DESERET EVENING NEWS.

FRAGMENTS.

JUDGE BARCLAY is still away in Idaho, combining business with pleasure.

THE Twenty-first quorum of Elders will meet in the Nineteenth ward meeting house tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

TERRITORIAL SECRETARY RICHARDS is expected back tomorrow morning from the neighborhood of which he has been sojourning for the last week or so.

HAVING secured last evening from Ogden, where he had been holding court for Judge Miner, who is absent in the east, Chief Justice Zane busied himself in chambers today with supreme court business.

J. W. HUMPHREY in resigning his position as general real agent of the Union Pacific does not leave the company's employ, as he has accepted another situation the duties of which he will assume about August 5th. He leaves for Omaha tonight.

TODAY the Union Pacific is taking in the north about 300 head of cattle, which John W. Taylor is moving from southern Utah to his extensive ranch in Alberta, Canada. The cattle will leave the railway at Boise, and from there be driven over the border.

ATTORNEY GENERAL H. SPENCER has been so far indisposed for the last two weeks as to be obliged to remain indoors. He is better now, however, and was seen upon the streets again today. An unusually severe bilious attack was at the foundation of his trouble.

COLONEL LEVI arrived home last evening from his brief visit to Soda Springs. He and Judge Williams are the only members of the Utah commission at present in the city. The cabinet is somewhat undisposed, and that was the reason of his trip to the springs.

THE members of the ward Sunday school will have an outing in Garfield on Wednesday next. An excellent program is being arranged and those in charge anticipate making the occasion one of the most essential of the kind this season. Residents of the ward are expected to be present.

LAST night's rainstorm was of short duration but the downpour was terrific while it lasted. The wind blew a gale and left traces of its destructive power in all parts of the city. Frequent and brilliant flashes of lightning were followed by heavy peals of thunder. The storm was one of the most interesting of the season.

COUNCILMAN LAWSON says the municipal finance committee is one of the most incompetent bodies of which he has any knowledge. In the point of weakness and general disqualification he thinks the joint city and county building committee ranks next. He states that they should both be abolished and reconstructed from alder and better men.

THE STORM LAST NIGHT.

It Was Fierce the Short Time It Continued.

The Hail Plays Havoc in Gardens, Orchards and Fields.—Crops Cut are Drenched.

The storm which broke over this city and vicinity shortly after 10 o'clock last evening, though of brief duration, was remarkable for about its intensity. At sunset the sky was almost free from clouds, there being only a few hazy patches here and there along the horizon. The air was oppressive, however, and at darkness came on flashes of lightning were occasionally seen from the west. Dark, heavy clouds began to gather in the direction of the lake, and were swept rapidly towards the city by the wind which had suddenly sprung up. By 9:30 p. m. the electrical display was intense in the extreme, and the rolling peals of thunder sounded unmistakable warnings to those who were out under shelter.

A few minutes after 10 o'clock the sky was overcast with very black clouds and the storm broke in its fury. Large hailstones poured down with a force that tore off leaves and twigs from the trees and played havoc in gardens and fields. The hailstorm was most severe in the southwestern part of the city. It was followed by a tremendous downpour of rain, more fierce and copious than even that of last Sunday. Streams of water filled the ditches and flooded the streets, dooryards were inundated, and in some cases cellars were partly filled with mud and water. Garden vegetables, fruit and grain were damaged considerably.

In the mountains east of the city parties out camping were in a rather unfortunate position. Some in the near vicinity report that everything they had was drenched with water, tents seemingly furnishing but little protection, as the storm came up so suddenly as to give no time for careful preparation. Little rivulets that gaily leapt from rock to rock down the hillsides were quickly increased to raging mountain torrents, but subsided almost as quickly when the storm ceased. The vivid flashes of lightning seemed to be almost continuous, and the heavy detonations of the thunder were terrifying, especially to those inclined to nervousness.

Some people came down from the canyons today satisfied that they had had enough of a mountain storm for the present, but other than a thorough drenching and considerable nervousness, nothing of a serious nature is reported. Several camping parties from this city went to East Canyon and other parts some distance away, but whether they felt the fury of the storm or were passed by could not be ascertained today.

IN THE BRITISH MISSION.

Arrivals, Releases and Appointments of Elders.—Mission Notes.

The Millennial Star of July 17th contains the following:

ARRIVALS.

The following Elders arrived in Liverpool on Monday evening, July 10, 1893, per the Guion steamer Alaska, W. H. Streeper Jr., Nathan T. Porter Jr., Centerville; R. Beaston, Taylorville; Willard Call, John L. Pickett, Arthur Riley, Bountiful, and E. M. Pugmire, St. Charles, Idaho, for the British mission. F. M. Winters, Montpelier, Idaho; Hannes Magley, Manti, for the Scandinavian mission. Accompanying these brethren were Alexander Wade, of Salt Lake City, who is over on genealogical business; also A. W. Cannon and wife, and Miss Josephine Jensen, of Salt Lake City, who are on a visit to friends and relatives. All enjoyed a pleasant passage and arrived in good health.

RELEASE AND APPOINTMENTS.

Elder R. G. Savage is honorably released from the presidency of the Birmingham conference, to return home.

Elder W. H. Streeper Jr. is appointed to labor as traveling Elder in the Sheffield conference.

