TILLMAN'S SERMON.

South Carolina's Governor Addresses the Troops.

THEY MUST ENFORCE THE LAW.

And if Ordered to Shoot Must Do so to Prevent a Reign of Anarchy.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 1.—Early this morning Governor Tillman established a telegraph connection, using several outlaws, the most intelligent that could be secured, in charge of both offices to supervise all messages filed.

The governor then summoned the Governor's Guards to the executive mansion. Drawing them up in a line, he addressed them, saying he was informed their disembarkment was not their fault, but that they had been overawed by a mob at their doors. He told them they stood before the people of the state as a disgrace, and that he wished to give them the opportunity to wipe the stain from their name and to restore them to honor. He asked for some indications as to whether they would obey his orders, to which event their arms would be given back to them. They threw down their bayonets and disbanded.

At 2 o'clock marching orders were given to the troops stationed at the penitentiary. Governor Tillman addressed them, saying: "As chief executive of South Carolina, I wish to say a few words to you before your departure. I thank you for your promptness and zeal displayed by you in responding to the call for duty. Many of you have gone so to the justice of the cause for which you go.

"You are called Democrats and souls, but all south Carolinians, thank God. The cause of your going to Darlington is caused by the legislature, and it is a law as long as it stands on the statute books, and until it is repealed or declared unconstitutional by the supreme court. The newspapers have made the cost of closed by saying there are portions of the law which invade private rights. They know that when they say that, that they lie. The right to search private houses on a warrant is as old as the law itself.

"When the news came of the trouble I was never more shocked. When the doors of the law were shut down I was horrified. The sheriff telegraphed me he was powerless. My first and natural impulse was to appeal to the militia of Columbia. What did they do? They surrendered ingloriously the honor of being in the service of their state, but, thank God, there are men left who will obey orders and not be swayed from duty by adverse political opinions. Two companies at Florence and Sumter did likewise.

"When I ordered out the fourth brigade of Charleston, that stack command, all they did was to disobey with me as to what was their duty. Those cowards in Charleston did law those in Columbia.

"You go as an arm of the law, and you must treat the Darlington people with consideration, but if you are ordered to shoot you must do it, or anarchy will prevail in the state. I hope to restore you to your homes as early as possible; but the law must be upheld or the state will become the laughing stock of the world."

General Ramsburg, who is commander, would not say anything about the orders. The troops went on a special train over the Atlantic Coast Line road. Immense crowds of people were at the crossing at which the soldiers boarded the train. Three companies were left in the city. Three hundred volunteer citizens, armed to the teeth, left shortly after the departure of the troops and are ready to obey the orders of the governor. More volunteers are to come. Nothing can be heard here from Darlington, as the telegraph company will not receive or send except to and from the governor.

STORY OF THE DARLINGTON FIGHT.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 31.—Three detectives who were in the fight at Darlington, arrived here tonight via Spartanburg on a special train, and are now safely housed in the penitentiary. They tell most thrilling and graphic stories of the tragedy.

McLeod gave the following story of the fight: "Five of us had been detailed to spy in Darlington, while the others went to Charleston. When the squad which was going to Charleston was in the depot, where the fight took place, we went with them. While we were there, Billy Floyd and Rogers, the men who started the whole thing, got into an altercation. Floyd got the best of it.

"About that time a negro driver let the passengers board alongside to strike Floyd. Constable McLendon refused to let the negro attack Floyd, who had done the constable several good turns. McLendon told the negro to stand back. Then the negro ran operator ran out of his office and asked what McLendon had to do with it. McLendon said he did not have anything to do with it, but he did not propose to see Floyd crowded.

"In a short time he came back with five friends. Rogers renewed the difficulty with Floyd.

"Rogers then turned to McLendon and said 'There is the d— — — — who wanted me to get whipped.' McLendon said that was a lie.

"Then Frank Norment stepped forward and pulled to McLendon, saying: 'This is the — — — three.' I was standing right between McLendon and Norment. Before I knew it one of them reached over my shoulder and fired a pistol.

"That shot started the battle. The officers were armed with pistols and immediately began firing at the conspirators. The officers were standing in a body. The conspirators emptied the fire. Only eight of the men were armed with Winchesters. I don't know how many of them had rifles. I do know, however, that Constables Pepper and McLeod had the same rifles with used pistols. Pepper was killed soon after the firing began.

"I went to Colonel Pepper. He was on the ground, and, as I bent over him, he opened his eyes and smiled at me, and then closed them again. He mortured several times and died. He was shot through the heart.

