than Gibson Hindle which was either played out by Miss Orlon and others many years ago.

Harry Corson Clarke and What Happened to Jones comprised Sunday in Salt Lake that neither needs much description. Mr. Clarke impressed last year, and has a very handsome reception, the laughter and applause being of the hearty kind. Mr. Clarke is being so hearty as though the people were on his first reception. Miss Rosalind Bindon's little wife as the result of his hearty dress, complicated the audience almost by his appearance, and then the boy's mannerisms when he was on the stage, should be more than a little. Mrs. Clarke, his mother, contained the role of the spinster to excellent fashion. The Bindon sisters are Salt Lake's, but the present delineator Miss Lee, seems an excellent character of it, and the Jones of Mr. Clarke and the others in the company were efficient. Miss Margaret Murdoch, a former member of the Clark company, made a very acceptable work. The same play runs all the week, and it will without doubt prove to be one of the best of the Clark repertoire.

During the evening Miss Bindon sang with good effect a song, and will make a song for "As I Have Chosen Thee."

The Kelly and Hoom company in "Who is Who" is Mr. Mulvey's attraction next week at the Grand.
