

ARMOUR REBATE CODE MADE PUBLIC

Reading of It Caused Interstate Commerce Commissioners to Smile Broadly.

PROFITS ON ICING IMMENSE.

Former Stenographer of Armour Said
On Some Lines Run as High as 500 or 600 Per Cent.

Chicago, May 12.—Sensational testimony as to an alleged secret code used by the Armour car lines in making rebates was given today before the interstate commerce commission here. The testimony was given by H. Streycik, a man formerly employed by Armour & Co. as stenographer. Witness read from a book some of the code words and their meaning, as follows:

MEANING OF CODE WORDS.

Lauching—Rebate.
Lauch—Better arrange rebate there.
Lauching—Can make rebates.
Lauch—Handle rebate matters very deftly.
Lauch—Pay rebates from cash on hand.
Lauch—Rebate must be confidential.
Lauch—Interstate commerce commission.

Here there was a ripple of laughter among the shippers present. The interstate commerce commissioners smiled. Mr. Streycik continued:

Woodruff—Avoid service of summary on interstate commerce commission.
The laughter grew more audible.

Postoffice—Meet interstate commerce commission.
Judson—C. Clements of Georgia.

Implications—J. C. Yeomans.
Implications—J. W. Pifer.
Implications—A. R. Moseley.

When the code words standing for the names of the interstate commerce commissioners were read, laughter and confusion among the shippers caused Chairman Clements to stop for order.

Questioned regarding prices paid by shippers for railroads for icing cars, Mr. Streycik replied:

"The Northwestern billed me at $1 a ton. That furnished by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul was billed at $1.50 with a rebate of $1 being granted as a counter claim. In the case of the Erie it was $1.25. It gave large profits to the Armour lines."

Showing what he claimed to be discrimination among shippers, Streycik declared that Lieut.-Gov. Alden Anderson of California paid 15 per cent of the tariff rate on his shipments.

"Among those who received more than a 10 per cent rebate," said the witness, "were Frank H. Hart of San Francisco, the Earl Fruit company, the Peter Brothers company, the Produce Fruit company and others. Those who paid and received less than a 10 per cent rebate were Stephens & Humphreys, S. R. Roper, Schnadel Brothers, George D. Kellogg and others."

He said that the cost of ice to the Armour car line on the West Shore road was $1 a ton, on the Baltimore & Ohio $1.50 a ton, on the Pennsylvania lines $2 a ton, and on the Erie $2.50 a ton. He declared that the profits of the Armour lines on the ice was as high as 500 to 600 per cent.

The profits per car on shipments from California to New York," said the witness, "were on an average of $55.50."

JUDGE BELLINGER DEAD.

Strain of Land Fraud Cases Hastened His Death.

Portland, Or., May 12.—Judge Charles B. Bellinger of the United States district court for the district of Oregon died this afternoon at 3:40 o'clock of a complication of diseases.

After Bellinger was taken seriously ill just after reaching his decision on the plea in abatement filed by United States Senator Mitchell in the land fraud cases. The tremendous strain attendant upon the preparation of such a momentous decision greatly sapped the vitality of the jurist and one complication after another in his condition made itself apparent. This morning Judge Bellinger, surrounded by his family, passed into unconsciousness. Powerful stimulants were administered but with no good effect, death ensuing this afternoon.

For the past year Judge Bellinger had been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, which had been aggravated by the strain of the land fraud cases.

He was taken to his home at 10 o'clock this morning by a private car, and died at 3:40 o'clock this afternoon.

My Life

Hung On a Single
Thread With Heart Disease.

You should never wait until your life hangs in the balance before you give the necessary aid to your sick heart.

A weak heart is always serious, for it affects every organ of your body through its inability to purify and keep the system supplied with pure, rich, life-giving blood.

Any indication of heart trouble, such as shortness of breath after exertion, redness of face, hot flashes, oppressed feeling in chest, weak, hungry spells, palpitation, dizziness, sudden starting in sleep, irregular pulse, is serious, and should be cured at once.