To Form a New Party.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The Presidents vetoed the Bland bill has resulted in a proposition for a national convention for the West and South, to form a new political party, based on the desirability of the free coinage of silver. The proposition comes from certain radical Democratic congressmen, who believe the time has arrived when the party contention in the West and South demands that it should repudiate sane and forever Eastern combination on financial policies. The Western and Southern democrats who are at the head of the movement decide the veto of the Bland bill excites that the administration has set its face toward the single gold standard.

Striking Furnace.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., March 31.—There has been yesterday in the hands of a mixed mob of striking potters all the evening. Mayor Morley and the police have been unable to preserve order. Handfuls of drunken and disorderly men have been roaming the streets, attacking men who have gone to work. It started with assaulting N. T. Ambaugh, chief packer at Knowles, Taylor & Knowles. James Blackett and his wife have been surrounded by a crowd of a thousand people at Brick Hill as well. The police are powerless to protect them.

The Charges.

CHICAGO, March 31.—Samuel Herbert Dyatt was arrested in this city tonight. He is charged with swindling gentlemen by means. He left Washington last Saturday night in company with Miss May Chipes, a beautiful young woman about 25 years of age. The charge is made that before leaving as embezzler he is a bigamist. He denies both charges.

For Free Coinage.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 31.—Representative Cullom today introduced a bill for the free and unlimited coinage of silver bullion of 412 grains.

Saloon and Explosion.

ALEXANDRIA, Ind., March 31.—About 9 o'clock tonight the town was startled by a terrific noise as of a powder magazine had exploded. It was considered by a natural gas explosion in a building where Gaston conducted a barber shop and the American Express company's office. The situation was shown in pieces and the contents filed. The rear of the Whitecotton block was badly shattered. The national bank, the building will crash probably falling. The flames turned Beverly and the fire alarm brought the department to the scene.

The following were injured by the explosion: James Scott, William Pyle and Henry Heard.

There were seven men in the building and the following are doubtless killed: Jesse Bowers, James Harwell, Ora Pall and Charles Hoover.

The rescuing party is working tirelessly at a late hour, but no more are entertained that the men named are alive.

Denver's Two Boards.

DENVER, Col., March 31.—The attorneys for Mullins and Barlow, the new fire and police commissioners, brought filed with the Supreme Court a petition, asking for a writ of prohibition against Judge Allen, similar to the one granted yesterday against Judge Gyles, restraining him from taking any action whatever in the fire and police board controversy. The writ was issued. This leaves both boards free to act as they please and increases the probabilities of a clash.

The new board began swearing in policemen today and before the writ of prohibition was issued Mullins and Barlow were arrested for contempt of Judge Allen's court and released on $2,000 bail each. It is reported that Judge Graham, who issued the original injunction against the new board, which was quashed by Judge Gyles, sitting in Graham's court, is hastening home from his vacation, in order to resume his seat and take a hand in the controversy.

Thousands to Strike.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 31.—The executive board of the coal and coke workers was in session at Scottdale all day, and received delegates from all over the region. The reports today were said to be very encouraging for the men, and at least 15,000 men are expected to respond to the call of the organization on Monday and throw down their picks. The operators are now alarmed over the situation, and today placed guards about their works in preparation for the strike.

One Way Out of It.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Immediately after the reading of the journal, Mr. Payne of New York rose to a question of personal privilege, and made an explanation of the incident which occurred late Thursday afternoon when the Speaker had stated, in reply to swearing defiance of the chair by Paine, when the latter was ordered to take his seat, that he would recognize a motion to bring the contumacious member to the bar of the House. Mr. Payne stated on that occasion he had made that he would take his seat when he got ready was in response to something said by Mr. Outhwaite, not to the Chair. Mr. Payne's statement led to mutual explanations from Mr. Outhwaite and the Speaker, which seemed to clear up the incident.

Another Revolt of Pension Soldiers.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—Mrs. Mary Antonia Castro Majors, member of a well known California Spanish family, today brought suit for branch of pension in the United States circuit court against Harry S. Cowell, son of the well known Santa Cruz millionaire lime king, Henry C. Cowell. The amount sues for $25,000, and will come for a share of his wealth, which she declares belongs to their child.

Mrs. Majors is the widow of Robert Majors, a very well known citizen of Santa Cruz. She is the mother of eight children, seven by Major and one alleged to be by Cowell.

Smallpox at Beach's.

NEW YORK, April 1.—There were eleven new cases of smallpox reported in Brooklyn today, and the row of tenements where most of them are located were placed under quarantine.

THE COMMONWEAL GROWING.

