Lentz, a 5-year-old son of John C. West, residing on Twentieth street, was shot Sunday afternoon by his little brother, who used a 32-caliber pistol which he did not know was loaded. He pointed the pistol at Lentz and told him to throw up his hands, which he refused to do. Turo followed the shot, the bullet penetrating the edge of the left nostril, knocking the boy down. The boy is getting along all right.

PROVO.

Provo, April 18.—At the city council meeting last evening, Messrs. Bond and Hoggan of L. L. Young presented a communication in behalf of the local electric light company, to the effect, offering to furnish to Provo City, for a period of from one to five years, as the council may desire, 50 incandescent lights as the city may decide to take at the price of 50 cents per light per month. The communication also stated that the company proposed to fix its residence rate at three lights for $1 and commercial rate at 40 cents, and give a meter rate of three lights at a cent per ampere hour. The communication was referred to the committee of the whole, which will meet that Monday evening.

FOURTH DISTRICT COURT.

The case of Spanish Fork City et al vs Spanish Fork Bench Irrigation company etc., was set for hearing in the Fourth district court before Judge McCarty.

The suit is to determine the rights of the parties in interest to the waters of Spanish Fork river. There are five plaintiffs and seven defendants. Arguments on the hearing of the case will undoubtedly last all week. If not sooner, Wednesday it was decided to proceed against L. J. Harwood to collect $125, with interest, on a promissory note.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

George W. Booker, 25, and Pearl Loveridge, 18, both of Provo, have received a marriage license.

William H. Jackson, of Salem, 18, and Sarah H. Gibbons, of Provo, 18, were married yesterday by Elder Jos. T. McEwan.

Elder George Teasdale, of the Council, interviewed a large number of young men, from various parts of the country, in regard to proposed missionary labors.

The Spanish and Lake Shore Cemetery and Mining company has filed with the county recorder a certificate to the effect that the company has revested in a corporation consisting of five directors in place of five.

At a meeting of the county commissioners held yesterday the following dates for the board to sit as a board of equalization were fixed: June 5th, June 7th to 10th, both inclusive, June 13th to 17th, both inclusive. The clerk was instructed to publish a notice of public sale of property on which delinquent taxes had not been paid.

County Sheriff Henry returned from Clear Creek, where he was called by a telegram from Frank Plastine, asking that an officer be sent to protect the citizens. Mr. Henry found that some men had thrown rocks at Mr. Plastine' house and broken his windows, because Mr. Pastine had kept a football, with which the men had played and which had been thrown through the window. Mr. Henry patched up the trouble without making any arrests or exploiting the fact to the players that they must respect the rights of the residents of the town.

Court Notes—Suit for Half Interest in Mines—Victim of Powder Explosion.

Provo, April 18.—A complaint in a suit to be brought in the fourth district court by John E. Brown against John Van Kerek has been prepared by Warner and Houtz. The parties to the suit are Moab people, and plaintiff alleges that he entered into an oral agreement with defendant by the terms of which plaintiff should have a half interest in all mining claims discovered and located by defendant between January 20th, 1898, and September 20th, 1898, for and in consideration of certain supplies furnished defendant by plaintiff. Plaintiff charges that defendant located, within the time named, the Bandit, the Silver Star and the Monitor mining claims situated in the La Salle mountains in Grand county, and that, contrary to the agreement entered into by plaintiff and defendant, defendant located the claims in his own name and refuses to recognize plaintiff's rights. Plaintiff asks to be decreed the owner of an undivided one-half interest in the above named claims and asks that defendant be temporarily restrained from disposing of any interest in the property.

These claims are said to carry great values in gold, silver and copper and samples in the office of Warner and Houtz indicate a good foundation for the claim.

In the Fourth district court, yesterday, attorneys for plaintiffs in the case of the Rio Grande Western Railway company vs W. W. Ferguson et al, moved for an order permitting them to occupy the land in dispute, situated in Provo canyon, for railroad and telegraph purposes pending the termination of the suit, now in the supreme court. On stipulation of attorneys it was ordered that hearing on the motion be continued until such time as it is called up for further notice of hearing given by attorneys for plaintiffs. The defendants are the Telluride Power Transmission company.

In the case of Mrs. Wm. Fassett, deceased; Jas. A. Bean, Geo. W. Gee and Silas Allred were appointed appraisers.

The suit of Spanish Fork City et al vs Spanish Fork East Bench Irrigation company, et al, occupied all the time in court yesterday, judging from some talk of a compromise being offered.

MCGOVERN CASE.

Peter McGovern (not McGowan as reported yesterday) the man who was injured by the explosion of a blast at Provo canyon is now at the house of Mrs. Leah Fine in this city, where he is being cared for by friends. It was erroneously reported that he had been taken to Springville. Dr. Allen who is attending the injured man claims the fracture of the skull in the worst he has ever seen; the left side of the skull is crushed in and large pieces of bone were removed from the brain; there is, however, a chance for his life. He does not realize how he went hurt, and says he was chopping down a tree and a splinter flew in his eye. McGovern is a stranger, about 40 years of age, and has been in Springville occasionally for the last three or four years. He says his parents live in Louisville, Kentucky, at the corner of High and Hedge streets, and that his father's name is Peter McGovern.

There is a conflict of statement as to the blame, if any, that attaches to E. H. Belmont, the man who fired the blast that caused the injury. The readers and he did not give their sufficient notice to warn people to get out of the way. Mr. Belmont claims he did. Arthur Bird, the young Springville man who was in a hurry, has gone to Springville and will be all right in a short time.

GRAND LODGE VISIT.

The grand lodge F. and A. M. made their annual visit to Provo lodge No. 4, last evening. After opening the evening in the lodge room they were banqueted at Fleming's restaurant, where a very enjoyable time was had.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Olof Jensen, 21, and Beatrice Shaub, 18, both of Pleasant Grove, have received a marriage license.

Elder A. C. Trim, president of the Mexican mission, addressed a large audience in the Dagmar Young academy last evening, entertaining his audience highly with accounts of adventures in Mexico and Texas.

The funeral of Mrs. Lenae Biddle, held yesterday in the Third ward meeting house, was largely attended. The speakers were President David John, Bishop Myron Tanner, John M. Holdaway and Mrs. Ida Taylor, who spoke words of praise for the departed and hope and comfortment to the surviving relatives.

MORONI.

High Winds—Close of Schools—No Bonds or Taxes for Central School.

Special Correspondence.

Moroni, Sanpete County, April 17.—We have been having splendid weather recently, fine and warm. The farmers are putting in their crops, etc. Yesterday morning the mercury fell to a glorious spring morning, but about 10 it began to blow, and it increased until it blew a regular gale. It was fearful windstorm; cloudy this evening.

Our school season of thirty weeks will close next week. We had a fine exercise in the tabernacle on Friday.

Our city is growing, our best crop are non-resident people, and we are short of school accommodation for the youngsters. The trustees called a meeting of fair payers to see if they would bond the district to build a fine new central school house or vote a tax. The few part of the day was spent in showing both sides of the question, as I'm in the polls were opened for the decision of the fair payers, the voting was heavy, yes or no, the result was no, so it is no bonds for Moroni. The next step was to see if the fair payers would vote a direct tax of one percent this year and let the money lay until next year, and then vote another one per cent, and then build, the vote was for no tax for tax, and so for the opposite, the result in this case also was no.

Notwithstanding these decisions there is not a city in Sanpete, in proportion to the number of inhabitants, that has grown as fast and by increase of material wealth, as has Moroni.

MOAB.

How a Prospector Was Married to His "Cousin" by Judge Bishop.

Grand Valley Times, April 14.—Frank S. Smith, formerly of this place, who is at present operating a pack train on a contract with the La Sal company at Paradox, has been visiting friends at Moab this week. Miss Maud Shelton of Paradox, accompanied him here and introduced as his cousin. To the surprise of Mr. Smith's friends on the evening of the 16th Judge H. H. Bishop called at the residence of Mr. Smith and united Mr. Smith and Miss Shelton in the bonds of matrimony. Miss Shelton is a young lady of charming disposition and has been teaching school in Colorado the past three years. The Times extends congratulations to the young couple.

The fruit growers of this valley should make arrangements now to market their crop. Last year they had to port a failure. The demand for peaches from here will be heavy and it is a case of first come first served today in marketing. United effort on the part of the growers would make possible the profitable marketing of their cost. It is a matter of great financial importance to realize on this product all that can be.

The case of the Moab Irrigation company vs Tobias and Warner came on for trial Friday. Testimony offered to prove the existence of the corporation being objected to raised the question of the legal existence of the company and on the shooting made the court rule against the plaintiff on not having complied with the law in the organization the water company had no legal existence. This ended the trial of the case for this term, the plaintiff was given leave to substitute the shareholders as parties plaintiff. The court adjourned for the term.

The decision of the district court at the term this week that the Moab Irrigation company has no legal existence, places the water users of this valley in bad shape for the economical handling of the water, right in the hight of the spring planting season. They early at once to the occasion and put matters by mutual agreement into a business-like shape, as it is possible for them to handle the water satisfactory without an organization through which to do the business.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

BOISE, IDAHO.

Ex-Mayor Glendinning Will Close Up Bulfale Hump Scrape.

Boise, Ida., April 16.—James Glendinning of Salt Lake, government forest superintendent, is here, with special special, started for Buffalo Hump to close up all the scrapes in the new mining camp. The following is a copy of the notice he will serve on the owners of the scrapes:

"You are hereby notified that the land now occupied by you is within the Minidoka forest reserve in the State of Idaho, and that the same was created by the act of Congress creating said reserve and under the rules issued by the secretary of the interior governing the same, and the construction placed on those rules by the honorable commissioner of the general land office, you are an intruder within the said reserve, and in violation of the law; now, therefore, you are hereby notified and required to immediately quit said reserve, together with your crops of flowers and merchandise, if you fail to quite said reserve within twenty days of the service of this notice, you will be prosecuted against in the United States courts."

Mr. Glendinning states that stocks of merchandise will not be interfered with.

FRANKLIN, IDAHO.

Pleasant Social Surprise to the Bishopric—Season Late for Cropping.

Special Correspondence.

Franklin, Oneida Co., Idaho, April 17.—On Monday evening last, 16th inst., our Bishop, L. S. Hatch, was given a social surprise by a number of members of his ward, and a very pleasant and enjoyable time was had. A large and easy rocking chair was presented to the Bishop in a neat little speech by Joseph Curbridge as a token of love and respect. The Bishop responded in a short address.

MERCANTILE UNION.

Frank C. Parks, who has served his connection with the Oneida Mercantile Union, and is succeeded as manager of the institution by Jos. Curbridge, Sanford T. Marshall has also left the Union and John Jolley takes his place. The store is conducted as well for cash as ever. The farm belonging to the Union was sold to William Kirkup.

We are having a very late season for putting our crops in. Farmers have just commenced planting. Yesterday we had a snow storm, and it was very cold; snow fell about two inches.

John Doney, one of the old settlers of Franklin, died on the 14th inst. He lacks are numb and paralyzed, and it is gradually going up into his body; it will be hard for him to pull through, as he is 78 years old.

DIAMONDVILLE, WYO.

Robert Armstrong and David Edwards Victims of Shocking Mine Accidents.

Special Correspondence.

Diamondville, Wyo., April 17.—Diamondville is again in the grasp of two fatal accidents—it seems as ill-fated spot. Robert Armstrong, a bright young man, but his death was brought about through a falling roof while preparing a shed. The roof fell on his back. He was taken out and brought home, but he died in the company doctor, and he was nursed by kind hands but to no avail, as he succumbed to his injuries and was buried today. Every respect was shown the dead. The mines were idle to give the fellow workmen a chance to attend the funeral services, which were conducted by the Latter-day Saints by request of his relatives although he was not a member.

A young man, David Edwards, met a sad accident while driving. He, in some way unknown, fell in front of the cars and the car ran over his arm above the elbow and crushed it in a frightful manner. He was taken to the hospital in Rock Springs, and it is feared his arm will have to be amputated. Edwards is a married man and has a family of children. Armstrong was a single man.

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.

Interesting Meeting of Officers and Teachers Monday Evening.

Mill Creek the Banner Ward—Department Work—New Study for Higher Class.

The regular monthly meeting of Sunday school officers and teachers of the Salt Lake Stake convened in the Fourteenth ward assembly hall on Monday evening, at which President Joseph E. Taylor presided; the singing was rendered by the Twelfth ward choir, under the direction of Brother Leroy Midgley. Prayer was offered by Elder Niels Thompson. Representatives were present from all the city wards except the Nineteenth and Twenty-third; and the following country wards were represented: Big Cottonwood (both schools), Cannon, Center Branch, East Jordan, Farmers', Forest Dale, Granite, Hunter, South Cottonwood, Taylorsville, Union and West Jordan.

SUNDAY SCHOOL JUBILEE.

Superintendent Grigge announced that the Deseret Sunday School Union desired to have the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Sunday school in Deseret celebrated in Salt Lake City. A general celebration would be held in this city on October 8, 1899. Each Stake superintendent of Sunday schools was instructed to appoint a committee to attend to necessary arrangements regarding the celebration in behalf of his Stake, and the following were named as the committee for the Salt Lake Stake: Joseph E. Taylor, W. N. S. Shepard and H. B. Clawson Jr. It was desirable that the history of each Sunday school in the Stake be prepared, and as one of the features of the semi-centennial celebration. Blanks for this purpose had been sent to the superintendents, and the latter were urged to be particular in filling them out as soon as they reached them, and to forward them promptly—one copy to the secretary of the Deseret Sunday School Union, and one copy to the Stake secretary; one copy should also be retained by the school and kept on file.

MILL CREEK GETS SACRAMENTAL SERVICE.

Superintendent Grigge further announced that the one year's use of the Sacramental service offered to the Sunday schools by the Parry Wine Bitters, which had the largest percentage of observers of the Word of Wisdom and the law of Tithing, was awarded to the Sunday school of Mill Creek. That school reported that 37 9-10 per cent of its members were observers of the Word of Wisdom. All the officers and teachers were observers of the Word of Wisdom and the law of tithing. Elder Grigge considered that the competition had a beneficial influence upon the Sunday schools, as the expenses of one of the superintendents in that office. He mentioned the fact that the Sunday School Union had workers who disregarded the Word of Wisdom and thereby impaired their influence for good. Elder Grigge did not think it was the best thing for such persons to retain their positions in the Sunday schools. The better plan would be for them to reform and overcome their appetites.

It was announced that Elder Adelbert Parratt, who had charge of the Second Intermediate department exercises of those monthly meetings had been called upon a mission, and that Elder Joseph Cornwall would hereafter conduct the exercises of that department.

DEPARTMENT WORK.

The meeting then separated into the usual four departments for the consideration of the subjects assigned to each grade.

In the primary department Elder W. N. S. Shepherd gave some general instructions regarding the conduct of a class of that grade.

The first intermediate department discussed the study of the life and work of the Prophet Joseph Smith, as prepared by the directors of that department.

The principal of the second intermediate department gave an address on Patriarch Hyrum Smith.

The theological class exercises were of an interesting character, conducted by Elder Joseph Cornwall, who decided to take up a regular course of study in this class from Dr. Talmage's book on the Articles of Faith. The members of the class may procure the books from Miss Lucy Grant, the class secretary, who has been in charge of the Sunday School Union Board office, Templeton building.

Assistant Superintendent B. Young of the General Sunday School Union Board, expressed his pleasure at what he had witnessed in the different Sunday schools. Assistant Superintendent D. R. J. Dixon had recently issued a new edition of the Sunday school song book, and also of the Sunday school hymn book—a compilation in the press—book containing the words only of the songs. The Thirteenth ward choir was requested to furnish the singing for the next meeting. Benediction was pronounced by Assistant Superintendent Willard C. Burton.
