President Davis.

WASHINGTON, 13.—Senator Davis, of Illinois, was to-day elected President of the Senate, vice Bayard, deposed. There was something in the election of Davis which much amused the Senate. When Harris, in the chair, appointed Bayard, just deposed, after so short an incumbency, to escort Davis to the chair, the smile that had played over the Senate broke into a moderate laugh. Davis joined in the laugh, and was escorted to the chair in apparent good humor, when Davis returned thanks. Sherman offered a motion thanking Bayard for the impartiality displayed by him as President. This seemed to strike the Senate as satire and more laughter ensued. Edmunds saw he had been misconstrued, and rebuked the Senators, and then said he offered the motion in all sincerity, and Mr. Bayard was entitled to thanks, because he had assumed the Chair at the time when judges could have been made and would have worked injustice, and insisted Bayard had been fair in all things, and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

No Opposition.

The republicans have determined to support Senator Davis, provided that gentleman does not object, and it is expected his colleague, Senator Logan, will make a motion to that effect to-morrow. Senator Davis keeps his own counsel now as he has always done, but the republicans say there is sufficient reason in the consistency of his course hitherto as to make them believe that if the office comes to him unsought, he will serve and remain from voting upon questions himself.

It is understood the republicans have concluded not to make a contest for the Secretaryship at this session, and that the democrats may be permitted to elect their candidate.

The republicans seem determined not to compromise on committee questions, and will vote for Edmunds' resolution whenever it shall be reached.

There is not much disposition as yet shown by the democrats to oppose the change in the presidency of the Senate by dilatory motions and to suffer things to take their course.

Silence is Golden.

The Western Associated Press agent called upon Senator Davis to-night, and asked him if he had been notified of the republican purpose to nominate him. He replied that he had not; that he had heard of nothing except what he had read in the newspapers; that no republican Senators had approached him on the subject, nor had any conversation about it at all. When asked what he would do if nominated, he declined to answer, saying he considered it too delicate to talk about the matter.

Deeds not Words.

It is a matter of general comment here that President Arthur keeps his contemplated Cabinet changes with the strictest privacy than any President who has preceded him. Ex-President Grant had the reputation of keeping a close mouth, but even he took certain Senators into his confidence; but even President Arthur's closest friends, or those who are most interested, or Cabinet officers who desire to be relieved, appear to have no knowledge of his plans.

Yorktown.

The President and cabinet leave for Yorktown on Tuesday next. The French guests start on Monday, visiting Mount Vernon on the way. Admiral Porter goes down to-morrow to arrange the naval programme.

The diplomatic corps will be presented to President Arthur to-morrow.

Senator Johnson, chairman of the Yorktown Commission, thinks the Senate will get through and adjourn by next Tuesday, the opening day of the centennial celebration.

It has been the prevailing opinion that the Senate will not be ready to adjourn before the last of next week. If that case a recess will probably be taken for a visit to Yorktown, and the Senators will accompany President Arthur to the celebration.

The Cabinet.

It is pretty well settled that Windom's successor will be named at this session of the Senate. There is every reason to conclude that it will be Judge Folger, of New York. Windom informed the President today that he could make the appointment as early as he pleased without in any way incommoding the present secretary. Windom said he had all the affairs of the Treasury in such shape that he could retire at any time with entire justice to himself, and that he is willing to retire early. He is really anxious to leave the cabinet and look after his senatorial election.

The republican senators who have talked with the President say that all the new cabinet will be nominated before the close of the present session of the Senate.

Blaine is desirous of being freed from the State Department, as he says he has large business arrangements in view which he wants to take hold. Talking to a party of friends, Blaine says he was gratified for the opportunity for once to be entirely relieved of all official responsibilities. He said he believed office holding hampered him hitherto. He rejoiced at the prospect of future freedom of duty to the public. He proposes to engage largely in business enterprises.

