Special Teachers' Committee Has Collected Statistics to Present To the Legislature.

The people of Utah will probably have c-submitted to them a proposition to give state ald to high schools, This matter was submitted by the last seaion of the legislature in the form of a anstitutional amendment which falled to pass. Teachers of the state are now organizing and raising money to present their case again to this legislature in a form which they hope will ecure results. To get the money for the fight, each district having a high school has been assessed $10 by the teachers' association. Statistics are being gathered by a special committee appointed at the recent convention of the Utah State Teacher's association, and these statistics are designed to show just what state of progress the movement for high state of progress the movement for high schools has now reached. Letters have bash sent to members of the legislature asking for their sup-port for state-alded high schools, and D. H. Robison, who has the work in charge, writes to the "News" that a number of piedges have been received. "The colleges and grades are receiving financial support." he writes, "and so far as we know there is no argument contact struture againstope to high against similar assistance to high TEACHERS' COMMITTEE.

The committee of the Teachers' as-The committee of the reachers as-sociation is composed of D. H. Robin-son, A. J. Neff, L. E. Eggertsen, J. H. Walker and R. V. Larsen. The com-mittee has reached the conclusion that it will ask the legislature to subnit an amendment to section 7, article 13, of the constitution setting apart for high school purposes ½ mill on each tollar of valuation; second, it will urge on the legislature the appropriation $100,000 to support the high schools for the next two years, or until a law in line with the proposed amendment shall have become operative. The statistics which the committee is gathering include the total number of high schools in the state, the total enoff each of each, the increase in at-indance in 1908 over 1906 and 1907, in teaching force employed, whether pecial buildings are used for high chool purposes. And what resources eep up the maintenance at present. Letters asking these questions have been sent to all school principals. From the replies the data will be compiled once and submitted to the legisla-
