OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - AUG. 1, 1895.

MURDERERS AT OGDEN.

How Coughlin and George Passed through the City.

There was some excitement in Ogden yesterday afternoon upon it being reported that two men heavily armed, riding bareback, and answering the description of the two outlaws, George and Coughlin, had passed through town. They went to a blacksmith shop north of the Ogden bridge and got a horse shod. While the work was being done, one stood guard at the door, and the other remained inside with his gun on the horn of the saddle. Leaving the shop they went west down the lane towards Marshall's school house, then came south and forded the river, going through to the Southern Pacific round house. Where Mat Colson and some other railroad men spoke to them. From there they said a boy up town to buy a paper. Upon the return of the boy they immediately left crossing the Weber over the Twenty-fourth street bridge. Word was sent to the police, and officers Sullivan, Silvey, Eggleston and Coppinger got arms and ammunition from Brewning's gun store and started out in pursuit. There is a road from Wasatch down south into Morgan Huntsville that is one than fifty miles to Ogden—about the only route open to get out of the way of the officers that were out in the mile hunting them. The officers have returned unannounced, not being able to find the men who had about one hour's start of the officers.

Against the School Tax.

The mandatory proceedings in the Fourth district court, to compel the collector of Weber county to collect the school tax, ended yesterday afternoon. After the case had been argued by Attorney Allison for the school board, Attorney Walpole moved that the writ of mandate be quashed, which the court granted. The court held during the case that the difficulty was not in collecting the tax but that no person was authorized to levy the tax. It is expected that the case will go to the Supreme Court.

The Hot Springs Fire.

The damage done by the fire at the Hot Springs will amount to about $,000. The fire was kept under control by the use of buckets until the steamer from Ogden got to work.

Married.

Oliver Belmay, of Hooper, and Miss Emily Shurtliff, of Hartleville, were married yesterday at the Temple, Salt Lake City.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH, - JULY 31, 1895.

Arrested on a Serious Charge.

Sheriff Turner made an early trip to Peterboro yesterday morning and arrested and brought to Logan James Cunningham, a young man 22 years of age, the crime charged against him being the attempted rape of the 8-year-old daughter of Wm. Kolman Jr. The act is alleged to have been committed in May; but no complaint was made until Monday last. He waived examination and was held in $1,000 bonds, which he secured. Cunningham's parents are highly respectable.

Accidents.

On Tuesday evening John Erickson, of Richmond, was unloading hay when that had been wet by Monday night's rain, and the hay fork did not work well. He gave the trigger rope a hard pull and the fork fell. One tine bounced the rim of his hat off and grazed his face, and the other wounded him severely on the left breast.

A young man named Owen, while riding one horse and leading another in the neighborhood of his home near Collinston was thrown by the animal he was riding and kicked in the face by the other. His nose and upper lip were split and his cheek badly bruised.

Hay, a son of James Hovey, of Millville, was thrown from a load of hay by an unexpected start of the team. He struck the ground inside front and the horses of both teams were broken above the wrists.

A young man named Cornell badly mutilated his hand with an ax.

The Logan Choir.

Following the announcement of the Cache Stake quarterly conference for Monday next, the tabernacle choir, directed by George W. Thatcher Jr. and H. G. Ballantyne, will give a concert. The proceeds will be used to assist in defraying the expenses of the choir's proposed trip to Salt Lake and Bellair about the middle of the month.

Notes and Personals.

The general opinion of the citizens of the Sandown and La Plata Mining Co. at their meeting on Monday, was that work should be resumed shortly. The company owns property that has made a good showing for the amount of development work done, and now that the courts have decided that the railway company's grant did not include mineral lands, there is no reason why it should not be prosecuted with.

The city mains are to be extended down Second street, to decide the city council at its last meeting, after an investigating committee had reported that the mains for quarter of a mile adjoining thereto were in a small quantity.

Mr. Samuel Thatcher, who has been in south on a life mission to the Southern States on account of sickness, returned to his home yesterday. He is suffering from a severe attack of malarial fever and is quite ill.

Mr. R. Kalogi, brother of Thomas Kalomonos, a Brigham young college student, left for his home, Athens, Greece, on Saturday and Sunday. He has been making a tour of the United States, and on Monday left for Portland, where he will take the first steamer for Japan.

Mrs. Eilersack and daughter, of Salt Lake, are out with a pleasure seeking party in Logan canyon. Mr. Clark Sanders is also visiting Logan.

A brown bear has been in the habit of coming down to the river every night near the lower lime kiln in the canyon. Some of the boys are now watching for him with a gun.

Joel Fisher is up from Dallas on business.

Mrs. W. J. Fabey, of Le Roy, N. Y., says: "Have tried fifty cough cures, Parks' Cough Syrup is the only one that helps me. I know it is the best Cough remedy." For sale by F. J. Hill & Co., and Nelden Judson Drug Co.
