HOME FROM MISSIONS.

Reports of Elders Who Have Been Abroad Preaching the Gospel.

Elder Samuel Garrett of Taylorville, who Sunday returned from a mission to Great Britain, paid the News a pleasant visit yesterday. Elder Garrett set out for the mission Bell July 22, 1894, and his almost time has been spent in the Liverpool conference, over which he presided for several months prior to his release. He reports having enjoyed his labors very much and while there he met with many among the people regarding principle written, and in Birmingham, with the Elders presented to their cards and are closed with good feeling. The company had a pleasant trip on route home, although for three days the voyage on the west was very rough.

Elder D. J. Lang of this city likewise returned from his labors in the mission field Sunday. His mission was spent in Geneva, Switzerland, for which part of the vineyard he was ordained April 24, 1894. He reports the work in that country as a flourishing condition and while he found great kindness being made, he says that the Elders can see a gradual advancement. The Church members there are few in number and their desires are to serve God and keep His commandments. Present religious liberty is enjoyed and the Elders in Switzerland are the only trouble encountered in preaching the Gospel is the indifference manifested by the people. Elder Lang states that he and his companion were cordially received into Switzerland by United States Consul H. H. Hoagley, to whom they furnished reports of their labors, which were transmitted by him to the Interior department. They were also treated very kindly by Vice Consul Storey.

Pleasant Valley Notes.

By mail correspondence of the News.

SPRINGVILLE, October 12th, 1896.—Everything has been very quiet here of late. The mines have only been working about half time; but the Winter Quarter mines, it is expected, will work steady for the next two weeks, and the Castle Gate mine will be closed down for that length of time while connections are being made with the new elevator and the large storage bins they have been building.

Mr. J. T. Ballantyne, formerly of Sanford but now of Salt Lake, resigned his office as commissioner of Carbon county on the 6th inst. His place was filled by the court appointing Mr. O. G. Kimball of Sanford.

Mr. S. J. Harkness and family, who went to Massachusetts last spring with the intention of making their home there, found it was not as congenial to their health as Utah is, and so have returned to their old home in Sanford.

J. S. Paterson, H. H. Kofl and W. C. Barrows have been appointed judges of election for Sanford precinct and J. B. Scrimgeor, J. L. Hudson and Wm. Hawes for Winter Quarters.

Mr. and Mrs. Treves have gone back to their hotel which has been run for some time by Miss Dibelius, who will hereafter make her home at Vernal with her mother.

MOHAIR BOY.

Bishop Dansie's Death.

The many friends of Bishop Robert Dansie of Herriman ward, this county, will be pained to learn that his death occurred yesterday at 4 p.m. at the residence of his son Benjamin W. in the Tenth ward this city, aged 77 years, 8 months and 7 days.

Bishop Dansie came to town for the purpose of attending the general Conference. He was present at all the meetings of the Conference. He rode to and from the Tabernacle meeting on Tuesday evening in an open car. He had had a severe chill that night followed by a burning fever, this soon developed into some pneumonia. Although everything was done that medical skill could furnish and kind hands tender, he never rallied but grew only became worse until death came to his relief.

He was, all of his living children—nine sons and four daughters—were at his bedside, two sons having arrived only two days before. Bishop Dansie, C. F. Wilcox, the physician, and other friends were present also.

He failed realized that death was near, and calling his children to gather he made known to them his wishes and passed quietly and peacefully to his rest.

The funeral will be held in Herriman meeting house, Wednesday, the 14th inst., at 10 a.m. He will be laid in the family burial lot at Herriman.

STATE NEWS.

Iron County Record: Cedar is experiencing what approaches very near to a local famine. For some time the people have been waiting and expecting the new roller mill to commence work, until nearly every one has run out of that most important factor of their diet—flour. Now we understand it will be some ten days before the mill will open, and as almost every grain of flour in the place has been distributed among the people and nearly all consumed, we expect that we will soon all have to go on rations.

Wasatch Wave: John Huber, the Swiss leader in Midway, informs us that a company of gentlemen from the great Tabernacle Choir are arranging to visit this section and give a grand concert about the 20th inst. Mr. Huber has been corresponding with the managers of the company concerning the proposed trip, and he has every reason to believe that Wasatch county will be given a rare treat in the concerts given. In all probability the spacious Midway hall will be used for the entertainments.

Payson Header: The worst accident, and one that nearly resulted fatally, occurred here last Sunday. Mrs. Margaret Vanausdale and Mrs. Carter, accompanied by one of the sons of the former, started to pay a visit to some friends at York. As they were going down the hill just this side of York the front end gate came out of the wagon and fell striking the hoofs of the horses. The animals became frightened and ran away. One of the horses kicked the tugs loose and the tongue fell to the ground and after dragging a short distance broke, leaving a splintered but sharp end which stuck in the ground. The wagon was ended up and fell forward on the occupants. Mrs. Carter and the young man escaped with slight injuries but Mrs. Vanausdale was horribly mangled. She was hastened to Santaquin and finished and unconscious. Dr. Henry and his assistant, also a physician, soon arrived. An investigation proved that the lady's scalp had been torn into ribbons from the back of her head over to her eyes, leaving the skull bare in places, and injuring her left eye slightly. One nice arm was broken and a hip badly hurt together with other minor injuries. The unfortunate woman's nerve and fortitude was remarkable. She refused chloroform while her arm was being set and the skull scraped. The drug was administered, however, while the wound, requiring twenty-three stitches, was being sewed up. She is improving and prospects good for recovery.