The safest and surest treatment is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It acts directly on the heart nerves and muscles, giving them strength and vigor, and relieves every symptom of a sick heart.

Your life depends upon your heart, and a weak, diseased heart, like a single thread, can endure but little.

I suffered for years with my heart. At times my life hung by a single thread. A number of physicians and an eminent specialist treated me. Without the knowledge of my doctor I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It lifted the pain from my heart, and caused a new circulation of blood. I am now able to attend to my affairs, something I had never hoped to again.

LABORATORIES, ELKHART, IND.

has been listening to the unfolding of the story of the Oregon land frauds.

He has seen men whom he knew and respected for years drawn into the net of the government, indicted and charged with crimes and misdemeanors, and has seen them conspired in the strict performance of his duty as judge of a United States court to put aside life-long ties and all friendly feeling and to decide points at issue which meant either the ruin of these friends or their acquittal of all charges.

In almost every case Judge Bellinger found it his duty to decide against his friends and this weighed heavily upon him.

Charles B. Bellinger was born at Marquette, Ill., Nov. 31, 1838. His parents brought him to Oregon in 1847 when he was 8 years old. Judge Bellinger's education was obtained in the common schools of Marion county, Oregon, and at the Willamette university, Salem. He was admitted to the bar in 1863, but practiced law for only a year when he became editor of the Oregonian, a Democratic newspaper, published at Salem. Poor health terminated his connection with the paper two years later. He pursued the mercantile business for a year and then returned to the newspaper business as editor of another political publication, the States Rights Democrat of Albany. As a result of the prominence he took in the political field, he was elected to the legislature on the Democratic ticket. He came to Portland to reside in 1870, and assumed editorial control of the Daily Evening News, which he held about a year when he was appointed prosecuting attorney. During the Modoc war he served with such distinction as colonel of his regiment, that he was commended for gallantry in action by Gen. Wheaton.

In 1880 he formed a law partnership with ex-Lieut. Straus Senator J. H. Dolph, Hon. Cyrus A. Dolph, Judge Rufus Mallory and ex-United States Senator Joseph Simon, as Dolph, Bellinger, Mallory & Simon, which for several years was the most prominent law firm in this state. He withdrew from the firm in 1893, when appointed judge of the United States district court of Oregon by President Grover Cleveland.

NEURO HIGHWAYMAN PROMPTLY HANGED BY MOB

Cairo, Ill., May 12.—Tom Witherspoon, a negro, was taken from officers at Belmont, Mo., 15 miles below Cairo, at 6 o'clock this evening, by a mob of several hundred persons and hanged in the public square to a large swing.

Early this morning a negro said to be Witherspoon, who only recently returned from the Missouri penitentiary, went to the home of Fred Hess, three miles below Belmont, and at the point of a rifle demanded $500. Hess, who was formerly a member of the legislature, told the negro he did not have that much money in the house.

The negro ordered him to go to Belmont and get the money. He compelled Hess to hitch up a horse and buggy and ordered him to get in with his wife and child.

The negro then saddled another horse, and, mounting it, told Hess to drive toward Belmont, and when that place was near the negro forced Mrs. Hess and the child to get out of the buggy and enter a deserted shanty.

The negro then told Hess to drive to Belmont and to send the money back by a negro preacher inside of one hour or he would kill his wife and child.

Hess hurried to Belmont and got the money and sent it back with a negro preacher. The desperado immediately mounted the horse and rode up to the Iron Mountain tracks.

A posse was organized at once of Belmont and Columbus citizens, and a small party followed the negro in a switch engine and discovered that he had taken refuge in the swamps around First lake.

Bloodhounds were secured from Charleston, and a negro was found in a deserted shanty. He was captured and taken to Belmont by the officers.

A mob of several hundred persons had formed in Belmont and they immediately took charge of the negro, and, despite his beggings and pleadings, they rushed him into the public square and secured a rope from a large swing and strung the negro up as the guilty man.

A CRAZY MAN.

He Tries to Enter White House And Is Arrested.

