ON THE EXCHANGE.

A Quiet Day in the Salt Lake Stock Market.

ANCHOR MINE CLOSES.

Its Particulars Learned—Go-ards Still Selling—Mine Ray Booms Soon.

Last Golden Gate stock seems to be a favorite on 'change. After yesterday's unprecedented run on the stock, it was hardly to be expected that a similar rise would be made today. Nevertheless 1,000 shares went at 56, the same figure as made yesterday.

The Alex made a drop from the 95 figure of yesterday to 91 today, with no sales chronicled.

The Grants did not meet with much favor. The bids came slow and the price asked gradually dropped from above the $2 mark to $1.874 with no takers.

The Mercur remained firm, and showed up well. The stock being offered at 10.25, while $9.50 was the highest bid.

Colorado was not called. Monmouth stock was offered at $2.15. A bid of $2.10 was made for a block of fifty shares, and the sale was consummated at that figure. None of the Daly-West stocks bands. It remained firm at $6.75; $6.15 was bid for twenty shares and the price came not down.

Tom closed; the sales on the listed stocks.

The Little Pittsburg made a jump in sales today, when a block of 1,000 shares was sold at 7½ cents. The bids were brisk at the stock. With these sales the day's work on the change came to an end.

The closing prices were as follows:
