EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, April 10, 1880.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

A Solitary Drunk.—Only one case of drunkenness in the police court this morning. Fined $10.

Closed—Will Open.—The February term of the Third District Court closed yesterday. The April term will open on Monday.

Delightful Weather.—We have had a beautiful spell of weather for two or three days, but may expect a "break" at any moment. We have not had half our April yet.

Quite Dull.—The usual stagnation that succeeds Conference is painfully manifest. The dullness of the times is rendered more appreciable by the bustling contrast that prevailed during the earlier half of the closing week.

At the Theatre.—President John Taylor and family, and His Excellency Governor Murray and family, were among the distinguished guests who honored the performance at the Theatre with their presence last evening.

High Council.—The members of the High Council are requested to meet at the Council House on Monday evening, the 12th inst., at 7 o'clock.

WM. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

A Pill for the "Doctor."—Our elders writing from Arizona, say it is a custom among the Indians of that Territory, to kill a doctor or "medicine man" when he loses too many cases.

What a horrible slaughter this would occasion in the ranks of the medical fraternity, if such a plan were adopted in the realms of civilization!

Thanks!—

"The NEWS, last evening, contained a very well written article on the business transacted at the meeting of the board of insane commissioners on Thursday."—Herald.

The secretary of the meeting, who furnished the article in reference for publication, feels highly gratified at the Herald's compliment to his production.

Sunday Services.—The Sabbath services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will consist of the following: Sunday Schools will be held in the various Wards at 10 o'clock in the morning; a general meeting will convene in the Assembly Hall at 2 p. m., and in the evening, at the usual hours, meetings will be held in the several wards, which will be attended by home missionaries.

Please Take it Away.—The cow spoken of the other evening, as lying in a prostrate and dying condition on the banks of City Creek, has gone the way of all cows, at last, but did not go quite far enough to please the good people of that immediate neighborhood. The present state of weather will soon render the carrion a disagreeable source of annoyance and complaint. Will the City Marshal please take cognizance of this matter.

The Royal Illusionists.—This evening Thorn and Darvin, the celebrated illusionists, will give one of their interesting entertainments at the Theatre. These artists come highly recommended as masters of their mystic art, which comprises not only the usual sleight of hand performances and other tricks of the prestidigitateur, but various spiritualistic manifestations and their subsequent exposition. The illusion of the "Flying Cage" is one of the special features of the entertainment, which is for this night only. The usual prices of admission will prevail. No extra charges for reserved seats. See advertisement and smaller bills for further particulars.

Here To Stay.—A large number of visitors, in consequence of the advertisements in the NEWS, have been through the large establishment of Studebaker Bros. during the past week. A new lot of fine buggies and light spring wagons have been received and placed on exhibition, and the prize wagon to be given away to the holder of the lucky ticket, has been examined by a multitude. Mr. Glass, the superintendent, and others, being on hand all the time to show and explain. We notice that the finest carriage in the house has been purchased by H. S. Eldredge, Esq., and that other vehicles have been appropriated by country buyers. The wagons are kept at the rear of the premises adjoining Z. C. M. I., and both farm and fancy vehicles appear to be of splendid quality, and offered at fair figures. They are not made merely to sell but for use as well as ornament. The Studebaker firm is a permanent establishment and the Salt Lake branch is here to stay.

A Hint to Hoodlums.—Although the audience at the Theatre last night was made up for most part of the better portions of society, the hoodlum element manifested itself considerably from the upper circles. The first rendition of the "Turkish Review" was greeted with an outlandish "guy" from some would-be-funny fellow in the gallery, who was incapable of appreciating the beauty of the music, while other rude remarks were occasionally flung down at the stage from others of the same ilk. With these exceptions, the behavior of the assembly was excellent, and showed that those present really were, in majority, of the more refined and respectable classes. We wish the boys who habitually create disturbances in such places could only see themselves as others see them, in order to take a much needed lesson from the experience, but since this cannot be done, we hope they will take a little good advice. Behave yourselves, boys, and you will not only make yourselves better, as you will find eventually, but will make others like you better, in every way.

"The Romance."—"The Romance of a Poor Young Man," presented last evening for the second time by the Home Dramatic Club of this city, attracted to the Theatre a critical and appreciative audience. The play is a beautiful composition, its language sparkling and elegant, with well-defined intrigue and numerous exciting tableaux. It is essentially French in its character, possessing the vivacious conversation and the freedom from heavy or elaborate acting, so distinctive a feature of the productions of that country. The common error, therefore, in pieces of this character is to overdraw the parts, making that which is amusing, to appear as positively ridiculous. It may be said, however, as a high compliment to the young performers last evening that this fault can not be charged against them. Each character gave evidence of careful study and exhibited an unlooked for knowledge respecting the French people and their customs. Mr. Cummings enacted the agreeable part of Manuel with the grace and freedom of an accomplished professional; in one or two trifling passages his articulation was rather hurried and indistinct, but in the manly, noble speeches, of which he has many, his clear voice and cultivated elocution showed to the best advantage. Mr. O. F. Whitney made himself a universal favorite by his rendition of the part of Desmarets, and received plenty of applause. His acting in the first scene was excellent, and when describing Manuel's ride, near the close of the second act, it was one of the best features of the whole performance. Mr. H. M. Wells again won golden opinions by his admirable conception of the dandy, De Bevannes, and his must still be considered as the best rendered character in the piece. Mr. Spencer as Laroque had a short but difficult part, which he performed with great credit. The other gentlemen made the most of their minor characters. Miss Lottie Claridge as Marguerite showed a marked improvement since her last appearance and acted the heroine with accuracy and ability. Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. Clawson, and Miss Wells, the latter producing a smile at every appearance, showed to much better advantage than at the first performance, manifesting less nervousness and more freedom in action than before. Indeed the whole performance was an improvement. The voice of the prompter was not heard, all were ready when wanted, and the piece went off in a smooth and satisfactory manner to everybody present.