Crazy at the Head of Three Hundred Men.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 1.—Coxey's industrial army is beginning to assume serious proportions in the southwest and awaiting serious thought in the people of this state. Two hundred men of the army arrived in our city on a work train last night. Their number who were stranded at Little Rock, Nine hundred more are at San Antonio, awaiting transportation.

A mile outside city limits and the city, and all battle Memphis to the Gulf is in possession of the free Knots. The Hussars, nearly 1000 strong. Their discipline is remarkable. Guards are posted at least 300 people on the Beautiful vicinity. All the pickings are temporarily and with. The authorities are in just earnings that to use force their army drive people such will be in Washington for a common purpose. They would be formidable in local action, and demand relief from government employment, the abolition of contracting for convicts, the repeal of the contraction of money issuing laws in the United States. It is not a mere act of a crazy demagogue that appeals to the people.

SUNDAY CONFIRMATIONS.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., April 1.—Several thousand people met the commonwealt army this evening. A temporary of musical stations but Coxey and another blue and are followed in a parade through the town. Coxey was then placed upon the Beaver river, on College Hill. Messages were held on the principle of peace, and all was quieted by Max Ital Smith. In the evening the social meeting was held in the open house, and after the audience left, the army, 125 strong, were sit and cots and put to bed in the theater.

By 9 o'clock 125 recruits had joined, necessitating the formation of a new company, called the Cyclones. Eighteen of the recruits were police from East Liverpool.

Before leaving Coxey Marion a religious service, with music, was held on the field. All day long the camp was visited here by the townspeople, and thousands people coming from surrounding towns. Food to feed the army two days was contributed by the citizens, and the officers were entertained by the hotel keepers.

The leaders are immensely pleased with the reception and the big batch of recruits. Carl Davis, in his address, stated the camp at Beaverdale "Dam," in honor of the master of Edgeway, who provides lunch tomorrow at that town. Thousand dollars was collected from the crowd during the evening, leaving the total $16. Brown and speechless would be made at Economy.

OUTRAGE ON THE REVOLTER.

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio, April 1.—The East Liverpool delegation of seven the police left now in a buggy to join Coxey at Beaver Falls. They were headed by Mike Heyman, who carried a large banner upon which was inscribed: "East Liverpool Working Men's Brigade of the Commonwealt Army."

One thousand jets on saw the squad start from the Diamond, where there were 112 men in line.

SEVENTY-NINE YEARS OLD.

Prince Bismarck Receives Many Congratulations.

The Emperor Sends the "Iron Chancellor" a Fine Piece of Handiwork.

BERLIN, April 1.—Today is the seventy-ninth anniversary of the birthday of Prince Bismarck. At an early hour the band at the Lauenburg rifles and the Altona Choral society proceeded to Prince Bismarck's residence at Friedrichsruhe and serenaded him. Throughout the day consistent stream of telegrams, letters, gifts and presents of flowers have poured into Friedrichsruhe.

Count Von Moltke, the emperor's aide de camp, arrived at Friedrichsruhe, bearing to the ex-chancellor an autograph letter from the emperor, congratulating him on the occasion. The count also bore as a gift from the emperor a magnificent curtain, with monogram, which Prince Bismarck immediately dressed. The emperor, in his letter, which was of the most flattering character, said that the steel of which the curtain was made was a token of a sincere German gratitude to which his majesty desired to give expression by a declaration of esteem.

The Samoan Revolt.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 31.—The state department has received a cablegram from Mr. Blacklock at Apia, Samoa, fully confirming the news of a native uprising. Mr. Blacklock has been the United States consul at Apia for many years past, but his successor was recently appointed and confirmed, and Mr. Blacklock is simply acting as consul general until relieved.

The absence of a warship at Apia at this juncture is a matter of regret at the state department, which is anxious to see how one of our vessels can be sent there without interference with the plans of the navy department. If, however, it is decided to send a ship, the choice would probably fall upon the Charleston. Consul Blacklock's telegram states the forces are under command of the old house, Tamasese, who gave so much trouble to Mulietoa, the king, last year. A number of battles have taken place in the island west of Apia. So far the governmental forces have been successful. Finally an armistice was effected, and upon what terms the consul does not say, but he does express the opinion that there is no hope of permanent peace, as the natives are in a hostile mood and cannot be restrained.

FOR SIBERIA.

A Line of Steamships Across the Pacific Ocean.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—A local paper states the statement that a company has been organized to operate a large fleet of steamships between Vladivostok, the eastern terminus of the great transsiberian railway, and some point on the Pacific coast, probably San Diego. The organization is known as the Russian-American Direct Transpacific company, with a capitalization of $27,000,000, and the other backers are the Amoor Steamship company of Siberia, and American capitalists, among whom several largely interested in the Santa Fe Railroad are prominent.

