Knife and then Stabs Himself. A cook named Oscar Semlund, who has been employed at the Maxfield mine in Big Cottonwood, attempted to commit suicide Wednesday night by cutting his left wrist and stabbing himself in the breast, After cutting himself Semlund retired and next morning was found in bed covered with gore and almost unconscious. He was at once conveyed to the Holy Cross hospital and Dr. Richards was called to attend him. The only wound of any consequence is the cut in the breast. It was found that the knife blade cut deep enough to pepetrate the lungs. Semlund has been complaining of severe headaches of late, but last Wednesday he was better. He is a Swede, 41 years of age, and unmarried.

Semlund is a carpenter by trade and at the present time has between $400 and $500.

There is said to be seven and a half miles of film, the largest ever made, and one can readily believe it after passing over two hours in watching the pictures move before him. Not only could every movement of the fighters be followed but even the crowds around the ring adde could be seen wiping the perspiration from their faces and fanning themselves. Salt Lake county has entered suit against Marshall Helm in the Third dis. trict court to recover $6, alleged to have been paid out by the commissioners in July, 1899, to L. P. Madsen for services. The complaint sets out that Fruit Tree Inspector Sorensen visited Helm's orchard, which is in the southern part f the city, last summer, and called the defoudant's attention to the presence bugs on his fruit trees, and at the sat time ordered that inty be sprayed with Paris green and other death-dealing liquids. The order was not compiled with, necessitating the sending down of Mr. Madsen to attend to the spraying. PRES. SNOW SERENADED.

Venerable Leader Surprised by the Tabernacle Choir Last Night.

The Tabernacle choir sprang a very pleasant surprise on President Snow at his home in the Beehlve house last night. About three hundred members of the organization were present. They had gathered at the Beehive at ter their regular practice and from a position taken up on the lawn they sang with much feeling the ever popular Mormon hymn, "Oh, ay Father."

As the beautifully blending voices of the famous choir filled the air, President Snow came to the door and with feel-ings of unspeakable pride and pleasure invited the choir into the grand old home, where "We Thank Thee, O God, For a Prophet," was sung with an earnestness and fervor that caused un-bidden tears to moisten the eyes of the honored host. President Snow was much affected by demonstration in his honor, an particularly by the excellent singing. It few well chosen words he thanked the hoir for its remembrance of him and assured the singers that he thoroughly appreciated their kindly feeling. He told them that they were doing a notable work and that they would be blessed therefor. In conclusion he said