Elders E. Beaston and John L. Pickett are appointed to labor as traveling Elders in the Cheltenham conference.

Elders Willard Call and Arthur Riley are appointed as travelling Elders in the Norwich conference.

Elder N. T. Porter Jr. is appointed to labor as traveling Elder in the Scottish conference.

Elder E. M. Pugmire is appointed to labor as traveling Elder in the Irish conference.

MISSION NOTES.

Elder Samuel Wayment, who is laboring in the London conference, writes of his success in preaching the Gospel in the district in which he is traveling. He has been visiting among his relatives and friends, who have extended to him a cordial welcome. One of them proffered the use of his barn to hold meetings in. This kind offer Elder Wayment and his companion accepted and gave out notices that meetings would be held at that place. These meetings have been very successful, the people from the surrounding country flocking there in such numbers that the building would not accommodate all those who assembled. Nearly every night is occupied in preaching in some portion of the district and hundreds of interested listeners attend on every occasion.

A district conference was held at 39 Pembury Street, Hillingbourne, in the Kent district of the London conference, on July 9, 1893. Besides the Saints in that district there were a number of visitors present at the meetings, who seemed to be interested in the remarks that were made. After the evening session an out-door meeting was held, where upwards of two hundred people listened to an exposition of the Gospel by Elders G. H. Hall and E. M. Cole. There is a flourishing branch of the Church at Hillingbourne and the Saints are enjoying the spirit of the Gospel.

From Elder Andrew Morrison, president of the Sheffield conference, we learn that the Elders in that district of the country have met with some opposition at their indoor meetings. One night recently their meeting was broken up by a crowd of prejudiced people. The benches were pushed from the stand and their hats knocked off, and, had they dared the disturbers undoubtedly would have met more violence. However, the Elders are prosecuting their labors with energy and are rewarded occasionally by the gathering of an honest soul into the fold of Christ. On July 2, a district meeting was held at 174 Gospel Hall, Bentinck Street, Doncaster, which was well attended by the Saints. The Elders present discoursed upon the principles of the Gospel, portraying in plainness the necessity of obedience to the plan of salvation taught by the Savior and His Apostles.

The Welsh Conference convened at 19 Cathays Terrace, Cathays, Cardiff, on Sunday, July 2, 1893. There were present: Elder Anthon H. Lund, President of the European mission, and Elder E. A. Trimford, of the Liverpool office; Levi John, President of, and Thos. D. Roberts, M. A. Lewis, John P. Howells, Ira T. Williams, David John, Henry Lewis, David Williams, Heber Timothy and George Thomas, traveling Elders in the Welsh conference, and others of the local Priesthood.

Meetings were held at 11 a.m., and 2 and 6:30 p.m., Elder Levi John presiding. At the afternoon session the general authorities of the Church and the traveling Elders in the conference were presented to the people and unanimously sustained. At the evening meeting the statistical report of the conference was read. The conference was well attended, especially the afternoon and evening sessions. There were a number of strangers present at each meeting. During the conference most of the brethren had the opportunity of addressing the people upon the principles of the Gospel. A good spirit prevailed and close attention was paid to the remarks made by the brethren.

Tooele Stake Conference.

GRANTSVILLE, Tooele, July 24, 1893.—The quarterly conference of the Tooele Stake, convened at the Pavilion, Grantsville, on Saturday and Sunday, July 22nd and 23rd, 1893.

The first meeting was held at 2 p.m. on Saturday, when there were present on the stand Elder F. M. Lyman, of the Twelve Apostles, Elders H. S. Gowans, and G. F. Richards of the Stake Presidency, and the Bishops of the wards. After the opening exercises Bishops J. L. Walbadi, T. Atkin, J. C. Sharp, J. G. Shields, T. De St. Jeor and D. H. Caldwell reported their wards, showing that the majority of the people were living their religion while some were careless and indifferent. Elder Lyman occupied the remainder of the afternoon. He felt pleased with the reports given by the Bishops, and counseled the Saints to be patient with each other during the hard times we are now passing through.

A Priesthood meeting was held on Saturday evening, S. W. Woolley, G. F. Richards and T. Beaston were ordained to be assistant as Patriarchs in the Tooele Stake.

On Sunday morning, after singing and prayer, Bishop W. F. Moss reported the L. T. Wards in good condition. Elder H. S. Gowans, president of the Stake, and he could endorse the reports of the Bishops. The Presidency of the Stake had visited each ward since the last conference, and were satisfied with the reports given. He desired the Tooele Stake to be equal with other Stakes in carrying out the counsels of the Lord. The general Church authorities and Stake officers were then presented and unanimously sustained. Elders R. S. Wells, William Spry and F. M. Lyman occupied the remainder of the forenoon. Their remarks were full of good instruction.

On Sunday afternoon, after singing and prayer, the Sacrament was administered. The first speaker was Elder R. S. Wells, who referred to fidelity and the different forms of religion extant. He also spoke upon the restoration of the Gospel in this age. Elder Lyman occupied the remainder of the time. Respite of the blessing of children, showing that the discipline of the Church required them to be taken before the Elders of the Church to be blessed. He also gave instruction regarding other matters. At the close of his remarks, the conference adjourned for three months.

SOFFERING FROM

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. A. C. Smith & Co., druggists. 1w