To-day Secretary Kirkwood and the heads of bureaus of the Interior Department, paid their respects to Secretaries Blaine and Windom, and Postmaster General James. They conferred with the President early this afternoon on the subject of certain minor appointments which need to be made.

A number of Senators also called.

There is much speculation with regard to cabinet changes. Secretary Windom was asked if his visit to the President had any connection with his retirement. He replied that it had not, and that no official communication on the subject had yet reached him.

The Assassin.

Guiteau will probably appear for trial before the week expires. He is very timid as the day draws near and is apprehensive lest he may be dealt with by a mob. He has instructed his attorney, Scoville, to warn all avengers to keep their hands off, as the jail officials are determined to protect him at all hazards, and that the government of the United States is bound to protect him. Some witnesses for the defense will arrive to-morrow. Their testimony will touch simply on the question of insanity. A large part of the evidence will be in the shape of the depositions of persons who have known Guiteau. Scoville states, that he will have the outside assistance of some of the best legal talent in the country, and is eager for the opening of the prosecution. Col. Corkhill said to-night, Scoville wanted Guiteau arraigned to-morrow, but he refused the request.

Iowa.

DES MOINES, 13.—The State Register has full returns from sixty-nine of the ninety-nine counties of the State which give Sherman, republican, for Governor, over the democrats, a net majority of 24,500. Partial returns from the remaining counties indicate that his total majority will be between 48,000 and 50,000 over the democrats. The democrats concede 40,000. The Register's returns on the legislature give the republicans forty-four of the fifty Senators and seventy-eight of the 100 representatives. The republicans gain a Senator in each of the counties of Dubuque, Wapello, Lee and Keokuk, and lose one Representative in Scott, two in Des Moines, two in Clinton, one in Harrison and one in Chickasaw, and a gain of one in Wipatu, one in Appanoose, one in Lee and one in Keokuk. In Pottawattamie county the republicans elect one Representative and one (Clinton) is in doubt.

The greenback vote in the State has fallen off fifty per cent. since last year.

Fire in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, 13.—At 3.20 this afternoon, a fire broke out in Uptone's blacksmith shop, on Spear, between Mission and Howard Streets, and almost instantly communicating with the California Planing Mill, corner of Howard. This building, covering 50 Vera lots and filled with most combustible material, was in a few moments a mass of fire. A half gale was blowing from the northwest and the flames soon leaped across Spear Street and attacked Wigmor's lumber yard, spreading to a saloon on the corner and thence down Howard Street, nearly to Stewart, consuming a number of small establishments, including Green's rigging loft, Chase & Wright's ship carpenter shop and Richard's coal yard, Does & Weston's lumber yard, on the opposite side of Howard Street, were several times on fire, but extinguished with slight damage. The Union box factory, north of where the fire started, suffered some loss of lumber lying outside. Loss on California mill owned by W. J. Adams, about $60,000. Wigmore's loss is about the same; insured for $28,000. Other losses will probably bring the aggregate up to $150,000.

Another dispatch says: The Spear Street fire is still burning, but the flames are confined to the limits previously given. It is now stated that the loss on the California mill will reach at least $100,000. After the fire was partly subdued, two bodies, charred beyond recognition, were found in the rear of the building in which the fire started. It is more than probable that they were workmen in the California mill. About 90 men were employed in the mill, and so rapid was the spread of the flames that many escaped with difficulty.

The canning establishment of Code & Elfelt, fronting on Main Street, was somewhat damaged in the rear and it is probable that fuller information will sum up the loss to nearly $250,000 with but light insurance.

Will Scatter.

It is the opinion of old residents on the Arizona frontier that the hostiles will now scatter some making their way back to the agency, others settling in Mexico, whence they will seek to raid cattle ranches on this side of the line. They express the belief that the Indian scouts have been untrustworthy throughout the recent campaign, giving information to the hostiles and putting the troops on false trails.

A number of Tucson citizens, principally business men, held a meeting last night and endorsed the action of General Wilcox and the conduct of the troops, holding that no previous outbreak had been suppressed with so little loss of life and property.