THE JAPANESE TROUBLEMAKERS.

HONOLULU, March 31.—Per steamship Oceanic, from San Francisco, April 1.—By far the most serious problem that confronts the provisional government is presented in the attitude of the Japanese subjects and their representative here. The Samoan, the Japanese warship which has been stationed here for a few months, has just been joined by another, which is said to Hawaii for some time. J. Fujii, the Japanese consul general, and with the warship. The Samoan remained on the job, and either by concession or persuasion plain, she was put some distance away by another Japanese warship, the Takachiho.

The Japanese are against the provisional government, and their consul and other officials have done all they could to instill a feeling of antagonism.

A Chinese Pirate.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The steamer China, arrived today from China and Japan, brings the intelligence that one of the best known and most notorious pirates, the country and vicinity of Canton.

Dr. Shores & Shores Do Not Prefer Also Being Men to Write Ads or Hire to Deceive the Sick and Suffering.

They Publish the Exact Words of Medical Patients Who Have Been Cured by Their New Treatment.

Miss Rosa Smith, 237 Lincoln Place, City.

Dr. Shores & Shores are honest, conscientious and painstaking physicians. Each patient is given their undivided attention, and they are now endorsed and thrown back upon the world.

What the public want is the real, and nothing but the real. They want the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. They are now done to pieces over the little lies and exaggerations of the little fish to make a very big splash.

Dr. Shores and Shores are not boastful fakers—they are physicians and surgeons, and their business is due to skill in the treatment of their various specialties. They do not publish the same statement from one month's end to another. NOTICE THE DIFFERENCE between the testimonials published by them and those of Drs. Shores & Shores. They write their patients, and then only the cases are good enough to the public or who is being treated.

Dr. Shores & Shores are honest, conscientious and painstaking physicians. Each patient is given their undivided attention, and they are now endorsed and thrown back upon the world. They have no time to waste on fakes. THE VERY MOST and epicurean good enough that you will get value received.

Old advertising dodgers and old pamphlets are played out. The new, honest, most scientific and up-to-date treatment of the people of the present, the expensive.

You would not go out to Fort Douglas to a horse race when you can ride in the street car and get there in half the time and enjoy it more. So it is with the treatment of disease. There is always something new, and Drs. Shores & Shores have the latest. They are no strangers to fakes, having practiced medicine six years in the territory. They are reliable fellows, take pride in their business, and have the esteem and confidence of every resident of the city.

Enough has been said lately in public by the police as to WHO ARE THE PEOPLE, who are the PEOPLE'S DOCTORS and who are curing their patients.

A personal invitation is extended to the public to visit the offices of Drs. Shores & Shores and inspect their NEW TREATMENT for the cure of catarrh and all chronic diseases, which is about as close one ever used in the city. Drs. C. W. and A. J. Shores in a recent talk to Salt Lake City concerning the latest scientific treatment for catarrh, said to success is well known to the readers of this paper.

It pays for one month's treatment, examination, all medicines and local treatments for a week. Don't be misled by advertisements, the telegraphy of some discussed cases of other parties. Call on Drs. Shores & Shores, for where they cure you. Go to the only reliable medical and surgical institute in the city.

Proof of the new evidence of the skill of the leading specialists of Salt Lake City, Drs. Shores & Shores.

Everybody in Salt Lake City has heard something about the catarrhal treatment of Drs. Shores & Shores, but it is only those who have had some personal experience of their skill in the treatment of acute and dangerous catarrh who really know how much they owe them. "For my part," says Miss Rosa Smith, "I don't think that any invalid woman who has ever taken their treatment could say too much in praise of their effective system." They cured me of a very bad case of catarrh, distressing and disagreeable headache, for which I thought never could be cured. My symptoms are such that it is neither easy nor pleasant to describe, there was such a complication of them. For three years constantly subject to the most severe pain, there was a miserable suppurating discharge of the nose and throat, with an occasional dropping of the foulest matter into my throat, making me feel nauseated and wretched half the time. I HAVE NOW NO PAIN, I have not had a cold in my head and I FEEL MY HEALTH. My eyes were weak and watery, and upon coughing over and kicking myself I would become faint and sick. "Now, let me state to the public that I cannot say too much in praise of Drs. Shores & Shores, but hope I can convince them of my sincerity by my actions. MY HEALTH IS GOOD, and I feel so thankful forever over it. Hoping my testimony will be of benefit to others who are suffering, I beg to remain, yours truly,
