
HOME.

No other word brings to our minds more pleasing reflections than the little word home. Forest Dale is intended to contain only of homes. It has attractions that no other addition in Salt Lake City possesses.

In times like the present people look for homes where their taxes are likely to be as low as possible, and their other expenses in proportion. Forest Dale, a subdivision of the old farm of the late President Young, is just far enough from Salt Lake City to be free from city taxes. Vegetables and fruit are cheaper and for building purposes brick can be bought for at least one dollar per thousand less than in Salt Lake City. While it is wise to consider the question of economy, other matters are of even greater importance. Forest Dale has its own water system; the springs from which the supply is obtained producing over 1,000,000 gallons of pure, clear water in 24 hours. The pipes are laid all through the addition and those who purchase a home own the water piped to their door as well as the land their house stands on. One electric car system passes right through the addition while another runs within a short distance of it and will also eventually pass through. Good school facilities exist; two teachers being employed in the Forest Dale School, with a high school for more advanced pupils nearby. The social enjoyment of the neighborhood is not slighted; on the Forest Dale Pleasant Hour Club being formed for the especial purpose of furnishing a home plenty of harmless yet pleasant recreation. The old farm house furnishes quarters for concerts, dances and socials. Thus, with the Sunday schools and kindred meetings giving the young a field for the development of their talents, without which no people can progress. For those who desire a home whether large or small we have property unexcelled anywhere. We desire to sell only to home makers. If you want a home, my agents will be pleased to take you to the property, and let you select that which a site you like. Lots of any size can be obtained. Call at room 411 Constitution Building; see plat of the ground and obtain any particulars you wish. No trouble to show property.

FRAGMENTS.

Don't miss the Assembly Hall lecture tonight.

The City Council will hold its regular weekly meeting tonight.

Rev. Mr. Hawker's lecture in the Assembly Hall tonight should be listened to by a large audience.

A fire on the Little property at the foot of the Third Ward hill on Fort Street came near the outhouses, was partially discovered at the last night. The fire is believed to be the work of an incendiary.

CONVENTION ENDED.

The Democrats Adjourn Without Putting a Ticket in the Field.

Resolutions Adopted in Which the Liberal Administration is Warmly Scored.—New City Committee.

The Democratic city convention which adjourned yesterday afternoon after effecting a temporary organization, reassembled in the Wasatch hall last night at 7 o'clock. The first business transacted was the adoption, after a slight amendment and some discussion, of the report of the committee on credentials.

A MINORITY AND MAJORITY REPORT.

A majority and also a minority report was submitted on permanent organization and order of business. The majority report was signed by A. E. Hyde, A. M. Woolley, J. H. Moyle and H. G. Whitney and recommended permanent officers as follows:

J. W. Whitecast Jr., for president; John T. Caine, first vice-president; A. T. Schroeder, second vice-president, secretary, D. C. Dunbar; assistant secretary, Thomas Hull; sergeant at arms, Gilbert McLean.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

1—Committee on credentials. 2—Permanent organization. 3—Platform and resolutions. 4—Election of officers. 5—Nomination of municipal officers, provided it be the sense of this convention that it place a ticket in the field. 6—Miscellaneous business. 7—Adjournment.

The minority report dissented from the report of the majority to the selection of officers for the reason that the gentlemen selected by the majority for president, vice president, secretary and assistant are committed and obliged to another political organization having already placed in the field municipal officers for this city, and it is their avowed intention and purpose to secure the election of those candidates as against any candidates that this convention may nominate. The minority further dissented from that part of the majority report to which they recommended that the convention do not nominate candidates for municipal offices for the reason that it is no part of the business of the committee to make any recommendations in the premises and for further the reason that should the convention decide to nominate city officers the report of the majority furnishes no order in which their nomination should be made.

For permanent officers the minority report recommended:

Chairman—A. T. Schroeder.
Secretary—R. A. Campbell.

The minority report was signed by P. J. Daly.

The majority report was almost unanimously adopted.

J. W. Whitecast Jr. then ascended the elevated platform and at once entered upon his duties as chairman.

MISSING RESOLUTIONS.

The committee on platform and resolutions, by its chairman, Hon. John T. Caine, then presented the following report, which was adopted almost unanimously after a somewhat lively debate:

The Democrats of Salt Lake City in municipal convention assembled, hereby reaffirm the doctrines and principles of the Democratic party, as declared in the platform of the national convention held at Chicago in June, 1892, and in that of the Territorial convention of Utah, held at Provo in October of the same year, as the political chart by which the party shall be governed in the administration of public affairs, national, territorial and municipal.

At the opening of the campaign which has for its object the election of municipal officers for Salt Lake City, we find ourselves confronted with a condition of affairs which calls for unusual and extraordinary remedies, and which seems to demand that we adopt a policy not strictly confined to party lines.

We denounce the administration of the municipal government by the liberal party as reckless, extravagant, incompetent and corrupt, as shown by the record.

It has increased the general taxes four fold by assessing property at boom prices, being utterly regardless of actual values; it has imposed special taxes without respect to the financial condition of the property owners or needs of the community.

It has plunged the corporation into debt to the limit, if not beyond, permitted by law, and saddled upon the people an annual interest charge equal to one-fifth of the revenue of the corporation from all sources.

The indebtedness is so large that doubt exists in financial circles as to the ability of the city to pay its annual interest and meet its obligations when they shall fall due, and as a consequence our bonds find no buyers except at a ruinous rate. To obtain money with which to continue its course of recklessness and extravagance, corporation warrants are now being issued, and they are hawked about the streets as the paper of a bankrupt corporation, and will still further depreciate in price were it not for the fact that the taxpayers are buying them at a heavy discount and using them to pay taxes now due.

The assessment, through general and special tax levies, have been such as to partly retard the growth and development of the city. Old citizens, unable to meet the demands upon them by the tax gatherers, being forced to sell their property and settle in places where public plunderers are not so numerous of offices and officials do not exercise their authority and power in a manner to suggest that their interest in the community will cease when their term of office expires.

A very few years more of such administration as we are now favored with would find this city in the hands of mortgagees and our citizens generally paying rent for the property taken from them by the tax collector.

We charge that the millions taken from the people have been largely expended, not for the necessary or proper improvement of the city, but to pay imported voters, and others on the pay roll of the city men who will vote for the continuation of this destructive rule, and whose interest in the municipality amounts only to the weekly wages received from the plunderers.

In practice, the liberal party is synonymous for enriching those who control its machinery. The books and policy which have been brought to light in several departments of the municipal government are sufficient to leave called for terror within the Liberal organization, yet those in authority, made reckless by long possession of power, have encouraged to be corrupting influences and are contributing for its perpetuation.

The administration has grown so intolerable that the property owners and good citizens in general are demanding a reform, and it is admitted fact that they have banded together without regard to party or political affiliations to rescue the city from the hands of the speculators, and have nominated candidates for the several city offices from the best known, ablest and most trustworthy citizens.

Believing that this promptness and greatly to be desired object can be best obtained in the manner proposed by the movement of citizens here represented, this convention declares it inadvisable for the Democratic party at this time to name candidates for any of the municipal offices to be filled by the election on November 7th, 1893.

CITY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The following city central committee was appointed after which the convention adjourned sine die:

First precinct—O. H. Pettit, John Sidaway.

Second precinct—J. H. Blakely, I. M. Woolley.

Third precinct—Herbert Pembroke, Jos. E. Hanson.

Fourth precinct—W. H. Bywater, Edmund Bourke.

Fifth precinct—J. Whitehead Jr., Geo. E. Pettit.

D. C. Dunbar, committeeman at large.

Card of Thanks.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 9, 1893.—At a regular meeting of the Salt Lake Veteran Fire association held in their hall Monday evening, October 2, 1893, a hearty and unanimous vote of thanks was tendered to the citizens and merchants of Salt Lake City for their wholesome support to us, both financially and morally, in our efforts to fittingly entertain the Pacific Slope Veteran Firemen on the occasion at their visit to our city, on their way to the World's Fair, to be present at Fireman's day; and particularly to the Salt Beach Railway company and Salt Lake City Street Railway company for free transportation.

Respectfully on behalf of the committee on entertainment.

G. M. OVERHOLSE, Chairman.
B. H. HANDY, Secretary.

Ants vs Bees.

The following clippings may be useful to beekeepers:

"You can destroy any kind of ants in their nest by pouring in about a tablespoonful of bisulphide of carbon through the entrance, and then stopping it up."

"A druggist, much annoyed by ants about his soda fountain, found a combination that destroyed them—a powder of equal parts of sugar and tartar emetic, made into a thick paste with glycerine."

The following resolution was submitted by Councilman Morris and adopted: With a view of making the potential north and south highway in this county a thoroughly good road at all seasons and for the further purpose of providing labor for the hard-hit residents of Salt Lake county during the coming fall and winter, be it resolved that the county proceed at the earliest possible moment to macadamize State street with broken quartzite or slag, south from Tenth South street.

The claim of Mayor Baskin for $1,022.54 for the payroll of the joint city and county building was approved.

Appropriations were made amounting in the aggregate to $3,945.61.

The clerk was instructed to return the check of John Bryson, in the sum of $500, deposited on contract for solution to county attorney to H. S. Young.

The Board will meet again on Thursday.

Allcock's Porous Plasters are unapproachable in curative properties, rapidity and safety of action, and are the only reliable plasters ever produced. They have successfully stood the test of over thirty years' use by the public; their virtues have never been equalled by the unscrupulous imitators who have sought to trade upon the reputation of Allcock's by making plasters with holes in them, and claiming them to be "just as good as Allcock's." Insist on having Allcock's, the only genuine porous plaster, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Allcock's and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.