Leopold Zamora, Mexican Superintendent of Public works, has telegraphed to the Mexican government strongly recommending the construction of the Guaymas railroad via Magdalena to Santa Cruz River, to connect a that point with the Arizona Southern from Tucson.

Fatal Fire in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—Charles H. Landerberger's mill, owned by Joseph Harney, 1711 Randolph street, was burned to-night. The fire broke out about 9:45. The neighbors rushed to the building and saw the operatives at the windows on the third and fourth floors. They called to the girls not to jump, as a ladder would be brought, but several of the girls sprang from the windows. The shrieks of the people in the building where escape was cut off were heartrending. Most of them jumped to the sidewalks, and a few escaped by the elevator rope. It is belived that one half of these injured will die. At least twenty persons were injured. One girl is reported killed outright by striking on the steps. Some of the operatives, it is thought are buried in the ruins. The fire, it is supposed, originated from sparks from the electric light firing a lot of material on the second floor.

Liquor Convention.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—At the evening session of the Distillers' Convention the following officers were elected: H. Bluffett, President; J. Sinnotts, Vice President; D. G. Rush, Secretary; E. Stephens, Treasurer.

Resolution were adopted that Congress be asked to reduce the tax on domestic spirits to fifty cents per proof gallon from Oct. 1st, 1882, to reduce the duty on imported spirits to $1.50 per proof gallon provided the French government puts the United States on a footing with the most favored nations in regard to the duty imposed on American spirits imported into France, and an indefinite extending of the bonding period for both domestic and imported spirits, and that a tax be paid on the quantities withdrawn from the bond, subject to such limitations as may be agreed upon after consultation with Secretary of the Treasury.

NEW YORK, 13.—The Herald's Warsaw, N. Y., special says: Volney Warren was informed to-night by a special messenger that Jonathan White, of California, his bachelor great uncle, had died intestate, leaving an estate valued at $700,000, of which his share would be one sixth, and that he should take the usual legal action to secure said share. There are 24 heirs. Warren's avocation has been that of farming on shares and horse trading. His deceased uncle was 59 years old and amassed his fortune washing gold dust.

Tammany.

A reporter interviewed John Kelly and asked point blank if Tammany would support the democratic ticket. Kelly replied: "That is something we have not formally considered; and therefore it would be premature for me to discuss the probabilities. We were asked before we went to the convention what we would do in certain contingencies; we replied that we could not make a reply to a suppositious case."

Silver Mines.

The Herald's Fort Keogh (Montana) correspondent say: New and valuable silver mines have been discovered on the head of Clark's Fork, a tributary of the Yellowstone river. The mines are located near the National Park, on the Crow Indian reservation. There is little doubt but that another great silver bonanza has been struck.

Convention.

ALBANY, 13. - The Democratic State Committee organized, with Manning, of Albany, as chairman. Ex-Mayor Cooper, of New York, was chosen chairman of the executive committee. The headquarters of the committee for the campaign will Albany.

Spurious Bricks.

James Foster, claiming to be from California, was arrested in Jersey City yesterday, while attempting to sell a couple of alleged gold bricks, which he said he had stolen from the government.

Principles, Not Party.

ALBANY, 13.—The State anti-monopoly committee took action today, looking to the return to the legislature of only such candidates as favor the triumph of their principles.

A Great Wrong.

The Tammany delegates to the State convention have issued an address to the democrats of the State, declaring that in their exclusion a great wrong had been done.

Wadsworth.

CANANDIGUA, N. Y. 13.—Joseph W. Wadsworth was nominated for Congress on the first ballot today.

Injunction.

CINCINNATI, 13.—Judge Harmon, of the Superior Court, this morning rendered a decision granting the motion to dissolve the injunction issued by him yesterday, at the instance known as New York holders of the Ohio and Mississippi stock, and the election of directors is now proceeding in the usual way. It is understood that the result will favor the Baltimore party.

