SALT LAKE TEMPLE.

Opening Unavoidably Postponed in Accordance with the Following Announcement.

In consequence of unavoidable delay in finishing the improvements now in progress, the opening of the Salt Lake Temple will be postponed until Monday, September 19, 1898.

LORENZO SNOW, President.

Elders Banished.

Word was received from Com. C. C. Richards, son of Hon. C. C. Richards last night that he and Elijah Larkin, another Ogden boy, who were laboring as missionaries in Germany, had been banished from Hanover and Prussia. There was no charge of wrongdoing. The boys were simply taken before a magistrate, interrogated, and banished. The officers acting thus at the same time thrust the boys out of the jurisdiction of law and no charge. This is the second banishment of Com. Richards from Hanover in months, and he will return home, but Com. goes to Switzerland, where he will continue his labors.—Ogden Standard, 11th.

IN DEFENSE OF CAPTAIN YOUNG.

Major Harbord of Torrey's Rough Riders Shows Another Side of the Trooper Story.

Among the dissatisfied in Troop L, Second regiment U. S. volunteer cavalry, Major J. G. Harbord has addressed the following letter to the Tribune from Panama Park, Jacksonville, Florida, under date of August 7:

Editor Tribune—A recent issue of your paper contains an extended special from this camp, dated July 30th, alleging a serious condition of affairs in the Utah troop of this regiment and accusing its commanding officer, Capt. J. W. Young. The officer and his troop belong to my squadron, and we have an observation township and a desire to do so man's standing imposed by the somewhat method of an accepted communication promptly on it with the regulations I regard Capt. Young as an officer who is efficient, gives day to day, and who does as hard a day's work as he has done since he is in this command. The troop being who ever did his duty perfectly was selected for a mission requiring nerve. It is true that Corporal Ward of the Utah troop actually carried the bundle. This proves nothing. There is nothing to prevent an officer from sending of the kind every time it may be felt to be advantageous. As I understand it, the application proved to and for one of them contained any reflection on the troop, Hamilton, Mo., or Broadway, New York.
