NEW DISCOVERY IN UTAH MINE

Supt. Sutton Reports Finding of High Grade Ore on the North Side of Porphyry Dyke.

An important discovery, which may mean increased dividends and a much longer life for the Utah mine at Fish Springs, has been reported to the office by Supt. Sutton. It consists of the finding of high grade silver-lead ore on the north of the big porphyry dyke which crosses the Utah Mine company's possessions. Some exploratory work has been done at different times on the north of the dyke, but until the recent discovery, all the efforts to locate any ore have been unsuccessful. The above discovery is therefore very interesting, and may mark a new era in the Utah.

Supt. Sutton reports that the ore body found is not large at present, but the ore is high grade, and a quantity has been sacked ready for shipment.

As a producer of high grade silver-lead ore the Utah is well known. It is also known because of the fact that it has paid its way from the grass roots. By economical management it has been made to pay over $200,000 in dividends in spite of the disadvantage of a long haul to the railroad. This year the company has disbursed no dividends since February, but that has been due to the purchase of other territory and machinery. At the first of the year, or soon after, the old producer is expected to come into line with dividends again.

UTAH METALS ACTIVITY.

On First of Month Company Expects To Have Thirty Men at Work.

That things are going to hum around the 2,000-foot tunnel of the Utah Metals Mining company at Bingham is evidenced by the fact that three cars of machinery and equipment have already arrived from the east, and two more cars are expected during the next week. By the first of the month the company will have about 30 men on the payroll, and this number will be increased as the work progresses until before many months elapse the company expects to have 60 or 70 men in its employ. The work now engrossing the attention of the company is the erection of a power plant, which is said to be nearing completion. As soon as this is done the start will be made in earnest to drive the big tunnel to the extremity of the company's ground, a distance of some 8,000 feet farther.

It is also stated that several of the directors of the company are contemplating an early visit to Salt Lake, with the object of looking into other Bingham propositions as well as to inspect the Utah Metals property.

VISIT OF HEINZE TO WESTERN UTAH

In Company With Duncan McVichie He Notes the Five Copper Showing on the Upper Levels.

Accompanied by F. Augustus Heinze, Manager Duncan McVichie of the Western Utah Copper company, has returned to the city with excellent reports of the condition of that company's promising property in Deep Creek. Mr. Heinze also expressed himself as being much pleased with the mine, especially the magnificent ore body on the 300 and 350 levels, which there attains a width of 36 feet. The copper value of the ore for all this width is said to run a little better than 5 per cent. Some of the ore will, of course, run much higher, and there is a quantity of the ore which is of shipping grade.

In addition to the large copper vein the company has on its domain a large body of lead ore. The vein is also very wide where it has been explored, and while a great deal of it is of milling grade there is said to be also a large quantity of high grade ore developed.

The company has sunk a shaft to the depth of 600 feet, and at the present time crosscuts are being run to intercept the vein found on the upper levels. With the fact demonstrated that the ore goes down to that level the importance of the mine will be increased several fold. The mine was formerly the old Woodman property.

Mr. McVichie left at noon today for Montana on mining business.

CONCENTRATES.

John T. Hodgson has returned from Ely and other Nevada points.

W. M. Wantland, manager of the Emma Copper company, is confined to his home with an attack of typhoid fever.

C. M. Roberts, who has returned from the Iron Mask property in the Tecoma mining district reports an important discovery of carbonate ore in the Iron Mask property.

MARKET HIGHER, CLOSING STRONG

New York, Nov. 26.—Prices of stocks advanced in London yesterday during the holiday here and again this morning before the New York stock market opened. Opening prices in New York in consequence reported wide advances over the Wednesday closing. Nearly all of the active speculative leaders were up from a large fraction to a point. Utah Copper gained 2½. Reading, Canadian Pacific and Amalgamated Copper 1½ and American Smelting 1⅝.

The opening rise showed attractive profits to the professionals and they promptly realized, forcing prices back sharply. Utah Copper reacted 2 and Amalgamated Copper and New York Central 1. A feature of the trading was the strength shown by the Rock Island stocks and bonds. Rock Island advanced 1⅝, the preferred 1½, the 4 per cent collateral bonds 1 and the 5s ¾. Near 11 o'clock prices began to rise briskly again and the list returned to its high level. Northern Pacific gained a point.

A reaction of 1 in Reading served as a check on the rising tendency. Strength persisted at some points. Kansas & Texas and United States Steel rose 1, Interborough-Metropolitan 1½ and the preferred 1¾. American Cotton Oil fell 1½.

Bonds were firm.

There was some show of animation and strength when the metal, Pacific and southwestern groups began to advance. The activity in these stocks, however, was shortlived, the market returning to its usual midday dulness. Amalgamated Copper moved up 2⅝, St. Louis-Southwestern preferred 1¾, United States Steel 1, Union Pacific and Missouri Pacific 1½, Allis-Chalmers preferred and Colorado Fuel 1¼ and Great Northern preferred, United States Steel preferred and American Beet Sugar 1. A sudden drop of 2 points in American Malting and 4 in the preferred attracted some notice.

Only a few stocks fluctuated widely enough to gain notice, the rest of the list being almost lifeless. St. Paul improved 1½, Chesapeake & Ohio 1⅝ and Pittsburg Coal 1¼. Lackawanna declined 10 points and Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. L. 1.

The market closed strong. A further advance carried Pacific Mail up ¾, Brooklyn Transit 2¼, Union Pacific 2, Missouri Pacific 2, New York Central 1⅝.

Atlantic Coast Line, American Locomotive, Mercantile Mar. Pfd., Republic Steel Pfd. and Intl. Harvester 1. There was some realized at other points but cessions were slight. Central of New Jersey fell 2⅝.

PRODUCE.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—The wheat market was strong at the start, with prices showing gains of ¼ to ⅝@¾ compared with the previous close, but quickly reacted owing to liberal profit-taking in December. The bulge at the opening was due to covering based on an advance of ⅝ to 1d. at Liverpool, resulting from unfavorable reports from Argentina. December opened at 1.09 to 1.09¼ and on the break sold off to 1.08¼. The distant deliveries were relatively steadier, May declining to 1.06⅝ after opening at 1.06⅞ to 1.07⅛.

Despite predictions of wet weather for a large portion of the corn belt, the corn market developed moderate weakness owing to liquidation of December holdings. The market was firm at the opening, a shade to ¼ higher. December opened at 60⅛ to 60¼ and declined to 59⅝.

Oats were firm because of buying by a prominent cash interest. Demand was chiefly for the May option. Opening quotations were ⅛@⅛ to ⅜@½ higher, December being at 39¼. After touching 39⅝@½, the December delivery sold off to 29⅝@¾.

Provisions manifested decided strength early owing to general demand by commission houses brought out by a liberal shortage in weekly hog packing and by the smallness of today's receipts of live hogs. Total receipts of live hogs at the principal western centers were estimated at 49,200 head, compared with 105,200 head the same day last year. Prices at the opening were 5 to 27½ higher and further gains were made early in the session, particularly in pork.

The selling of December by numerous holders brought out numerous stop loss orders resulting in considerable demoralization, the price dropping to 1.06⅝ before midday. May sold off to 1.06⅝. The market rallied a trifle late in the session on buying by shorts but the close was heavy with December off 1⅛@¼ at 1.07⅝. May was down ⅛@¾ at 1.06⅝.
