THEY ARE THE

Highest of all High Grades

And to prove this claim we ask you to compare the "Waverley" in detail, with any high grade $100 wheel on the market. Ask any "Waverley" rider about his wheel and then ride one yourself. That is the test.

Remember that it takes only $85.00 to buy a "WAVERLEY." An opportunity to save $15.00 is worth investigating, isn't it? Please call and see our '96 models.

Orphaned Children of a Member of Kelly's Industrial Army.

DIED AT THE AGE OF 104 YEARS.

Tragedy in Arizona—Slept on the Railway Track—Coal Miners' Strike—Lost in the Snow.

H. S. Winans of Salt Lake is stopping at the Hotel Glenwood, in Glenwood Springs, Colo.

Coal miners at Louisville, Colo., are out on a strike at the [illegible] mine, owing to a ten per cent reduction in wages.

Mrs. Charles Parker of Salt Lake has gone to Glenwood Springs, Colo., and from there will continue her journey eastward.

A Telluride, Colo., tailor in his search [illegible] was lost in the recent snow storm and has not since been heard from. It is thought that he froze to death.

A gasoline stove explosion caused the loss by fire Monday morning of the elegant suburban residence of Geo. Rose, former state horticultural commissioner, at Alhambra, Cal. The loss was $15,000 partly covered by insurance.

Monday morning W. G. Pearne was sentenced at Oroville, Cal., by Judge John C. Gray to one year's imprisonment at San Quentin. Pearne was convicted last week of manslaughter in driving over an aged woman at Biggs last fall.

The employes of the Mining Era, which was started a few months ago at Colorado Springs, Col., as a daily mining paper, have attached the printing outfit for wages due them. The paper has not been issued since the first of the month.

The charge against Thomas and James Nicholson of murder in killing Robert B. Conover and James F. Rae on the desert Thursday, was dismissed by Justice Morris at Banning, Cal., Monday. The evidence clearly established that the deed was done in self-defense.

Giovanni Agius, a native of the island of Malta, who had been a familiar figure on the streets of Oakland, Cal., for fifty-five years, passed away Sunday at the home of Mrs. Han[illegible], 904 Filbert street, at the age of 104 years. His mother died when he was four years old.

Monday afternoon John Osborne was asleep on the railroad track near Ben Lomond, Cal., and was run over and killed by a train. A companion who was asleep at the side of the track escaped injury. Osborne was 29 years old, the son of Judge Osborne, who resides on Newell creek, Cal.

St. John, Kansas, News: Elder Rishton, just from Salt Lake City, Utah, who has been stopping in St. John for a few days visiting his brother Elders and friends, left Monday evening on a southern mission.... Elder J. C. Lyons started for his home in Salt Lake City on Wednesday, having completed his mission. Mr. Lyons has been in St. John most of the time since September last and his many friends regret his departure.

Monday morning about 1:30 o'clock Otto Johnson, a laborer employed at the Selby smelting works, was killed by a freight train near Port Costa, Cal. Johnson was on his way home, and although not supposed to have been intoxicated, he had evidently spent the evening in some of the saloons in the vicinity, as he had a number of cigars in his pocket and but 15 cents was found in his purse. As soon as the engineer saw that he had struck a man he stopped and the injured man was brought to Port Costa, where he died two hours afterward without recovering consciousness. The accident was the result of Johnson's own carelessness.

One result of the Industrial army movement of two years ago came to the notice of General McComb of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children at San Francisco, Monday, when Officer Graham brought Philip Muss, aged 16, and his sister Emma, 12 years old, to his office, with a request that he endeavor to provide a home for them. The father of the children, Philip Muss, left San Francisco two years ago, when he went East as a soldier in Kelly's commonweal army, being detained at Ogden by the Utah militia under Governor West. The last heard of him was from St. Louis as the army was leaving that place on its tramp to Washington. After Muss left his wife, by striving hard, managed to feed and shelter her two children, but last Friday she died, leaving young Philip and Emma, who are very bright children, practically penniless. General McComb will sue for the guardianship of the Muss children. Then he will see what he can do in the way of a home for them.

A special dispatch from Benson, Ariz., says word has just been received there of a murder committed last Friday at a mine on Lone mountain in Huachucas, near the Mexican border, and far away from any settlement. The mine was owned by an erratic old prospector named Harper. A few weeks ago there arrived at the mine a comer, who gave the name of Einhart. Einhart has gone to Tombstone and given himself up, saying that he killed Harper. His story is that Harper had given him an interest in the mine and that they quarreled over the division of the profits, and while in front of the cabin Harper attempted to shoot him and Einhart took his pistol from him and shot him in the breast. This story is not credited. Harper would not, it is claimed, give away an interest in his mine, and furthermore the bullet entered the back coming out lower in front, indicating that Harper must have been leaning over and was shot from behind. The deed was committed in the cabin, where blood stains were found, and not outside, as claimed by Einhart. The body has been brought into Benson for the coroner's inquest. Harper was 50 years old and leaves a family in Woodland, Cal.

Take Simmons Liver Regulator now. It's just the remedy for the Spring of the year to wake up the liver and cleanse the whole system of the accumulated waste of winter. "My wife contracted more Malaria in Alabama in 1881 with Simmons Liver Regulator than all the doctors in the neighborhood. We've had a siege of Malaria in our own family, and it helped us."—W. N. Bryant, Dallas, Texas.