Counterfeiters.

LOUISVILLE, 13.—Detective Bauer, of the United States detective service, arrived in the city with Wm. L. Tagler, of Humphreys County, Tenn., Newton H. McRea, of Benton, and J. D. Laffel, of Humphreys County, charged with counterfeiting coins. Bauer and associates have been long at work on the case.

Ohio.

COLUMBUS, 13.—Returns to-night indicate the election of 20 republicans and 13 democratic senators. Two districts, included in the above, are still in doubt, one being claimed by the republicans and the other conceded to the democrats.

It is thought the republicans will have from 30 to 35 majority in the House. Should official figures verify the above, the republicans will have a larger majority in both branches of the General Assembly than they had in the last body.

Foster believes that his majority will reach 20,000. It is believed that Hall, republican, is elected senator from the Miami Dark district, which will give the republicans a majority in the Senate.

FOREIGN.

Ireland.

LONDON, 13.—The Times says: It is understood that the cabinet separated yesterday without coming to any decision in regard to the course to be pursued in Ireland, but that the cabinet will meet again soon and a decision cannot be long postponed. There are, no doubt, two parties in the cabinet, as there were a year ago, but the ministers who still hesitate to take a decided course may be invited seriously to reflect that the impatience of the country grows daily at the continued special authority in Ireland flouted and law defied.

Saved from the Sea.

The American ship Edward O'Brien, Capt. Henry, which arrived at Queenstown to-day from San Francisco, landed the Captain and three of the crew of the British ship Arcadia, which was wrecked on June 8th, on Ducie Island, while on a voyage from San Francisco to Queenstown.

Drowned.

In the steamer Corsica disaster later information is to the effect that only five persons were saved out of a crew of twenty-six.

Stabbed with Pitchforks.

DUBLIN, 13.—The Marquis of Waterford, in resigning the mastership of the Curraghmoor hounds, said he did so because the league had been organized to prevent hunting throughout Ireland. When he was out hunting last Thursday the chapel bells rang, the people gathered and stoned him and his friends. They pelted the dogs and stabbed several of them with pitchforks, and yelled till they urged the party to go home. Curraghmoor's are the best pack of hounds in Ireland. The Empress of Austria was to have hunted with them this season. Between five and seven thousand pounds will be lost to the neighborhood by the breaking up of the pack.

In Kildare the league has given notice that if either the Marquis of Drogada, Earl of Mayo, Lord Clemcurry, Mr. John Latouche or Mr. William Blacker appear in the Huntington Field hunt they will be stopped. The above-named gentlemen are the principal land owners in the county, and have constantly resided on their estates.

Parnell in Prison.

Parnell was arrested on two warrants signed by Forster, Chief Secretary for Ireland, charging him with inciting the people, intimidating others from paying their just rent, and with intimidating tenants from taking the benefit of the land act. Parnell was taken to Killmair jail.

Pillaged Villages.

TUNIS, 13.— The Bey has signed an order authorizing the occupation of Kairiwan by the French. Heavy siege artillery is being mounted at the Citadel and in the large fort outside the principal gate of the city.

The insurgents attacked a strong French force near Sersa. The French suffered some loss. Despite the large, French force near Sersa the insurgents captured many cattle close to town and pillaged several adjacent villages.

Repulsed.

Ali Bey was again attacked on the evening of the 10th inst. The enemy was repulsed with heavy loss on both sides.

It is rumored that Count Walyiff, resident commissioner minister, has been suspended for alleged financial irregularities.

Prohibited Pork.

PESTH, 13. — The government commissioner decided in favor of maintaining the prohibition against the importation of American pork.

Extradition.

BERLIN, 13.—Germany and Austria have agreed to fresh proposals made by Russia in regard to the extradition of political criminals.

Imperial Interview.

ROME, 13.—It is stated on good authority that negotiations have been resumed for an interview between King Humbert and Emperor Francis Joseph.