Washington, May 12.—A man who said his name is Daniel Constable, an Italian, was arrested by Policeman Hopkins while trying to force an entrance at the rear door of the White House about midnight tonight. He was locked up at the police station.

When questioned as to the reason for being on the White House grounds he declared a spirit had entered his head and told him that his murdered wife was to be found in the White House.

The man was hauled. He was first seen by a negro climbing over the iron fence surrounding the grounds of the White House and attention was then attracted by the sound of an attempted entrance at the rear door. He was laughing frantically at the door and shouting, "Francesca, it is I."

Policeman Hopkins rushed up, hurried him to the ground, when he made a dash for liberty and six men were necessary to hold him.

THREE DESPERATE OUTLAWS ESCAPE.

Overpowered Deputy Sheriff Webb
As He Was Giving Water to
A Prisoner in Casper Jail.

BOUND AND GAGGED HIS WIFE.

Soon Overtaken by a Posse, Fight
Ensued—Outcome Unknown—Will Be Hard to Retake Them

Butte, Mont., May 12.—A special from Casper, Wyo., says:

While Deputy Sheriff Webb was giving water to a prisoner in the county jail tonight, he was overpowered and disarmed by Ed Lee, Martin Trout and William Wardlaw, three desperate outlaws, who made their escape after securing guns, ammunition and clothing from the sheriff's office and horses and saddles from the stables. They bound and gagged Sheriff Webb's wife and choked her, but before departing removed the gag and bade her goodbye. The trio rode away in the direction of the Casper mountains.

Deputy Sheriff Hart organized a posse and started in pursuit, overtaking the bandits near the summit of the mountains seven miles from town, where a battle occurred. Citizens with field glasses witnessed the beginning of the fight, but night came on and the outcome is not known. Lee was formerly a deputy sheriff and knows every foot of the country. He was awaiting trial for horse-stealing. Trout is a cat-thief and Wardlaw is a former all-around border crook. A second posse left Casper and a third will join the chase at midnight. The outlaws being well armed and mounted, it will be a difficult task to recapture them.

SEVEN MEN KILLED BY EXPLOSION IN CORRA MINE, BUTTE

Butte, Mont., May 12.—Seven men were killed and one injured, probably fatally, in an explosion in the Corra mines of the big Helme properties at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

THE DEAD.

Daniel O. Brion,
John Houlihan,
H. H. Hill,
Dave Gill,
Nels Wampa,
John Kramer,
Daniel Bailey.

Injured: Hugh McDill, concussion of the brain; believed fatal.

The cause of the explosion is not known, and can only be surmised. Nels Wampa was carrying an armful of about 40 sticks of dynamite, approximately 25 pounds, to his friends for blasting purposes. He was climbing a ladder 150 feet underground to join his companions on the 1,400-foot level, when the dynamite exploded with terrific force. It is believed that Wampa either touched his candle to the powder or else some hot candle grease fell on it, causing it to explode.

Wampa was blown to bits, fragments of him being found several hundred feet away. Two men working nearby were also blown to pieces, their remains filling seven sacks.

Four others working about 100 feet distant were instantly killed, though their bodies were not mutilated.

The drift on which the unfortunate men were working was completely littered with human fragments. While Foreman Thomas Varden was groping in the dense smoke in an effort to rescue the men, his hand came in contact with something soft, which, upon investigation, proved to be half of the top of Wampa's head, hanging to an electric light wire over 100 feet distant from the scene of the explosion. Several of the rescuing party were overcome by the terrible sight.

CABINET MEETING.

Home Matters of Importance Were Discussed.

Washington, May 12.—Home matters of importance were considered informally at today's meeting of the cabinet, but no decision of questions of concern to the public was reached.

Much of the time of the meeting was taken up by the president in discussing the details of his western trip.

An official discussion of the case involving Assistant Secy. of State Loomis and Herbert W. Bowen, United States minister at Caracas, took place. Secy. Taft, who had the subject under consideration in the absence of the president, arranged with Mr. Roosevelt to talk upon the case tonight, when they were to go over the matter fully and decide just what method of procedure shall be followed.

