WOMAN'S HEAVY SENTENCE.

Mrs. Martell Gets Fifty Days in the City Jail.

There was plenty of room on the prisoners' bench at the police court yesterday afternoon, five months' imprisonment, the afternoon of the confession, being Judge Timoney.

Mrs. Martell, a lady of fifteen age and Irish birth, appeared before the court of drunkenness and disturbing the peace. As she thoughtfully expressed herself, she was "full of whisky." Consideration, $10 or twenty days in jail, including the more thirty days' imprisonment, in default of a fine of the charge.

The rest of the offenders trembled at the bar, and wondered if the judge would wear a lady or what would be their portion.

J. Greenberg said he informed some one he had been in Salt Lake twenty years and this was the first time he had been drunk.

Well, I can't let you come to stay another thirty-five, you can go."

Thomas Baker, indignantly denied the assertion that he was "three sheets in the wind yesterday." Well, "I feel sick, and have been for three days."

Officer Roberts then said that "the whisky that he was drunk fairly "intoxicated" him.

"I never was drunk before."

"Well, you had a lively jag yesterday, I was just sure you were brought in," said the court.

Well, I took a couple."

Baker said he was glad that he was a colored man en route to Reno from Denver.

Well, you had better go to Reno, but I am afraid the attitude is too low for you complained."

Richard Crimmer, with an extensive "jag" was the "drunk" of the day. He was arrested and the lingering sunshine of a yesterday's debauch, shed at 4:30 o'clock.

"Drunk?"

"Yes, sir. I just for a bet at a dollar last night, but since I awoke this morning I was hot there" then with a vicious lick, he hit every domino in sight. He didn't mean to. I said for Reference, his petition was granted.

"Pass Lagan, drunk."

"Yes, sir."

"How long since your last appearance?"

"Three months."

"Don't come back for another three."

BURGLAR HELD.

John Peterson Pled Guilty and is Bound Over in $500 Bonds.

John Peterson, the mendicant and vagrant who pleaded guilty to petit larceny Monday, was arraigned on a new complaint yesterday afternoon, the charge of petit larceny being dismissed and one of burglary substituted in its stead.

The defendant was charged with entering the barn of Mr. S. J. Shields in the rear of 50 east, Sixth South, on July 19, and stealing a blanket, wrench, driver, and tools from a box in the building.

Mr. Shields testified that he lost the property in question and that the prisoner admitted to him, just before the trial, that he had stolen the same, and had sold the articles to a Chinaman and Russian. The State asked sentence.

Officer Hemple said that Peterson told him that he had taken the tools as mentioned.

Peterson admitted everything, and said, "I came from Denver. Nobody will employ a Kid. Through that I signed bad. I did the job, I'm not the first. I'm sorry I did it, I wish I hadn't done it. Let me get off, I'll leave it."

If I go to prison, the State will have to keep me.

Judge Timoney told him that as a consideration he had no prison on to do, and fixed his bail at $500, in default of which he was to be handed over to the custody of the sheriff pending his appearance before the District court.

When Peterson was removed Assistance he found hard by some people to raise his suffering, and at last Detective Hanks went across the street and bought him half a dollar's worth. It was the most profitable to bring to the poor fellow's thanks when he returned. Peterson is a man of 35 and some fifty years. He claims to have spent his career in some of the hotels, which has led him for eight years in the towns of south-western Ohio and in Cleveland, Ohio.

UTAH LADIES IN LONDON.

Mrs. Susa Young Gates Tells of the Women's Council.

The Deseret News has noted the return of Mrs. E. H. Wells of this city and Mrs. Susa Young Gates of Provo, from London, where their and other Utah ladies have been attending the International Council of Women. The Gates family of last evening has an interview with Mrs. Gates, in which she makes the following pleasant mention of the party from this State.

"There were six official representatives from Utah, and a number of other ladies who were connected and interested in the council and its meetings.

"Mrs. E. H. Wells headed the party as a member of the General Board of the United States. Mrs. S. Young Gates was the second speaker, as was Mrs. R. A. Cates. Mrs. Elizabeth Cowdell McCune is a patron of both Utah and Idaho. Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells, Mrs. Lucy R. Young is a patron of the National council and Miss Clara Bell Wells, who is a most intelligent and charming young girl, becomes a patron of the National council of the Utah Wells. Mrs. Wells is honored and admired everywhere for her worth and womanly character, and she is always and matters a name as is represented by the council.