Going Ahead.—The Home Dramatic Club, having made a success of their first performance, and being established on a firm basis, feeling assured of future encouragement at the hands of the public, will proceed regularly with their dramatic studies, with a view to producing at proper intervals the best plays and comedies that can be obtained. They do not intend appearing too often before the footlights, to keep their credit good with their patrons, by diligently rehearsing and, as far as possible, mastering the pieces they undertake, before submitting them to the public. This is a good idea, and we applaud the determination.

For the Northwestern States.—Elders William M. Palmer and John W. Jackson, of Glenwood, Sevier County, missionaries called at the recent Conference, left this afternoon for Ogden, intending to start from there next Tuesday morning for their field of labor in Michigan and Wisconsin. Elder Palmer, who has charge of the company of elders about to leave for that region, will join his brethren at Ogden and accompany them on the way. He labored in Michigan in 1876-7 with considerable success, and has been re-appointed to take special charge of the missionaries in the two States mentioned.

Marriage.—To-day we have the pleasure of recording another happy union among the youth of the people of Zion. The chief parties this time are Mr. Preston S. Free and Miss Celestia Squires, who were married this afternoon at the Endowment House by President D. H. Wells. The bride is a niece of our well known tonsorial friend Brother John Squires of this city; the groom, a son of Brother Preston Free of Sugar House Ward. We wish the young pair a world of happiness and good fortune.

An Enjoyable Time.—A pleasant dancing party was held last evening, in the 21st Ward Meeting-House. It was given in honor of Elder Joseph W. Burt, who is about to depart on his mission to the United States. A large number of his friends assembled and "tripped the light fantastic" in a manner which denoted a most enjoyable time. It is expected Elder Burt will leave for his missionary field of labor next Tuesday morning.

Weber County Republicans.—The republicans of Weber County are called to convene in Ogden on the 10th inst.. The object is to choose four delegates to the convention in this city on the 20th. So says the Junction.

Clothing Found.—A coat and a couple of shirts were picked up yesterday on the hill in the 13th Ward. The articles are at this office, where the owner may regain possession on describing his property.

Again.—Our agent at Franklin, Bro. Nash, writes the sad news that diphtheria has broken out again at that place. One death is already recorded.

I Wish Everybody to Know.

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL

TO SEE what improvements now exist as compared with railway travel only a few years ago. To become convinced of this, one has only to select for his route East, the popular and well-known

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY.

You are landed by the Union Pacific R. R. in the Union Depot at Council Bluffs, where stands the C. and N.-W. Pacace train, composed of Pullman Hotel Cars, Pullman Sleeping Cars, elegant Day Coaches, Smoking Baggage, Postal Cars, etc., ready to convey its passengers through Iowa and Illinois and into Chicago. Gliding smoothly along over the superb track of steel rail through thriving cities and villages, comfortably seated in this train, one scarcely discovers the high rate of speed which he is riding. Trains of this road are always on time, connections sure, and passengers seeking pleasure, comfort, safety and ease in traveling, will find the "North-Western" in excess of their expectations, and the greatest of all routes to Chicago and the East. Insist upon Ticket Agents selling you Tickets via this road; all Agents sell them. Examine your Tickets, and refuse to buy if they do not read over this Road. If you wish the best Traveling Accommodations, you will buy your Tickets by this Route, AND WILL TAKE NO OTHER. dswly

AN INTERESTING EXHIBITION.

Among the many attractions of this city during the present Conference of Latter-day Saints, nothing of more solid merit is to be seen than the grand display of Mowers, Reapers and Self-Binders by D. M. Osborne & Co., at their extensive branch house No. 101 and 103 East Temple Street, where they have a complete line of their celebrated machines in motion during all hours of the day.

A small water motor is attached to a line shaft and pulleys, which connect by belt with the different machines, thus enabling persons to observe and understand the mechanism and utility of every part that enters into the construction of these machines.

The busy whirl of Mowers, Reapers and Self-Binders affords a very interesting and instructive sight, as is fully attested by the constant crowd of visitors pouring into that establishment.

During the Week of Conference

The great Register of the Studebaker Bros. will be open for signatures. Each person visiting the house will, on signing their name, receive a ticket which will entitle them them to one chance in the Improved Utah Wagon, free of charge, and be shown through the extensive Carriage Repository and Wagon Yards, in which you will find set up ready for the road all sizes of their newly improved Utah Wagon, from a 2½ to a 5 inch cast skein or steel skein; and spring wagons of all styles, sizes and prices. Also Buggies and Carriages of the most unique styles. The fact is, it will be the spring opening of this house. Two of their Mammoth Green Cars will be here direct from the factory with Buggies and Spring Wagons this week, so that by the 5th inst. a line of the finest wagons ever exhibited in Utah will be on wheels, and will be worth the time spent in examination. We had no idea that there was such extensive yards, running back along the Co-op. line 320 feet, with the large brick building 100 by 41 feet, with basement and two floors of the same size, closely connected by the elevator which carries the largest farm wagon to the third floor or basement in less time than it takes to tell it. We bespeak for the Studebakers a share of your trade, knowing they are here to stay, and to furnish a wagon that will recommend itself better than any words of ours. During Conference the Repository will be open from 6 a. m. till 7 p. m., so that all may have an opportunity to look around whether they wish to purchase or not. You are cordially invited to call.