The case involving Mr. Loomis and Minister Bowen will be taken up by the president next week. Mr. Roosevelt will conduct the inquiry into the matter personally and both Mr. Loomis and Mr. Bowen will be given an opportunity to present their respective sides. Mr. Bowen is expected in Washington Sunday, and the whole matter will probably be taken up Monday.

The announcement was made at the navy department today that Rear Admiral Sigsbee's squadron will be sent to France to bring back the remains of John Paul Jones. It is estimated that the department that Admiral Sigsbee will sail from New York between the 6th and 10th of June.

Margaret Lemon's Marriage.

New York, May 12.—The marriage of Margaret Lemon, the grand opera singer now connected with the Metropolitan opera company, to J. Reed Little, a patent attorney, was announced today by Justice Dugro in the supreme court of this state. They were married three years ago, after Little's first wife, Miss Mabel H. Baum, daughter of General Green H. Baum of Washington, had secured a divorce from him in Chicago.

Justice Dugro declared today that the Chicago court had not acquired jurisdiction in that suit and its decree was void.

Employers Are Subpoenaed.

Chicago, May 12.—Twelve new witnesses were today subpoenaed to appear before the federal grand jury investigating the beef industries. All of the persons for whom writs were issued are commission firm employees at the stock yards here. It is believed that an attempt is being made to learn the relations existing between commission men and the packers.

Shoreage Leads to Suicide.

Oconto, Wis., May 12.—Louis J. Rens, one of the best known men in Oconto, agent for the McEachern company, has committed suicide by shooting in a barn near this city. A shortage of more than $100,000 has been found in his accounts.

PREPARE FOR SUMMER

Assist nature in getting the system ready for the depressing Summer months.

The change of Nature from Winter and Spring to Summer is no greater than the change that takes place in our physical systems at this season, and few can undergo it without some manifestation of disorder. Some have no particular ailment but are just worn out and tired, with their energies so depleted that they are totally unfit for work or physical exertion of any kind. The appetite is variable, they are peevish, hysterical and often unreasonable, the digestion is imperfect, the stomach deranged and altogether they are mere drags in their every day life. To others the return of Summer means the return of disease, for warm weather is sure to force out the hidden poisons and seeds of disease which have accumulated in the blood during the Winter, and some old chronic trouble makes its appearance. Boils, Eczema, Tetter, Acne, scaly eruptions, rashes, pimples, etc., break out also at this time, and the heated season is made worse by the burning and itching of these skin tortures.

During the winter months we live a shut-in life as much as possible, breathing the impure air of closed rooms and heated offices; we indulge our appetites to the fullest, eating more of the heavier, richer foods and take a great deal less exercise. As a result the blood grows thick and sluggish, the Liver, Kidneys, Bowels and other avenues of bodily waste become inactive and dull, failing to carry out the poisons which form in the system, and these are absorbed by the blood. Then when warm weather comes the blood is stirred to quicker action and begins to throw off these poisons, and they find lodgment in the system and produce disorders of various kinds.

The time to prepare for Summer is before any warning symptoms are felt or the seeds of disease have time to get too deeply rooted in the blood. The blood should be cleansed and every part of the system put in good working order, so we can start the trying summer season fully prepared to withstand the disorders and diseases it brings.

S. S. S., the recognized king of blood purifiers, is the remedy with which to prepare the system for summer. It not only builds up the constitution, but goes down into the blood and searches out all poisons that have accumulated during the Winter, as well as those that may be lurking there from old chronic troubles. It is a tonic and appetizer without an equal, and in cases of debility, weakness, nervousness and that fagged out, run-down condition it is unexcelled. Every part of the system is toned up and rejuvenated by this great remedy. There is one feature of S. S. S. that is possessed by it alone; it is entirely vegetable, while other blood medicines on the market contain Potash or some other harmful mineral ingredient to derange the stomach and digestion, or otherwise damage the system.

The way to prepare for Summer properly is to get the blood pure and strong with S. S. S., the leader of all blood medicines and the best of tonics. Our book on the blood and any medical advice wished will be sent, without charge, to all who write.
