

SOCIETY

The past week has been the busiest of the season in a social way, every day having its many pleasant affairs. The ball given by the N. G. U. on Wednesday night was the most notable of the week, and besides this have been a number of other affairs, chiefly home ones, which have helped to brighten the season's record.

The week opened with a brilliant affair at the home of Mrs. Sal Siegel, on Monday afternoon in the nature of a tea, a large number being present. The rooms were beautifully decorated, yellow being the prevailing color, chrysanthemums mingling their golden light with white cyclamen, while sprays of ferns artistically arranged and yellow-shaded candelabra added in the pretty effect. Delightful music was played by an orchestra during the hours. The hostess received alone, but assisting her in serving refreshments were Mrs. Windsor V. Rice, Mrs. F. S. Bascom, Miss Fannie Hanauer, Miss Alice Goodwin, Miss Eloise Sadler, Mrs. T. B. Deady, Mrs. Simon Bamberger, Mrs. Adolph Baer, Mrs. Henry Siegel.

Mrs. Thomas Weir was hostess at a tea on Thursday, the house being from three to six and about 200 guests calling during that time. The rooms were beautifully decorated, the parlor being in pink roses and ferns, the library in white carnations and chrysanthemums, and the diningroom in American Beauty roses and ferns, with candelsticks shaded in red. An orchestra stationed in the hall rendered delightful music during the afternoon. Mrs. Weir was assisted by Mrs. John Weir, Mrs. Windsor V. Rice, Mrs. H. G. McMillan, Mrs. John Delano, Mrs. Ernest Bamberger, Mrs. H. J. Dinahy.

Gen. and Mrs. Thompson of the post entertained at dinner at the Altus club on Thursday evening, the table being laid in the red room, and the decorations done in yellow, chrysanthemums being the flowers, and small silver flags the place cards. The invited guests were Col. and Mrs. Benjamin Lockwood, Maj. and Mrs. Pendleton, Maj. and Mrs. George Downey, Capt. and Mrs. John E. Woodward.

Mrs. J. E. Woodward was hostess at a party affair on Thursday at the post, in the way of a bridge tea, the rooms being charmingly decorated in pink chrysanthemums and smilax, and prizes in the card-contest being awarded Mrs. B. C. Lockwood and Mrs. S. D. Sturgis. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. G. H. Jamerson, Mrs. Sturgis and Miss Judge.

Miss Jenna-Bud Geddes will entertain at a delightful Kensington this afternoon.

Miss Alice Goodwin was hostess yesterday at a party affair on Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Winnie Rhodes of San Francisco.

One of yesterday's pleasant affairs was the tea given by Mrs. L. S. Lind, say, a large number of friends being present to enjoy it.

Miss Winnie Rhodes was guest of honor at a Kensington on Wednesday, her hostess being Miss Loren Leary. The rooms were decorated with red carnations and a half-dozen friends enjoyed the informal event.

On Thursday Mrs. T. B. Shannon entertained at a Kensington in honor of Mrs. Emma Clinton of California. The rooms were prettily decorated, yellow chrysanthemums being used with artistic effect. Music was one of the features of the pleasant affair.

One of the many bridge parties of the week was given by Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Volmer, about 25 guests being entertained at their home on Thursday night. The rooms were bright with chrysanthemums, yellow and white being the flowers. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Justus Jung, Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Reed, Ferdinand J. Fabian, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hoppaugh, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. James, Jr. and Mrs. A. J. Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. John Cain, Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard M. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McConaughy, Mrs. O. H. Klatzer, Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Proutz and Madame Proutz.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller will give a musicale at the Congregational church on the night of Dec. 1.

A Thanksgiving ball will be given at Unity hall on Nov. 30 by the Unitarian.

Mrs. Russell L. Tracy gave a pretty double function yesterday, a luncheon being followed by a card contest, with bridge as the entertainment.

Mrs. John T. Hurst of Ogden was guest of honor at a luncheon at the Commercial club on Wednesday, her host being Mr. Roscoe Breeden. Covers were laid for six.

Miss Winnie Evans gave a pretty children's party yesterday at the Twelfth ward hall for the kindergarten pupils of that ward.

The Strollers' dance at the Ladies' Literary club last night was a distinct success, socially and financially, and was a very pretty affair altogether, the Japanese decorations being most artistic.

Mrs. George P. Holman entertained informally at bridge this afternoon.

Among the affairs of Wednesday was the luncheon given by Mrs. H. C. Lyree, at which about eight guests were entertained. The room was effectively decorated in carnations and ferns, and covers were laid for Mrs. J. H. Dinahy, Mrs. A. B. Tuttle, Mrs. Swanson, Mrs. E. L. Jones, Mrs. William Booth and Mrs. C. C. Wyle.

One of the prettiest events of the week was the wedding of Miss Opal Hicks and Harry Anderson, the marriage ceremony being performed on Wednesday night by Rev. J. B. Eddie, at the groom's home, and an informal reception following. The relatives and near friends, the rooms were beautifully decorated, and the affair a delightful one in all details.

