TO SPARE THE FORESTS

The Utah Forestry Association Will Take Steps to Prevent Destructive Fires.

FEAR THAT GREAT DAMAGE MAY COME

Early Action and Saving of Time May Be Beneficial—Meeting of the Board at Dr. Park's Office.

The early hours and measures that have been taken with some of our boys the last week or two are convincing the Utah Forestry association that something should be done to protect the timber and undergrowth of the canyons. Just what the association will do in the matter it does not yet know but knows that it will do something and for that purpose will hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at Dr. Park's office, in the Jenny building.

The necessity for action such as the board is about to take is very imminent. The drought has continued to grow and weeks until they realize that the only indication of moisture and when unexpected, accidentally or intentionally, a blaze is kindled to some that will sweep over hill and down hollow destroying everything in sight, leaving timber as well as small. It is the purpose of the association to plant and prepare for sale to the municipalities and to do all in its power to prevent their destruction. This, says President Park, will be done to the best of the association's ability.

WANT THEIR BACK SALARIES.

Eight Ex-Policemen Commence Action Against Salt Lake City to Recover $1,429.

Ex-Patrolman Thomas J. Everill, in behalf of himself and seven others has commenced mandamus proceedings in the Third district court against Salt Lake City to compel the city auditor to recognize a claim for salary amounting to $1,429.96.

The complaint sets forth that the eight men were duly appointed police officers for Salt Lake City by the chief of police and board of police and fire commissioners, and officers to continue during good behavior. That it is set up that they were assigned certain duties and that their salaries were fixed by the Mayor and City Council. It is then alleged that the plaintiffs have refused to recognize a claim of salary, for five days in May and for the months of June and July, 1897, and further that on the 25th of May, 1898, the men were wrongfully and without authority of law discharged from their claims, arrogated as follows: Thomas J. Everill, $179.37; George H. Haight, $178.37; H. C. Cook, $178.37; J. A. Isaacs, $178.37; Robert Heath, $178.37; L. Thurston, $178.37; Matt Hinder, $178.37; P. C. Weir, $178.37.

Judge Cherry has granted an alternative writ of mandamus and made the same returnable on Saturday morning next.

The plaintiff's attorneys are Marshall, Evans & Corlett and Marshall, Hoyle & Hempstead.

THE PADDOCK HOME.

Said to be More of a Nuisance than Anything Else.

Complaints are reaching the police station of the lax manner in which the Paddock home on C street between Fifth and Sixth streets is conducted. Women, alleged to crime, it is said, are allowed within its portals when they have no desire or intention of behaving themselves, and the managers which they are, are said to be not particular, as they, in so doing, contribute to good results. Bitterly bitter complaints have been made by people living in the neighborhood, and it is even suggested that measures be taken to quell nightly disturbances and put the institution on a footing tending to elevate and ennoble, rather than to the contrary.

Little Mabel Ray was removed to the institution named last evening but the child refused to remain and ran away. Today she was put into the Orphan's Home.

When Ague Shakes You

you can shake the Ague by using AYER'S AGUE CURE. It is the one certain and infallible cure for that depleting disease. It has been tried in many countries and under various conditions, and has never been known to fail. An old veteran writes:—

"You may be interested to know my experience many years ago with Ayer's Ague Cure. The year before the war I was in Kansas. Since nearly all men were engaged in farming, and suddenly all were taken with fever and ague. We tried almost everything without getting any help till at last I went to the city and procured a bottle of Ayer's Ague Cure. I recovered at once. The others followed my example, and they, too, recovered. Every one in town took the remedy and was cured by it. I want all though the war have lived in thirteen different states of the Union, and have never had the ague since."