"Other Utah ladies were Miss Josephine Smith of our own town, so bright and beautiful as her girl of high ancestry, and Mrs. Mary E. N. Thomas and her brilliant daughter, Kate; Mrs. Amanda Knight and her quite young and accomplished daughter, Inez; Mrs. Priscilla Jennings and three daughters; Mrs. Lydia D. Alder and Miss Lulu Gates, who is studying music in Germany and who came up to London to meet her mother. Prayer Day was one of the delightful Utah ladies present, and they were all so loyally proud of Provo as Provo could be proud of them."

BROOKLYN SENDS MEEKIN IN AIR.

Beaneaters Easily Beaten on Their Own Ground at Boston.

ORIOLES DEFEAT SENATORS

Phillies Pound the Giants All Over the Field at New York—Score on Players.

In the East yesterday Brooklyn cement Meekin to indulge in a tailoring ceremony in two innings and Boston were down to defeat. St. Louis also played in its adequate form. Cleveland keeping the lead of the Orioles with Washington and winning out easily. At Cincinnati the Reds won the first game from the Pirates and but for error would have captured the second. The Cleveland started out all right at Chicago but fell down completely after on. The Phillies wrecked New York and found the Giants to be very meek. At Baltimore the Orioles had an easy thing against the Senators in the first game, the second contest was a pitchers' battle and honors were all in favor pitched on the Baltimore boxes.

* * *

Catcher Robgen set out of a row with the Boston papers by claiming that Tim Murnane "incorrectly scored him." That's an old dodge, resorted to by all sides of men when reflection brings regret for things said and done. Murnane will stand, for any Marlowe stand for being made out a prevaricator and says "Rot."

According to the Brooklyn papers the Brooklyn club has purchased the entire western league pitcher, Waddell, from the Louisville club, which has for years to him. The Louisville club, however, refuses to give him up until the end of the western league season when it makes a money consideration and pitcher to boot.

* * *

Tucker Dwyer has resigned from the Cincinnati club to accept a position as the league umpire staff. Dwyer is one of the best gentlemanly officers connected with the national game, and at different times has acted as umpire in that champion Kilfoyle is being successfully chosen in that one. Stevens is his Kansas Billy Smith, honored.

* * *

Little Turner Leach has been playing such a sensational game of ball, she's turn loose that Wagner has been placed on the outfield. Both Boston and Brooklyn have made inquiries for Leach, the latter club offering Hoy and Casey. St. Louis has also made an offer for Mike Kelly, and Kelly has been after Dexter. Nothing is remark, all offers were promptly turned. Cities Western Association is feeling, and selling players not being content to linger around the lots for the sake of a little temporary cash gain.

SHEEP IN CENTRAL WYOMING

600,000 of the Wool and Mutton Producers There—Mr. Barnes's Outlook.

It is stated by the Denver News that that paper has obtained the following interesting from H. W. Dallas, of Rawlins, president of the Wool Growers' association in the central part of that State:

"The present number of sheep between Green Junction on the east and Thermopolis in the Big Horn Basin, the sheep industry in the southern portions of the counties of Carbon, National, Fremont and Sublette, are now conservatively estimated at 600,000, while the wool clip will reach an aggregate of 3,000,000 pounds, and the mutton consumption, being local, that we are consuming home wool, that is, of course, if the mutton market is a good one.

"The average price realized for wool this year can be placed at 12 cents per pound, and the price of $2.25 per head has been received for mutton sheep, the mutton weighing from 90 to 100 pounds.

"Of the sheep now within bounds, Rawlins is the shipping point for the bulk of the mutton, as it is from the main point, some of the sheep's ship to Omaha, Denver, Kansas City, and Chicago, and the wool is shipped to Boston, Philadelphia, and Chicago.

"Several years ago the sheep traffic was carried on by the railroad to Omaha, but that plan for Wyoming was not profitable, because it meant to have now Omaha, Denver, Kansas City and Chicago, and the wool is shipped to Boston, Philadelphia, and Chicago.

"Of the sheep now within bounds, Rawlins is the shipping point for the bulk of the mutton, as it is from the main point, some of the sheep's ship to Omaha, Denver, Kansas City,
