Ex-Senator Joseph L. Rawlins is ill of typhoid fever at his residence. He has not been feeling well for several days, but the trouble was supposed to be nothing more than grippe. Yesterday his condition was worse and his physician diagnosed the case as typhoid in no mild form. His symptoms are favorable, however, and his many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

The visiting teachers attending the University summer school attended yesterday in a body, under the direction of Prof. William Stewart, the organ recital in the Tabernacle. Wells has received a communication from Secy. of State John Hay stating that the government had granted permission to the band of the Fifth British Columbia regiment, Canadian artillery, to enter the United States, with side arms and instruments, between July 1 and Oct. 1, and requesting that the organization be allowed to enter and pass through Utah. The request will be granted by the governor.

Local Methodists say that Rev. Dr. J. M. Buckley, who preached in this city on the 5th inst., is regarded in the denomination as the archbishop of the church. Several attempts have been made to get him to accept a bishop's office in order to get him away from the editorial control of the Advocate, which is desired by others; but entirely without success. As editor of the Advocate he speaks ex-cathedra, and is thus practically one step above the bishops.

That Prof. W. A. Wetzell is honored in his profession has just been instanced in an entirely unexpected offer from the manager of the New School of Public School Methods in music at Chicago, for him to come on and occupy an important position as a pedagogic instructor in the summer school connected with the institution. Prof Wetzell has accepted, and will leave next week. Prof. Wetzell is accomplishing a work of importance in bringing together in sympathetic harmony with his efforts in the public schools, the teachers in the local music studios.

A team attached to one of Knight & Co.,'s meat delivery outfits took fright yesterday afternoon, as the wagon was being loaded at the Short Line depot, and started up First South street at a very lively gait. As the tailboard was down, the collection of meats inside were shaken out and strewn right and left until the runaways reached West Temple street, when Ephraim Niham managed to jump into the wagon from behind, and brought the horses to a standstill.

The twenty-sixth commencement of Gordon academy was held last evening, at Hammond hall, and a diploma was given to Miss Lena Broaddus, the only graduate this year. Rev. E. I. Goshen made the address of the evening, emphasizing the need of a higher education, and urging attendance on collegiate institutions of learning. He held that the present day is the best time in which to bring out the best qualities of womanhood and manhood. The exercises in the hall were followed by a reception.

The Twelfth and Twenty-second batteries of light artillery are preparing to make an anual summer pilgrimage July 1 to the Strawberry valley for 10 days' artillery practise. The program now is for the Twenty-ninth infantry stationed at Fort Douglas to follow suit July 10, when the combined commands will proceed to Fort Duchesne, 100 miles distant, as the field maneuvers of the department of the Colorado will be held this year at Duchesne. The Second infantry stationed at Fort Logan will join the regulars from Utah at that point.

Ex-Rev. W. Daunt Scott, who created such a scandal in this city several years ago, by getting drunk in San Francisco, and later by doing the same thing here, is heard from in Boston, where he is reported as playing the piano in a maison de joie. Rector Bishop, formerly rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church in Salt Lake, and latterly of St. Stephen's church in Boston, did all he could to save the young man, but "wine, women and song" proved his final and complete undoing, and his friends have been compelled to cast him off.

W. A. Nelden, who built the board fence across the alley in the rear of the Arcade block, states that as soon as the owners of the upper alley deed it over to the city, so that the entire alley may become city property, and when arrangements shall have been perfected for asphalting the same, he will remove the western part of his fence so that through traffic may be resumed. Inquiry develops that this very thing is likely to be done, though for the want of some one to take the matter immediately in hand and push it, there may be some delay.

President W. J. Kerr of the Agricultural college at Logan was in the city yesterday, to confer with railway officials relative to transportation for teachers to the meeting of the National Educational association, to be held in St. Louis June 27. He also filed a request with the world's fair commission for the use of the state building as headquarters during the meeting. The A. C. summer school will open on the 20th inst., and will be along the lines of agricultural college work, including agriculture, domestic science, mechanic arts and other similar studies. APPEAL TO PRESIDENT.

Butte Miners Ask Him to Protect Fellow Workers in Colorado.

(Special to the "News.")

Butte, Mont., June 14.—President Roosevelt will be urged by 15,000 Butte miners to interfere in the present deplorable state of affairs in Colorado. The Butte Miners' union is the latest organization to ask the nation's chief executive to intercede and his reply is anxiously awaited.

At the meeting of the miners last night, a message was drafted and by a unanimous vote was ordered sent to President Roosevelt without delay. The message reads:

Butte, Mont., June 14, 1904.
President Theodore Roosevelt, Washington, D. C.

The miners of Butte appeal to you as the representative of constitutional rights to assert the protection due the citizens of Colorado whose rights are invaded and destroyed by a state administration that has no respect for law. (Signed.)

EDWARD LONG,
President Butte Miners' Union.
DAN DONOVAN,
Secretary.

The miners also decided to call a mass meeting to be held at the court house next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

"The meeting is called," said a prominent member of the union last night, "for the purpose of protesting against the infamous outrages being perpetrated in Colorado." The meeting will be addressed by a number of well known local speakers. A resolution voicing the sentiments of the miners and citizens generally will be passed and such other action as is deemed advisable under the circumstances will be taken.

ADA DWYER RUSSELL ARRIVES HOME.

Mrs. Ada Dwyer Russell, better known at home and in the dramatic profession as Ada Dwyer, arrived home yesterday for a brief visit to her family, prior to her return to the stage in the fall. As "News" readers are aware Mrs. Russell filled a long engagement with Eleanor Robson last winter in "Merely Mary Ann." Her success in the character part of Mrs. Leadbetter, a picture of which was printed in the "News" not long since, has been fully described by this paper. At the end of the run of "Merely Mary Ann" Mrs. Russell went to Denver, where she played a brief engagement with the Amelia Bingham company. Her stay at home will be a brief one, as she is under contract to visit London with Miss Robson and appear in the production of "Merely Mary Ann" there this fall. Miss Robson and Mrs. Russell will be the only members of the American cast retained in the London production. The part of the leading man will be sustained by Mr. Ainley, who played the leading role here with Maude Adams in "The Little Minister." Mrs. Russell is at her home, the old Dwyer homestead, on North Temple, where, needless to say, she was joyfully welcomed by Mr. Russell, her father's family and her little daughter Larna.

PERSONALS.

General Manager G. T. Odell of the Consolidated Wagon & Machine company, leaves this week on a 10 days' business trip through Uintah county.

Mrs. T. Lane and her daughters Misses Ethel M. and Vera Lane, leave this week for St. Louis in attendance on the world's fair.

Clarence McFadden returned last night from Boston where he has just completed his second year in the Boston university law school. He returns in the fall for his senior year.

J. F. Odell, sales manager for the Consolidated Wagon & Machine company, has returned from Moapa, where he found the railway construction gangs hard at work, and the grade being rapidly built. The country around there is prospering in consequence.

POLITICAL STRAWS.

The illness of Senator Rawlins, typhoid fever being the complaint, will in all probability prevent his attendance at the St. Louis convention. In such an emergency, the duties of the delegate would devolve upon Alan L. Lovey as first alternate.

* * *

The Utah delegation to the Democratic national convention will meet on Thursday afternoon at the office of Simon Bamberger for the purpose of organizing and transacting such other business as may properly come before the body. It is generally understood that Frank J. Cannon will become chairman of the delegation.
