THE LAST SAD RITES.

Words of Consolation, Eulogy and Truth at the Funeral of Mrs. Emma G. Ball.

There was a large sympathic concourse of friends at the funeral of Mrs. Emma G. Ball, of this city, in the Fourteenth ward meeting house yesterday (Sunday) at 11 a. m., gathered with relatives of the deceased for the purpose of paying their respects to one whom they had learned to respect and love throughout an unusually devoted and well spent life.

Elder John Tingey, Bishop of the Seventeenth ward, officiated and music of the occasion was attractively and feelingly rendered by the Temple choir. Elder John Nicholes was the first speaker. He referred to the many excellent qualities of mind and heart of the deceased and extended her husband and other relatives with words of timely truths and encouragement. A funeral hymn, specially composed for the occasion by Lois Greene Richards, was pathetically and beautifully sung by Mrs. Minnie J. Snow, after which Elder C. W. Penrose, who had enjoyed a very extensive acquaintance with Mrs. Ball and her husband, both in this country and in England, portrayed the chief characteristics of her social and home career. Her martyrdom, which has been one continuous honeymoon, should be an object to others. Her many deeds of kindness and charity should also be remembered by them. In closing, the speaker paid a glowing tribute to the deceased.

Bishop John R. Winder said he had known Mrs. Ball for forty-two years becoming acquainted with her when she came to this valley an unmarried young lady in his own county. Every act of her life, so far as he knew, was magnanimous and commendable. During the last two years and a half they had labored together in the Salt Lake Temple and there her unselfish and self-sacrificing nature was made to shine in its true light.

Elder Tingey of the Ward in which she resided paid his respects to her faithfulness as a Latter-day Saint. Floral tributes were placed upon and about the casket, which held her mortal remains, in great profusion and beauty. A large cortege accompanied the body to the city cemetery, where, with appropriate ceremonies it was tenderly and sorrowfully deposited in the grave in the family burying lot, which had been made ready to receive it.

Funeral of Baby Donovan.

For the third time within the brief period of four years Captain John J. Donovan and wife yesterday afternoon were called upon to undergo the suffering and witness the sorrowing scenes incidental to consigning their only child—an infant less than a month old—to mother earth. The funeral took place at the family residence at 2 o'clock, Dr. McNiece officiating. Beautiful music was rendered and floral emblems covered the casket in which the body of the infant lay. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of a host of friends in the severe loss they have sustained.

Death of Alfred Gadd.

The following letter comes to the News from Cambridgeshire, England, under date of October 17, 1895:

It becomes my painful duty to inform you of the death of Brother Alfred Gadd Jr., son of Elder Alfred Gadd (my traveling companion). We received the sad news this morning from Nephi City, Utah. He was the son of Alfred and Mary A. Gadd, of Nephi City, and died of pneumonia fever at Cache, Colo., September 3, 1895, after an illness of three weeks. He was born in Dorset, Millard county, December 19, 1869; he left his home a nine years ago for Colorado, where he resided until the time of his death. He was married September 22, 1890. The deceased leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss. His estimable qualities as a son were only intensified in the person of a husband and father. This is a hard blow on Elder Gadd who is separated so far from those he loves and are near and dear to him by the ties of nature.

JAMES B. BUNDIDGE.

A Severe Fall.

The patrol wagon containing Chief Pratt, Captain Wise and Officers Shannon and Carey, dashed down to the rear of the Vienna cafe, where Morris J. Lynch was found lying in a pool of blood at 1:10 yesterday afternoon. It had been reported that Lynch had committed suicide by blowing his brains out, but the statement made by him after he had regained consciousness was that he going to drag some of his tools near there he was attacked by a heart trouble with which he is afflicted and fell against a piece of iron, cutting his head very severely. Dr. Fisher dressed the wound.

BROKE HIS LEG.

Henry Scofield, 14, Meets with a Painful Accident at Murray.

This morning, while at work on the Branch school house at Murray, Henry Scofield, of this city, a carpenter, about 35 years of age, fell from the roofing to the ground, a distance of about twenty feet. The Branch school house, which is in course of erection, is situated about half a mile west of the Rapid Transit line, on the lands of the Germania smelter, and from there the unfortunate man was brought on a litter, in a buggy, to the drug store of Dr. Parmelee, at Murray, about half past eight, some fifteen minutes after the accident happened. The doctor stated in answer to a hasty inquiry, it was his opinion the right leg was broken just above the knee, but no further examination had been made when the reporter left. Persons outside the drug store, who had assisted in bringing the injured man in, stated that he was hurt internally, as he complained of severe pains in the chest.

A DECIDED HIT.
That, at his home, so to speak. That sack of fancy flour for $1 is also one of our many decided hits. Our neighbors know well that our stock of staple and fancy groceries, and hay, grain, and dairy products, and to just such good bits, as $1 flour, are more easy than you can find elsewhere, and good that the quality defies duplication or any other store in town. Three messengers in pace guarantee. If you say that you don't get what you ought to have, and you don't pay enough less for them to make up for the difference in quality.

REMOVAL SALE—BEFORE WE MOVE we will offer our entire stock, consisting of everything now carried in a first class furniture store, at a big sacrifice, that stock is certainly in outlook and excellent condition, fashionably fresh, and up to date, and perfect furniture. Our store is one of the finest in the city, and well worth your while to call and see our goods and prices. A. K. Dunford Furniture Co., 74 Main Street. Opposite Walker House. F. A. ANOTHER RAMBLER DAY.
The Rambler boys made a great showing in the eighth town. The first event of the day was a ten mile match race, in which McCoubray finished third, taking third money and third time prize. The other the three race, Jim Dale taking second in to previous, Fowler first, Wilson second, and Thatcher third in the other events, class B, all "Ramblers" you see, Fowler in the half mile class A, Wilson second, Cotter third. Half mile, class B, Thatcher second, Fowler third. Five mile, class B, Fowler second. In the mile race, on a twelve mile out for head and hot, Donaldson and Wood being immediately behind him, the result was a split for these parties and the race left a tie. The one mile, class A, was another Rambler event, May taking first, Jim Beck second and McCoubray third. Fourteen prizes for one day is pretty good, is it not?
Prizes have taken and people may see, And may take best of their pleases, And Ramblers are some wherever they go, Regardless of low sidewalks.
