OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, Nov. 19, 1895.

Moody Got $32.50.

Joe Carlson got the loan of F. J. Moody's stop watch at the mile track races on Pioneer day. Mr. Carlson loaned the watch to a third party, who loaned it to another, after which it was either loaned again or lost. Moody sued Carlson to recover the watch or its value, $32.50, before Commissioner Holmlund, who decided that Carlson was liable, he having given the watch to another on his own responsibility. Judgment for $32.50 was rendered.

Fulfilled His Promise.

Mr. A. Blackburn of Brooklyn, N. Y., has sent a letter enclosing $5 to Ticket-broker George W. Jones. In 1889 he bought a ticket to take him through to his home, but gained $5 of the necessary amount. Mr. Jones to Blackburn have the ticket on a promise to send the ticket when he could, which promise has been fulfilled after a lapse of six years.

School Library Benefit.

The entertainment given by the people of the Pingree Avenue school last night in the First ward meeting house, for the benefit of the school library, was well attended.

San Luis Stake Conference.

The quarterly conference of the San Luis Stake at Zion convened at Moroni, Colo., November 16 and 17, 1895. There were present of the general authorities, Elders Brigham Young, Francis M. Lyman of the Quorum of Apostles, and Edward Stevenson of the first council of seventies. The Stake officers were well represented. Owing to the train being delayed the visiting brethren did not arrive in time for the first meeting on Saturday.

In reporting the condition of the Stake President Albert H. Smith said the Saints felt well spiritually; the spirit of union was on the increase; especially is this noticeable among the leading brethren of the stake. The Lord has blessed the people with an abundant harvest inasmuch that many new granaries were necessary; this being the result of an increase of the payment of the tithes the previous year and in fulfillment of the promises of the Almighty to His people. The Stake Presidency and High Council were a unit in the labors.

The visiting brethren congratulated the Saints on the good feeling and prosperity which had been in evidence existing in their midst. The subjects treated by them during the conference were, the individuality of the work; the force of example; the prepossession of ancient prophets concerning the coming forth of the latter-day work; the Word of Wisdom, and others that were of equal interest to the Latter-day Saints. Elder Brigham Young made the promise to the people of this valley that if they would observe the Word of Wisdom, keep the commandments of the Lord, instead of now deriving thousands to dwell with us, the time would come when we would be heard to say, "Give us room that we may dwell." Elder Lyman was gratified to see the Stake house completed and to notice the various improvements around the house. These exercises were full of blessings for the people of the Lord, pleading with them to live in peace, remember their covenants and they should be blessed.

The general and local authorities were presented and unanimously sustained by vote of the conference. The Bishops' reports were of an encouraging nature.

On Sunday evening Elders Young, Lyman and Stevenson visited Manford and spoke to a large and attentive audience.

Thus closed a most enjoyable conference, indeed a feast of good things, as Brother Stevenson said they had come so far to enjoy; and a feast of the things of this world, but of the word of God. M. O. FUNK, Stake Clerk.

Troubled With Periodical Dysentery.

John Peterson, of Paincsville, La., offered with dysentery for eighteen years and tried three of the best doctors in New Orleans; also half a dozen of more patent medicines. Very little relief followed, until he began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy; three doses of which effected a permanent cure.

Subject to Attacks of Cholera Morbus.

While staying in the Delta (Mississippi bottoms) last summer, E. T. Moss, representing Lindsay, Naylor, Wire Co., of St. Louis, suffered from malaria and became subject to attacks of cholera morbus. In every instance when attacked he was relieved as if by magic, by using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says: "I regard it as the 'par plus ultra' of medicines."