A farewell reception was given by Mrs. R. F. Hayward on Wednesday, prior to her departure for Mexico, a large number of friends being present to bid the hostess goodbye. Mrs. Hayward expects to make her home in Mexico. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. D. Moore Lindsay, Mrs. O. E. Cary, Mrs. S. D. Sturgis, Mrs. Robert Harkness, Mrs. George V. Wallace, Miss Fannie Hanauer and Mrs. Seton Lindsay.

The Christensen informal affair will be held next Wednesday. Thanksgiving eve, at Unity hall, not Thanksgiving night. The usual holiday matinee will be given Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

The Seventeenth ward extends an invitation to members of all other wards to join them in character light on Friday evening, Dec. 1. Prizes of hand-painted china and season passes to Salt Lake and Ogden will be given for the best sustained character. Messrs. Alphonso, Thomas to be the judges. Christensen's orchestra will furnish the music. In the afternoon of the same day a party will be given for all children under 15 years of age.

Mrs. J. W. Lynch and Mrs. Fred Shide entertained at a delightful affair on Monday at the Altus club in honor of their mother, Mrs. E. Taylor, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

Miss O'Meara has issued cards for two card parties to be given Monday and Tuesday afternoons in honor of Mrs. W. P. Meara.

Mrs. Samuel Newhouse was hostess at a tea on Tuesday given in honor of Miss Lela Stingley and Miss Mary Moore, the decorations being in American Beauty roses, and about 25 guests being present.

Miss Ethel Olson was entertained at a pleasant afternoon affair on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Culbert Olson, one of the recent brides, the rooms being effectively decorated in red carnations and chrysanthemums, and a number of intimate friends assisting. The guests besides Mrs. Olson were Mrs. Job White, Mrs. M. B. White, Mrs. Julia Pratt, Mrs. W. H. Taylor, Mrs. George Walker, Mrs. Charles Cain, Mrs. Isaac Shuck, Mrs. Frederick Sinclair, Mrs. O. T. Brooks, Mrs. Carl Hardy, Mrs. Grace McGonigle, Miss Reta Epper, Miss Hattie Whittier, Miss Gertrude Moyle, Miss Nova Pratt, Miss Fannie Bird, Miss Margaret Ryan, Miss Ethel Rogers, Miss Lena Moore, Miss Catherine Moffatt, Miss Mamie Hard, Mrs. Jack Brown, Mrs. George McGonigle, Miss Virginia Houtz, Miss Veda Eccles, and Miss Nell Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hoppaugh entertain the members of the Card club at their home next Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Palmer announce the engagement of their daughter Elizabeth to Arthur D. Knowlton, the wedding to take place Dec. 7.

Mrs. Sarah M. Garrick and Mr. Lucas B. Howard were married on Monday night, their marriage being celebrated in a unique way. Their friends planned a surprise party for the evening, unknown to the bride, the event which their hostess had arranged as a counter surprise. The event was most pleasurable to all present.

On Wednesday night the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tomlinson, 275 Paxton avenue, was the scene of a jolly surprise party, given in honor of their daughter Lela, on her recent return from California. Those present included young people who had been associated with Miss Tomlinson during her stay there, among them Misses Anderson and members of the Tabernacle choir. The evening was spent recounting experiences in the land of sunshine and flowers, playing games and partaking of delicious refreshments, all having a most enjoyable time. Present to greet Miss Tomlinson were the Misses Phoebe Foster, Ann Rogers, Adella Anderson, Mabel Cooper, Louise Canyon, Berce Neslen, Mary Holliday, Alice Galloway, Myra Anderson, Mrs. M. Nye, Hattie Nye, Alice Neslen, Lela Tomlinson, Lillian and Fannie Pettit, Rose Toronto, Alice Foster, Alice Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. John Halverson and Messrs. Chas. W. Hill, Horace W. Clark, L. C. MISS SELMA ADELAIDE ALLEN

MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMAN I HAVE SEEN IN THE SOUTH.

When President Roosevelt was in Atlanta on his recent southern tour he shattered the traditional standard upon which the most beautiful women of the south have been gauged. The tall, slender, vivacious, pink-rose girl with big hazel eyes and an abundance of soft, brown hair, who was undisputed queen, has been dethroned. The petite blonde of the lilac-of-the-valley type with eyes of the finest blue and a crown of buff-gold hair has taken her place. At the reception given to Mr. Roosevelt in Atlanta, Miss Selma Adelaide Allen was one among hundreds of lady guests who in line awaited their opportunity to be presented to the president. After shaking hands with a large number he was interrupted by Secy. Loeb, who told him he was exceeding his time limit.

"Oh, very well," said the president, "but I can't go until I have been presented to that young lady over there, pointing to the graceful figure of Miss Allen. She was told of the president's wish and was led blushing and smiling to where he stood and was presented to him.

"I am honored," said Mr. Roosevelt, while holding her hand, as is his custom with those who particularly attract him, "to meet the most beautiful woman I have seen in the south."

It was a moment of supreme happiness, as well as embarrassment, to the young lady, who managed to say, quite modestly: "Oh, I thank you, Mr. President; but I'm afraid my southern hospitality has blinded you somewhat to our defects."

Miss Allen is a remarkably lovely young woman. Her blue eyes, under dark lashes, complexion of blended rose and gardenia, well poised head, crowned in vivid gold, presents what Dr. Vela would term "a glorious color scheme."
