NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Foolish Husband Shoots His Wife for a Burglar.

KILLING BEAR IN SANPETE.

Searching for Buried Treasure—Tom's Arrl From Oak—A California Committee of Safety.

A new process of extracting tannic acid from tan oak is about to be put in work shortly at Ukiah, Cal. The product of the bark, one hundred pounds, and produced an excellent tannic acid, weighs about 120 pounds and makes one barrel of acid weighing 400 pounds.

The Red Bluff, Cal., Sun says: A prospector on the California extension reported a short distance above Antelope Friday. He was sitting on the bank, when he felt and saw the ground move. He was a man with a wife and four children, and was on his way to Reno, where he has a brother living.

A Southern Pacific freight train to Alturas had a narrow escape from collision one night last week. A car containing 40,000 pounds of giant powder fell off the side track. There was a misplaced switch, and the train was turned in. The end of the car containing the giant powder was crushed and a number of the explosive cartridges were thrown on the ground.

A Granville grand jury was made to consider Howard Chenoweth in the case, near Santa Rosa, Cal., Sunday night. Somebody came up close to the cabin, and, aiming a gun close to where Chenoweth was supposed to be sleeping, fired. The charge tore a big hole in the side of the house, but Chenoweth's bed-fellow from whom Chenoweth's bed-fellow from whom Chenoweth's bed was made. As soon as the shot was heard Chenoweth ran out of the house and could see and hear a man running away. No clew has been found of the would-be murderer's identity. It is believed to have been somebody who has a grudge against Chenoweth, and who chose assassination as a remedy for his fancied wrongs.

Tuesday morning at two o'clock Maude Hart, a barkeeper at Preston, Cal., shot and seriously wounded his wife whom he thought to be a burglar. Her bed had just drawn his wife's wages, and upon retiring, placed a revolver upon a chair near his bed, saying that he might be robbed. Been ran several times during the night and went in search of imaginary burglars. Mrs. Hart arose without disturbing her husband, who was awakened, and seeing the outline of the form of his wife, thought there was a burglar in the room. Reaching for his pistol he fired twice. One ball passed through Mrs. Hart's right arm and the other entered the right breast. Physicians were immediately summoned and dressed the wounds.

On Wednesday, T. D. Hughes, R. F. Dorse, S. L. Mann and Pete Chiarman of Gonzales and H. E. Moorman and F. Jennings of Quincy, Cal., set sail for a lonely island in the Pacific ocean about 800 miles west of Peru in search of buried treasure. Forty-three years ago Mr. Jennings was a sailor in the Southern seas and as such was one of six men who buried such a treasure. Three large jars of Spanish doubloons, valued at between $500,000 and $1,000,000. Mr. Jennings is the only man alive who knows the location of the money, as the other five died in his presence on the Peruvian coast. He has also a chart of the island. He says the island is a volcanic one and uninhabited. The party have chartered a sailing vessel and it will take three months to make the trip.

For several months past the little town of Washington, Cal., just across the river from Sacramento, in Yolo county, has been the cutting ground for Sacramento's hard characters. Whenever notice has been given to disreputable persons that they must leave or be arrested for vagrancy, they go across the river. This thing has been going on so long that the toughs seem to have gathered by the score and the residents are tired of it. There was a meeting of the citizens Tuesday afternoon at which it was determined to organize and give incorrigible persons a certain time to get out or take the consequences. This action was hurried by the fact that during the past week there has been a succession of robberies and other crimes. The police have known that of late it has been common for tonks men to steer their victims across the river, where they fleeced them. The town supports but one constable and he is powerless to cope with the criminals. The committee which has been formed evidently means business, and if those who receive it do not heed the warning it will undoubtedly go hard with them.

Ephraim, Sanpete county, Enterprise: Last Wednesday was a great day for bears. Just about sunrise a hunting crew at Chris Christensen's place in Pigeon Hollow saw what they at first took to be some sheek feeding on the stubble. A closer examination developed the fact that it was bears. There were four of them all full grown. The men got horses and started after them and drove them into the hills east of the county road. There was but one gun in the party and only three cartridges for that. They wounded one of the bears, and after driving them around for some time got them so exhausted that they laid down, unable to go further. They stoned the wounded one until it was stunned, when they threw ropes on it and succeeded in tying it so as they got a chance to cut its throat. In the meantime a man had been dispatched to Spring City for cartridges, and when he arrived the other bears, which were lying down resting, were soon despatched. One of the men, Dell Allred, of Ephraim, came very near being caught by the largest bear while he was off his horse skinning it. The largest of the four weighed 500 pounds and the others averaged about 350 each. They were of the cinnamon variety.

A Visit to North Carolina.

COCHRANTON, Pa. — "Some years ago I had occasion to visit North Carolina, and while there had one of my bilious attacks. Hearing, for the first time, of Simmons Liver Regulator, I tried it. Nothing before had so effectually relieved me. I could in no way describe more than by putting such a remedy in their hands."—N. N. Shepard.

FALL GOODS COMING NOW.

Woolen Goods a Trifle Higher Than Last Fall, Cotton Fabrics and Sewing Silks have Also Advanced in Price.

We have started ahead for fall with the idea that we ought to have a little the start in order that we may be able to fill our orders. And this has proved very wise, for we have been busy from the first day of the past week. Yesterday we purchased from the most reliable makers in the east, and have now on hand a very large stock of fall goods. Some of them, at least, will be a little higher than last year, on account of the tariff agitation, but we have made no advance in our prices on any of last year's stock. We have also made some few advances from 1893 goods, but only very slight ones. We have also made some few reductions, which we have marked with very small profits.

We have also looked after the interests of our own customers, who do not want to feel that they paid a higher price for a garment than a stranger who may come in a little later will pay for the same article. We have also made a very reliable stock of American made goods. These goods are equal in quality of material and general appearance to those of foreign manufacture, and we claim superior wearing qualities and are prepared to show samples of the same. We have also imported, and offered for sale by cloth, such goods as we have never been able to import goods can be sold, but for a much higher price than we are offering the same goods for. From these goods we are ready to fill orders at from $20 to $50, and give the customers the benefit of having them cut, and made by the best skilled workmen in the city, a privilege we trust will be appreciated.
